Dear Bill,

I have gone through the Nunneley | White material and am unable to locate the name of the parents of Mildred White who married Lawson Harrison Nunnelly of Davidson and Hickman counties in Tennessee. There were many Whites in Hickman County, some quite early. I think if you sent me a family group sheet or ancestor chart of your White names, it might make it a little easier.

I am enclosing the name of a descendant of Lawson and Mildred White Nunnelly (Lawson and family spelled his name in this manner):

MRS. JOE T. COOKE
6325 CHICKERING WOODS DRIVE
NASHVILLE, TN 37215

Martha Cooke lived at the above address as of March, 1987. I have not corresponded with her for some time, but know she lived there in 1987. You should send her the charts, also, which may help her identify your White line.

Good luck in your search.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

I, too, have just read the 1810 Census for Anderson Nunnelly in Rutherford Co, There were Anderson families in Nottoway & Amelia Cos., VA & I guess they were named for that family. I have found numerous Anderson Nunnellys - all born later than ours. I wonder if NC records would show something, Lawson Harrison s/o Anderson & Martha was b. in N.C. - where I don't know, But some of the Baldwins were in NC. Maybe I can do more on this later. Did Mrs. Payne ever find out anything on Joseph Nunnelly? I received several answers to a query I placed somewhere on the Nunnellys recently & the referred me to the man who did the Nunnelly reseach that does not include our line.

Saturday my husband, son & I drove to Dickson for a flea mkt. (for our little antique business) & decided to go back to Highway 100 & go to Centerville, When we reached 100 highway there was this young man selling home made bread, pies, etc. from an Amish carriage (black-etc.). He was from Nunnelly, TN & his wife did the baking- He was a native of Indiana, but thought this really a coincidence.

Never made it to Centerville - turned & went to Grays Bend instead to look for the grave of Edward Nunnellee. We inquired at a beautiful old home & the lady gave us directions. She was Mary Etta Jones Murphree & had grown up in Centerville. The home had belonged to one of the Grays. From Spence's History we know that Anderson & Martha lived there - would love to know where. Persimmon Creek is a small branch which wiggles through the bend. Went to the cemetery & found the marker - a government marker. This is not an old cemetery & there are bound to be more containing older citizens of this area. When the snakes go in I would love to go back. This cemetery was well kept.

How is your father? Mother is extremely weak, but she enjoyed hearing about our jaunt to Gray's Bend. Either my sister or I go once a day & feed her one meal. That way we know she gets one good meal. It is so sad to watch her go down.

I wish I could have stayed in VA longer last year to see if I could locate anything abt. Anderson's parents & also, to see if I could find where they lived, graves of Baldwins - etc. I must be part gypsy, as - I am always ready to go.

We have had a nice summer - & bought a small boat which we have really enjoyed. Joe took off 2 days last week & we spent them on the lake - 50 min. from our house.

It is always so good to hear from you.

Fondly,

Martha

Dear Mary,

Thank you for the new info in Rutherford Co., TN on Anderson Nunnelly. I will ck. Rutherford Co., Deeds for this the next time I go to the Archives. This is very interesting.

I also received Eliz. Donnelly's material, but I don't understand the part about Anderson receiving Bounty Land.

I believe she is correct in thinking Anderson's father is Joseph. Wonder who Joseph's wife was ?!

We are in the midst of trying to sell our house & build a new one. We have been here 17 years & have over an acre lot & it is getting to be such a chore to keep. So we are building on a smaller lot in an area called Chickering Woods. Twenty-six homes will be built on 1/2 acre lots, so it should be a nice area. It is located about 4 mi. from where we live now.

We had 2 graduations in June. Our dgt. graduated from College & our son from High School.

Will let you know if I find anything in Rutherford Co. records. They are very complete.

Fondly,

Martha

Dear Mary,

I was so sorry to hear that your mother had passed away. I knew about your sister, but did not even know that your mother was ill. My mom is 83 and is my greatest fan also, so I can certainly appreciate your loss. My mother thrives on each tid bit that I uncover.

We had a tragedy in our neighborhood on Saturday morning. Our next door neighbor of 14 years died suddenly of a heart attack on his patio. We enjoyed refinishing furniture and antiquing together and their family and ours had so many things in common. I have spent that last three days mostly at their house trying to help in anyway that I could. HE was only 58, but had open heart surgery 10 years ago. Some things are so hard to accept.

Now for the good news. My family agreed to go to Nottoway and Amelia Counties in VA for our vacation. We had a picnic at the Appomatox Battle Field and then went on to Nottoway. I had the most fantastic luck and the court clerk was so helpful and knowledgeable. I found the will for William and he names Martha as a dgt. and I also found the power of attorney which Martha gave her brother, George. During the Civil War the Yankees burned all of the marriage records, but only damaged some of the deed books and the will books were not harmed. After copying records in Nottoway, the clerk told us to go to Amelia. The land which the Baldwins lived on --West Creek was taken in 1788 from Amelia to make up a portion of Nottoway. That is why William's will was in Nottoway. Had fantastic luck again in Amelia. Let me back up --I am getting ahead of myself.

Children of William and Elizabeth ~~Hood(?) Mr. Bockstruck thinks she was a Hood~~. George, Martha, John, William, Elizabeth who m. 26 Feb. 1784 in Amelia Obediah Nunnally and Rebeccah who married 4 Sept. 1788 in Amelia Charles Burks Mr. Bockstruck thinks William was b. ca 1733 based on his appearance on the Amelia Co. tithable lists, His parents were John BALDWIN and Elizabeth Hood Mr. Bockstruck thinks she was a Hood. John fought in the French and Indian War under Maj. Wood Jones, Sept. 1758 He died in Amelia Co. in 1770 See Will.

His children were: George, William who m. Elizabeth; John who m. Lucy; Sarah who m.a FArley; Elizabeth who m. a Whitworth; Mary who m. a Smith; Marth who m. a Atkins; Edith, Prudence and Lucy and Damaris who m. James Cocke Mitchell 16 July 1784 in Amelia.

John was the son of William Baldwin who died testate in Amelia Co., Va in 1770. See will. William was the son of Thomas Baldwin -- see Deed. Did not check this land grant that Thomas mentioned. It may be in the VA Archives. William ran an ordinary --very interesting to read that is if you can. I have about unscrambled it. Beautiful script!!

When I returned I checked all of the Nunnelly material which you had sent and from what I can tell our Anderson was not the son of Mary Nunnelly -- additional court records prove that. But, I wonder how Mr. Shortal knows that Ephraim,s son Anderson is not ours. Look at that again and see what you think.

You were so great to thank Mary Gregg in Memphis for giving us this fantastic clue. It certainly opened alot of doors. Thank you for offering to pay for the copying, but you know I am so happy to be able to help you. We agreed along time ago that we would just exchange, but I do appreciate your offer.

My face is red, I have been through all of the Nunnelly material which you have shared with me and you sent me a copy of a letter which had been found in someone's trunk recently and it named my ~~Anderson~~ Lawson as a son of Martha or Anderson. It was not a typed copy but an actual copy of the old letter. Do you know which one I am talking about? If so please make a copy for me and I promise not to misplace it. I cannot imagine what happened to it.

I am no longer regent of my DAR chapter--that took so much time. Now the State Regent for TN asked me to be STATE Chm. of Motion Picture, Radio and TV. I was delighted to be asked and readily accepted. Tomorrow I go to a state board meeting for the DAC as I am organizing regent for that. We have all of the necessary papers in for this and we are just waiting for them to be approved.

Hope you enjoy reading all of the enclosed as much as I enjoyed finding it. My family was so very special to endure my research. After that trip in VA we went to NC and on home--nothing special--just nice to get away and not have to cook.

Have rambled long enough.

Fondly,

Martha

These Baldwin family names were

Dear Mary,

It has been some time since I have written, but many things have happened since last August. At that time I began to have severe spells of dizziness & nausea, etc. Was in the hospital twice & it was determined that I had Meneire's Disease. The spells gradually have decreased in frequency & intensity. None of the medicine they gave me helped - only made me much worse. I changed doctors & am feeling great for a change.

We sold our house & moved here the 19th of Dec. At that time I was having a rough time, but thankfully I am better. I am on a very low salt diet - seems water retention can cause the trouble to start over. They don't know what causes it & there is no cure - usually just fizzles out.

We love our new home - only 1/2 acre - rather than 1 1/2 we did have.

I have been to the Archives only 2 or 3 times in the last few months. Did ~~Louise~~ Eliza Dannelly ever find out about her DAR supplemental on her Nunnelly? Probably not as it takes abt. 2 yrs.

I would love to go back to Amelia & Nottoway Counties to see if something could be learned there. I keep hoping we can get a break as we did on our Baldwin Line. Wish we could establish Revolutionary service for one of our Baldwins.

Please remember me if you find out anything & I will pass along anything should I find it.

You have been great to share things. I have enjoyed reading the old things from the trunk, & other info.

Hope you are having a good year.

Let me hear from you.

Martha

P.S. Note my new address - We are only abt. 5 miles from our old house & I still go back to Brentwood to shop.

28 March 1987

Dear Martha,

I am so sorry to hear that you have been so sick and very glad your health seems to be improving. I hope it hurries and "fizzles out" for good.

As far as I know, Elizabeth Dannelly still has not heard on her DAR supplemental on Anderson Nunnelly and as you said, it usually takes a long while. I urged her to try for the supplemental, although I am not aware of her proofs. Hopefully, it may be accepted and bring forth additional information concerning Anderson.

I talked to Elizabeth a few months ago concerning her Edward Nunnelee and told her I feel almost certain that he did not live, nor was born in North Carolina. She said that information came from cousins and she did not really know where he was born. I think, after a great deal of research in Chesterfield Co., VA, that Edward is the son of Daniel and Lucy Nunnally of that county. I have taken Edwards deposition given for his RW service and followed my records of that county and think the following concerns him:

1777 – Lucy granted admr of est of Daniel, 3 Jan.
Inven of Daniel, Jr., value – L349.19.0, by George Cogbill, Charles Cogbill, & Archibald Walthall. 14 May 1778 – Deed: Edward, heir at law of Daniel, decd & Lucy (x), wid of sd Daniel to Joseph Dillon, of K Wm, for L180, 113 acres in Dale Par, adj William Womack Nunnally, Thomas Walthall decd & Noel Nunnally, all the land where Edward & Lucy now live; witn. Jesse Cogbill, Henry Archer, 3 June.

This appears to be the last legal entries for this family in Chesterfield County and I think they probably moved to Halifax Co, though I have not done that research as yet.

A friend, Lyn Collis, who lives here and has a Nunnally line (Thomas of Chesterfield, 1810) are in the process of reading all of the wills, marriages, deeds, tax records, order books, etc., for Nunnally and variants in all counties of Virginia. We are ordering these records on microfilm from the VA State Archives. Lyn has a computer and as we read, she enters the information in a timeline format. We have started with the formation of each county and enter by year, each legal activity we find for all Nunnallys. At this time, she is working on Chesterfield and I am doing Amelia Cos. It really helps to "put together" families and also shows movement of land from one county to another by legal description. It has suddenly shown us that there are definitely two Joseph Nunnery/Nunnally men who lived in Amelia, one who moved to Mecklenburg Co., and the other who was killed in the RW and was the father of Obediah and John., and probably Anderson. Their motherlis never called by name, but called the widow of Joseph, decd, a poor manwwho died in the Continental Army.

In going through these large numbers of records, I have not done the Baldwin family, because it is too hard to work on other lines. I do keep my eye out for the name, but have not been abstracting. I have not seen them listed as Quaker, which is sometimes mentioned in deeds, nor seen one give allegiance to the King, which many did prior to the RW, and probably after. I still would like to know where in Carolina William Baldwin's land was located thathbe mentioned in his will. Since Anderson and Martha had first children born in NC, I have wondered if they inhabited that land after their marriage, or if their children were actually born in that part of NC that became TN??

I worked so many years proving that Joseph Alexander Nunneley was the Alec, son of Anderson and Martha and now will prove (I sure hope) that Anderson was a son of Joseph and brother to Obediah and John / wish me luck...

Dear Mrs. Nunnelley,

Thank you so much for writing in response to my query. I am still only back to Anderson. You won't believe this — I, too, have a Lawson Harrison Nunnelly!! So — these two families must be connected. Anderson Nunnelly was the father of these children — (Martha Baldwin was his wife, but we have no proof - supposedly they were from Amelia Co. Court House, Va.)

1. John - went to Texas
2. William
* 3. Lawson Harrison - B. 1801, N.C.
   m. 1. Mildred White (my line)
      2. Elizabeth Sandels
4. Alec
5. Jackson m. Izaline Nunnelee
6. Lavicy
7. Sallie m. Wm. Foster
8. Mary Ann m. Robt. Griner
9. Betsy m. ? Hornbeek
10. Patsy

Several people are working on this line and hopefully, something will found.

As far as we know, we are not descended from Edward Nunnalee — the Rev. Sol. buried in Hickman Co, Izaline named before is his dgt.

I a DAR paper on Obadiah Nunnelly I check & there is not a child named Joseph.

My Anderson died in Hickman Co. before 1850. I have court records where is wife is handling his affairs.

I would appreciate your info. on Anderson. I have Spence's Hist. of Hickman Co. & any court records from Hickman Co., but anything else would be appreciated - (I also have ~~Goods~~ Goodspeed's Hist. of Hickman Co.). Do you have any idea where in N.C. my Lawson & your Joseph were born? It is my guess that they were first cousins.

Sincerely,

Martha C. Cooke

P.S. Thank you for your chart!

Some of the Nunnellys in our family went to Ark. - Jonesboro - (the ones who married into the Griner family), J. E. Griner teaches at a college in Jonesboro, Ark., but he knows nothing more on this line, Feb. 16, 1980

Dear Mary,

Sorry to be so long in responding to your requests. We have had much snow & ice & I couldn't get to the archives until Tues.

Hickman Co. marriages start about 1868 & that is pretty late. I wanted to find out who more of Anderson's children married. Am enclosing a page with his children. This is all the proof I have & that's not much. Goodspeed's Hist. of Hickman Co., Tn. does state that Sally Nunnelly, wife of Geo. Foster, was the dgt. of Anderson Nunnelly.

I wrote to Mr. Shortal in Va. & he thinks Anderson was one of the group who went to N.C. & changed their name to Nunnery & back to Nunnelly when they came to Tenn. This afternoon I was looking through my book on my Hall ancestors from Iredell Co., N.C. & out dropped a piece of paper with the following on it - (Don't faint) "Anderson Nunnelly: B. Halifax Co., N.C. 1765 - D. Hickman Co., Tn. 1848". I believe it is my aunt's handwriting, but she doesn't remember it. That goes along with the N.C. State Census of 1786. What do you think,

Your Joseph A. could be Alec. I will check Hickman Co. deeds soon & see if I find either name.

Please keep up the good work. You keep me on my toes & that I need.

Thank you for the S.A.S.E. but we'll call it even now.

I do appreciate all of your excellent research.

Fondly,
Martha

P.S. The names are very similar. I know they are related in some way,

P.S.S. After Lawson married Eliz. Sandels they became members of St. Marks Episc. Church in Maury Co., Tn. She had been a teacher at the Athenaeum (a school) in Columbia, Tn. She had taught the children of his first marriage. Her brother was an Episcopal Priest. I doubt that Lawson belonged to this previously.

When he proposed to her she asked him if where he lived was "not at the end of the earth?" It was & is now. She was ~~[illegible]~~ living in the thriving community of Columbia. Obviously, love won out. Eliz. S. Nunnelly kept a diary & it is in our Archives - very difficult to read - mostly abt. weather - parties, etc.

Dear Martha,

Enclosing a couple of new items I have gotten recently. I had known of the estate settlement in Wayne County, TN (formed from Hickman, 1817) for some time, but just had neglected ordering it. I finally did order it and know not a lot of what it means. WHO is this Anderson Nunley? I understand an Anderson Nunneley also, signed a petition in Wayne Co., TN in 1845. Have checked the 1850/60 TN census for the William C. Nunley and find none.

I am sending an update of information concerning the family of Joseph Alexander Nunneley. Still think there is another son (??) - a John Nunley married on 3 Aug 1851, in Franklin Co. ARK to Rhoda Guest. Since this is the county where some of the Nunneley marriages took place, including Joseph and his second wife, I am looking at this John as a possibility.

Busy with work at the Library every day and looking forward to retirement (in 10 years!). Also, doing my best with our DAR chapter, not easy working full time. I was lineage research chairman last year and librarian for the coming year. They want me to be registrar next time, but feel it should go to a person who can surely devote almost full time - which I am unable to do at present. We are gifted to have at present, a Regent and Registrar who are both excellent genealogists. They have been such a great help to assist those who are eligible and accepted by our chapter.

Look over the NEW Anderson and let me know if you have any idea who he might be.

Sincerely,

Mary

Re: Query in The Virginia Genealogist, Vol. 22, No. 4. Oct-Dec 1978
Need parents of Anderson Nunnelly, born ca 1785, died 1848, Hickman co. TN and his wife Martha Baldwin, b. ca 1785 Amelia co., VA, died after 1848, Hickman co., TN.

Dear Mrs. Cooke:

It has been a long time since you published the above query, and very likely you have long since found the information you were seeking. However, I feel I should pass on to you the little bit I have recently discovered just in case you still don't know the name of Martha Baldwin's parents.

First, let me explain my interest. I have only an indirect interest in BALDWIN, and from time to time I jot down things I come across. I had copied your query long time ago. Recently, in the new publication, The Southside Virginian, Vol. 1, No. 2, January, 1983, there were abstracts of powers of attorney from Nottoway County, Virginia. I copied the following:

Nottoway County Deed Book 7, p. 33. Marthey Nunnely of Hickman Co., TN, power of attorney to George Baldwin of Amelia Co., VA. To receive from the executors of my father William Baldwin, dec., my part of all that was left my mother Elizabeth Baldwin for life. Att: Hickman Co. TN 18 Oct 1824. Dated 12 Oct 1824. Recorded 3 Feb 1825.

As I was putting this in my BALDWIN file, I decided to go through the papers there and see if I could relate this Marthey Nunnely to anything I already had - and I found your old query. As I said - in spite of the fact that your query was so long ago, I felt I should pass this on since it is vital information.

I am trying to identify Almira or Elmira Baldwin who was born in Prince Edward County, VA, ca 1801. She married John Diggs Spraggins and was living in Charlotte County, VA in 1850. John D. Spraggins later went to Arkansas. I have yet to find out whether Almira was still alive when that migration took place. Do you happen to know who Almira's parents were? If so, I would be most grateful if you would share that information with me.

Good luck in your research!
Sincerely,

Mary Gregg

Dear Mary,

I am so excited about this terrific news about our Baldwin line. There is absolutely no doubt as to which Martha Nunnelly this is - to say of "Hickman Co., TN" is fantastic, We hope to go to Nottoway Co., VA next week if possible, I am so anxious to see if there is more there - deeds - will naming parents, marriage for Anderson & Martha - tombstone rec. etc,

The 1810 Census for VA lists Wm. Baldwin in Nottoway & 1820 he is not listed, but Elizabeth is in Prince Edward Co. VA - adjoins - Nottoway. Wm. prob. died between 1810 & 1820. Wrote to Nottaway for copy of this power of att. & for will - no answer as of today.

Wasn't Mary Gregg a jewel to write & imagine keeping a query 5 yrs.

My mother has had eye surgery for cataracts & was with us over a month, She is home now & doing pretty well, How have you been? Hope you have had much luck with your genealogy.

Joe & I have 2 booths in an Antique Mall here in Brentwood, we have been busy refinishing & going to sales. It's lots of fun & we had planned to go to VA to look for antiques to buy before this break-through on the Baldwins.

I will surely keep you posted if anything else develops.

Hurriedly—
Martha

Dear Martha:

Received your letter today and was sorry to hear that the Lawson H. Nunnelly material I sent didn't help fill in the blanks. Guess these Nunnelly people are really elusive - or so our Joseph A. and his family have been.

I, today, received a book I had ordered " First Book of MarriagesRecords of Franklin Coun, Arkansas, 1850-1861". It listed the marriage of Joseph A. Nunnelly to Clarissa Maxwell on 20 May 1851 and lists his age as 48. This would place his birthdate nearer 1803 than the 1801 I had supposed. There were six Nunnelly and variants listed in the book and I have placed Joseph and three of his children from the book, but cannot figure out the other two.

Can't remember if I sent the names of the children of Joseph A. Nunneley but seeing the names of Lawson H. makes me think even more that there is some tie-in: Joseph's children by at least two marriages are:

Ecole	1832 - Tenn
Sarah	1834-~~Te~~Tenn
Huldah	1835 - Tenn
James	1837 - Ark
Jackson	1841 - Ark
* Sam	1843 - Ark
Polly -	1846 - Ark
George	1848 - Ark
Nancy	1850 - Ark
* Lawson H.	1855 - Ark
* Alexander	1853-~~Ar~~Ark

I see by your latest information that you have a Mary listed as one of the children of your Lawson H. I have recently ordered films of the old Hickman County newspapers and found the following information which apparently is the Mary you have listed as his child:

From the Hickman Pioneer(Centerville)

We tender our sympathy to the stricken ones concerned in paragraph below which was taken from the Clarkville Texas Times. Deceased was the mother of Mrs. J. H. Phillips of our town. Mrs. Mary D. Haley, wife of M. W. Haley, Sr. of Albion, Texas, departed this life October 10, 1880. She was the daughter of L. H. Nunnelly of Hickman County, Tennessee, where she was born on April 30, 1833.

You, if the above names were not known to you, might look into the Haley and Phillips names in Hickman County. They were apparently rather well know names to have made the newspapers during that period, because few deaths were written up since it was only a weekly paper.

You mentioned that some of Lawson's brothers and sisters were in Arkansas - since I have some Nunnelly's that I cannot identify, it would help if you could send me the names you know in hopes that they are your Lawson's. I do have a couple of John's and one Samuel(some people in Kansas are working on a Samuel in Arkansas).

I am returning your stamps and thank you so much for sending them, but after so much time spent, along with so many other Nunneley(and variants)researchers, think we have stopped sending stamps and cost of copies - just enjoy what I sent and only wish it had helped. Today, I received letters from Ark., Ohio, Texas and Tenn., - all concerning Nunnelly - of course I may go months without anything, but bet we will someday find the answers to our research.

Would very much like to have family group sheets for your Lawson and any of his descendants if you have time to copy them to add to all of the Nunneley material I have.

Thanks for the latest information and wish what I sent could have helped -

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs Cooke -

I have only recently seen a copy of the Virginia Genealogist, Oct-Dec 1978, in which your name was included on page 317, requesting information concerning Anderson Nunnelley, Hickman County Tennessee. Since the publication is almost a year old, I wondered if you are still working on this line and would be happy to share what little I have since I am also working on the Nunneleys of Hickman County. I have several pages of various records, Va, North Carolina, Tenn, Texas, Mo. which refer to an Anderson Nunnelly but have been unable to tie him in to our Joseph Nunneley, born NC ca 1801.

Am enclosing an SASE and ancestor chart.

Sincerely

Copy to Fran

Dear Martha -

How exciting! thanks so much for the copy of the Hickman Co., estate settlement of the will of Thomas Easley. Think it is proof enough that my Joseph A. Nunneley and your Anderson Nunnelly are definitely related.

I, too, am rather confused as to how their relationship blends with Thomas Easley. The heir of Thomas: Ecloe Nunnely would seem to be a daughter - but, to which Nunnely man was she married??? and why were all listed as heirs ?? Yes, Joseph did have a daughter, Ecloe, or so it seems by the 1850 census of Franklin Co. Arkansas. She appears as the oldest female on that census and was born ca 1832, Tennessee (married to Simon D Whitty on 1 March 1853 in Franklin Co. Ark). Joseph has nine children listed, but no wife - I do not know the name of his first ~~xh~~ wife.

Wonder if we can obtain the will of Thomas Easley from Hickman Co. ? In his will, he may further identify his heirs and their relationship.

Did you notice the one named, Clerk at Sale, P. M. Hornbeck? Your records of Anderson's children indicate Betsy married a Hornbeak - wonder if there is a chance it is the same name and person -since another daughter of Anderson, Sallie(Sarah) has her husband, W. H. Foster, mentioned as heir (guardian of James A. Nunneley).

I am very anxious to send a copy of this estate settlement to my friend, Fran Koole, who has so generously sent to me, the majority of the Nunneley material I have now. She is one of those rare genealogists who reads between the lines and sees what is obvious, but missed by most.

Do you know if Hickman Co. has an historical or genealogical ~~XXXXXy~~ society ? I would like to contact them for a recommendation of a genealogist at Centerville, who might do some research on the remaining county records(that did not burn during the Civil War)...think it might help us.

We are covered with ice and snow today - roads are just terrible. Our son, Dick, Jr., was to bring his bride-to-be to meet us today, but cannot make the 50 mile trip ~~tx~~ from Tulsa. He teased that we could meet her at the wedding (June 21) if not before.

Hope your husband and daughter are feeling better after their bout with the virus(and hope they didn't share it with you). Our Mary Kathleen is, also, 16 years old(will be 17 on April 19). Do you have other children? You have never sent me a family group sheet on your own family - did I send you one ?

Must get this out for the mailman -

Dear Martha:

Am sending the Anderson Nunnelly information, but after looking it over, it appears to create only confusion!! Do hope you can put together some of the puzzle and find a little information you need.

I noticed the 1820 Tennessee census shows that Anderson could have had 11 children - wonder if it is possible?? and could Joseph A. have been his son and a brother to your Lawson Harrison?? Since we only have an idea of their birth dates, they could be a year apart.

The 1830 Census lists Martha Nunnelley in Hickman County - where was Anderson? Questions and more questions.

The bible record of the Wathall family, I believe, comes from the Virginia State Archives and lists a Leonard Nunnally family. Please note that Leonard also, had a Lawson, born 1803.

The majority of my Nunneley(and variants) information has been given to me by a Mrs. Fran Koole of Schertz, Texas. She is just a delightful lady, who is so interested in the Nunley research of her family and shares all that she finds. I insist each time that I send her something, that she is the Nunley Clearing House.

I really have no doubt that our Nunnelly families are connected, but [illegible] cannot seem to find the key to open the door - think we will sometime and surely do not plan to give up.

Wish you would send dates of birth, etc., for your Lawson's children and I will check their ages and my records to see if I can place any of them in my Arkansas material.

At work (Bartlesville Public Library) so must get busy. Let me know what you found, if anything, from the material enclosed.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Martha,

I am absolutely thrilled - You have found so many good records on your trip to Virginia. We all must thank your wonderful family for allowing their vacation time to be spent on this research.

I have not completely been able to absorb all of the material you found. I have been trying to find some of the items published in the Virginia Genealogist. They have done so much on Amelia County. I am enclosing a copy of the will of William Baldwin which is a copy of the one that you sent. I had to work last Saturday and went to my Dad's to help him this Saturday, so have had only a few minutes each day to see the great records. It makes me want to take a vacation to just stay home and go back through all of the Nunneley items.

I am not really sure which of the items you needed so have Xeroxed two/a letter from John Nunnelly to his mother and the power of attorney of Joseph A. Nunneley given by the children of Livicy Nunnelly Criner to try to obtain their part of the estate of their grandmother Martha Nunnelly.

Now for my exciting news! I have had two letters from Elizabeth Dannelly since we have heard about your trip and the great records. She mentioned some Hickman County records which she was going to order and mentioned one she thought I might need: Book M, p. 129 Joseph A. Nunley made Andrew J. B. Nunneley his attorney, Apr. 22, 1846. Joseph was heir of Anderson Nunley and Thomas Easley.

I really think that is all I need to be convinced and feel it is surely the needed proof that my husband's Joseph A. Nunneley is the son of Anderson and Martha Baldwin and that his first wife was definitely, Nancy Easley, daughter of Thomas.

Now some thoughts to the Baldwins of Nottoway - or rather to the Nunneleys - or both. Dinwiddie, Prince Edward and Nottoway all came from Amelia County. I feel we should now look into the Nunneleys in those counties since there were so many Nunneleys in those counties. Many Baldwins married in Prince Edward.

Shortal's Ephraim (6.33) is not the father of our Anderson. Ephraim was born 1780 and married 20 Oct 1803 to Nancy Williamson. His birthdate should make him a contemporary of the Anderson Nunnelly who married Martha Baldwin and we know that Anderson and Martha had children by 1801. If I had to guess, I would still think that Shortal's Joseph (4.4) is a more likely person. I have always thought it a possibility, even though Shortal does not list an Anderson. Shortal did a good job to assist those who are researching the name, but he missed many obvious public records in his manuscript. He does not list all of the children of Obadiah and Elizabeth Baldwin Nunnelly which are public records (the DAR papers of Miss Helen Foster, 1971). As you and I both know, the DAR lineage papers, with the members consent, are public records.

Would like your comments - I think that Anderson died between 1820 and 1830, since I have not found him on any census after 1820. Did Martha Baldwin Nunnelly (Marthey) try to obtain money from her families estate in 1824 because her husband was deceased and she had several children to raise alone? I feel, though I have not seen the records, that the Hickman County estate settlement in 1848 may well have been the beginning of the settlement of the estate of both Martha and Anderson and not his estate. We have a copy of John writing to his mother in 1843, Joseph A. trying to obtain money from the estate of Anderson in 1846 and Joseph A. trying to obtain money from the estate of both Martha and Adderson for Livicy's children in 1849. From these records, we know that Martha definitely died between June 15, 1843 and 20 Oct 1849. As for Anderson, I am guessing, but surely between census time 1820 and census time 1830. Think this enough rambling for this time. I've so many thoughts about these Nunneleys and wish they would all go together. I have never doubted (once in a while) that Alex. son of Anderson was really Joseph A. Nunneley. Dick's uncle in Tulsa, Alexander Harrison Nunneley has always said, I do not know exactly who I was named for, but both are old family names - that they are.

As ever -

Dear Mary,

Received Thomas Easley's paper yesterday and I am so happy for you. Now you know the wife of Joseph A. Nunnely - Nancy Easley. Isn't that the greatest piece of luck?

This is what makes genealogy so interesting - you never know what you'll find. While searching for the Nunnelys you found an Easley line - just fantastic!

As the Easleys were in Halifax Co., Va., maybe we need to search those records for the Nunnelys. There was an Anderson in Halifax Co., N.C.

I tried to find a number in Alexandria, Va, for Lucie Thomas or Rita Easley (copy of her papers were sent) & they had no listing. Wish we could locate these people & check the Easley Genealogy. There might be more on these Nunnellys as three of the children married into that family.

That was ironic that you & I would order a copy of Thomas Easley's papers on the same day. We must be on the same wave link.

D.A.R. passed my 13th line back to the Rev. War yesterday & it came on the 13th. It was on Peter Brank from N.C.

We are having our couples bridge club at our house tonight — so must get up & clear a path.

Again - I am so happy for you. Let's keep after our Nunnellys.

Love,

Martha

P.S. Can you believe they had 17 children? There must have been a family Bible for all of the exact dates to be listed.
Wonder if the DAR library has a copy of the Easley Gen.?

Dear Mary,

Thank you so much for the Nunnelly material. However, none of the many Andersons & Lawsons are mine except the 1820 +(later Martha) Census of Hickman Co., Can you believe this? When I was reading Leonard's children & came upon Lawson, I was so excited & then — the birthdate is 2 yrs. later, This is so frustrating. All of this is so frustrating. My Lawson Nunnelly was born 30 Oct. 1801 & died 15 Sept. 1885. Several people are working on this & I will share your material with them & also, see if they run across your Joseph. As for as I know he was not a brother to my Lawson. The name, Lawson, probably came from a family whose surname was Lawson who were in Hickman Co. & possibly

Ans - 12-3-79

Together in N.C. or Va.

1850 Census, Hickman Co. shows the following

Lawson H. Nunnelly 49 N.C.
Elizabeth 26 Ireland
(2nd wife - maiden name Sandels)
1st wife - Mildred White died earlier)
John 21
Samuel 19
Mary 16
Minerva 12 (She married James M. Hall - my line - They moved to Humphreys Co., Tn)

All of the above are children by his first wife. Here are the children of his 2nd wife.

Pitts m. Ellen Ambrose
Will m. Louise Bailey
Kate m. Edgar Graham
Annie m. Henry Bailey

I know some of Lawson's brothers & sisters were in Ark., but I don't believe any of his children were there unless John or Samuel left Tenn.

Enclosed are stamps to repay you for your postage. Please let me know the cost of copying & I will send a ck. Again - I will "spread" your info. around & maybe this will all fall into place. Thanks so much -

Dear Mary,

You get the prize!!!!! I was so thrilled to read the newest "find" on the Nunneleys and you are even greater for sharing this beautiful document. I have always said, that there is nothing like a good law suit. They always tell such great information. When I was in Raleigh a few years ago, I found one of my Stephensons only because someone had sued his heirs.

Sat. was mother's birthday (82) and today was my aunt Lucile's (75) (sisters). Today I had them for lunch and they were so excited over the new Nunnelly (I never spell it the same) material. My aunt, Lucile Marshall, corresponded with Elizabeth Dannelly Payne in 1966. She is the one who listed all of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley's children. Is she the Elizabeth Dannelly you asked about? She was so dear to try to assist my aunt in every way possible.

On page 4 where you have a question mark by John M. Grimes, I checked the 1850 and 1860 Census and there is a John Grimes in Hickman Co. -- so you are correct. The S. Whitson is Samuel Whitson==my line is from George and ~~Priscilla Van~~ Priscilla Vance Whitson, Samuel's parents or grandparents, I think...don't have my notes at hand. Am wondering if there are more records in Crawford Co., ARK. Will check Hickman Co., Book M, pp 498& 499 when I go to the Archives. Wish they had stated the relationship between Lawson and Anderson and Martha. You do think this is my Lawson Harrison Nunneley, their son, don't you. This is the first legal document that I have seen naming Martha as the wife of Anderson Nunneley,..fantastic. Please let me know if you find more items. Am sending postage, that is the least I can do. Will share this with a Mr. Martin here in town who is descended from Mary Ann Nunneley who married Robert E. Griner. Do you think Criner could be Griner as there were Griner-Grinders in Hickman Co.?

I am so sorry to learn of your sister's death. That is so sad. My brother died of Lung cancer three years ago. He was 55. It certainly isn't easy is it?

Again, thank you so much for this new material. I have done very little research on my family lately, because I have started doing research for other people and love it. Our dgt., Karen,will be a soph. in college and we only have Steve, 14, at home. This gives me some spare time.

So good to hear from you, Think of you often, but had nothing to share. Keep me posted.

Dear Mary,

Thank you so very much for the interesting Nunnely material. Someone has really worked on this. I couldn't find a thing that would tie in to my Anderson, unless it is Anderson Nunnery in Halifax Co., N.C. For some reason I lean this way. Yes, I have Shortal's Gen. on the Nun.

Today I spent abt. 30 min. at the Archives & located the Easley Gen. mentioned in the DAR Papers & no further info. on the Nunnelys was given. The book was printed in 1970 & the author's name & address were given. I wrote her tonight asking if she knew abt. our Nunnelys or if she knew of anyone who might be of help. Hopefully, she is still at this address. Will let you know if I hear. The takes the Easley line back before Thomas & also includes ~~lines~~ lines on his brothers & sisters. The only thing it said abt. Joseph A. N. was that he "went to Ark.".

I recently subscribed to a Gen. Soc. located near Halifax Co. Va. (surrounding counties & N.C. counties below) & if they allow queries I'll place one on our line. As yet, I haven't received anything.

I appreciate so much your sharing this research. It came at a time that I was to "take it easy" - (difficult for me) - so I sat down & read every word.

I am going to Dallas the last of April with my husband on a business trip. Do you know anything abt. their library? Do they have a gen. section? So many from Va, N.C. & Tenn. went to Texas so I would think they had quite a bit.

Must go. I almost forgot - I had never heard of the murders of Lawson N.N.'s place. I wonder if ~~they~~ they murderers were from the N. or South?

Love,
Martha

I will try to find more on this - very interesting! Also, I don't know how Edw. Nunnellee comes in. Wish I did;

Dear Martha,

I was happy to hear from you and very glad I could share the good law suit filed by the Arkansas Nunneley's against the Tennessee Nunnelly's. I really have no doubt that your Lawson Harrison Nunnelly and my husband's Joseph Alexander Nunneley are brothers. I still believe that Joseph named his 11th and last child Lawson Harrison after his brother who remained in Tennessee.

I wonder also, about the Criner/Griner - so very close and probably like our Nunneley/Nunnelly, the spellings were so varied on records that it has gone through many changes over the years. I even think the Nunnery's of North Carolina are probably the same family and do not doubt that the Anderson Nonnery who served in the Revolution could possibly be Anderson Nunnelly of Hickman County, TN. I rather think there were two Anderson Nunnery's in North Carolina. Still need to follow this up quite a lot.

Am enclosing some material and letters from Elizabeth Dannelly. I really like the "An Old Letter" from John Nunneley to his mother, Martha Nunneley. It is really great. You may already have a copy of it, but will send it on anyhow.

I was quite delighted to find out Friday, that DAR has accepted my papers on my Charles Rose of VA and NJ. No one has ever been accepted as a member on him and I am thrilled to say the least. Many have tried (so National stated in a letter to me when requesting additional proofs) and I wish I knew who they were so I could share my proofs. Surely I have not found anything that has been in hiding that others were unable to find. I have not been notified of the acceptance, but the Regent called me while I was on vacation at my parent's to tell me the news. This is my first line and a first for Charles Rose, so I am doubly thrilled.

I am returning the postage money. Seems we agreed a long time ago not to worry about SASE's and such. Just happy to share any new items concerning this elusive Nunneley family.

Do let us keep in touch when new research items are located.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mattha -

It has been such a long time since we have exchanged letters, but want to share something I recently received from a distant cousin of Dick's - something which was found in the trunk of a daughter of Lawson Harrison Nunneley's who recently entered a nursing home. Lula Nunneley Barker, born 1895, daughter of Lawson and granddaughter of Joseph Alexander Nunneley had the enclosed very old document of 1849 safely folded and stored in her trunk. I now feel certain that the our Joseph A. Nunneley and the Nunnelly family of Hickman County, Tenn. are the same family. I have, for many years, never doubted that Anderson was the father of Joseph A. (Alec), but this makes me feel even more certain. I think that the females in the petition are his nieces and the daughters of Livicy, his sister. I am anxious to have you look over the document and hear your thoughts.

Dick's cousin, Irene Johnson, mentioned in one letter that the document mentioned that Martha Baldwin was Joseph's mother. It does not - so will write to her and ask where she gathered that information. She is elderly and may have other papges that she found in the trunk, but was only interested in this one that she sent to me. She only sent it because she could not read it and asked me to try to transcribe it. As you see, it was difficult. The paper is very brown and the ink has smeared over the past 133 years. It just amazes me that it still exists. Wish Irene would let me keep it and "quit folding it". I am returning it to her in heavy plastic covers which I use and order from Everton - hope she leaves the pages as I am returning them! They are really priceless.

I guess I have, after all of these years, found you and my husband, more cousins. I did not know that Livicy married a Criner, also. This, I guess, now places three of Anderson's children in Arkansas, John, Joseph (Alec) and Livicy.

Can't remember what all I have sent in the past concerning Joseph, but let me know if you want all of his children, etc., and will send that.

My dear sister, Nancy Phillips, passed away on 2 June 1982, of cancer. She was only 45 and a beautiful girl. The two years of illness was such a hard trial for her and those of us who loved her. I have done very little in the way of genealogy during this time and still have not felt ready to get back to that business. I think it is time that I start again and know she would encourage me.

Hope all has been well with your family since we last wrote so long ago and will be anxious to hear from you concerning the enclosed paper.

Sincerely,

Mary

P.S. Have recently heard from a an Elizabeth Dannnelly Dannelly who is supposed to be a descendant of Andrew J. B. Nunneley. I sent some things to her, but have heard nothing. She received my name from Fran Kooke in Texas. Will just wait to hear agkin. Do you know her?

Dear Mary,

Genealogy had to take a "back-seat" during the holidays. Hope you & your family had a nice Xmas.

Am enclosing an extra copy of Lawson H. Nunnelley's will. I sent you the wrong list of his children. The ones by his first wife were correct, but the other ones were his grandchildren - the children of his son, Walter S.

He had Minerva, Samuel, John A. & Mary B. by his first wife, Mildred White. By his marriage to Eliz. Sandels he had Walter, who m. Eleanor Phillips, and Annie, who married John Meeks.

In 1843 John W. Nunnelly, Lawson's brother, was living in Washington, Ark.

Thank you for Mary's obit. Notice she was a Collier in the will - she must have remarried.

I do appreciate all you have sent & hopefully, we can fit the pieces to the puzzle together & soon!

Let's keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Martha

Dear Mary,

Last week at the Tn. Archives I ran across the enclosed from Hickman Co. Court Records. Your Joseph A. had a dgt. named Ecole & there is an Ecloe (Ecole) Nunnelly as an heir to Thomas Easley. Wouldn't this make Ecole a dgt. of Thomas Easley? Was the name of your Joseph A.'s wife - Ecole? This is a new name for me. some the names are of Other children of Thomas Easley for some are named on p. 22 - Spence's Hist. of Hickman Co. - Quote - "Thomas Easley was the father of James D., Warham, Thomas, Jr., Robin, Stephen, Edward & Wm. Easley. His dgt. was Salley Easley."

Again, the name, Anderson appears. It seems she had a son named Anderson. The W. H. Foster (Wm. (Billy) married my Anderson's dgt., Sally Nunnelly. (p. 23 Spence).

Joseph A. Nunnely is also named. Hope you know more abt this than I.

Must go - my dgt. (16) & my husband have the stomach virus - not much fun.

Martha

Dear Martha,

I just cannot believe it - WHAT A NEAT LADY - to keep your query for five years and send something so special. I had not even tried or thought about looking for the parents of Martha Baldwin. The name Baldwin almost compares with my Brown and Hendricks lines of KY - just too many to even begin. I just wrote Mrs. Mary Gregg a short thank you for being so sharing to send you this information.

I still think that we will find that the Obediah Nunnally who married Elizabeth Baldwin and Anderson Nunnally who married Martha Baldwin are brothers. They both apparently married Baldwins in Amelia County (though unproven). They were born about the same time, 1765. The only problem I have, beyond lack of proofs, is that Anderson did not have children until the early 1800s (unless John and William were much earlies than Lawson). Or did Obediah have a son Anderson who maybe married a cousin named Baldwin? I have always wondered about the two men in North Carolina who served in the Revolutionary War - both with the names of Anderson and Andrewson (Nonery/Nunery and variants). Obediah had at least the following children:

James	married	Tabitha Gillaspy
William H,	married	Nancy Price
John	married	Sytha Anne Withers
Elizabeth	married	Henry Betts
Martha	married	Henry Cobb

The above taken from Obediah's DAR membership papers (of Helen Diane Foster, of Abbabddlem VA). If you do not have copies of these, let me know. Someone sent me a lot of the Nunneley DAR application papers. Might have been Elizabeth Dannelley.

I am surely as excited to receive the Marthey Baldwin Nunnely information as I was to receive the very old original copy of the power of attorney of Joseph A Nunley (1849) in which the children of Martha and Anderson (or rather grandchildren) Nunley were trying to obtain a part of the estate of Martha Nunley of Hickman Co., TN. These wonderful old papers do exactly what we want. Prove what we are doing. I had always suspected that Joseph A. Nunneley was really the Alex Nunnelly, son of Anderson and Martha, but the power of attorney papers really made me know for sure, since some of their other children were named.

I am so excited that I am rambling so had better close. I have not been doing much genealogy for many months. My Mother and sister have both died of cancer in the past year, so have really not done too much. I drive every other weekend, 200 miles to spend time with my 83 year old Dad, who is living alone (rather successfully). I miss Mom so much. She was my greatest genealogical fan and loved my proving our DAR ancestor. Sadly, she did not have time to join. That is OK, she saw it done and was happy —

Dear Mary,

I am not ungrateful, just too busy for words. As regent of my DAR chapter we had to get out 100 yearbooks and last Tuesday I was in Clarksville for a District DAR meeting and on and on....

I really do appreciate the info on the Nunnelley family from Missouri and Arkansas. I just recently sent in a query to the North Carolina Gen. Soc. Journal for info about Anderson Nunnery who had Revolutionary Service and his children. Keep your fingers crossed. Should come out in the Dec. , 1982 issue.

A lady who goes to my church, Jean Nunnelly Dennison, has just recently started work on her Nunnelly family and they were from Ripley Co., Missouri. Can you believe that? For years I have tried to get her to work on this family and she has just started. Immediately, her plans were interrupted by a FIRST grand-daughter born in Cincinnati and of course, she took off and has not returned to Nashville. (gone abt. 3 wks.) When she returns to normal I will make copies of your super material and share with her. I have a feeling she is descended from Edward Nunnalee-- oh to be so lucky. I still want to get to Hickman Co. and maybe I can.

Our dgt. is a Soph. in College --but she comes home every week-end and usually once a week (David Lipscomb College in Nashville), Our son is a Freshman in High School and I am still driving him as he has two more years to go before getting his drivers Lic. Am not complaining, just stating facts.

I know you were thrilled to get your Charles Rose Line passed. This week I had my 15th line to pass and no one had ever gone in on it before, either. David Stephenson from Wake and Cumberland Co., N.C.

Hope I hear from the query on Andrewson Nunnery. I think I spelled it differently above and I know I always spell Nunnelley a different way every time--no wonder the name is all messed up.

Again, thank you so much for everything you have shared. Maybe one of these days something will turn up. Your finds were the greatest.

Sincerely,

Martha

My research has been almost limited for myself. As regent of my DAR chapter I have been busy helping others get their lineage. Two weeks before Xmas I completed papers for a lady to join our chapter. We have a great group & I love being regent - even with all the work.

Joe & I are going to Washington, D.C. Apr. 30 for the DAR Continental Conf & I hope to go to their library. Maybe something on our Nunnelleys can be found.

I had been thinking about you & wondering if you had found anything new. Yes, I know abt. the 1812 Book - that is my aunt who started me on all of this 11 years ago. She gave me everything she had. We see each other frequently.

Sounds as if you have been busy with a wedding & illness in your family & Xmas. We had a nice Xmas with 21 family members here for Xmas breakfast.

Dear Mary,

Hope the Thomas Easley paper will help in some way. I have just found on p. 211 DAR Patriot Index that he was a Sol. in the Rev. War & his wife was Ecleo Wade. How about that? I have just ordered a copy of his DAR paper & when it comes will send a copy to you. Keep your fingers crossed. Maybe it will name his children & their spouses.

I would bet my last dime that Ecloe (Sp?) was the wife of your Joseph A. as the names are so similar to the children of your Joseph A.

Can hardly wait for the DAR paper to arrive.

Pardon paper - I'm out!

I can check all at Hickman Co records at our archives. I don't think they have a Gen. Soc. Their library may have some family data. Will try to go this Spring.

My mother & aunt always like to go there with me. It's abt. 60 or so miles from our house.

Let's don't let these ancestors rest. I feel we may be on the right track.

Must clean this house as I'm having my bridge club tomorrow.

Karen & Joe are fine & Steve (11 1/2) & I did not take it.

Dear Mary,

Thank you for the old letter & other copies. That was just what I wanted.

Mr. Lloyd Bockstruck of Dallas corrected the Baldwin info which I sent to him - you & others. The last generation on this line was a Thomas Baldwin & I said he was the father of our old Wm. Well - I was wrong. Mr. Bockstruck said this Thomas was the one who died testate in 1767 in Prince Edward Co. He has done much on this line & I jumped to conclusions a bit hurriedly & did not research it throughly as he has done. He had a son by the name of William, but this is not our line. Will correct this with the others that I sent this to, Would love to go back to VA & ~~go~~ ~~over~~ go over all of the records more throughly, He said my other records were correct.

Received the Pension Paper today for Eliz. Baldwin Nunnally, widow of Obediah & sister to our Martha, It gave no more info on either line - He died is Caswell Co., N.C. Wonder if records there would show our Anderson there -

Hope your father is doing well. Life gets so complicated & hurried doesn't it? Sometimes I feel I should give up genealogy as I have so many things to do for family, etc, but I just try to squeeze it in. It is after 11:00 P.M. & all are in bed, but I did want to correct this Baldwin line.

Again, thank you for the many copies you have shared,

Sincerely -

Dear Mary,

I had thought you ordered the paper so did not send a copy. I am only too happy to share this with you & don't you send me a dime! It's a great paper with much info. Wonder where we can get a copy of Easley Gen.?

I just came home from the hospital yesterday after having a D&C & two cysts removed from my cervix. The tests showed they were benign & am so grateful. The doctor was not expecting any problems. I was only in 3 days & feel great now.

Let me know what you think of the paper. Hopefully, will find those Nunnellys in Halifax Co., Va.

Love,
Martha

Dear Mary,

I have thought more about your letter than I have done anything about it. Yes, I agree with you that this is not the son of John Nunnally who m. Mary Morris and had a son, Anderson. I would have never caught it. It is frustrating to be working in two counties where the records have been partially destroyed--Nottoway and Hickman. It is so terrible that Anderson's will was destroyed and we cannot obtain a copy. Wish there was someone who still had the original -- doesn't hurt to wish. I am going to place another query on our Anderson in the VA Gen. and maybe someone will respond.

My research has been limited (at least on my own family lines--been quite busy for other people) as mother (83) fell Thanksgiving morning and broke the same hip that she broke 11 yrs. ago. She had a very rough time and is now in a Health Care Center. I doubt that she will ever get to live alone again and this is so sad as she loved her home so much. This center is new and only about 15 min. from me, so things could be worse. I try to go each day and help with lunch, even though they have a wonderful staff who would help.

We have had such cold weather and several snows. Having gone to the hospital and so rushed during the holidays, I actually enjoyed getting to stay at home. Joe was out of town during one snow and I don't drive in the snow, so I really enjoyed it. I had minor surgery on my ring finger - a small cyst - everything O.K.) during one light snow. Only stayed in the hospital one morning and have had no problems with it at all. I adore my surgeon -have had breast surgery twice (O.K.) and Joe had his gall bladder removed, so we do know our surgeon quite well. He has just returned from Aspen.

We plan to go to Epcot Center in Fla. in April --the whole family-. Will go to Disney World, also. Joe has a business trip there and he is letting us go. Will fly and won't have to drive that long way.

Have rambled long enough. Hope your father is doing well. Let me know if anything develops. Sent Mary Gregg copies of some of the things which I found in Nottoway, I surely do hope she finds her line.

Received your letter with the early Nunnelly material today just as I was going to mail this.

In addition to the VA Genealogist I have subscribed to the Southside Virginian today. (where Mary Gregg found the power of attorney) If they allow queries, I place a Nunnelly one there, Who knows, maybe they will abstract some vital clue for us.

Thank you for the early Nunnelly data. I think you are smart to write one letter + make copies. Will keep this new material + hope for the "in between generations".

Genealogy has kept me going through the last few minutes. When we had to stay so long with mother at the hospital, I would take books + material to read. Wake Co. NC Heritage Book came during that time - (My Stephenson line is in it.)

Suggested documentation: PHOTOCOPIES or NOTARIZED EXACT COPIES of vital records, family Bible, church/cemetery records, military/pension records and census enumerations. Family histories/genealogies must cite their sources to be considered reliable proof. Lineage and service must be proven by the best possible sources.

The material you recently submitted in support of your supplementals on Joseph Nunnally and John McGill has been reviewed.

We still believe that the facts that Anderson and Obediah Nunnally married sisters and that Anderson appeared on the 1787 Amelia County VA tax list are in themselves sufficient evidence that Anderson was the son of Joseph and the brother of Obediah. In order to verify this supplemental we need further documentation which has not previously been submitted.

Additionally, we still need proof of service for John McGill. The Georgia land grant alone does not constitute proof that John served in the Revolution unless you can provide a copy of one of the certificates which clearly specifies he served in the Revolution. Otherwise, you must prove his residence during the Revolution and then find service for a man of John's age living in that place.

Best wishes in your research.

Family histories/ genealogies must cite their sources to be considered reliable proof. Lineage and service must be proven by the best possible sources.

We have reviewed your supplementals on Joseph Nunnally and John McGill. In order to verify them, further documentation is necessary.

For the former, we need to know the source of the index card on Joseph Nunnally's Revolutionary War service. Also, the certificate signed by Lt. Robert Craddock appears to have the names John and Joseph Nunnally on the reverse. What is the explanation of these names? Finally, the index card states Obediah Nunnally heir. Can you provide a copy of this referenced document? The card alone is not adequate proof Obediah was the son of Joseph even if he is the heir. We suggest you research land records in Amelia County, VA, to determine whether Joseph Nunnally owned land and, if so, who received title to this land after his death. This approach may well lead to identification of Joseph's children. Also, you might look for guardianship records for Anderson as he was only twelve years old at the time Joseph died. The facts that Obediah and Anderson were the only Nunnallys on the 1787 Amelia County tax list and that they married sisters do not in themselves prove that Obediah and Anderson were brothers.

Also, the Anderson Nunnery in Pierce's Register to which you referred may well be a different person from the Anderson Nunnally you claim in Amelia County, VA. An Anderson Nunnery was listed on the Franklin-Warren-Vance county area tax list in 1771 and also in the 1790 census of Halifax County, NC. Could this other man be your ancestor?

For the supplemental on John McGill we need to reconcile your John McGill's apparent residence during the Revolution in Richmond County, NC, with payment by the treasurer of Rowan Co., NC. For a new ancestor to be established, the place of service claimed and residence must coincide. Are there any entries in court order books or other local records in Anson or Richmond Counties which could prove service for your John McGill?

Best wishes in your research.

Dear Nunnelly researchers:

Good News!! The DAR has just approved my Supplemental on Anderson NUNNALLY. This is the very first time they have approved one for me on a new ancestor -- one that has not been used before -- without a lot of correspondence and requests for additional information. I really am excited about it. Of course, the application was filed two years ago, but that is about the length of time it takes for a Supplemental. I never could have done it without the help of each and every one of you, and I am truly grateful for all of it. Martha, please pass the word on to Lucille. She was the first one to get me started down the road. I am just sorry we could not get it done while she was still interested.

Now I hope we can really prove that Anderson was the brother of William, Obediah and John, and the son of Joseph who died in service in 1777. Do any of you have any further data on this possibility?

It is such a long time since I have been in touch with any of you, but I hope you are all well and happy and having lots of luck finding ancestors!!

Best wishes always,

Elizabeth

THE FAMILY TREE of the NUNNELEE CLAN

By John Hamilton Nunnelee

Great Great Grandfather Edward Nunnelee came from Scotland with the early settlers of Virginia and was of Scotch-Irish decent. Great Grandfather Nunnelee moved from Virginia to what is now Newbern North Carolina. Grandfather Edward Nunnelee was born near what is now Newbern North Carolina and with his Father moved back to Virginia where Grandfather Nunnelee, (my grandfather) grew up. He enlisted in the Revolutionary Army and served under George Washington and La Fayette. After our Victory over England and the Continental Army was discharged, he took up the study of medicine, married and reared a family of ten children. He practiced medicine in Virginia up to the year of 1804. He then came to Bedford County Tennessee and in 1806 moved on to what is now called Hickman County Tennessee and continued his practice of medicine. His wife died in 1815 and he remarried. His wife was Mrs Mary Reeves Sunderland, a widow of the age 22, whose husband was killed during the battle of New Orleans in 1815 serving under Andrew Jackson.

Hickman County Tennessee was organized as a county in the year of 1807, a few years after Grandfather Nunnelee moved in. Edward Nunnelee was appointed by the Legilature as one of the Commissioners for the purpose of running the County lines of Hickman County and to find the center or middle of the county and to select a location for the seat of Justice. It was named Centerville in the year of 1821. These commissioners, after establishing the seat of Justice for Hickman County Tennessee, were authorized to sell the Jail and Courthouse at Vernon, Tennesseeto the highest bidderon a credit of not more than 12 Mos. Edward Nunnelee and 5 other men were appointed permanent commissioners of the town of Centerville and were authorized to sell the lots of the town, the proceeds of these sales to be used in paying for the building of the new Courthouse, the prison and stocks. Edward Nunnelee rode 50 miles in 1834 to welcome La Fayette at Nashville, Tennessee and sat with him in the Masonic Lodge at that time. GrandMother Nunnelee told me that his ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ hair was black, his eyes were grey, 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighed about 175 pounds. Grandfather was always congenial, obliging, jovial and of easy deportment, very intellectual and a great reader--always took a great interest in the upbuilding of his County and was ever active in moral and religious affairs. By faith he was an Episcopalian. He was kind-hearted and liberal to a fault.

Dear Mary:

Fran sent me an article headed "Family Gatherings" about the Easley-Baldwin-Nunelley Families, and I am wondering if this isn't the information you told me you furnished somebody who never even acknowledged it. Very obviously the person or persons who submitted it did not know much about it because they made no effort to draw the different people mentioned together. This is all information that you and I have had for a long time. But I was glad to hear from Fran and appreciated her sending it to me.

In the meantime I have obtained the Revolutionary Pension file on a Daniel Nunally, R. 7740, with a letter dated 23 May 1934 addressed to Honorable Ralph F. Losier, House of Representatives, Washington, summarizing it. He was born September 26, 1762 or 1763, in Dinwiddie County, Virginia, and always lived there.

He applied for pension on October 15, 1832, and stated that he enlisted in October 1780, and served ar various times until late in 1781, amounting to not less than three months in all, as private with the Virginia troops under Captains George Pegram, Baker Pegram and Gilliam Boothe, and Colonel Joseph Jones.

His claim was not allowed as the pension law under which he applied provided only for those soldiers who had rendered military service of at least six months.

His brother, William Nunnally, was living in Dinwiddie County in 1832.

Don't know how this man fits into the family, but he is bound to somewhere.

Hope Bartlesville is drying out and that you did not suffer any damage.

My best,

Elizabeth

P/A Marthey Nunnely of Hickman Co., TN, to George Baldwin of Amelia Co., VA, to receive from estate of "my father William Baldwin" under his will, "which was left to my mother Elizabeth Baldwin". Both parents are now dead. (copy attached)

The above prove that Elizabeth Baldwin who married Obediah Nunnally and Martha Baldwin who married Anderson Nunnally were sisters.

Obediah and Anderson were brothers and sons of Joseph.

Joseph, John and Obediah all enlisted in the Revolutionary War from Amelia County. John was older than Obediah, but he had been listed as missing when his father, Joseph, died in 1777. Therefore Obediah was named his "heir". Papers attached.

1779, 15 Nov. Richard Jones produced an account of provisions furnished to the widow of Joseph Nunnally, a soldier who died in the Continental Army, amounting to 163 lbs. Page 374 Amelia County Records, Order Book 1776-1780 (William and Mary Quarterly)

THE PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX LISTS FOR THE YEAR 1787 FOR AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA, by Netti Schreiner-Yantis and Florence Love, Genealogical Books in Print, Springfield, Virginia 1989, page 376 of the Index, lists only two NUNNALLYS, Obediah and Anderson. Neighbors include William Baldwin, father of Elizabeth and Martha.

I believe Elizabeth and Joseph NUNNALLY had several children both boys and girls, but due to the loss of important records in Amelia County, particularly Order Books 1782-1784, this cannot be definitely proved.

The preponderance of the evidence supports my belief that Anderson was a younger brother of Obediah and that Martha was a younger sister of Elizabeth, and that Anderson was the son of Joseph NUNNALLY.

Dear Elizabeth,

Please excuse the delay in acknowledging the receipt of copies of your DAR papers on Anderson Nunneley. My father has had surgery twice in the past six weeks and I was out of Bartlesville and with him.

Now, a belated thank you and congratulations, again. This is so exciting that you have proven a new Revolutionary patriot and even more exciting that it is Anderson Nunneley.

Now to Joseph...there was definitely more than one in Amelia County, Virginia. Joseph (3.4) and wife, Frances, went from Amelia Co. to Mecklenburg Co. by 1765 (the land he purchased then was formerly in Lunenburg Co.). In 1762, this Joseph in Amelia listed an Isham Nunneley as one tithe (a son?). Both men went to Lunenburg, Mecklenburg and apparently to Warren Co., NC (Old Bute). Joseph is listed as a taxpayer in 1771 in what is now Warren Co. Did this Joseph (3,4) return to Amelia or is this an entirely different Joseph than the Joseph who died in NJ in 1777?

I am sending copies of the timeline of Amelia County and scanty records of other counties mentioned. I researched Amelia by microfilm from the VA State Archives and Lynn Collis, a Chesterfield Co. Nunnally researcher did the timeline on her IBM. As you can see, there is definitely more than one Joseph.

It is sad that Joseph Adams Shortal has not seen fit to correct his Nunnally Genealogy. I have sent him many corrections and he still, as late as 1984 (Virginia Tidewater Genealogy Quarterly, Vol 15, No 1-March, 1984) published it in a shortened version...without a single correction. He admits he has errors, but will not do one thing about it. I even sent him marriage records on his direct line...not corrected in his Nunnally Genealogy in 1984.

The last time I heard from Martha Cooke was 16 March 1987. They had, again, moved. She did ask about your supplemental on Anderson in that letter. The last address I have is:

Mrs. Joe T. Cooke

I know she will be so happy to hear from you. This will give her another Revolutionary line.

Will close and do let me know your thoughts on the two or three Joseph Nunneleys in Amelia.

As ever,

Mary

Dear Mary:

Don't know what has come over the DAR that they approve a new ancestor without a word, and get the paper back to the chapter registrar in record time. However, you will notice that it was verified May 25, but the card notifying me was postmarked July 9, so they are not entirely "on the ball".

Now I am real anxious for us to prove that Joseph was the father of Anderson. I do wish we could find some estate papers for him, and wonder if we would do better in Nottaway than Amelia, as that is where Martha Cooke found so much of the Baldwin wills, etc.

I am convinced in my own mind that Joseph (3.4), and Daniel (3.3) were the grandfathers, respectively, of Anderson and Edward, although my mother never mentioned either one of them that she did not spell out the name and say they were not related.

I don't have a TIME LINE program for my computer, but I am going to set about finding one. I have FAMILY ROOTS which doesn't help you collect information but only organize it. My biggest problem is that I never say "enough" -- I am always looking for just one more!!

It was so nice to talk with you on the telephone, and I hope we will always keep in touch. You have been such a big help to me that I will be eternally grateful.

My best to you always,

Elizabeth

PS My letter to Martha Cooke was returned.

Dear Mary:

Your letter came in the same mail with all the information from Martha Cooke, and they surely made it a banner day for me. Martha did such a good job. Of course, I wish she had had time to sort out the Nunnellys like she did the Baldwins, but, of course, her time ran out. She did mention that an Ephraim made a will naming a son Anderson, but did not give the date. I do not see him listed in my Index to Revolutionary Pensions nor the Patriot Index. She may have made a note of the date he died that would help us know whether to pursue that or not.

Your chronology is just fine, and I agree with you that Anderson died between the 1820 and 1930 censuses. I am sure Martha got her 1848 date from me, but I have never thought that was the date he died. When I spent several days in Hickman County more than twenty-five years ago I was primarily looking for information on Edward Nunnelee, since he was the one I went into the DAR on. My mother knew enough about him to get me started, and then I found all the connecting links in Centerville. However, I did go through the index and jot down everything I thought was relevant, and at Book M p. 340 I noted "Martha Nunneley, executrix of last will and testament of Anderson Nunneley, dec'd. June 6, 1848." Today I have ordered a copy of this, along with a couple more that might help, and will send you a copy when I get it. You know the courthouse burned in 1865.

The reason I did not think this was the date Anderson died was that there were so many other instruments dated earlier that referred to his estate. One of them, that you might be interested in getting was:

Book M, p. 129	Joseph A. Nunley made Andrew J. B. Nunneley his Attorney, Apr. 22, 1846. Joseph was heir of Anderson Nunley and Thomas Easley.

This was from the Recorder's office.

Actually, although Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly was the youngest child (and did not reach 21 until 1839) he apparently bought up the legacies of several of his brothers and sisters.

Martha was hoping the information she found would lead her back to Magna Charta. However, my line branches way off to get to the two Baldwins who were immigrant ancestors. I am enclosing a chart of my mother and the succeeding one that will show this connection. Mary Bruen's line goes back to Magna Charta.

I am also enclosing pages from the Baldwin book I may have mentioned to you before. I had written Martha's aunt, Mildred Marshall, about it back in 1966. Now that we have the information Martha sent, look at the William at the bottom of page 803 and see if you can make a connection between him (with 8 daughters and 3 sons) and the John (will dated 1770) who had 2 sons and 8 daughters.

Now to the Nunneley side. From the will of William Baldwin we know that Martha married Anderson Nunnelly after 14 March 1789, which would indicate she was born 1790-1760. The 1830 census shows her 40-50, and the 1820 census shows Anderson over 45 and Martha over 45. Obadiah married Elizabeth, Martha's sister, Feb. 26, 1784.

Today I have ordered from the Virginia Archives the military record of Joseph NUNNALLY, Jr. (4.4 in Shortal's manuscript) that he says died in the Revolutionary War. I have also written the clerk of Amelia County to see if there was a will or administration that might name the heirs. Shortal lists John, Obediah and William as his only children, but I think he is the most likely one to be the father of our Anderson. Do you agree? At any rate, I'll send you a copy of whatever I get. I have always had a woman's intuition that Obediah and Anderson were brothers, and that Martha and Elizabeth were sisters, and I still think it must be true. All through the generations several of one Nunnelly family would marry several of a neighboring family, as for instance, the Easleys. I just believe Anderson was younger than Obediah and probably did not serve in the War. You will also notice that John, the first named child of Joseph, Jr., named a son Anderson.

If we establish that Joseph was the father, then we might find an Anderson surname for a wife, as was so often the case. Maybe Frances was an Anderson.

It seemed like old times hearing from you. I do express my deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. I am sure she was a lovely lady, and you can never have another mother. But your remarkable father sounds so interesting and I am sure he is a joy for you and your sisters. Our memories are where our loved ones live when they leave this world, and bitter-sweet as they are, I am thankful for mine.

Have you heard from or of Louise Finley Wilcox, 1301 South Reno Street, El Reno, OK 73036? I answered a query in Puzzlers and she sent me a letter she got from Nona Ann Nunnelly, 1302 N. Alden Rd., Muncie, IN 37304, seeking the family of John Theophilus Nunnelly, born in Kentucky in 1837. He was the child of William Nunley and Lavinia, both born in Virginia. I will try to send them what seems pertinent to their interests.

You will probably have to save this letter until you are rested, as it rambles all over the place. My thoughts are always ahead of my hands, and sometimes when I am finished nothing makes any sense.

Will look forward to a visit from you and Fran one of these days.

Love,

PS I am writing Martha Cooke and sending her the same things I am sending you.

Dear Elizabeth,

I was delighted and surprised to receive your letter of 16 June, and to know the visit of Fred and Myrtle Nunnelee of Sikeston, MO, had sparked a renewed interest in our research on Anderson Nunnally. My search on this family has been almost stopped by other family interests and am happy to be back "looking".

The Anderson Nonnery who served in the Revolutionary War from North Carolina has always seemed to me to be the right Anderson who ended up living in Hickman County, TN. I had hoped that someone would pursue DAR membership on this patriot and am so happy that you are considering such. The bounty land information concerning Anderson Nunnery proves that he definitely is not our Anderson and a much older (?) and different Anderson. Please do try for a supplemental on Anderson Nonnery.

I was quite surprised to find that you list a marriage for Patsy Nunnally to a James P. Grey. Such information is no where to be found in my files. Can you supply further information concerning this child of Anderson and Martha?

There is no doubt in my mind that Joseph A. Nunneley and "Alec" Nunnally, son of Anderson and Martha are one and the same. Since this Joseph A. Nunneley acted as attorney for the children of Livicy Criner, daughter of Anderson and Martha Nunley (Crawford Co., AK, 20 Oct 1849) to seek their portion of their grandparents estate from Lawson Nunley, administrator, I firmly believe that Joseph A. was acting in behalf of his nieces, the children of his sister, Livicy. The very faded copy of this court action was found in the trunk of Lula Nunneley Barker, granddaughter of Joseph A. Nunneley in July 1982 just before or at the time she went into a nursing home in Arkansas. Mrs. Barker was also, in possession of many other items that had belonged to Joseph A. and his second wife, Clarissa Moore Maxwell Nunneley. I think that further research may show that Livicy Nunnally married John A. Criner. A John A. Criner appears on the tax list for Carroll County, AK in 1838, the same year that Joseph A. Nunley first appears in Arkansas with two slaves, a distillery worth $900 and is taxed $1.24.

I do agree with your chronology, but will add another date:

Rutherford Co., TN - 1810 census

Anderson Nunnelly (or Nundly) 2-2-0-1 / 4-0-0-1

I was alerted to the above by Jill K. Garrett of Columbia, TN, an author and researcher in TN. She also, told me of the estate settlement of one Anderson Nunley in July, 1849, which I am enclosing. I have no idea who this Anderson is and find it hard to place him, unless he is a son of William or there was a great delay in the settlement of Anderson's and Martha's estates. I feel it quite interesting that the Criner daughters did not file for a part of their grandparents estate until Oct. 1849 or several months after the Wayne Co., TN estate settlement. Is this really the FINAL settlement of the estate of our Anderson, after the death of his wife Martha which occurred between the letter of 1843 and the 1850 census? Or is this yet, another Anderson?

I am enclosing my work sheets which I feel sure you can update with much additional information on the children. Most of my information has come from census records and the Hickman County books that I have ordered, but so much is still missing. I know the Hickman families surely had more children than my research shows. I would truly appreciate complete lists of those families.

I have, over the past couple of years, been able to find a couple of additional family members of Joseph A. Nunneley. One lady in Tulsa was able to add "the oldest child", Elizabeth, who I did not know existed since she was already married by 1850. Another, not a researcher, but a Nunneley, who lives about 25 miles from Bartlesville (in Caney, KS) is also a descendent through Samuel Houston Nunneley. They are not interested in sharing, but wanted what I had for a family reunion - I sent a lot of copied material and have not had a thank you or even we received a note. It was not returned, so know they did get it in time for the reunion two years ago - so it goes with some people! They are, apparently, quite prosperous as was their ancestor, Sam, who was an Arkansas banker and land owner. They were excited and delighted to know I had so much material and could not wait to receive it / maybe the family reunion is still going on and they have not had time to say "thank you" - One of the other children of this family, a Mary Carper, also of Kansas, did call me and tell me she was happy I was sending the material for their reunion and would send me some information - no, neither did she. So it goes in the world of genealogy. They really knew nothing, so they said, but I do know they had gone to Arkansas to research some cemeteries, so someone is kidding someone.

I am excited that you will try for the supplemental - please do get busy on this. As a member of DAR on my Charles Rose of NJ, I find the filing of our records in such a good and permanent place a continuation of our American history. It took me a long time to decide that I wanted to join DAR. I am not a joiner, but good DAR friends finally convinced me that as a genealogist, the safe and good place for all of my work was DAR. Since I joined, I have become so interested and this year I am Librarian and Lineage Research Chairman, both offices which I have held before. Working at the local library does not allow me time to progress further on the board, but still allows me to be active.

Will close for this time and will be anxious to hear from you soon.

Best wishes,

Mary

Mary Nunneley

Just before writing you the last time I answered the ad (in Genealogical Helper) of Debbie Pierce of Route 1, Box 585-B, Burns, TN 37029 to do a surname search on Nunnelee/Nunnaley, and she reported the Wayne County document you sent plus "another settlement made 18 Oct 1849" which I have ordered from the Clerk and will send on to you when I get it. However, she did not have anything else new in her report. I was really trying to learn something more about Edward's wife.

I will wait until I get the other document before trying to figure out this Wayne County connection.

Am enclosing a page on the community of Nunnelly Debbie included in her report that might be of interest to you and your husband, and also a picture of Will Nunneley, the grandson of Lawson Harrison, with my mother, the great-granddaughter of Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley. Everybody thought they looked so much alike. This picture was made in 1957 at the back gate of the beautiful old home that Lawson bought about 1830, I believe, and that has since fallen down. Will's father, Walter, was a personal friend of Thomas A. Edison who used to visit him there. I remember the real museum Walter had in that beautiful old home, and every summer the entire clan would gather for a reunion and picnic on the lawn. The Nunneleys were all wealthy people, including Edward and Anderson, and especially Andrew Jackson Baldwin who owned most of the timber in the entire county.

The OLD HUNTSVILLE LAND OFFICE RECORDS is very interesting and I am so glad you sent it to me. But since it has a separate section for military warrants, I believe Anderson just bought this new land and then five years later assigned it to someone else, probably at a nice profit. But it shows he was living in Tennessee in 1810.

How do you buy the census history sheets from the Springfield, VA, address shown on them? I might want to get a few. However, I don't have census records on too many of my ancestors.

Do you want all the family group sheets back that you sent? About the only thing I have been able to change on them, excluding AJB, of course, is Izaline's middle name, which was Isabel. I, like you, had tried to make a J of the initial instead of another I. I will be glad to return them with the new document I have ordered from Wayne County- so please let me know.

I am also going to try to find somebody in Amelia County to check into the final settlement of Joseph Nunneley's estate and see if we can't make our Anderson his son. Since he named one of his sons Joseph, it certainly seems likely. I have corresponded with the deputy clerk there for several years and will ask her to recommend somebody to do the search. It is so difficult to do it from a distance.

Will let you know as soon as I hear from Wayne County. I think Martha died about 1849, but she was "administratrix of the will of Anderson" and the document you sent says William C. was administrator, which means there was no will. Then the Criner court action sues "Lawson Nunley, administrator". Do you suppose she never settled Anderson's estate, and each of these people brought suit in their respective counties for their part of Anderson's estate through Martha? It is all too confusing to me. I wish those courthouses hadn't burned!!

My best to you,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

In preparation for an overnight visit last week from Fred Nunnelee and his wife Myrtle of Sikeston, Missouri, I read through my entire Nunnelee/Nunnally file, hoping to be able to talk intelligently about what I already know. Suddenly something caught my attention that I had overlooked dozens of times. The Anderson NONNERY who served in NC as a Private in Doherty Company from 15 Apr 1781 to January 1782 was not the same as the Anderson Nunnery whose heirs got boundy land. All of which prompted me to do a companion chronology for Mary's. Please look this over and tell me what you think of it, correcting any errors, adding or deleting anything you can, etc. I really believe our Anderson served in the Revolutionary War, and I think I am going to file a DAR supplemental application on the basis of this proof.

I am also enclosing a list of the children of Martha Baldwin and Anderson Nunnally, with the dates that I can supply, and I hope you can complete it. Mary, I believe the one listed on Mary Ann Griner's list as "Alec" is actually your Joseph Alexander. You remember in the letter to Martha in 1843, John and Mary Ann referred to their brother Alexander, but did not mention a Joseph.

However, the fact that his name was Joseph makes me more convinced than ever that our Anderson was the son of the Joseph in Shortal's manuscript and the brother of Obediah, and that he and Obediah married sisters. I think he was not mentioned by name because he was too young at the time. However, I believe there should be some record of the final disposition of the administration that might name him. I am going to see what I can find out about this.

I also included in my tentative chronology the 14 June 1764 deed to show that Joseph Nunnale was in Amelia County at that time. The Ann Waller Reddy report indicates that the first mention of the family in Amelia County was 1777 when Obediah and John volunteered (page 2 of her report).

Of course, John Nunnelee is not concerned with our Anderson Nunnally line, but some of you are, and I am sending this letter to:

Mary Nunneley 1550 South Dewey Bartlesville, OK 74003	She has done a tremendous amount of research on her husband's family who are descended from Joseph Alexander, son of Anderson
Fran Koole 124 Cloverleaf Schertz, TX 78154	She isn't directly connected but has accumulated tons of data which she generously shares with everybody.
Martha Cooke 5213 Meadow Lake Road Brentwood, TN 37027	She is descended from Anderson and Martha through Lawson Harrison and his first wife, and went to Virginia to research the Baldwin family records in Amelia and Nottoway Counties.

Dear Mary:

I was so glad to hear from you and have been trying for several days to write this letter. Not at all sure I will finish it today. Have had house guests from California among other things, but this hot weather slows me down considerably.

I didn't dream you were keeping such detailed records on all the Nunneley connections so guess I have been remiss in not sending you more. You see, I have concentrated on just my direct line in every instance. No wonder you have such great records -- you devote so much time and attention to them.

First, please remove Patsy as a possible child of Anderson and Martha. Mildred Gambill of Waverly, TN, wrote me about her back in 1964, but I thought at the time she was of a later generation. That was why I sent the list to you, to add to or weed out. Mildred was a Sarah Foster descendant.

Am enclosing a Family Group Sheet for Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley, as well as pages from Martha Jane Nunneley Easley's family Bible. This Bible is all torn up, but I believe all the records are here. I don't understand why there were no marriage records, but apparently there are none. Lots of the information about the family members was supplied by my mother in a memorandum I wrote on 4 June 1965.

I am also enclosing a typed list I made about 1956/7 from the index books at the courthouse in Centerville. My primary object then was to make the connection to Edward Nunnelee so I could get my mother into the DAR, but I jotted down some of the other things as well. You may keep this, as I made several carbons. I have ordered No. 6 and No. 10 on the list to attach to the DAR supplemental as proof of relationship.

Incidentally, I am going ahead with the application and will send it in as soon as I get these documents. I think I have everything I need, although they are getting more particular and usually write for additional information. In fact, I have had a couple returned in the last few years that they were unable to verify. I still hope to be able to satisfy them and file again one of these days. I, too, am Lineage Research Chairman for our chapter and Treasurer. In the more than 25 years I have been a member I have served four terms as Regent, but that is just about a full-time job. However, I do enjoy the DAR and have a dozen supplementals. My first ancestor was Edward Nunnelee, but when you get one approved it is not too difficult to go on to another. I have two Easley and one Wade supplemental. Will surely keep you up to date on thie one on Anderson and hope it goes through in a couple of years. It usually takes them that long to verify a supplemental, especially when it is on a new ancestor.

Dear Mary:

So glad to hear from you. Yes, I, too, am having trouble with the documents naming Martha Baldwin. I can see why the will of her father, which was written in 1789, did not mention a husband because that obviously was before her marriage. But the only justification I can think of in the future documents is that they wanted to keep the name as it appeared in the will. I don't know whether that is sufficient justification or not, but now it would not be. Yes, it is entirely possible that Martha was a second wife, but I have read through everything in my file and don't find any indication of that in anything. We know Lawson H. was married twice.

I am enclosing copy of a letter I have just received from Mrs. Willhoite regarding the information she gave Shortal about Joseph. I have written the VA Archives for the military record of Joseph, and also Amelia County for a will or estate papers. I will surely send them on as soon as I get them! I have also written Miss Helen Foster (addressing the letter to her mother, as well) asking for the records she cited in her application. My letter of some months ago from Shortal said he did not go into the records for his information.

The two documents I have recently received from Hickman County are not much help. One is a bill of sale for a negro girl named Sarah from Martha Nunnely to Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly, dated 5 Jan 1845, witnessed by Lawson H. Nunneley, R. L. Sullivan and P. M. Hornbeak. The other is a deed by "Marthy Nunneley Executrix of the last will and testament of Anderson Nunneley Deceased" to the same AJBN for 180 acres in three tracts, one being the homeplace in Gray's Bend of Duck River where Anderson lived. It bears date of 6 June 1848 and is witnessed by P. M. Hornbeak and J. D. L. Nunneley. Betsy Nunnelly, one of the daughters, married Hornbeak, and James DeMarquis Lafayette was the son of my Edward Nunnelee, the father of Izaline who married AJBN. Have I completely lost you? They all lived in the same neighborhood, you know. The importance of this document, it seems to me, is that Anderson did have a will, and that this was probably the last document Martha executed, since it disposed of her home.

The Dodsons were in the courthouse when I spent a couple of days there in 1957. I write to Mrs. Caroline J. Coats in Florida. She is descended from Sarah, the youngest child of Izaline and AJBN. We called her Aunt Sally, and she visited us when I was a small child. That gives Caroline's husband both Nunnelle/Nunneley ancestors that I have. I do not know J. P. in Alhambra, but since you said you would write him, I'll wait to see what you find out.

Remember the page from Colket's Founders of Early American Families I sent you? I wrote the Library of Congress to see how I could get a copy of a typescript listed on "Baldwins of the Eastern Shore" and am enclosing -what they sent me. They did not even enclose a bill for it. However, they did enclose the folder on how libraries can get things on their loan program. Since you are with the library, perhaps you can get some of the other items listed. We do have a little Carnegie Library here, but it is manned with volunteer help and they don't use the loan facilities at all. Theck the page I sent and you will see several numbers. I didn't mention a number, and I don't know if these refer to different documents or not. They also list Jester's Adventurers which I assume contains something about thie John Baldwin who came to Virginia. He is the one from the entire list that I thought might be ours, but you see from the one enclosed that they were all the same family before they came to America.

I am sending these same enclosures to Martha Cooke, but I did not mention to her anything about the dates for Martha Baldwin.

A genealogist from Salt Lake City is having a seminar for the East Texas Genealogical Society in Tyler on September 10 on Virginia. I plan to go, and if I get aa chance I'll ask her about this problem. I can't get any sense out of these old handwritten papers until I abstract them on the typewriter.

Martha's mother was dead at the time of the P/A in 1924, and I wonder if she was dead at the time of the Chancery Proceedings to sell the slaves in 1814. It seems to me she would have been made a party fo the suit if she had been living. But I may not know enough to figure this out.

I am always so glad to hear from you, and when the other documents are received, I'll let you know.

Do hope your father is well and happy and that you are, too.

Love,

PS Did you get a note from Martha Cooke saying that Mr. Bostruck thinks her last generation (that Thomas was the father of the old William) is wrong? I did and have written her asking what Mr. Bostruck's interest in this family is. If he is one of us, maybe he can be of real help.

Dear Fran:

Was so glad to get your letter and am hastening to answer it to return Mary Nunneley's letter. Since I can answer some of her questions, I am sending her a copy of this letter.

First, I do not believe Edward had the middle name "Marcus". I think the correct name is "Marquis de Lafayette" whom Edward met and for whom he named his second son, as you will see by the enclosed copy of affidavit filed in Ripley County, Missouri, in 1905. I have not seen a middle name for Edward in any of the records.

Since my mother and father were married in Centerville, Hickman County, Tennessee, and my mother's family had lived there for all the generations since Edward, I am well acquainted with what used to be the village of Nunnelly but is now only a house or two. However, back about 1922 or 1923 I was visiting there as a child and went to the big picnic and family reunion that Walter S. Nunnelly had annually on the lawn of his big house. This Walter was the son of Lawson H. who was born in NC in 1801 and was the son of Anderson and Martha. Lawson H. bought this beautiful house in 1834 and it has been in his family since then, except that when I was there a couple of years ago it was deserted and in a very bad state of repair. The last one to really live there was Will Nunnelly, the son of Walter, and he has been dead almost 20 years. Edward Nunnelee lived in Gray's Bend quite a distance from Nunnelly.

The affidavit will also answer Mary's question about the escrow account. When my mother was a child some of the relatives had great hopes of being awarded money, but I haven't heard anything further about it since this affidavit.

Thanks so much, Fran, for sharing this letter with me. I am returning it herewith.

Now, since you have been so trusting of me, I am trusting you by sending you the information I got about Richard Nunnally from Holmes Corey Inc., PO Box 147, Orange City, Florida 32763. I have had this several years but did not try to make any connection to anybody later on. Please return this to me, as I am not keeping a copy.

I will be very glad to have the entire Nunnally Genealogy by Joseph Adams Shortal, so please tell me what it costs so I can send you the money.

I see by the 1820 Tennessee Census you sent that Anderson is listed in Hickman County but I do not find Edward. Wonder where he was? And thanks also for the Virginia Marriages. I still think Edward's wife was Sarah Vaughan because the marriage took place in Halifax County, and on your "Census Index Report" Edward is living in Halifax County. I also think it is more likely that he married in 1782 rather than 1794 because of his age. Of course, I could be wrong on both counts.

I hope I am not adding to the confusion with my information. I have a file about an inch thick of correspondence I have had with older members of the family through the years, but it is almost too much to copy. I'll have to show it to you in person one of these days. Send me your pedigree chart so I will know how to send you what I have that is pertinent.

Best wishes,

P. S. Do you have Spence's History of Hickman County? On page 22 is the following:

"Ned Nunnellee, who came from Virginia about 1806 to the Fifth District, came to Gray's Bend about 1810, and died here. He was the father of Washington, Mark and Timothy Nunnellee. His daughter, Jane, was the first wife of Jesse R. Eason. Nunnellee was buried on the John V. Gray place. Anderson Nunnelly lived in Gray's Bend in 1818. These names are the same in pronunciation, but are spelled differently. . . . William Foster married Sally, the daughter of Anderson Nunnelly."

There is a discrepancy in this and the third paragraph of the affidavit, but I believe the statements in the history are probably more accurate.

I am sending a copy of the affidavit to Mary and hope you will send her a copy of the arrival of Richard, when you have a chance to get it copied.

Dear Elizabeth,

Received your letter today and am surely thrilled - The power of attorney from Joseph A. Nunley to Andrew J. B. Nunneley, Apr 22, 1846 gives me almost positive proof that the Alexander Nunnelly that is the son of Anderson, is truly my long searched for information. I really, for years, have not doubted that Joseph Alexander Nunneley was the son of Anderson and Martha, but I feel that this is enough proof for me to proceed. I did not know the document even existed. I gather by your letter that you have ordered it, so will just wait until you hear and will send any expenses you incur.

Now to the wills and other items we received from Martha Cooke. They are just great, but I have a few problems with Martha Baldwin. Check me out if you will on the following:

1789	Martha Baldwin -	named in will of her father
1803	Martha Baldwin -	Rec'd part of estate (Nottoway Co) from her father (her mother Elizabeth still apparently living)
1814	Martha Baldwin -	Sale of slaves from estate of father
1824	Marthey Nunnely-	Power of attorney to George Baldwin to obtain part of estate

Why is Martha Baldwin not called Nunnely until 1824? Since some of the sons, namely, Joseph A. and John were certainly born before 1803 (think Lawson was also) why was she not named Martha Nunnelly in the estate record of 1803?At one time, Fran asked me if it was a possibility that Martha was a second wife of Anderson since there appeared to be quite an age difference in the children. Since A.J.B. Nunnelly was apparently 21 in 1839, I know now that the age difference is not as great as thought since there were so many children. It still makes me wonder since she was not called Martha Nunnelly.

No, Ephraim Nunnally is not the father of our Anderson. Ephraim (6.33) was born 1780 and married 20 Oct 1803, Nancy Williamson. His birthdate should almost make him a contemporary of the Anderson Nunnelly who married Martha Baldwin, and since we know that Anderson and Martha had children by 1801 and probably earlier, Ephraim is definitely not the father. I suspect that there is a connection since he had a son Anderson and lived in Prince Edward County which was formed from Amelia. When Amelia was first formed, it contained what is now Prince Edward and Nottoway counties. There are many, many marriages of Baldwins and several Nunneley's in Prince Edward.

I have really no idea who the father of Anderson could be, but I have also, wondered if Joseph (4.4 in Shortal's manuscript) could be the father. I do know that Shortal has missed obvious public sources. The DAR papers of Miss Helen Foster (1971) list the children of Obadiah and Elizabeth and Shortal has not apparently had access to this material. I know of another mistake. I answered a query of a Mrs. Virginia Womacks of Ohio concerning a Daniel (b 1683) married Susanna Puckett. I sent her the Daniel Nunnally information from Shortal's manuscript and she said it was definitely not right. I suggested that she write to him, since I had heard he was trying to update the material for another publication. I do think he has do a good job, as far as he went and love having the information, but I do feel that much is missing which could have been found with a little more research. I have guessed that his line is probably pretty well researched and the other lines are an off shoot of his own research on his line.

I have found so many Anderson Nunneley (and variants) that it is almost impossible to sort them out. I have found them in Ark, Tenn, Tex, North Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri and Virginia. It was such a popular name. The surname Anderson was many in Amelia County and it appears that all of the Anderson's were around when wills were made in the years very early in Amelia. The Virginia Genealogist has published all of the early Amelia wills and in reading them, the name Anderson appears so often as a witness or administrator. Amelia marriages have many Anderson men posting bond when neither party is named Anderson. They must have been quite active in the county.

Back again – I have looked at the William at the bottom of page 803 of the Baldwin genealogy and at the Will of John dated 1770 – the names of the sons are the same, but see no daughters names that are similar. The William of page 803, also had a son Charles. I may be missing something, but I do not see a connection. If you look at the will of William Baldwin (1760), he gives unto his son John, all the land which I have in Carolina. The will of John Baldwin (1770) gives to his son William, five shillings – the William on page 803 may have taken up the lands mentioned in the will of the older William Baldwin.

Can you believe? I am still trying to get this letter off to you. Have been so busy. My sister and her husband took a vacation to LA and FLA and I was a little busy trying to work and keep track of my Dad while they were gone, so have done little else.
I reread your last letter and realize that you did not include the Joseph Nunley power of attorney to Andrew J. B. Nunneley (22 Apr 1846) in your items ordered. Will order that soon.
I have recently ordered and received two Hickman County items (see enclosed). I am having fun reading and have really just started the Court Records. I had read the History of Hickman County on microfilm from the Tennessee State Library, but it did not have an index, so am happy to have the reprint from the Dotsons. I hope Mr. and Mrs. Dotson continue their publishing of the Hickman records. They also, collect genealogical records of Hickman County families which they will one day, donate to the library. Will send the Joseph A. Nunneley family for them to include.
Do you know either of the people Olgia Dotson mentioned in her note to me? I have not heard of them, but will contact them. They apparently are researching Anderson and think it nice of her to send them.

Must close for now (finally). I cannot recall writing to anyone for almost a month. Let us keep up this search for Anderson's parents. Somewhere werare sure to find the information.

Dear Mary:

Don't let the formality of this letter scare you. It's just that I like to look at a copy and know for sure to whom the letter was written.

I have thought of you so much and wondered how your mother was, and how you and the others of your family are. I do hope she improved since you wrote me and that she is enjoying good health now. It was last October when I last wrote you.

Are you back on your genealogy? I feel sure you got the same letter from Martha Cooke that I did. I haven't heard any more from her but am eager to.

I will wait to hear from you before sending you an item or two I have accumulated. I know if you are not in the frame of mind, you would rather not be bothered with correspondence.

Haven't heard from Fran for a long time, either. Christmas was a complete nightmare for me -- the first time without Jimmie -- and I was not able to send any cards at all. Each time I sat down with my list I got physically ill, so I gave up and decided not to torture myself like that. I hope to do much better next year.

Please drop me a line and let me know how things are with you and yours. I still would like for you and Fran to come to see me sometime -- but not now while the days are in the high 90's!

Love,

Elizabeth

October 8, 1982

Dear Mary:

Fran sent me a copy of your letter, and I can't find words to tell you how sorry I am to hear of your mother's condition. I will certainly keep her and you, too, in my prayers. Since your father is only 82 (my Jimmie was 82, which seemed so young) your mother must be even younger. Miracles do happen, and maybe this will be one of them. My mother so often said, "Man proposes but God disposes". Please know that you will be in my thoughts and prayers, and if there is anything at all I can do for you -- in any way at all -- please don't hesitate to let me know.

Yes, I agree with you that one of these days we will solve the Nunneley puzzle. I had really laid the Nunneleys aside for several years and concentrated on others. But I am glad you and Fran got me back on the track. I really do want to know who they are.

As I have told you, my mother always said Izaline and Andrew Jackson Baldwin were not related. But I have always thought they were. Have you tried the Episcopal church records? I saw something in a magazine article recently and plan to follow through on that.

I am grateful for our having found each other, Mary, and I am so sorry for the pessimistic outlook for your mother. Your father will need a lot of support, and I am so glad you are able to give it. I hope Fran will keep me posted.

Keep the faith!

Elizabeth

Dear Fran:

You probably think I have disappeared from the face of the earth, but that is not quite the case. I have just been buried in work and have been so torn up that it has not been possible for me to write an intelligent letter. My kitchen had leaked, and after I found a carpenter to tear out the old ceiling and put in a new one, I had to paper and paint. It was really a mess, with everything in the room covered with the dirt from the ceiling. So it has taken me ab out a month, but I am happy to report it is all done now except the knobs or pulls for the cabinets. I have my heart set on a kind that they no longer make, so I may not be able to follow through on that. However, for the timebeing I am holding off until every possibility has been exhausted.

Thank you so much for all the information enclosed in your last letter. You certainly have accumulated a wealth of Nunley information, and I congratulate you on doing such a good job. I do plan to read Shortel's manuscript again and then write him about it, as well as Mrs. Willhoite in Durant, Oklahoma. I need to refresh my mind on everything before I take up any of their valuable time. I note his letter to you of April 1980 says that it is possible our Anderson was the son of Joseph, no. 3.4. It would surely solve lots of problems for me if that turned out to be the case.

I think you may already have the above list but not including the NUN and NUNN.

I was interested to know that you once worked for Atlantic. One of my brothers graduated from West Point in 1937 but was not commissioned because of a physical disability. However, he went to Dallas and took Atlantic's test for a job and worked in Lake Charles, Louisiana, for them for several years and then was sent to the East Texas field. We all thought he was making a terrible mistake to leave them to go into business for himself just before the War, but as it turned out he has done remarkably well and has never had a single regret. He lives in Alexandria, Louisiana, now and is an independent operator. However, he was loyal to Atlantic for many a day. So our lives seem to have lots of things in common.

If I find Mr. Shortal can contribute anything I'll let you know. Surely Anderson had a father somewhere!

Hope things are going fine with you, and also with Mary. I never have heard from her any more, but I guess she is depending on you to be the conduit, as I am. So give her my best. I still wish the two of you would plan to meet here sometime.

As ever,

Dearest Elizabeth,

I Received your wonderful letter and all the goodies, including the postcards, just yesterday and today I made copies of everything and sent them to Mary, along with one of the postcards of your fantastic home. I was amazed to find so many goodies in one envelope. Mary will be also.

I am returning all of your original records and hope they don't get lost in the mail. They are excellent. I will write you next week but in the meantime I wanted to get these goodies back to you.

I also received a letter from Mary yesterday and she had a goodie to share also. She will probably send you a copy too but I'm beating her to the punch since I have a feeling her record on Anderson Nonnery just might tie in with your Andrewson Nunnery. In other words, it might be the same man. I'm pretty sure there were no Nonnery men in the Rev. War and that the name was misspelled. And I'll just bet that Andrewson and Anderson was spelled the way it sounded to the person doing the writing, again maybe the same man.

Mary states in her letter the following:

"I ordered from the Archives, the Anderson Nonnery papers, enclosed. Nothing! I doubt that the NC Archives could add anything, as it appears that these were taken from there. If Anderson was born in 1765, as some have stated, he would have been 17 years and definitely the right age to have served. The other Andrewson Nunnery from NC was deceased and his family obtained his bounty land, I don't know where, as I do not have his papers. I am beginning to wonder if Anderson Nunnelley was married twice or at al (ha).

Guess my theory in above paragraph is wrong, after digesting Mary's paragraph. More next time. As ever,

Fran

Dear Elizabeth:

Nor is this a formal letter. I too, find it much easier to begin with formality and be able to find addresses ever so much quicker when referring to a letter of months ago.

My Mother died in February, and it was quite hard on our family after losing my sister, Nancy in June, 1982. To lose two family members from cancer within less than one year is sad. My greatest happiness surely must be that I was accepted into DAR on Charles Rose, NJ, who was also, her Revolutionary ancestor. My papers arrived when she was still alert enough to be very thrilled and "make" every visitor aware. She was my greatest genealogical fan and had known for the most of her life that we were eligible to join DAR, but had never known the exact patriot or how to obtain the records. It was truly a wonderful thing to hand her my records and let her know that her encouragement was above all, the basis of my research and final acceptance into DAR. She was such a wonderful lady. I will miss her forever.

My Dad is 83 and doing wonderful living alone. Mother made me promise we three remaining daughters would leave him in his home. We have had to threaten him a few times (which he totally ignores), but he is doing very well. He taught Mother to cook after they were married, so he is quite able to handle that job. Now if we can just keep him off of his roof and the neighbor's roof, doing minor repairs, we may have it made. I, after working at the library from 8:30 to 5:30 daily, make the 200 mile round trip every other weekend to relieve my sister who has the primary care since she lives in the same town. Our younger sister lives in Louisiana and visits when time permits. She is here for a few days now and Dad is enjoying his "baby" and the spoiling she is doing while here.

I am sorry that your Christmas was not a good one. I do understand, but I must feel that the wonderful years that we are allowed with our loved ones are such lucky years. So many have such a few years. I had my sister, Nancy, for 45 Years and Mother for 51 years. You really had that Jimmie Dannelly for your lifetime. We must not be sad because we are luckier than most and you had the good fortune to have him as a wonderful cousin before he became your husband. I am so happy that I was allowed such a long time to love them, for Nancy and Mother were such special people.

I have not heard from Fran in a long time, too. She has, in the past, not been too well, but hope this is not the case. I know at times, that we slow down on a particular work of genealogy that we're doing and both, Fran and I, have not written for long periods of time in the past, but begin again. Hope this is the case.

I did hear from Martha Cooke and she said that she was sending the Martha Baldwin material to you. She said that they were planning a trip for further research in Nottaway County.

I have gone through my material on Anderson Nunnelly and have prepared a chronology of the material that I have. I find that what I have is little and indicates to me from my material (please correct me if you see errors) that it is possible that Anderson Nunnelly probably died between 1820 and 1830. If I were to guess at a date, unconfirmed, I would wonder if the Nottaway Co., VA power of attorney by Martha Nunnelly to obtain a part of her father's estate (as sent by Martha Cooke) might say that she was in need of money and place his death between 1820 and 1824. I am unable to locate any records of any Anderson and Martha Nunnelly until 1849 when Joseph A. Nunley (my husband's ancestor) is granted power of attorney for the children of his sister Livicy Nunnelly Criner in their attempt to obtain part of the estate of Anderson and Martha, their grandparents, Martha Cooke has sent information that Anderson died in 1848. She has not sent any proof of that death date (as I too, have no proof that he died earlier). I do not have a copy of the 1848 administration of the Hickman Co., TN estate which she said was the estate of Anderson Nunnelly by Martha Nunnelly. Wish I knew the dates so that I could order the papers. I truly wonder if that was the final administration of the estate of Anderson and Martha Nunnelly? See the chronology, 1849.

I have found no one who is working on Anderson and Martha Nunnelly, but you, Martha Cooke and me, so have never presented the above thoughts to anyone. Since Martha seems so certain about his date of death, I have not even mentioned the chronology to her. She is so much nearer the area of their home and probable death that I felt that she surely had some proof, but just had not sent it or I had failed to understand some of the records. Was your aunt able to find Anderson's death date, or is such required, on membership of the War of 1812? I have an ancestor who was in the War of 1812 (again on Mother's side) but have not pursued membership, so know little about the organization or its requirements, and proofs. A good friend (vice-regent of DAR) feels that we should look into the possibility of starting a chapter. Our DAR chapter is large and active and she feels that many would be elibible for 1812. I, with going to Dad's so often, just have such little time for such, but think it would be a nice thing for Bartlesville.

I, after spending the entire day at a typewriter at the library, am sure my home typing is negligent. Please forgive.

Do go over the chronology if you will and let me know your thoughts. If you have dates to add or correct, I would appreciate it so much. I just feel, without any proofs, that Anderson Nunnelly died before 1830. If he did not, where is he??

I would love to receive a Christmas card in 1983 with a picture of the Homestead. If you have done it before - do it again. It is a beautiful home and surely must have wonderful memories to be shared.

Love Mary

Dear Mary:

So glad to get your letter with all the enclosures. I have read and re-read them, and hope eventually to have all the pieces fitted together.

"Wayfarers of Walton" was written by Anita B. Sims. If you will look on the 7th page of the Shortal manuscript, under "5.9 John", etc., you will see it mentioned. I had seen a reference to a Nunneley who was one of the early surveyors in Georgia in Family Puzzlers. In April Mrs. Warren conducted a workshop in Tyler, and I asked her where I could learn more about this Nunneley and she gave me the name of the book. It is on the Georgia branch, but they went there from Virginia so apparently are all of the same origin. Our little local library has volunteer help and they don't know how to get things through inter-library loan. However, you may be able to get it, and I would be glad to pay for a Xerox copy of the part that relates to our family.

(Lucille)
Yes, Martha Cooke has the same line as Luci1le Hall Marshall. She/hired Edythe Rucker Whitley to untangle the line, but as soon as she saw that Anderson was a magistrate during the War of 1812, she had her join that organization without checking further into Anderson.

I have the DAR papers on John Nunnelly, James Franklin, William, William Womack and Obadiah, as well as pension papers for Obadiah and Henry. If you would like to see any of these, assuming you don't already have them, please let me know and I'll send them to you.

It is doubtful that Anderson served in the Revolutionary War, but it is very likely that his father did. So all we have to do is find him.

When I run across anything I think will interest you I'll send it on.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth

P. S. The page on GUARDIAN SETTLEMENTS, ETC. you sent me starts off with "Settlement with John McGill, Trustee, Continued". It just happens that I am searching for a John McGill, and I wonder where you got this. Could I get it from the courthouse in Centerville? My John was a Revolutionary War soldier from NC, then went to GA, and I am trying to find where he died. He just may be MY John!

Dear Elizabeth:

Happy to hear from you again so soon and thrilled with the material, especially, the paper "An Old Letter" written by John Nunnelly, son of Anderson and Martha. It really makes me feel more certain that Joseph Alexander Nunneley is the Alec or Alexander, son of Anderson.

The letter, also, proves that Anderson was deceased by 1843 and I think possibly before 1830 - as you stated. If he is still living, where is he? I have been unable to locate any Anderson Nunneley after the 1820 census who I believe to be the same Anderson of Hickman Co., TN.

Martha Cooke of Brentwood, TN., is probably a niece of the Lucille Hall Marshall mentioned in your letter. Martha mentioned in one letter to me that her aunt, not named, had joined Daughters of 1812 on Anderson, so it is likely that Mrs. Marshall is the unnamed aunt. Martha's line is as follows:

Anderson Nunnelly m Martha Baldwin
Lawson H. Nunnelly m #1 Mildred White
Minerva Nunnelly m James M. Hall
Arthur C. Hall m Georgia Stephenson
Mabel F. Hall m Walter B. Clark
Martha J. Clark m Joe Cooke

I have not seen the book Wayfarers at Walton - do you have the author's name and date of publication? I would need such before I could try to order it on inter-library loan. I doubt that I could get it if it is an old book. Libraries are reluctant to lend out of print books, but will usually Xerox pages for patrons. If you know what pages we need, I could place such a request through inter-library.

Thomas Easley/Ecloe Wade are not my husband's line - I only ordered the DAR papers on Thomas because some of his daughters married the sons of Anderson and Martha Nunnelly. After obtaining a copy of the settlement of the estate of Thomas Easley which mentioned so many Nunneley names, I thought and hoped, that the DAR papers might give some clues, and was right since his children were listed with their marriages. In the estate settlement, the heirs of Ecloe Nunnely (m William Nunnely) list an Anderson Nunneley - I do not think this is the Anderson who married Martha Baldwin, but may be a grandson. I think our Anderson was already deceased by Dec., 1844 and the time of this estate settlement of Thomas Easley, so it must be a grandson of both Thomas Easley and Anderson Nunnelly.

Lula Amo Nunneley Barker is probably in a nursing home around Springdale, Ark. I do not know exactly where, but can find out from a cousin of Dick's. I doubt that she could help and know all of her papers, etc., have gone to a niece with whom I correspond.

I am enclosing some more items which you may already have and will send along anything I find in the future and hope you will also share your new found gems.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

Fran Koole sent me your name when I answered her ad in the Genealogical Helper on Nunneley. In fact, she sent me your letter to her dated 5 June 1979, and since I answered some of the questions you raised in my reply to her, I am sending you a copy of it for your information.

Also enclosed is a little chart showing my line back to both Edward and Anderson. My mother always said they were not related, but I can't help but think they were -- even though remotely. I had no trouble at all establishing my eligibility to the DAR on Edward, but Anderson is something else. Since he undoubtedly is your line, I will be happy to exchange what information I have on him with you. Please send me your line so I can narrow it down.

Fran told me I might not hear from you right away since your sister is critically ill. I can sympathize with you on that score since I just lost my husband in March of this year. I still can't really think yet, although I am improving. Grief is a real physical illness, and it does take time to recover from it. I will remember both of you in my prayers.

You will notice my husband and I had the same name. In fact, we were first cousins. I have been so diligent in trying to trace the Dannelly line that I haven't worked on Nunneleys for several years. I do have some old letters (copies, that is) primarily from relatives descended from both lines, as I am, and if you think Anderson is your line, too, please let me know so I can share these with you.

Genealogy is such an exciting and rewarding hobby, and nothing makes me happier than to find a new "cousin". I hope you are one, and that I'll hear from you when circumstances permit.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Dannelly

Dear Mary:

I was so glad to get your letter and all the information it contained. I do hope your dental work is all done and that you are feeling fine again. I, too, have been to the dentist a couple of times in the last week -- the first time in about ten years -- but I surely don't like it.

You are undoubtedly right in assuming Alexander was also the son of Anderson and Martha, and the enclosure "An Old Letter" mentions this brother. You will also note that the children of Anderson listed in the 1820 census add up to 12 rather than the 10 listed in Delia Griner's list. Incidentally, I am enclosing a copy of her original to me, and I certainly do not claim that it is accurate. In fact, it starts off with a misstatement because Andrew Jackson Baldwin was the son and is listed as number 5 with only the name Jackson. They called him that -- actually Jack. I can't place Martha Cooke of Brentwood, TN and don't have any record of correspondence with her. Little did I dream this list would have such wide circulation! You and Fran both sent me copies.

I have been working off and on on this line for more than 20 years, and back in the 60's had quite a bit of correspondence with Lucille Hall Marshall (Mrs. Richard, 746 Elysian Fields Rd., Nashville 37204) who hired at least two professional genealogists to solve the puzzle. This failing, she joined the Daughters of 1812 on Anderson who was a magistrate in Centerville. I think she gave up long ago on this, and when I was in Centerville in 1979 for the dedication of the marker I placed on Edward's grave, I phoned Lucille but she did not feel physically able to come. I have never met her. But my mother wrote Mame Griner (the Mary Ann who signed the "Recollections")hoping she could furnish the missing links, and the enclosed are what she sent. When I was a child we often drove to Tennessee and at that time Mame lived in Forrest City, Arkansas, so we would stop by for a visit. She and my mother were contemporaries and life=long friends as well as relatives. She died several years ago, but she was as eager to trace these Nunneleys as we are.

I was interested in your information about Thomas Easley and Ecleo Wade, as they are my ancestors, too. I have a DAR supplemental on Thomas Easley and Edward Wade, Ecleo's father. The oldest daugheter of Isaline and Andrew Jackson Baldwin, Martha Jane Nunneley, married Edward David Easley. He was the son of Robert Easley and Elizabeth P. Lewis, and Robert was one of the 17 children of Thomas and Ecleo. Edward David died in the Civil War, and he was my mother's grandfather.

Have you seen Wayfarers at Walton? I see it is mentioned in the Shortal material Fran sent me. You are probably familiar with Family Puzzlers edited by Mary Bondurant Warren. I noticed in a recent issue regarding "the division of the 13th District, 1st Section of the Gold Region" that Walter W. Nunnelee was the surveyor. [This was GA] Mrs. Warren conducted a workshop in Tyler in April and I asked her then how I could follow up on this surveyor, and she told me about "Wayfarers". Our little town doesn't even have a copying machine, much less a library loan service. But if you have not seen this book and could get a copy at your library, it might be some help.

I know you don't connect to Edward Nunnelee but Fran asked some questions about him so I am sending you some information taken from his pension application.

You also mentioned that Lula Ama Nunneley Barker is in a nursing home in Arkansas. Please do remember me when you get any information from her. What part of Arkansas is she in? We are only 50 miles from Texarkana. If she lived in the southern part of the state, and if you thought it worthwhile. I might take a little trip up to see her.

Thanks for the address of John F. Nunnelee. Fran sent me a couple of letters he had written a number of years ago. There again, I am hesitant to accept his statements without some real proof. I am especially referring to the family Edward had before he came to Tennessee, and the statement that he was an MD. It is all possible, of course, but I think I would have heard about it since my mother's aunt died when I was a teenager, and no mention was ever made of any of this, which she undoubtedly would have known. Spence in his history does not mention this, either. However, I will try to get some proof before I "blow it off" completely. I just like to have some written proof of what I state as fact.

That brings me to Martha Cooke's dates on Anderson Nunnelly. I don't believe he was 35/6 when Lawson and Alexander were born. I think he might have been closer to 25, and if I were guessing I would use that. He is listed in the 1820 census but not the 1830, although Martha is. This leads me to believe he died sometime between those dates. However, as you probably know, the courthouse in Hickman County burned, and the earliest document that is on file now is one dated 6 Jun 1848, by Martha as executrix of last will and testament of Anderson Nunneley, deceased.

I am sure you know I am not being critical but just careful. I would never call myself a genealogist, but I do like to be able to back up whatever I state. As you may have figured out, I have a new typewriter and I am having all kinds of problems getting my fingers on the right keys. I hope to get better.

Am enclosing a pedigree sheet that goes to AJB and Izaline. In case you are confused about my name, my first husband was Amos K. Payne, and after his death I married my own first cousin, thereby becoming Dannelly again. Jimmie died in March, and I am all alone again, rattling around in this big old house.

I believe these copies will give you about all I know on this family. I am sending the same copies to Fran, although not a copy of this letter to you.. I'll write her a separate letter. If you have any suggestions of what I might do to help, please let me know. Meanwhile, I'll look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth

Fran sent me a number of copies of different things and said you had sent them to her. I may have all the information you have.

Jefferson, TX 75657

August 28, 1982

Dear Fran and Mary:

I'm writing this to both of you, but asking Fran to make a copy for Mary, along with the enclosures, which just happened to come in the same mail.

The letter from Norma Carmel is in response to my letter which in turn was answering her ad in the Helper. Rather than pay her the $50.00 retainer fee, I would prefer to visit a library that has these volumes. However, at the moment I do not have any plans for that. I know Fran has no interest in the Baldwins but Mary and I do. But you see there are Nunleys of every spelling, including Nunn.

The Military Warrant and surveyor's plat came from the Secretary of State of North Carolina. I notice the "heir" who signed the transfer was Joel Nunnery and there is a Joel (#638) on Fran's chart today, the brother of Obediah (#639) who married Elizabeth Baldwin. It was not unusual for brothers to marry sisters, so I wonder if Obediah and Joel could have been brothers of our Anderson, Mary. You will see from the DAR paper on Obadiah that he was born in Amelia County, which is where Anderson was said to have married Martha. And Obadiah even had a child named Martha. We have so many clues without being able to put them together.

I notice also on your little chart, Fran, that Walter was the son of Richard, Jr. We have so many Walters in Anderson's family, and you don't show his children. Do you know, Fran, which one of the three sons of John (son of Richard, Jr.) is your ancestor? You have all of them marked.

I feel that I am imposing by sending you all these things to copy and send to Mary, but as I told you before, I have to go to Marshall to get copies made and I have been confined to the house lately because of electrical, carpenter and plumbing work. Since you seem to have ready access to a copying machine, it is a temptation to send them on to you. If this is an imposition, please do feel free to tell me and I won't do it any more.

You said you were "amazed to know that San Antonio played wuch a big part in my life while " married to Amos K. Payne. Well, now I am sending the return from an envelope that will amaze you more. AK lived in Oklahoma City and worked for an independent oil operator, J. I. Cromwell. Mr. Cromwell had one son who couldn't leave the bottle alone, and one grandson who was about 7 when his grandfather died. Mr. Cromwell had moved to San Antonio and AK went with him. He lived on Furr Drive and his son graduated from high school there. AK was an accountant rather than an attorney, so the trustees of Bob's estate were AK and Mable Walker Willebrandt, the first woman to be Assistant Attorney General, back in the Hoover cabinet. The trust was to run for 20 years. Mabel died in April 1963, and by that time Bob was married and had his own real estate business in Houston, so in about a year the trust was terminated. Frank Huson was the attorney for the trust. He has been dead a long time now, too.

Mr. Cromwell had been a lifelong friend of Patrick J. Hurley in Oklahoma, and the two of them bought an office building in Washington, DC, before it was completed. I don't know when this was, but it was probably in the late 20's. When AK realized Mr. Cromwell was in his final illness, he told General Hurley so he could buy the building from Cromwell and not have to deal with the irresponsible son. So when Mr. Cromwell died he had AK come to Washington to manage the building for him. His first wife died there. They lived in the same apartment house I did, but I never knew her. General Hurley sold the Shoreham Building in 1958, and that was when we moved back to Texas. However, AK continued to do General Hurley's accounting and tax work until he died in Santa Fe about 15 years ago.

My first job in the business world (after a couple years' teaching) was with a law firm here when we had an oil boom in 1935. The experience I got there has been invaluable to me all my life. I almost envy you still having such interesting work. But I can't really say I am sorry not be working. One of the luxuries I enjoy most is reading the morning paper at the breakfast table!

You asked about my "big old house" so I am enclosing a postcard for each of you. This house was built for an inn, and consequently is the biggest and oldest house in Jefferson. My mother and her four children moved here August 1st, 1919. My father had died in April of that year, and our house had burned in January. I have 9 bedrooms and 5 baths, and now I am alone AGAIN! But as long as I have the physical strength to do so, I plan to live here. My brothers and their families come to visit when they can, and this is home. I have opened it for the Pilgrimage for many years, but skipped last year because Jimmie was already in the hospital when they called me. He and AK both were so handy to do things around the house, and my two hands have done everything from upholstering topapering the walls. That makes me love what I have more than if money had bought it.

Since I would love to really know you and Mary, I hope you will plan to meet here sometime, bringing husbands, etc. Just wait until this hot weather is behind us. It is no fun when the weather wilts you.

Thanks for the article on Castroville. It really is an interesting little town and I enjoy visiting there. However, I surely don't get there much any more.

Thank both of you for sending me all the things you have. I think the day will come when the pieces will fit together, and we can look back on a job well done.

Always so glad to hear from both of you.

Elizabeth

PS Incidentally, I have my own copy of the Revolutionary Pension Index, so if I can look up anything for either of you, let me know.

Dear Mary and Martha:

Have been wanting to write you for ages but haven't, hoping I would hear from Richmond where I wrote for a will or estate papers for Joseph Nunnally. Months ago I wrote Amelia County but never heard from them - hence my letter to Richmond. However, I now have the name of the Deputy Clerk in Amelia and will write her personally, hoping to hear something.

I did get from the Virginia Library affidavit Obediah made as an heir of Joseph. When I wrote the Archives in Washington for his military record they sent enclosure No. 2 which shows that he died in the service but does not mention drowning. Mrs. Willhoit had tole me she got that information from Washington.

Incidentally, Mrs. Willhoits is coming to Texas in March. She says she will pack her Nunnally material and bring it along just in case she has an opportunity to come to see me. I hope she does and that she can shed some light for us. Will let you know.

I'll also report if and when I hear from Amelia County. It would help us to know whether our Anderson was actually a brother of Obediah, as I am firmly convinced in my own mind that he was.

Will look forward to hearing from you, Mary, as to the children of Anderson and Martha. Incidentally, the Mrs. Lynn in Centerville was the organizing regent of their Duck River DAR Chapter, and she was the one who organized the program when we put the marker on Edward Nunnelee's grave. She showed me a basement room in the courthouse there that was piled to the ceiling with loose papers of every kind. Her chapter was going to undertake getting them in some sort of order, and I wonder if these books are an outgrowth of that. I was not aware that she had books to sell. A friend who has recently moved to Jefferson is from Centerville and knows everybody there that I do, and she is there for a month or six weeks now. She has suggested that I go back with her sometime for a visit. I would love to do that.

Have either of you read Minnie Pearl's book? She mentions the elegance of the Nunnally home that I remember so well. But it is in ruins now.

When I was a child I went to the old Griner place and remember "Uncle Wid" and "Cousin Mag". I don't know why we didn't call them Aunt and Uncle, but we didn't. If you will look at the information I have sent you before that Mame P'Poole Griner sent me you will see the connection.

Always so glad to hear from you, Mary. Do hope your father is getting along fine, and that your bad weather is over. Ours was the worst in a century, and I am sure Oklahoma was worse than Texas.

My best to both of you -

Elizabeth

Dear Mrs. Dannelly:

As you requested in your letter of August 11, 1982, the following items are enclosed:

1. The title pages of Virginia Historical Index, Volumes I and II, by E. G. Swem, more often referred to as Swem's Index.

2. A page entitled Method of Citation indicating the publications indexed by Swem. Also see my typewritten notes on the same page.

3. Pages 88 and 345 of Swem's Index indicating the references to the surnames BALDWIN and NUNNALLY and their variant spellings.

I have approximately 200 library-standard research books on Virginia. I charge $5.00 per hour for research with a $50.00 retainer.

I have access to the Los Angeles City Library; the Sons of the Revolution Library, a privately-owned library; and the Los Angeles Branch of the LDS Genealogical Library. This latter library receives annual updates of all the new material received at Salt Lake City.

I do not charge for my transportation or time to and from libraries; I charge only for the time spent in actual research; typing reports; typing material found; xeroxing, etc.

Thank you for your enquiry, and I look forward to being of assistance to you in your genealogical research in Virginia.

Sincerely,

Norma S. Carmel

Dear Mrs. Dannelly:

Thank you for your interesting letter in regard to your Nunley line. Although I am not a descendant of your Edward Nunnely nor of your Anderson Nunnely, I am quite familiar with both of them, mainly because I have a Nunley friend who has been working on them for a long time and she keeps me informed on her progress. She has decided she is not a descendant of Edward, but she is of an Anderson Nunneley and like you, she is stumped and can't identify his father or wife. Without bothering to look at her records for details, I do remember that her Anderson ties in with Lawson F. Nunneley, a son I think.

I am going to send a copy of your letter and pedigree chart to my friend in the event that she wishes to write to you in regard to Anderson Nunneley.

I am enclosing copies of 2 letters written by John F. Nunnellee, Jr. who owned the Nunnelee Funeral Chapel in Charleston, Missouri, when the letters were written in 1962 to my friend Howard Nunley. They concern ~~and~~ your ancestor, Edward Nunneley. I am sure you will treasure these letters always. They are priceless. My Nunneley lady friend called Mr. John F. Nunnellee, Jr. a couple of years ago, after I sent copies of the same letters to her. She said they talked about 20 minutes (LD) but he wasn't able to add anything concerning genealogy, other than what is written in the letters. By that time, he was an old man and apparently his memory was fading.

I doubt that Edward Nunneley was part Cherokee since he was a doctor and therefore an educated man. My Nunleys did marry Cherokee wives in western NC, prior to migrating to Grundy and Warren Cos., TN in middle Tennessee, but they were not an educated bunch - just poor farmers. However, ALL of the Nunleys, no matter how it is spelled, stem from the original immigrant, Richard Nunneley, who came to Virginia in the late 1600's from Shropshire Co., England.

I will be looking forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely,

Fran

Dear Elizabeth:

Thank you for your letter of 30 June concerning the Nunneley family and in particular, Anderson, who I believe to be the ancestor of my husband, though complete proofs are not to be had as yet.

I am very pleased that Fran Koole sent you my address. She is a delightful person and very sharing concerning the search for the Nunley/Nunneley family of the United States. I have, for years, called her the "clearing house" for we researchers of this name.

I am sorry to report that my sister, Nancy Phillips, 45, was deceased on 2 June 1982. Her illness of two years from cancer, ended quietly in sleep and we are sad at our loss, but happy for her peace.

I have, 24 June 1982, received a letter from a distant cousin of my husband, a Mrs. Irene Johnson of Springdale, Ark. I have written and asked that she copy the papers for me, bedause I have never seen or heard of them before. I have always been fairly certain that my research to Anderson and Martha was the correct line, but no proof. I, therefore, submit the additional information concerning another child of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunnelly (Nunneley):

The name Lawson Harrison Nunneley (and variant spellings) seems to be found often. I am curious as the reason for its popularity. I have found identical names and at various time periods in Ark. Texas and Tenn and definitely not the same man. I have not been able to locate any Nunneley/Lawson or Nunneley/Harrison marriages which I think may have been the birth of this popular name. The closest I can come to any connection of names as of now is one Henry Nuneley of Chesterfield Co., Va., who applied for his Revolutionary War pension from Anderson Co., Tenn. He stated that he served two terms of service under a General Lawson. After the war he moved to Halifax Co. VA, Washington Co (?) VA and to Tenn. He was between 70-80 at the time of his deposition for pension in 1832. It would appear to place him near to the age of Anderson Nunnelly, who is supposed to be born abt. 1765, Halifax Co., NC. I have found several Henry Nuneley (and variants) in VA, NC, and Tenn. Probably no connection -

I am enclosing the name and address of a gentlemen in Missouri who is a cousin to you through Edward Nunnelee of VA. You may already have corresponded with him.

I have not corresponded with him since 1979 when I sent him some material concerning Edward. I received a nice letter of thanks, but we discontinued our contact when we were unable to tie the family of Anderson and Edward to a good link. We know that Izaline Nunnelee (dau of Edward) married her cousin, Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly (son of Adderson), but were unable to fit the relationship between their fathers.

Must close this for now and again, thank you for the material sent. I would very much like to have copies of the old letters mentioned in your letter and any other material which you would care to share. I would be most happy to compensate you for your time and expense to copy.

I am having dental surgery this coming week, so will not try to send any copies of my records until I have finished this dreaded "vacation" from work at the Bartlesville Public Library (where I do all of the copy work I share with others).

Will be quite anxioux to hear from you concerning Anderson and Martha.

Dear Elizabeth.

I never stand on ceremony with a possible cousin! While our Anderson Nunnally and Anderson Nunneley appear to be different persons, surely they were related.

Since you have no dates for your Anderson, and I only have prior to 1795 as a birthdate for mine it would be difficult to say. I have done very little research on my Nunnallys, and the material I purchased (my one and only experience other than published works) doesn't appear to have been very carefully done. The dates for children of the 2 show that they could have been the same. My g grandmother

Mary Alice N. was born 5 Jan.
1817 in Amelia Co. Va Her mother's name seems to have been Frances, however, Frances could have been a 2nd wife named in his will. The problem, as you can see, is that Andrew Jackson
N. & Mary Alice N. were born some distance from each other a year apart, and Mary Alice's younger sister Lavenia was born in Amelia Co. in 1823.

No reference is given in my purchased material for "Frances."
I would guess a will since there is no maiden name given.

I did not furnish Mr. Short at with ~~the~~ material on Joseph Jr.
other than that he died 1 October
1777 at Burlington N.J. This is from Nat'l Archives. I have question (that is: that he is ours!)
even about this, as there may have been more than one Joseph.
The "suspect" material states that Joseph b. 1725-1735 is believed to have married Frances — ca 1750. I've considered that this "Frances" might be correct + Andersons in error.

This Joseph purchased 104 A in Nottaway Parish, Amelia Co. 23 Oct. 1755. He resided there at the time. In 1765 he was a resident of St. James Parish in Mecklenburg Co. + in May 1767 sold the 104A in Nottaway, with no mention of Frances. On 7 Oct. 1769 Joseph + Frances sold 150 A in Mecklenburg. His son Obediah was b. in 1760 + John in 1756.

It is apparent that this Obediah and either your Anderson or mine could not have married sisters unless there was a great disparity in age. I'd be very interested in getting your material on this. As the above paragraph reads, Obediah was my Anderson's uncle. Remember, I do not have much faith in the veracity of anything except what I've drawn the brackets on.

You are right not to put much emphasis on the different spelling. The records show differences between brothers

I have no records for any of my Nunnallys earlier than marriage bond for Mary Alice & my g. grandfather Samuel A. Hurt. His father was Anderson Hurt. I've wondered if there was a common Anderson forebear. It is suspected that James Hurt, Anderson's father, married Caroline Anderson. A family named Anderson lived in the northern part of Amelia Co (Stocks' Creek section) in those early days.

I've probably raised more questions than answered questions. I've just found a reference which assumes my Anderson was born ca 1788. This would make the possibility of my Anderson as the husband of Elizabeth Baldwin more reasonable but there is still the geographical question.

Let me hear again, please.

Sincerely

Leona Willhoite

Dear Elizabeth,

Thanks for the Joseph Nunnally RW material. I did not have it, nor do I have the Anderson, War of 1812, material. Probably should order this to see if any genealogical information could come from those papers.

Have had a nice letter from Joe Shortal, copy enclosed, commenting on my letter to "the group". It appears that he has additional information which was not included in the original Nunnally Genealogy. My finds were not new to him, in the most part. Think I will take his advice and begin looking into the Anderson family. The main problem I see, the Anderson's were quite prominent and numerous! Some (many) also, were in Hickman County, TN. Often given names were taken from neighbor surnames without any family connection, so really hope searching the Anderson families in the areas where the VA Nunnallys lived will not take a large amount of time with little results.

The books I mentioned in the joint letter are as follows:

- * Hickman Co. TN court records, 1814-1829.(1982, by Olgia Dotson of Centerville-her husband, Edward is Court Clerk for Hickman)
- * Hickman Co. TN cemetery records, Part 1. .(1982, by Jill Garrett, 610 Terrace Dr. Columbia, TN)
- * Old marriage records of Hickman County. . (Duck River Chapter, DAR, 1979)
- * History of Hickman County (Spence)......(reprinted 1981 by Olgia and Edward Dotson - Centerville)
- * Hickman Co. TN 1860 census ....(Thomas Stewart Easley Chapter UDC 1982)

They are most helpful so far and have gathered a bit more information. UDC is currently "thinking" about reprinting cemetery records, Part 2, and will notify me if they do. If you are interested in ordering any of them, let me know and I will get prices and ordering information, which I think I still have.

Do not have the new material on the children of Anderson and Martha in a good state as yet to be copied. Also, have the Wayne Co. TN, 1840 census on order and would like to see that before sending out further information. I suspect the William and John in that county in 1820-40 (William) and 1820-30 (John) may be the children of Anderson. John then came to Sevier Co. ARK by 1840 and have just found a William M. Nunneley in Pope Co. in 1850. He is 52 and was born in NC. Feel certain he is the son of Anderson who was not on the 1850 TN census. If he is "the" William M., that then places for certain, four of the children of Anderson in ARK - Joseph A., John W., Livicy Nunnelly Criner and William M.

I believe that Elizabeth (Betsey) Nunnelly married Pleasant M. Hornbeak. They are both buried in Centerville Cemetery. Pleasant, 11 July 1802/15 Oct 1866 and Elizabeth R., 19 May 1810/7 Jan 1887. The 1850 and 1860 census list them and their children - with a daughter LEVISA among the nine children listed. She is probably named for Betsey's sister Livicy Nunnelly Criner. I may be wrong, but I have gathered all information for Pleasant and Elizabeth (1850 census), Betsey (1860 census) in hopes this is the correct family.

Must get to the laundry and the weekend chores - will try to get this material in a copy state and send it to you.

Dear Elizabeth,

I am enclosing a few pages of the Chesterfield Co., VA material that Lyn Collis and I have worked on and about which we talked by phone. I have highlighted the deeds showing the purchase of land by Daniel, Jr., which totals 113 acres. Daniel, Jr. purchased 13 acres from Henry Walthall in 1762 and his father, Daniel, Sr., gave him 100 acres by deed in 1765. This is then the same 113 acres which THE Edward, heir at law of Daniel sold in 1778 with his mother, Lucy, the widow of said Daniel.

Note in 1777, Lucy was granted administration of the estate of Daniel on January 3, and the inventory was done that same year on May 14.

I have read and reread the deposition given by Edward Nunnellee concerning his RW service and feel so certain that the above Edward, son of Daniel and Lucy, is one and the same. This Edward does not appear again in any of the records of Chesterfield Co., VA. Other Edwards do appear, but can be tied to other fathers. I find no mention of the mother, Lucy again with the following possible exception:

1 Oct 1783 - Chesterfield Co., VA
  Will of GEORGE HUNT MOORE of Dale Parish (the 113 acres was in Dale Parish)
  dau. Lucy Nunnally -5 shillings
  dau. Elizabeth Cousins, wife of John - 5 shillings
  dau. Susannah Mann - 5 shillings
  dau. Verlinche Vaden, wife of Daniel - 5 shillings
  dau. Mary Vaden, dec's, once wife of Lodwich - 5 shillings g'dau. Martha Vaden (under age) dau of Lodwich - items wife. Frances - rest of estate for widowhood, then to 4 sons, Matthew, Daniel Eleasar & Drury.
  exrs. sons, Matthew & Daniel
  wit. Thomas Worcham, Edward Wilson & Thomas Burfoot

This LUCY MOORE NUNNALLY may not be the same Lucy who married Daniel, Jr., but looks like something to keep in mind if their son Edward proves to be yours. The only problem I have with the will of George Moore naming his daughter Lucy is that he does not name her as the former wife of Daniel. He may not have done such, since he willed nothing to his grandchildren by her. He may also, not have given anything to those grandchildren because they were of age.

To get back to the deposition of Edward about his RW service. As you know, he stated that his father died while he was in the service. He said he enlisted in February of 1776 under Col. Epps and Col. Read and [illegible] "my father died while I was away in this company and after I was discharged, I went home to my mother". Daniel died prior to Jan 3, 1777, as Lucy was granted adm of his estate that date. Edward would have been in the service per his deposition, and during most of the following months, it is shown that he was left sick in Virginia (was this to assist his widowed mother ?)

Have I given you lots to think about? It just looks so good. Also, take a good look at the Henry Nunley of TN. He lived Chesterfield to Halifax to TN. A brother of Edward??

Best wishes Mary

Dear Mary:

At long last the papers came from Washington giving the military record of Joseph Nunally. I am enclosing a copy for you.

I, too, have wondered where Shortal got the third son for Joseph -- William --, but I feel there were other children, including our Anderson and perhaps some girls. Maybe an Anderson will will help establish this. Most families in those days had several children.

Mrs. Shortal did say they had a daughter living in Aurora and that is why they took her father there, and then she moved there, too.

From the enclosed papers it looks like he enlisted for three years 27 March 1777, but seemed to be sick quite a bit, and then was dead 3 Feb 1778, so he actually served less than a year. This sort of makes me think he was older at the time, especially since Obediah also served in the War. There are lots of blanks in what we know about this family.

You mentioned that your friend with the computer had moved to CT. Is there any way I could help out? As you know, I am strictly an amateur, but I am certainly willing to learn and to help where I can. Let me know if you think of anything I can do.

Hope you and your family are in good health again. That is the greatest blessing of all. I will keep you posted on my efforts and hope you will do the same.

My best to you,

Elizabeth

Pg 4-20

Dear Mary:

Haven't heard from you in a long time and hope all is well with you and yours. I seem to "spin my wheels" a lot lately and don't accomplish much. I still have not filed the DAR supplemental on Joseph, trying to prove Anderson was his son. But I am still planning to. The preponderance of the evidence surely points that way.

Just last week I had an interesting experience. Wm. O. Odom is President of Bethel College in McKenzie, Tennessee, the Cumberland Presbyterian school. He was passing through on his way to Dallas to try to raise money for the college and called me on the phone Sunday night. I told him my roots were in Middle Tennessee. He, of course, asked me the names, and when I said Nunnally, he said his mother was a Nunnally. So he made it a point to come to see me on his way back home. He is descended from the John who married the Morris, son of Joseph and brother of Obediah -- and I am convinced brother of our Anderson. He sent me a manuscript written by one of his cousins that just traces his own line. Then I found where Shortal had mentioned the author, Major Perkins Nunnally, and that he died in 1974.

Dr. Odom said that John was the oldest son of Joseph, but he was missing and presumed dead for a while, so they made Obediah heir. But when John came home the court ordered him to appear and give counter security to John Gooch. Dr. Odom's family continued to live in Virginia, and he himself was born in Richmond. He did not know about Shortal so I let him take my copy to make his own copy.

I do hope you have a wonderful Christmas surrounded by those you love, and that the new year will be filled with health, wealth and happiness in abundance.

Love,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

What a pleasant surprise to get the call from you. I think of you often but seem to spend my time looking for more ancestors instead of keeping in touch with those who have helped me so much. I am sorry I could not offer more help on finding a researcher in Mt. Pleasant, but I just am not familiar with the situation there. We have a so-called genealogical society here, but when queries come in they simply put it in the paper and make no effort to look up anything in the courthouse. In fact, I doubt that anybody in our little society knows how to do that. I do hope the county clerk was able to help you and that you find what you are seeking.

I probably told you that back in 1958 when I was trying to get my mother and me into the DAR I made a trip to Centerville and spent several days in the courthouse there. So many of their records have been destroyed that it is a frustrating experience, but I did list all the items I thought would be of special interest to me.

You will find enclosed the Deed of Trust executed by AJBN on 18 June 1860. Please use it and return it to me, as it is the only copy I have and I am not sure that you will want all of it. Five months later, on 15 Nov 1860, he entered into a "marriage contract" with Nancy White Armstong. It is recorded in Book Q, page 394, but I did not get a copy of it. I did read it there, and it just said that she was not to inherit anything from him. I did read the 1860 census and the family enumerated next to AJBN was a White. I just assumed Nancy had marrried somebody and come back home to live. That is pure speculation on my part. I did not find a marriage certificate for them, but neither did I find one for him and Isoline.

Isoline died before he did -- on 7 June 1863. Then he and the "white woman" were killed 15 September 1863. Nobody in my mother's family seemed to be aware of any of this except that he was murdered.

I have assumed that Isoline and AJBN were married ca 1836 since the first child was born 29 July 1838. This was my gr-gr mother, Martha Jane who married Edward David Easley in 1854/55. He was taken prisoner at Fort Donelson and died in Vicksburg from drinking the river water. This was 14 Sept 1862. Martha Jane was left a widow at age 24 with three little girls of her own, and since her mother died less than a year later, she took her little brother and sister to raise. Mama said she would take her sewing and go out to the field to oversee the slaves.

Martha Jane died of "galloping consumption". As you know from Spence's history, they lived at Grey's Bend. Miss Pa-LIN-a (Pauline) Grey was her neighbor. She came over one morning and told her that was the day she was going to die, but not until 6 o'clock that evening. She lay in the bed and watched the clock, and at 6 she died.

Now to back up a little bit --. AJBN named his children:

1. Martha Jane, b. 29 July 1838, d. 11 Oct 1871
   Chn. Eddie Easley
   Minna " John Anna "
2. Mary Frances, married Lawson
3. John A. He became a dentist and was administrator of AJBN. However, he died very young and his widow, Mary G. Nunnelly became administrator de bonis non before 1876 when she executed a deed
4. Washington L.
5. Samuel H.
6. Sarah Elizabeth

Washington L. (No. 4) was a trustee of Athaneum College in Columbia, and the three little girls of Martha Jane's went there to school. Then John Anna, my grandmother, lived with Pleas Walker, the trustee, and married at his home when she was only 20. She had come to Texas to live. However, she died when she was just 24, and my mother went back to Centerville to live with her Aunt Eddie. My mother was just 2 years old, and she lived there until her father remarried and she moved back to Texas when she was 9. John Anna was only 10 years old when Martha Jane died.

Most of what I know about the family that didn't come from the records is what Mama grew up hearing from her Aunt Eddie, and she thought Pleas Walker wound up with all the money. I don't doubt it is true.

Sarah Elizabeth, AJBN's 6th child, visited us when I was probably 8 or 9 years old. We called her Aund Sadie. She told us tales of life during the Civil War that would curl your hair. I don't know whether she knew about her father or not. In fact, none of the relatives I have corresponded with ever knew it until I told them.

1862. Martha Jane was left a widow at age 24 with three little girls of her own, and since her mother also died less than a year later, she took her little brother and sister to raise. Mama said she would take her sewing and go out to the fields to oversee the slaves.

Martha Jane died of "galloping consumption". As you know from Jarnold's history, they lived at Gray's Bend. Miss Pauline Fielding Gray was her neighbor. She came over one morning and told her that was the day she was going to die, but not until 4 o'clock that evening. She lay in the bed and refused all visitors, and at 4 she died.

Now to back up a little bit -- ABEH raised his children:
1. Martha Jane, b. 29 July 1838, d. [illegible] Oct 1867
   Chn. Eddie Easley
      Minnie
      John Frank
2. Mary Frances, married Lawson
3. John R. He became a dentist and was administrator of ABEH. However, he died very young and his widow, Mary G. McNeill became administrator de bonis non before 1876 when she instituted a case.
4. Washington L.
5. Samuel H.
6. Sarah Elizabeth

Washington L. who, it was a trustee of Richmond College in Richmond, and the three little girls of Martha Jane's went there to school. Then John Frank, my grandfather, lived with Lizzie Watkins, the trustee, and married at his home when she was only 15. She had come to Texas to live, however, and died when she was just 25, and my mother went back to Mississippi to live with her aunt Cally. My mother was just a year old, and she lived there until her father remarried and was taken back to Texas when she was 8. John Frank was only 22 years old when Martha Jane died.

Most of what I know about the family that didn't come from the records is what Mama grew up hearing from her Aunt Eddie, and she thought Fields Walton wound up with all the money. I don't doubt it is true.

Sarah Elizabeth, ABEH's 6th child, visited us when I was probably 6 or 7 years old. We called her Aunt Mamie. She told us tales of life during the Civil War that would curl your hair. I don't know whether she knew about her father or not. At least, none of the relatives I have corresponded with knew about it until I told them.

It is this type of information I am trying to put in my book, although I am convinced I will never get it done. It just puts flesh and bones on people when you can talk about them as people instead of numbers in a chart.

I am also enclosing a couple of deeds that may or may not be of interest. I just ran across them in the file. A pickup truck would not hold all the files I have. That was the idea of the computer -- I could put it all on that. I saw such a cute cartoon recently that was me exactly. The man was sitting at the computer almost covered up with papers. Somebody told him he could put all of that on the computer. He replied that he would rather just put it "under the computer". I never seem to get rid of anything.

My DAR supplemental on Joseph was filed last February, and I am eager to hear from it. I have another supplemental that has been pending since May 1988 that I have not heard a word from. A friend who goes to Washington often told me that if you file a second supplemental before the first one is acted upon, they will examine both of them at the same time. I hope that is so. Seems nearly every one of my supplementals are on ancestors who have not been used before, and that in itself delays it. I will surely let you know when I do hear.

I am sorry to be sending things I want returned, but under the circumstances I have opted for that. Hope some of it will be helpful.

Of course, I will be glad to know what you find out in Mt. Pleasant. As I have explained to you before, my primary interest is in my direct line, as I am trying to write my own history. A genealogy fans out to include everybody.

Hope you are having the beautiful fall weather we have had the past few days. It is such a relief from the extreme heat we have had all summer.

Love,

Elizabeth

Dear Elizabeth,

Thank you so much for the loan of your papers. I have returned from a visit to our son and his family in southwestern Oklahoma and have finally copied everything. I am sorry for the delay. You should not have sent the postage, but it was very kind of you.

I am probably sending some duplicate material for Joseph and Nancy Easley Nunneley. It has been such a long time, I cannot remember exactly what I have sent in the past. The other material concerning their sons, James and Jackson Baldwin , is new material I just found this summer while in Texas. I have a little on some of the other children of Joseph and Nancy, but not complete enough to share at this time. You may have the story of Sam Houston Nunneley (son of A.J.B. and Izalene), but I had not seen that until my Texas visit.

I remain amazed that those of us researching the large family of Joseph and his wives and 21 children cannot locate some of the places of burial for this family. Several of the children died in Hickman Co., TN, but many died in Arkansas. Joseph was certainly not a poor man, as he owned land, slaves and a distillery. It seems that some of them surely have stones, yet unlocated, but where??

I have found the Nunneley family my most interesting genealogy pursuit (along with my Revolutionary ancestor, Charles Rose of NJ). I really am following all of the children and have had quite a lot of success. This really spurs me on to continue looking for all members of the family. I really started following every child in these two families when I would lose my direct line somewhere. It seemed to help "find" the person I was really researching. Now I collect information for all children. Seems to make the genealogy more complete when you know about all of the children of Anderson and Martha Nunneley or Charles and Rebecca Rose.

Thank you again for the papers and postage. Hope you enjoy the material on the Texas (via TN and AR) Nunneleys.

Keep in touch, and,

Signed

Dear Mary:

Your letter with all the enclosures came while my Florida brother, his wife and her sister were here. They left Friday just about the time I was coming down with an allergy or something so I haven't been able to stay awake since then. Today I am much better.

Thank you so much for all the material you enclosed, especially the story about Sam Houston's life. My mother always referred to him as Uncle Sammy. His youngest sister, as I believe I have told you before, visited us when I was probably 8 years old. But I never heard my mother mention that he came to Texas and I wonder if she knew it. She did talk about an Easley relative who lived in San Antonio and was night clerk at the Gunter Hotel. His name was Larry, and I am sure one of his sons was the newpaper reporter I knew in Washington, although at the time I did not know about his father.

My mother was born in Texas in 1883, but when her mother died just two years later, she went back to Tennessee to live with her mother's sister. When she was nine years old her father married again and she came back to Texas -- to Bell County. However, he was a preacher so they moved around a lot. But she never did mention any Nunneleys in Bell County. Again, she probably did not know about it.

You probably know I am kin to Nancy as well as Joseph Alexander. I have a DAR supplemental on her grandfather, Edward Wade, as well as her father, Thomas Easley, and her grandfather, Stephen Easley. I get all confused trying to sort out all these people who intermarried so much.

And speaking of big families, Thomas and Ecloe had as many as anybody else. Seems just about everybody did in those days.

I noticed some of the entries in some of the lists you sent were provided by Mrs. Jesse Peeler. She was Ludie Easley and just died a few years ago. She was a living encyclopedia on the kinfolks and wrote letters and kept up with everybody for almost a hundred years.

It's always good to hear from you. Take care. Love,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

It has been such a long time since we corresponded that I hate to call on you now. I thought I was smart enough to get the DAR supplemental on Joseph verified, but I must be doing more wrong than I thought.

On 27 February 1991 the Registrar General wrote me for additional information on the application, to which I replied step by step, as shown by copy of my letter to her of 10 March. Copy of her letter is also attached.

Then she wrote me again 29 April as if she had completely disregarded my letter of 10 March with all the enclosures. You will see most of them were information supplied by you. Now she says "we need further documentation". I thought my first letter to her answered all the questions she raised. Can you think of anything else I can tell her or send her? You are so much more thorough and qualified as a genealogist than I am, so if you can come up with anything at all I will deeply appreciate hearing from you.

We had our annual Pilgrimage this past weekend and it rained every day. I had house guests, but for the first time in memory did not open my house or help anybody else. We had a much smaller crowd than usual because of the weather. And now they tell us another storm is coming in tonight. Such a spring!!

I hope you are well and still tracking down ancestors. Did I tell you the president of Bethel College, the Cumberland Presbyterian school in McKenzie, Tennessee, came to see me and he is descended from Joseph through his son John (who married Mary Morris). I am enclosing a clipping from the school paper. You may keep all these enclosures as they are extra copies.

Thank you in advance for any suggestion you can make.

Dear Mary:

The enclosed was just received from Kentucky regarding the warrants issued to Obediah Nunnally. It is self-explanatory. Mr. Thomas wrote his note on the back of the letter, and I find it interesting that he has Nunnallys in his line.

When you write Barren County for any kind of information they turn it over to Mr. Thomas for reply. He had done worlds of research in Kentucky and seems thoroughly familiar with the records there. As I mentioned, a friend of mine was trying to get in the DAR on the service of her ancestor who got bounty land in Barren County, and we had quite a bit of correspondence with him at the time. His work is strictly volunteer, but I am writing to thank him for his time and effort in our behalf.

I have not heard from any of the other three letters I wrote at the time I wrote Mr. Thomas, but will let you know if I do hear. NSDAR has given me until September 1 to send in proof that will satisfy them that Anderson was the son of Joseph.

Incidentally, I have WILL BOOK 1 AMELIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA, covering Wills form 1735 - 1761 and Bonds 1735 - 1754, abstracted and compiled by Gibson Jefferson McConnaughey and sold by Mid-South Publishing Company of Amelia. VA. The index lists no Nunnallys, 8 Baldwins and 17 Andersons. None of them apply to our search, but I find it interesting there are so many Andersons. Of course, this is an earlier period.

Please let me know if you can think of anything else to do.

Hope you are well and having a good summer.

Elizabeth

Dear Mr. Thomas:

You may remember I wrote you a couple of years ago when you were corresponding with Mildred Temple Parris about her ancestor who lived in your area. Incidentally, she got in the DAR all right on "Old Jesse Temple". I was helping her as Chairman of our Chapter's Lineage Research Commmittee.

Now I am trying to establish that Joseph NUNNALY had a son named Anderson. Joseph and his two sons, John and Obediah enlisted at the same time from Amelia County, VA. Joseph was killed in 1777, and because it was thought John had also been killed, Obediah was made his heir at law.

The Kentucky State Library and Archives has furnished the following:

Not Barren as grantors!

Warrant 2605 - 24 Feb 1784 to Obediah
100 acres for his own service

Warrant 2635 - 25 Feb 1784
100 acres as the heir of his father, Joseph

Warrant 2636 - 25 Feb 1784
400 acres as the heir of John (his brother)

In 1776 this land was in Kentucky County, VA but by 1780 had become the state of Kentucky.

Nope! 1792

first Ky. County, Va. then statehood

Can you tell me how to pinpoint the location of this land and determine how it was disposed of? With any luck it seems to me the younger children of Joseph will be listed.

I will sincerely appreciate any suggestion you can offer. If you are in position to track this down, I will be glad to pay your regular fee. I think surely Joseph had other children, and I think Anderson was one of them. Incidentally, he and Obediah married sisters.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Dannelly

Now I am trying to establish that Joseph ABBOTT had a son Jordan (Jourdan). Joseph and his two sons, John and Chastain, enlisted at the same time from Amelia County, VA. Joseph was killed in 1777, and because it was thought John had also been killed, Chastain was made his heir at law.

The Kentucky State Library and Archives has furnished the following:

Warrant 2608 - 24 Feb 1784 to Chastain
100 acres for his own service

Warrant 2628 - 12 Feb 1784
400 acres as the heir of his father, Joseph

Warrant 2636 - 25 Feb 1784
400 acres as the heir of John (his brother)

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Dannelly,

I checked the Ky. land grants & none was ever intered by a Nunnally. Obediah perhaps sold the land warrants as so many did! They were "pounced" upon by early "Tory" "loving" carpet baggers who ran to Quaker (Penn) country to evade serving during the war, made much money dealing w/ British, then came back South to take advantage of the old Soldiers in their "hardships" as while fighting for their country, no crops were made & many were broke! 2/3 of the Military land here was taken up by non-soldiers! very sad, but true!

The Nunnally's arrived here later, as one Robert Nunally married Sarah Snoddy 1818. She a sister of my g-g-grandfather Wm. Snoddy. Then my g-grandma Mary Jane Ward first married Benjamin F. Nunally 1860, had a dau, he died, she married my g-grandad Chris. Snoddy. The Nunally half sis never married & died young.

B.F. N. was raised in Allen Co, Ky They burned several times, no early records exist. If I pick up on Obediah, will get in touch.

Lots of luck in your Quest,

Wm. L. Thomas

Dear Mary:

Just got your letter and am thrilled with the information you got about the bounty grants. Thanks so much for sending it to me.

I believe either Virginia or Kentucky Archives could tell us what disposition was made of this land. I will write to each of them and see what we find.

This past year I helped a friend get into the DAR whose ancestor got bounty land in Barren County, Ky. There is a man there named Thomas who was very helpful and seemed quite knowledgeable about records in general. So I will also write him to see if he can offer any suggestion.

At the Mormon Library in Atlanta, about 35 miles north of Jefferson, I learned the name of a man who lectures and invites his listeners to write him for help when they run up against a brick wall. I do not have his name but the new DAR member does, so I will also write him.

I believe I got information like this from the Surveyor General in Georgia. Somebody is bound to have this information.

If you can think of anything else to do, let's try it.

Thanks so much for all your help through the years.

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

Your wonderful letter came this morning and I am sending it to the Registrar General hoping it will help convince her. You set everything out in such an orderly and compelling manner that it is bound to influence her. I don't know how to thank you for taking the time and trouble to do this, and I do hope it will have the desired effect.

I agree with you that people in the future need to have this proved. I don't understand why nobody has gone in before on Joseph, as several others have known about him. If they had, I think it might be easier for us. But they are real strict about new ancestors now, and getting more so all the time. Since you are your chapter registrar you know about this.

As Lineage Research chaiman last year I helped a friend to become a member, although it took several letters and more research, because he was a new ancestor.

I do sincerely appreciate your interest and I will let you know the minute I hear anything from Washington. I also have another Supplemental pending that I am having lots of trouble proving. He is also a new ancestor. Did you realize that if you have one supplemental pending and file another one they will consider both of them at the same time? I had been told this was the case, and now I have the proof.

Hope this finds you and yours well and happy and enjoying life to the fullest. Love,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

The DAR returned my supplemental on Joseph Nunnally. They sent it to our chapter registrar with a printed cover letter on which they had marked "Member has not been able to provide the neessary documentation".

I am convinced in my own mind that he was the father of our Anderson, but they want something that actually says it. We may yet run across something, but for the time being I am going to quit worrying about it. I think if we had somebody applying for membership on him they might be more eager to approve him. But they are not all that interested in supplementals.

So many of my supplementals have been on new ancestors, but they were not as particular a few years ago as they are now.

I want to thank you for all you did to help me, and I wish the outcome had been different.

Haven't heard from you in such a long time. I hope you have been well and just busy. For the most part I have been well, although I did have some problems last fall. I feel reasonably good these days, but have less energy than before. And a birthday in June didn't help.

My best to you always -

Washington, and my mother wrote me to "get us into the DAR". Until then I had not been remotely interested in ancestors, but when I went to the DAR library and found Edward Nunnelee with so little ease, it got me started, and I haven't stopped yet. You are right that Registrar is a big job. However, I think Treasurer and Regent are equally challenging. In fact, I love everything about the DAR. I am doing the yearbook now but have told them this is absolutely the last time they can count on me. My eyesight has deteriorated to the point that I have to use a reading glass all the time -- macular degeneration. I think they could find a "sighted" person to do it and am insisting on it.

I am so glad you said "we" in your letter because I have wondered many times about your husband and am looking forward to learning more about him.

I will look forward to getting the material on Wm. Baldwin and anything else you run across. You are fortunate to spend time at the Mormon library where you can have access to all their records. There is one in Atlanta, about 35 miles distant, and I have been there a few times. However, I never seem to stay long enough to get the feel of a library where only microfilm readers are visible. I still like to see a few books around.

Mary, thank you again for all you have done for me. I am feeling better now that I am getting a little thyroid, but I think advancing years is another of my problems. Glad it is not one of yours.

My best to you always,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

You are about the nicest thing that ever happened to me!! As we were talking last night I could hear thunder rumbling in the distance and in about an hour we had the first drop of rain we have seen since JUNE 26, a month and a week. And most of that time the temperature had gone above 100 every day. So your call was good luck in more ways than one.

I am so grateful for your continued interest in my ancestors and am thrilled at the prospect of another supplemental, despite my vow. You see from the enclosed Joseph Nunnally supplemental that I have used the information on Martha before and they have not questioned it, so I hope there will be no problem on her father.

You will also see that I had two supplemental applications in Washington at one time, and although I filed them a year or more apart, I learned from a friend that if you have two pending at one time they handle them together. The cover letter shows it was composed 1 March 1993 but it was some months before they sent it to my chapter registrar, and since she lives in Linden, it was months more before she brought it to me. If you ever think of anything further we can do on Joseph, please let me know.

Thanks so much for the information about William M. Nunneley. The Easleys have intermarried with the Nunneleys many times. Thomas Easley married Ecleo Wade and they were the parents of 17 children. Their son Robert furnished enough descendants to establish a UDC chapter in Centerville. One of his sons was my great-grandfather Edward David who died a prisoner of war. The David is for Pierre David, his ancestor who was a Huguenot.

You have an interesting assignment to track down the charter members of your chapter. Our little chapter was not organized until 1955. At that time I was living in

Dear Mary:

Your telephone call yesterday really revived my spirits! I think it is nothing short of wonderful to have somebody like you working on my own ancestors. You have already furnished me worlds of information, and now I am looking forward to even more.

I immediately got out my Revolutionary Pension Index and found NUNALLY, Daniel, VA R7440 listed, which I have ordered. Of course, the R means it was rejected, but even so, they will still have the application of the person who filed it. It may even be Lucy, assuming this is the right Daniel.

I am also glad to know Joseph is in the Nottoway records, which indicates he did in fact live neighbor to the Baldwins.

As I told you on the telephone, I wrote the Wayne County Clerk for the additional settlement in the Anderson Nunneley estate, but she did not find it. Then I wrote the County Clerk of Hickman County to see if it was customary to have proceedings in the different counties. I have not heard from him and may not. But I have been wondering if Martha did not complete the settlement of Anderson's estate, and when she died, intestate, they had to have administrations in the separate counties. I have a similar situation in Georgia where apparently administrations were had on the same man in two different counties at the same time. Laws differ so from state to state.

I got a copy of the deed dated 6 June 1848 from Martha Nunneley "Executrix of the last will and testament of Anderson Nunneley, Decd" to Andrew J. B. Nunneley to 183 acres "being the lands whereon the said Anderson Nunneley lived at the time of his death". It goes on to describe the land in Grays Bend, bounded on the south by Sharad Gray, on the east by George W. Grey, on the north by the heirs of Edward Nunnelee, etc. It was because they lived on adjoining land that the children of Anderson and Edward married. I will be happy to send you a copy of this if you would like to have it. It was not recorded until 9 August 1948.

I hope your research with the computer will reveal the final order in the Joseph Nunneley estate, and that it wil name Anderson as a child. We know Obediah was his child, and I think Anderson must have been younger.

In checking the 1790 VA census I found two Edwards listed for Halifax County. One had 8 whites and 8 blacks, and the other 3 whites, 1 dwelling and 2 buildings. I wonder which one of these was mine.

For several years my youngest brother has been telling me I needed a computer. He has a little TRS80 that he plays with, and I have used it some when I was visiting him in Florida. But my eyesight is failing (I have macular degeneration) to the extent that I wonder if I would get much good out of one. I just should have started this twenty years earlier.

Have had a couple of letters from Franlately, as we find we have several mutual friends in this area. And Martha Cooke wrote that she was building a new house and would not be able to think about ancestors until it was finished. None of the others wrote me. But, as I told you, I mailed in my DAR supplemental on Anderson 15 July and hope they get around to verifying it real soon. Will surely keepyou posted.

In the meantime, if there is anything at all I can do from here to help your research, please do let me know. I'll let you know what the Pension file reveals. Some of them are very helpful, and others aren't at all.

I enjoyed talking with you so much and feel I really know you now. I said a little prayer of thanksgiving for you!

Sincerely,

Elizabeth

Dear Mrs Nunneley:

Returning from being away, I received the copy of the papers on Edward Nunnelee from the archives of Military affairs which you so kindly sent to me.

I am enclosing an account given me by my Grandfather, John Hamilton Nunnelee, now deceased (1941). He wrote to me and related this information for me to keep on file in year of 1940. His account mentions Mary Reeves Sunderland as do the papers from military.

Also enclosed is a copy of the letter received from Howard L. Nunley while he was in service overseas. He met a friend of mine over there and got my address from him.

Perhaps this can be of assitance to you. If you get further information I will appreciate receiving a copy of it.

Thanking you, I am,

Yours very truly,

John F. Nunnelee

By John Hamilton Nunnelee

Great Great Grandfather Edward Nunnelee came from Scotland with the early settlers of Virginia and was of Scotch-Irish decent. Great Grandfather Nunnelee moved from Virginia to what is now Newbern North Carolina. Grandfather Edward Nunnelee was born near what is now Newbern North Carolina and with his Father moved back to Virginia where Grandfather Nunnelee, (my grandfather) grew up. He enlisted in the Revolutionary Army and served under George Washington and La Fayette. After our Victory over England and the Continental Army was discharged, he took up the study of medicine, married and reared a family of ten children. He practiced medicine in Virginia up to the year of 1804. He then came to Bedford County Tennessee and in 1806 moved on to what is now called Hickman County Tennessee and continued his practice of medicine. His wife died in 1815 and he remarried. His wife was Mrs Mary Reeves Sunderland, a widow of the age 22, whose husband was killed during the battle of New Orleans in 1815 serving under Andrew Jackson.

Hickman County Tennessee was organized as a county in the year of 1807, a few years after Grandfather Nunnelee moved in. Edward Nunnelee was appointed by the Legilature as one of the Commissioners for the purpose of running the County lines of Hickman County and to find the ceter or middle of the county and to select a location for the seat of Justice. It was named Centerville in the year of 1821. These commissioners, after establishing the seat of Justice for Hickman County Tennessee, were authorized to sell the Jail and Courthouse at Vernon, Tennesseeto the highest bidderon a credit of not more than 12 Mos. Edward Nunnelee and 5 other men were appointed permanent commissioners of the town of Centerville and were authorized to sell the lots of the town, the proceeds of these sales to be used in paying for the building of the new Courthouse, the prison and stocks. Edward Nunnelee rode 50 miles in 1834 to welcome La Fayette at Nashville, Tennessee and sat with him in the Masonic Lodge at that time. GrandMother Nunnelee told me that his hair was black, his eyes were grey, 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighed about 175 pounds. Grandfather was always congenial, obliging, jovial and of easy deportment, very intellectual and a great reader--always took a great interest in the upbuilding of his County and was ever active in moral and religious affairs. By faith he was an Episcopalian. He was kindhearted and liberal to a fault.

THIS WAS GIVEN ME
BY MY GRANDFATHER - JOHN HAMILTON NUNNELEE
DEC'D IN 1941

18 June 1962

Dear Mr Nunley,

I was recently given your address by a man from your town - I believe his name was, Toomsdale. He had heard of my interest in the Nunley families of that area.

To explain my interest in this particular area let me say on the outset of the story may be pure conjecture but when one is looking for lost relatives every lead is important. Some years ago I began collecting information on the Nunley family and to this date have aquired considerable documented evidence of their residences in the United States.

My Great grandfather was John Nunley of Altamount, Grundy Co, Tennessee, Born 1835, Married Mary Ann Smith 1854, to this union was born Joseph 1858, Jasper Newton bn 1864, Nora Ann bn 1870 and William Br. Jasper was my grand father.

This family was last reported in the 1870 census of Grundy Co and I assume the left Tenn. between this date and 1880. They went from Tennessee to Missouri where John died, the exact location is unknown but it seems that some of his brothers may have travelled with him or had preceded him. After his death, his wife Mary and children moved to Mountain View (community of Gime M Bicalls Cove) Stone Co. Ark. Here my Grandfather Jasper married Georgia Hedrick (abt) 1887. The family moved on to settle in Texas, where the sons (11) of this union still reside. My father is Jesse David Nunley, PO Box 826, Jacksboro, Texas.

The reason for this letter is to establish contact with you and hope you might give me information on this family and you own family. Enclosed is a family Geneological survey form I would appreciate any information you can give me.

A few sidlights on the Nunley family in the United States. I find Nunley, Nunnallys, Nuneleys, Nunnellys, and several other spellings to be the same family. They were in ~~the~~ America before 1750. in Virginia, John Nunley (not my gr grandfather) fought in the revolutionary war in Valley Forge, White Plains Ny, Brunswick, West point, Middle Brook N.J. This information is from the U.S. Military Archives. I have copies of his Army service Record, This John Nunley settled in Warren Co Tenn. around 1790. He was the first Nunley in Tenn and is my direct ancestor. Many Nunleys' still live in Warren and Grundy Counties and of the ones I have seen have a remarkable resemblee to my family.

I hope to hear from you soon as it is always a pleasure to know the facts surrounding the migration of my family.

Very Cordially yours
Howard L Nunley

Dear Howard:

First, I want to wish you a Happy New Year and send you belated Christmas Greetings. Your letter written me has been a lost item until I ran onto it in cleaning my files. How it ever got where it was will always be a mystery. Your address was on the envelope, so I could not reply until now.

With regard to the family history of the Nunnelly, Nunley Nunnally, Nunly and Nunnelee backgpounds, we too find that the possible relationship exists. Some we would be happy about--some not so happy. Might be that all families with many branches find their names linked to horse-thieves and regular roust-a-bouts by just merely claiming kin to all with that name.

The town of Nunnelly Tenn. was named after my Great, great Grand-father. He was the surveyor that laid out the aquare for the County Courthouse of Hickman County, Tennessee. His name was Edward Nunnelly. (Nunnelee) The spelling was optional. It is today, with most folks--I claim all mail that comes to this town of Charleston with any variation in the spelling of Nunnelee, the reason is, we are the only family of Nunnelee or its various spellings living in this whole area.

My Great Grandfather was named Nunnelee spelled that way at least by those in the family and he came from Virginia,

We have in family possession a whet-stone that Edward Nunnelee sharpened his sword in the Revolutionary War. He sat in Masonic Lodge with George Washington and Layfayette in the years just following the war. Now that to me is most important. If this were really looked into, we might just find plenty of relatives that spell their names exactly as we do. Edw. Nunnelee had scratched his name, date into the whet-stone and it is in possession of some within our family. Just who has it, I do not know at this time.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I am,

Sincerely,
John Nunnelee Jr

Dear Howard:

Glad to hear from you and I am too very interested in tracing all of my kin-folks. I have tried, sometimes in vain, to find traces of our family, whose name is spelled Nunnelee. We can trace back before the Revolutionary war, but further than that to no avail.

Below is excerpts of a letter my grandfather, John Hamilton Nunnelee wrote to me in the year of 1939. :----you will have to remember that he was writing this when he was 80 years old and he was writing to his only living son's oldest son. "Great, Great Grandfather Edward Nunnelee came from Scotland with the early settlers of Virginia and was of Scotch-Irish decent. Great Grandfather Nunnelee moved from Virginia to what is now Newbern North Carolina. Sorry that I do not have more available, this is it.

If you have any further information that you think might be pertinent to establishing facts etc., please do not fail to write me. I would like ever so much to have a complete "family tree" to hand down to my children and the rest of the family.

Yes, I know the Trousdale family, I bureed this boy's father I think, perhaps a small child in the family, too. Give him my best regards.

Best wishes to you and yours, I am,

Dear Mary:

Words fail me to tell you how grateful I am for the information and your letter of September 28. This is not even your husband's own line yet you have done so much work on it. How can I ever thank you adequately?

On the telephone you told me you had uncovered quite a few errors in Shortal's work but did not tell me what they were. I have tried to compare your information with his, and it would appear that Edward's line from the first Richard is through the second Richard, Daniel, Sr., and Daniel, Jr. Do you agree with this? And if we can ever prove that Anderson was the son of Joseph, since Joseph and Daniel were brothers (both sons of Richard 2.1), Anderson and Edward were not only kin but indeed cousins!.

I agree with you that Lucy was undoubtedly the child of George Hunt Moore. Apparently he named two daughters without naming their husbands, Lucy and Susannah. Could this have been because they were both widows? (In the distribution of Edward's estate in Hickman County, Izaline's share was given to Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly without any mention of Izaline's name.) I was impressed with the number of times Thomas More (Moore) appeared in the Time Line as a neighbor of Daniel, so he must have been the father of George Hunt.

I have difficulty assigning any brothers or sisters to my Edward. Why did he alone enter into the deed with his mother, unless any others were too young? And why was she not styled "guardian" of any minor children? I am not too familiar with Virginia estate laws, but it seems a final accounting should name all the children.

When John Nunnelee from Sikeston, MO visited me this summer he gave me the attached statement written by his grandfather, John Hamilton Nunnelee. He let me see the original in his handwriting which was on the letterhead: Office of JOHN H. NUNNELEE, Probate Judge, Ripley County, Doniphan, MO 192__. The year was not filled in. In this he does not give the name of Edward's father, but does state that Edward was born in NC but grew up in Virginia.

Then he tells about his education and first wife's death in Hickman County. He doesn't name any of the first wife's children. But I do believe I would have heard about it if he had practiced medicine there. My mother's aunt who raised her as a child was born before the Civil War, and she knew about the older members of the family and talked about them. So I think somebody would have mentioned it sometime. My mother was born in 1883, and Mary Ann Nunnelee died about six months later. She said Aunt Eddie called her "Grandmother Mary" and Anderson's widow "Grandmother Martha". She knew them both well, of course. The description of Edward as having grey eyes and black hair fits my mother exactly.

The weather news and the flooding in your area has really beendistressing. Today they say it is getting better there and some people are able to return to their homes. I truly hope you were not one of those that had to be evacuated. Before a dam was built on our Cypress River before 1960, we had terrible bloods here at least every spring. Our house is in the highest part of town, but many times friends from the lower parts would have to come and sleep in the upstairs hall because of the high water. It is terrifying to see, but I am sure it is even worse to live through.

I really am interested in the computer and have been thinking for several years I ought to get one. Now I am more interested than ever since I see what you can do with it. I am trying to write a little book using all the information I have collected through the years, and everybody says a computer is a must for writing a book. I may never get around to the actual writing, however, since there just is never a time when I can say I have it all. Just suppose I had cut off searching before I met you!

Do hope you did not suffer any loss from the floods and that you are fine otherwise. Thank you again for your interest and all you have done for me.

My best always,

Elizabeth

Dear Mary:

Thanks so much for your letter with all the enclosures. I must confess I am not the thorough genealogist that you are and I am almost intimidated by what you do, so I hesitate to comment for fear of showing my ignorance. I, too, wish we knew who Isham was. One thing I notice is that JOSEPH disposed of all the property he acquired, and I guess that accounts for the fact no estate papers exist. But I still think our Anderson was the son of this Joseph and Frances, and that they originally lived in Amelia County, in Nottaway Parish that later became Nottaway County. However, as you say, they seem to have moved around quite a bit.

Thank you so much for sending me Martha Cooke's address. When my letter to her was returned I wrote her aunt, Lucille Hall Marshall, who was the one I first corresponded about this family, and she called me on the telephone. Her husband had been ill for several years and died last year. I am sure she has passed the word on to Martha but I will put her new address on file.

I also wrote Mr. Shortal to see if he had any additional information about JOSEPH and his wife wrote me that he had suffered a stroke last October and is now incapacitated. He is in a nursing home, and her address is

439 Park Avenue, Apt. 25
Aurora, Indiana, 47001

However, on February 8, 1984, he wrote me:

> "Now for the father of your Anderson Nunnally. I feel sure that he is a brother of Obediah. They married sisters. Further I have an idea that their mother was Frances Anderson wife of Joseph Nunnally, Jr. It would be a good idea to look up Andersons in Amelia Co. and possibly in Prince George and Chesterfield. . . ."

You mentioned that your friend had done the timelines on her IBM. Do you happen to know if she has software or if she is smart enough to do it in basic? I have seen a timeline done on an Apple, but I have never seen anything for an IBM and I would like to have it. Of course, my computer ability is on a par with my genealogy, so I am a real amateur on both.

I am writing the Archives in Washington for the record on JOSEPH. Leona Wilhoite is the one who gave the information to Mr. Shortal, and she said she got it from the Archives. It is barely possible their file might show a little more information about him. When I get it I'll pass it on to you, of course.

I do hope your father is improving and will soon be well again. Please don't ever apologize about not answering my letters promptly. I am just glad to hear from you any time at all, because you have been so very helpful in so many ways, and I sincerely appreciate it.

If the light breaks through and I get an inspiration about the things you sent me, I'll surely be in touch.

My best to you,

Dear Elizabeth,

I was sorry to hear that Mr. Shortal has suffered a stroke. I wonder if they have family in Indiana and was surprised to note Mrs. Shortal's address. They may have children living in Aurora. I really know little about them even though we have corresponded over the years.

Anderson was a very popular given name in Virginia. I have thought I should do some investigation on the Anderson surname in the areas where our Nunneleys lived, but have not done that as of now. The Andersons were quite prolific and it would be a large task. I will begin this work, probably wills first, as soon as I have some time. It would be wonderful to find an Anderson will naming Frances Nunneley as an heir and naming some grandchildren! Could we be so lucky?

I am not sure how Lynn Collis did the Timelines that I copied for you. I know she has an IBM, but am not aware if she has software or did it in BASIC. She has moved from Bartlesville to Windsor, CT. I am so sorry that she is no longer here. We have worked up so much material on the Nunnallys, which she did on her computer. It now will be almost impossible for us to work together with such a distance between us.

Do you have any information concerning the William Nunnally that Mr. Shortal names as a third son of Frances and Joseph Nunnally? Where did he get this name? As with many of the names in his Nunnally Genealogy, a name is given with no further mention. I am sorry that I never did ask a direct question of him concerning the William. Hope you did.

Will close for now and let us keep digging on this family. Someday we will find the answers...I hope.

As ever,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

I am sending you all the information that I have on the Nunneley family. It is not much but I hope that it will help you. I have had a hard time tracking them down. They sure moved alot, and did not keep many records.

I will be getting the information on My Grandfathers first family. When I get it I will send it to you. I hope you can understand all my scribbling. It seems to be easier to put on the charts.

I have a friend that works with me on our family trees, She wrote some information down but did not put where she found it. Here it is:

Mary Loyd, granddaughter of William Loyd from Wales Married Thomas Nunnelly. Sorry there is no date but perhaps this is Andersons Mother.

I have a picture of Jackson Baldwin, I am getting copies and will send you one if you would like to have it. I have also a couple of snap shots of my Grandfather if you would like a copy of those too, I will send them.

There seems to be alot of different spelling of the name. Have you been able to find out what it was originally and why the different spellings?

My Grandfather said that there was Indian blood in the family but I have not been able to trace that down as yet. His Uncle Gus was going to trace it so my Grandfather could go to college but he decided that he may not like what he found. Have you any information on this?

I am sure you must have a lot more information than I do but if I can help in any way just let me know.

Sincerely,

G. Jo Agee

Washington, D. C. 20006-5392

Dear Mrs. Stimpson:

This is in reply to your letter of 27 February requesting additional information regarding my supplemental application on JOSEPH NUNNALLY.

1. Your first question was the source of "index card" on his service. From this description I am not sure I recall exactly the document in question, but I got all documents from either the National Archives or Virginia State Library. I believe the one in question came from the Archives, as described on the attached copy of "Order for Copies of Veterans Records" dated 10-24-83.

2. The next question is the certificate signed by Lt. Robert Craddock, and the reason it has the names of John and Joseph is that the letter attached to it signed by Obediah Nunnally on 21 Oct 1783, is asking for a certificate to be issued for "the quantity of land due Joseph Nunnally and John Nunnally, deceased; for service done the publick (sic) while in the army." This came from the Virginia State Library, and just in case your copy is not complete, I am enclosing another one.

In this connection, I am also enclosing the statement from the Virginia State Library showing that one military certificate was issued to Obediah for his own service, and another issued to the representative of Joseph and John.

3. To answer your question for referenced material showing that Obediah was the son of Joseph, I am enclosing a rather comprehensive study of this family done back in 1964 by Miss Ann Waller Reddy, of Richmond, Virginia, a recognized genealogist. On page 2 she states that "Joseph Nunnally, and his sons John and Obediah were in Amelia Co. as early as 1777, the year of enlistment for Joseph and John" . . . Most of this report will not be of interest to you, but on page 3, at the very top, the reason John was summoned later is that he was thought to be dead, as shown by my Number 2, above.

(Pages 4, 5 and 6 have been removed since they don't apply to your interest.)

4. In response to your suggestion that I check the land records, I am enclosing (a) Timeline of Amelia County beginning with its formation in 1735 and ending with 1794, as I believe that is as far as your interest goes. You will see that there was an earlier Joseph, but the Joseph in the Revolution purchased land first in 1755 and sold it in 1767 when he was living in Mecklenburg Co.

(b) The Mecklenburg County Timeline (also enclosed) shows the purchase of land on Layton's Creek in 1765, and the sale of the farm, livestock and furniture by February 1771. The wife of Joseph, Frances, joined in this sale.

(c) Lunenburg Timeline is also enclosed. Mecklenburg was formed from it in 1764.

(c) Warren County NC Timeline is also enclosed showing that Joseph was there temporarily.

(d) Nottoway County, formed from Amelia in 1788, is also enclosed from that date to 1850.

In (a) Amelia Timeline you will notice that Mary Nunnally married William Davenport in 1783. In 1785 Elizabeth Nunnally (nee, Elizabeth Baldwin) in her nuncupative will left a bequest to "her sister, Mary Davenport", showing that this Mary was the daughter of Joseph. And Miss Reddy gives him a son William.

5. Enclosed is a letter from Amelia County regarding an estate settlement there, and also one from the Commonwealth of Virginia, both stating that no such records have been found. I believe that is because Joseph did now own any real property at the time of his death.

6. You also questioned whether a mistake had been made in the proof I furnished on Anderson Nunnally. Although Joseph did live in Warren County in 1771, Anderson would have been a small child then and too young to be listed in the census. He was living in Halifax County in 1790 and was correctly listed as having a wife and child. There is no doubt that I have the right Anderson. His son, my ancestor was named Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnally for his mother, Martha Baldwin.

I hope this clears up your doubts but will be glad to try to furnish additional information if necessary.

Sincerely,

Letter and enclosures from Mrs. James Dannelly, III

From
Fran Koole

Dear Fran:

Thanks so much for your letter and all the Nunley material you sent. I have read Shortal's treatise a couple of times and can't see where I fit, but I'll keep trying to make the connection. Am enclosing a check that includes a little bit for postage. I notice that one letter took $2.00 and you have sent other copies besides. I really appreciate all of them.

You sent the information on Lucille Hall Marshall's membership in the Daughters of 1812. I corresponded with Lucille for several years and tried to get her into our DAR chapter on Anderson. She even employed two different professionals but all to no avail. However, Anderson was a magistrate in Hickman County, and that qualified her for this society. When I dedicated the marker for Edward in Centerville in 1979 I called her to come over, but she didn't feel physically able. I have never met her but her family was all from Centerville and my mother knew her mother and father well.

That brings me to the sheet you sent me that came to you from Martha Cooke of Brentwood, TN. I don't think I have had any correspondence with her, and I surely did not expect this list of children of Anderson to have such wide circulation. [If I have lost you, my first husband was named Payne, and after his death I married my own first cousin, making my name Dannelly again. He just died in March of this year, leaving me completely devastated.] When Lucille Marshall and I were trying so hard to find out who Anderson was, my mother wrote Mame Griner, her oldest living relative, and she sent this list, as well as the "old letter" and the "recollections". I am enclosing a copy of the list she actually sent, and it starts right off with an error. She called "Anderson" "Andrew Jackson Baldwin" because she actually didn't know his name until I told her. I certainly do not stand behind anything she says. You will see she lists 10 children, when the census of 1820 lists 12. You will also see from the "old letter" that Alexander is one of the children, just like Mary had it figured out. I am sending these same copies to Mary.

I have great difficulty accepting statements of many of the older relatives based on their recollections. In fact, I don't buy what anybody says until I see some written proof.

You asked about Edward Nunnelee, so I am enclosing a statement I read based on his pension application. I also have copies of the 5 DAR papers on Nunleys of different spellings and will send them to you if you are interested. They don't help me much, but you might find something in them.

Have you ever heard of Rae Nunnallee of Van Alstyne, TX? Bob St. Johns column in the Dallas News of May 29 was ab out him. I wrote him but never got a reply.

This book on Cherokee Indian Genealogy might be of interest to you. I believe with this I will have shared every bit of my information with you, but I will keep trying to trace all of them.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth

EDWARD NUNNELEE

Edward Nunnelee, the son of William Edward Nunnelee, was born in Craven County, North Carolina about 1756. His application for pension filed in 1832 states:

> "I entered into the Army in the year 1776 about the first of February for the term of twelve months in the Virginia State Line with Captain Falkner.
> "I was first commanded by Col. Epps, a relative of Thomas Jefferson, he such a true Republican was afterwards made President of the U. S. At the time Col. Epps commanded us the troops had not arrived nor were they formed into regular regiments, and it may not appear upon the muster roll that he commanded Capt. Falkner's company, for as soon as the troops had all arrived and the regiment completed, our company was transfered to the 8th Regiment, commanded by Col. Isaac Read. This was at Williamsburg. From thence we marched to Northern Neck, Richmond County; from thence we marched back to Portsmouth; and from thence we returned to Williamsburg.
> "During this period I was in the battle of the Long Bridge in the county of Norfolk.
> "I served my full twelve months and was discharged, but have lost or mislaid my discharge.
> "I do not recollect whether Epps or Read commanded the regiment during the action. My father died while I was in this company and after I was discharged I went home to my mother. This tour I served as a private soldier.
> "I was after this drafted for eighteen months in the capacity of Sergeant, as will appear by this discharge herein enclosed, Marked (a), and prayed to be taken as a part of this declaration. This expedition Captain Bowyer commanded the company I was in, and Col. Campbell the regiment. Col. Campbell was killed at Euraw Springs in a battle with the British, and that is the reason my discharge is signed by Thos. Edmonds, Captain Commandant.
> "My discharge is written with Indigo, except the names of the officers and the word 'sixth' with ink. Powder was very scarce, gun powder having been very much used just previous to the date of my discharge, being the 6th day of January, 1782.
> "While in this campaign I was at the Battle of Camden, S. C. on the 25th of April, 1781. I was also in a battle at Fort Friday on the Congaree River. I was at the Seige of Ninety-Six. I volunteered to storm the Fort, together with about a hundred others. We were led on by Campbell and a Frenchman who came over with Marquis de LaFayette, by the name of Cusiaskus. Four balls went through my clothes, one grazed my left arm. About four men only returned from the charge unhurt.
> "The next battle I was in was at the Eutaw Springs on the 8th day of September, 1781. During the campaign I marched through the North and South Carolina, and was discharged and came home after many toils and dangers."

In his History of Hickman County, Spence says that "Ned" Nunnelee, who came from Virginia about 1806 to the 5th District, came to Gray's Bend about 1810, and died there, on April 19, 1836, at the age of 80.

In 1817 he married Mary Ann (Reeves) Sunderland in Hickman County. He was 60 years old and she was seventeen. At the time he married he was one of Hickman County's magistrates. The children of this marriage were (1) Edward Washington who married Margaret Priestly and moved to Texas; (2) James D. L., who married Lucy Jane Fowlkes; (3) Timothy Jefferson, who married Rachel Williams and moved to Missouri; (4) Isaline Isabel, who married Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly; and (5) Jane, the first wife of Jesse R. Eason.

Mary Ann "Polly" Nunnelee, the widow of Edward, died near Centerville 10 Nov 1882, forty-six years after his death in 1836.

Recollections

Jonesboro,Arkansas
May 20, 1965

As told me by Delia Griner P'Pool,the daughter of Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner and Robert E,Griner II:

Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner's mother was Martha Baldwin of Amelia Courthouse,Virginia. She was from a prominent Virginia family. Mary Ann's father was Anderson Nunnelly (you said Anderson)(I don't remember his given name.) I had a list of Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner's sisters and brothers.It may be somewhere at home at Forrest City. Several of them lived around and in Hickman county.There were about nine or ten of them. One was Andrew Jackson Nunnelly who married Izaline Nunnalee. I remeber great-uncle Jack's tragic end. Another brother of Mary Ann was was Lawson Nunnelly. His first wife was a Hall(?). His second wife was Elizabeth __(?)__ (his governess). She was from Ireland. I knew her when I visited at her son's Walter Nunnelly at Vernon. She lived with them. Park Griner Bryan (my sister), and I visited Elise at Cousin Walter's when we were teen-age. I never knew Annie Meeks or the Halls. I was invited to Elise Nunnelly's wedding at Vernon to Mr. Wallace,but was not well enough to go.(Elise died last summer at Centreville). Brother Dan and father W.P.Griner went to the wedding. I was visiting at Centreville. Mary Ann Nunnelly's father gave her a Nunnelly Negro slave girl to keep house for her when she married Robert Evans Griner II. They went to live with Robert E. Griner I and his wife Priscilla Knight (I think).

Will Nunnelly was Cousin Walter's son who lived and died(recently) at Vernon,Tennessee. He would have had the Nunnelly records and probably the Bible you are looking for. I've never seen it. Mama Delia complained often about someone borrowing it (her mother's Bible) to copy records but they never returned it. She mentioned a Sam Nunnelly (her age),but I'm not sure it was Sam-or who Sam was.She said he was riding horseback and just got tired carrying it. Mary Ann Nunnelly Griner had a son named Sam who died young.

Aunt Mary Griner married her cousin Dr. John Nunnelly and they lived at Grey's Bend where I visited her often after she married Dan McDonald. I think she took me to the Nunnelly graveyard there,but at sixteen years I wasn't interested in ancestors, so don't recall who was buried there.

(Tom) Amelia Jones married a nephew of Aunt Lizzie Nunnelly, Walter's mother. His name was Gal Johnson and they lived at Vernon. Amelia lives at Trenton,Tennessee.She would know more about the Nunnellys than I do. Her address is: Mrs. Gal Johnson,Trenton,Tennessee. She is about eighty-seven years,a widow, and quite feeble. I know almost nothing about the Nunnalee family,only that Uncle Jack Nunnelly married Izaline Nunnalee,and their daughter (Mary or Margaret) married my granfather John Lawson,who was killed in the Comfederate army,1861-65. I have belonged to two chapters of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Forrest City,on W.P.Griner and Robert E.Griner war record. Mother Maggie Lawson Griner had a big Bible that Aunt Mary McDonald gave her brother W.P. Griner. ~~I think~~ they said her first husband gave it to her.He was Dr. John Nunnelly. When mother Maggie died the family gave it to me and I have it here. I gave it to my son J.E.Griner. Each summer when I would go to Tennessee mother would have me record the family births and deaths. I don't recall one Nunnalee name and the Griner names were only the immediate family. It was in good shape when I gave it to my son,but many things have since been lost from it. Some obituaries were lost and none go further back than W.P.Griner. Mother said she just wanted our immediate family. I don't know who Anderson Nunnelly's father was. There is quite a lot about our family in the "History of Hickman County". I read it at W.P. Griner's ,but their things went to the four winds when mother Maggie died. I asked for and got the Bible,that was all. Brother Dan got the clock. The"History of Hickman County" was in Centreville Library, written some time ago by Spence.

I'm glad to hear Edward Nunnalee was a soldier in the Revolutionary War.I did not know his name. Where is he buried? I never knew just where they lived or came from. My grandchildren might want to join the Daughters of the American Revolution. I don't know if a Nunnelly or Griner was in that war,though more than likely since both were from Virginia.

A Carl Nunnalee came to see me in Forrest City about ten years ago, looking for a Bible. Mine wasn't the one he wanted but he took notes of mother Maggie's obituary,etc. You probably know more about him than I do,as I'd never heard of him. He was trying to get evidence of Izaline's brother who went to Texas (Honey Grove,I think). His name was William Nunnalee and was immensely wealthy and no direct heirs. He said he would divide with all of us,gave his address as Carl Nunnallee,Memphis,Tennessee. Was to write me developments,I've never had a line from him or any one else about this. He would have every item about Nunnalees. You probably know more about this than I do,as mother Maggie and Cousin Eddie Porter worked on it for a long time and never got a cent. De Neen was the Texas lawyer. I surely could use some extra money.What do you know of it? I've heard mother Delia speak of a "Foster", Maggie's brother John Lawson lived with, after his father John was killed in the war and his mother died. Later on Uncle John Lawson lived at grandmother Griner's for years. Foster's wife may have been a Nunnalee.) Mother Maggie spoke of her Aunt Margaret,who she lived with as a child. or Nunnelly.

Carl Nunnalee had a young woman with him taking notes. I think she was kin to the Monroe Chandlers who lived near the Griner graveyard, by the railroad trestle in Shipp(s Bend.

I hope you've learned something you wanted to know from all this rambling. A Nunnelly ex-slave,"Jennie Nunnelly",came to see me in Tennessee when I was about sixteen years,but I didn't ask her about our forefathers.

Jane,
Saw your posting on Genforum concerning Edward Nunnelee of Hickman Co. TN. The following children were named by Elizabeth Dannelly (Mrs. James) of Jefferson, Texas at the placement of a marker at Gray's Bend Cemetery to honor Edward on 19 Jan 1978:

Edward Washington Nunnelee married Margaret Priestly / moved to Texas
James D. L. Nunneley married Lucy Jane Fowlkes
Timothy Jefferson Nunnelee married Rachel Williams / moved to Missouri
Isaline Isabel Nunnelee married Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley
Jane Nunnelee married Jesse R. Eason

Within the past couple of years, a first wife for Edward Nunnelee has been found with another child. I do not have this information, but someone has joined DAR on this line.
Hope this is helpful.
Mary R. M. Nunneley

Hi Kay,
After checking the Chesterfield timeline that Lynn Collis and I did several years ago, it will be quicker for me to just e-mail you exactly what I found. The following:

Chesterfield Co. VA - Index to wills - 1774-85
Will book 3 - page 116
Daniel Nunnally - inventory

Chesterfield Co. VA - Court Order Books
Book 6 - page 120 - January 1777
Lucy Nunnally is granted administration of the estate of Daniel Nunnally.
Charles Cogbill, John Walthall and William Smith to appraise the estate of Daniel Nunnally

Chesterfield Co. VA - Court Order Books
Book 6- page 133 - May 1777
George Cogbill, Charles Cogbill, Henry Featherstone and Archibald Walthall to appraise the estate of Daniel Nunnally

Book 6 - page 176 - June 1778
Deed: Edward Nunnally and Lucy Nunnally to Joseph Dillon. Witnesses: Jesse Cogbill, Henry Archer and Sharland? Nunnally.

Chesterfield Co. VA - Deed Books (book and page # not given)
3 June 1778
Edward Nunnally, heir at law of Daniel Nunnally, deceased and Lucy (X), widow of said Daniel to Joseph Dillon, of King William, for L180, 113 acres in Dale Parish, adjoining William Womack Nunnally, Thomas Walthall, deceased and Noel Nunnally, all the land where Edward Nunnally and Lucy Nunnally now live.
Witnesses: Jesse Cogbill and Henry Archer.

Chesterfield Co. Virginia Wills 1774-1795 (book by Weisiger, III) page not given
1 Oct 1783
Will of George Hunt Moore of Dale Parish daughter - Lucy Nunnally - 5 shillings daughter - Elizabeth Cousins, wife of John - 5 shillings daughter - Susannah Mann - 5 shillings daughter - Verlinche Vaden, wife of Daniel - 5 shillings daughter - Mary Vaden, deceased, once wife of Lodwick Vaden - 5 shillings granddaughter - Martha Vaden (under age) daughter of Lodwick Vaden - items wife - Frances - rest of estate for widowhood, then to four sons, Matthew, Daniel, Eleasar and Drury executors: sons, Matthew and Daniel witnesses: Thomas Worcham, Edward Wilson and Thomas Burfoot

This is all that I could find. Both Lucy and Edward are never listed in any order book, deed or tax list after Daniel died and they sold the 113 acres in Dale Parish.

I did not go back to see when Daniel obtained the land, if that is possible from the records that I have.
Since I have sent the above info and it is typed exactly from our original typed records, there is probably no need to copy those pages. Let me know.

Any data on Edward would be appreciated.

Dear Glenda,

Enclosing the material I received from Jo Agee of Kingman, AZ. I called her yesterday after I received the material and told her I would copy the Joseph material in my files. She is very excited, because she has absolutely nothing but the enclosed. I rather think she is a beginning genealogist, though she did not say.

Glenna "Jo" Agee 1931-
Delbert Nunneley 1905-
Joseph Alexander Nunneley 1871-1938
James D. Nunneley 1837-1873
Joseph Alexander Nunneley 1802-1866

She has the original paper listing the family of Joseph/Nancy and Joseph/Clarissa. It belonged to her grandfather, Joseph Alexaner Nunneley (1871-1938).

Jo has none of the marriage records for any of old Joseph's children. I think she will be happy with the material I am going to send and sounds as if she is quite interested in keeping contact.

Her list helps explain why we have been unable to find all of those children we knew from the 1850 census...many died before 1860. This still does not explain where old Joseph is hiding. Jo also said that though she has proof that James D. (son of old Joseph) was in Texas by 1869 as postmaster, he is not on the census for 1870.

I am heading off to Temple, TX on vacation for several days, so will not copy the material for Jo until I return. If you have anything additional since we last had contact, I would really like copies to add to the material.

Enjoy that nice sheet of 21 children. It sure helps make sense to old Joseph's 1830 census. BUT...where are all those children buried in Tennessee and Arkansas??

Best close...

Mrs Mary Nunnelly:

Almost a year ago I found a query by Martha Cooke concerning Anderson Nunnelly. I wrote her and she sent the wonderful packet of info on the Nunnelly - Baldwin lines. I didn't even know about the Baldwins at that time. She also gave me your name and address but I guess that in the excitement I just failed to write. Last week I found your query in the Ansearchin and decided that this was the time.

Although I won't be of any help to you now, if you have any clues and we have the sources here in Tulsa (doubtful) I will be more than glad to pitch in and help.

There are so many Nunnellys in the Chesterfield Co., Va. area that surely he is connected there somehow. Also in Halifax Co., N.C. 1784-1787, do you think that the Anderson Nanary listed there is our Anderson. They are given as 1 male under 20 & over 60 and 1 female all ages. They could very easily been newlyweds. Halifax is so near the Va. border and in 1800 he is in Lincoln Co., N.C. getting closer to Tn. all the time. I have looked through all the Va. and N.C. marriage books we have. Have found many Nunnellys but not Anderson.

Have you seen the latest 'Madison Co. Musings' of Ar. If not I will send a copy. They have the Carroll Co. Tax list for 1838 and Joseph is listed as having 2 slaves.

There are two major questions I would like to ask you. Was Joseph's first wife Nancy and what was her maiden name. Also where and when did he die. I know that Clarissa was in Newton Co., Ar. 1860 and there was a Nancy Nunnelly listed in the 1850 mortality schedule of Ar.

My husbands line is through Joseph's daughter Elizabeth who married Wm. Hawkins. I am corresponding with 2 more Hawkins - Nunnelly cousins and we are eager for any info we can find.

I would love to hear from you and, again, if I can be of any help at all please let me know.

Thank you,

Glenda

Dear Glenda,

Received your letter today and am excited to find another child of Joseph. I had no idea there was an "Elizabeth". I had always wondered about his age and the fact that his first listed on the 1850 census was Ecleo, born ca 1832. Since he was born about 1800, it was a bit late for a first child. Do you have a full list of his children? I would love to know who they are, as I have only those from the census lists.

I really do not feel that Anderson is of the Chesterfield Nunneleys. I think that he is a brother of Obediah Nunneley who married Elizabeth Baldwin, the sister of Martha Baldwin, the wife of Anderson. We have proof that these two were sisters and I think that they married brothers. If so, and I am surely guessing, both Anderson and Obediah are the sons of Joseph Nunneley who died in the Revolutionary War in New Jersey. Joseph Shortal who wrote the Nunnally Genealogy is of the same opinion, but no proof has been found. I do feel that the Anderson in NC on the census years, 1784-1787 (NC state) and the 1800 are the man we are looking for Obediah and Elizabeth ended up in NC (Caswell Co.), but after Anderson would be in TN.

I belong to Madison Co. Genealogical Society so do have their quarterly. I had the tax lists so knew Joseph was listed. There is also, a Jno. A. Criner listed and I strongly suspect that he is the husband of Lavicy Nunneley (sister of Joseph). Joseph was involved in a suit in 1846 to obtain money for her children from the estate of Anderson and Martha (Lavicy already deceased), and her name was listed as Criner in the suit.

Please excuse my poor typewriter - I have an IBM Executive (1976 model) that is very sick. Have had it repaired lately and it is still acting up. My son thinks it is time for Mom to go "computer". I do have enough genealogical material with all lines that it would be wonderful.

Back to Joseph - He married first, Nancy Easley, dau of Thomas Easley and Ecleo Wade. Thomas and Ecleo had 17 children and three of their daughters married children of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley. Mary Ann Easley married John W. Nunneley (lived Sevier Co., ARK), Ecleo Easley married William M. Nunneley (probably the William M. in Pope Co. ARK in 1850) and finally Nancy, born 23 Aug 1805 who married our Joseph and is probably the Nancy who died in Franklin Co. ARK in 1850.

My husband is not from the marriage of Joseph and Nancy, but from Joseph's second marriage to Clarissa Moore Maxwell through their son Lawson Harrison Nunneley. I have continued my research on all of the children of Joseph and am so happy to find another "cousin", from either marriage.

I have some items that Martha Cooke does not have pertaining to only Joseph and his family in ARK. She is mainly researching Anderson and her direct line, so have not sent her everything, while I am researching all of the children of Anderson and Martha. Will copy what I have on Joseph (which is not much) and hope it will be something new for you and will lead us to further ideas.

I am sure that there must be so many "cousins" from these children of Joseph and his two marriages and wonder how to begin to locate some of them. I know some are still in ARK and probably a goodly bunch in OK as many of the people who lived in Madison, Carroll and Newton Cos ended up in our area. I guess, just keep looking!

A bit about our group - we are from Tulsa...moved to Bartlesville 10 years ago when Phillips Petroleum closed their Tulsa office. but had always lived there. Dick was born there and graduated from TU, so a long time Tulsan. His grandparents moved from ARK to the Keystone area before statehood (now under water of the lake). Many still live in Tulsa and the Mannford/Keystone area. I am from Drumright (a bit west of the area) and work at the Bartlesville Public Library. We have three children. Dick Jr (a teacher) lives Minneapolis with wife, Judy. Mike (a teacher and coach) lives Granite OK with wife, Kathy and our grandson Bradley (the 27th Bradley in this family since 1818) and daughter Kathleen(our youngest who works at the hospital in Bartlesville). She is divorced and at home with us, but recently engaged to a nice young man, so will move in November.

Thanks much for your letter and do send the list of the children of Joseph that you have found.

Will copy what I have as soon as possible and am returning your SASE. It was nice, but a couple of we Nunneley researchers decided long ago we had written so often and shared so much it was just not necessary. Join our group.

Sincerely,

Dear Mary:

Thanks for the letter and I'll keep the money but I don't want to be a leach. I love to share genealogy but you have helped so much more than I can.

Scratch Jeremiah. I looked him up and found him in Six Mile tns.

J.F. Nunalle	47	Ga
Elizabeth	24	Oh
Lucretia	5	Louisiana
John	3	Texas
Martha	1	Ark

The age keeps him from being a son but I still think John might be. I found no other Nun. except Mary and Eliza living with their sister. Like you, I wonder where in the world did they go. In 1870 Six Mile tns. I found-

James Nunley	55	Ga
Isabel	35	Oh
Evaline	15	Pa (did I mistake an L for a P)
Wm	13	Tx
Martha	11	Ar
Elizabeth	7	"
Rufus	9	Tx
Simeon	5	La
Robert	1	Ar

This man is too old to be our James and the birth place is wrong but would you compare the age and birth places of the first five people in this fam. with Jeremiah. Am I crazy or does that sound like the same family with different names. Isn't Genealogy fun! I also checked Carroll Co. 1860 but found nothing. Hope I didn't overlook someone.

I don't think that Jos. signed for Eliza to get married. I think it might have been Simon Whitley as her guardian and a mistake was made naming him as her father. But I could be wrong and the 1860 mortality schedule would prove it. If Jos. died in Franklin Co. I don't believe that we can get probate records because I think the first book of probate records is lost.

Enclosed are the charts you wanted. John, Mary, and Eli are the only ones I have. The one on John is from Betty and didn't copy too well but I sent her the packet and in a return letter she said she was sending you her charts. She was going to Little Rock on Fri. Maybe she found something great. I don't know how to explain Nancy and Eliza Jane on Wm. and Elizabeth's chart. In 1850 they had Wm. 7/12 and Nancy 2. In 1860 Wm. was gone, probably died in infancy, and Nancy turned into Eliza Jane 12. I can only guess that they were the same person. Elizabeth named several of her children for her sisters and brothers.

I don't have any more to add. Maybe Jos. and Clarissa went to Cali. with Mary and her husband to pan for gold and when Clarissa and Mary wanted to return to civilization the men refused to leave. Last year in a class the speaker told us to use psycology to look for our ancestors. How am I doing!! Really bad Huh.

Sincerely,

Glenda

Mr. Foster sounds like someone I could really relate to. Very confused.

Dear Mary,

Just a line - If I write a letter I'll never get to the post office and get this mailed.

These dates change Joseph A. Nunley's death date.

Perhaps he and Clarissa had seperated? The 1860 census doesn't say she is a widow.

I have been digging in the court house trying to prove Joseph is Elizabeth Nunley Hawkins father. So far, no luck.

I am sending Glenda copies also. Will send you my charts, which are long overdue. I "dropped" digging last year - was sick. Hope I can get back in the swing.

Thanks for all the information you have sent Glenda.

Dear Betty,

Thanks so much for the copy of the deed...but, where was Joseph Alexander Nunneley in 1860? I had noticed that Clarissa was not listed as a widow until the 1880 census. What I cannot understand is where are all of those Nunneley children listed on the 1850 census with Joseph.

The following: 1860

Elizabeth married William Hawkins, ca 1848
Ecleo married Simon Whitley on 1 Mar 1853
Sarah married Richard Steele on 27 Sept 1850
Manulda married William Hamilton on 10 Jul 1851
James...MISSING...would be about 23 yrs
Jackson...MISSING...would be about 19 yrs
Sam Houston...MISSING...would be about 17 yrs
Eliza Jane...living with Ecleo and Simon Whitley in 1860
Mary "Polly"...living with Ecleo and Simon Whitley in 1860
George...MISSING...would be about 12 yrs
Nancy...MISSING...would be about 11 yrs

They all seem to have just disappeared. Sam Houston (according to the Centennial History of Arkansas, Vol. II, page 1069) served in the Civil War in 1861 and served throughout the war. He is said to be a physician and practiced medicine at Dardanelle, AR until his death in 1872. He is the only...MISSING...I have any information on. I do know that William Nunneley, a brother of Joseph A. lived in Yell County in 1860 with a postoffice of Dardanelle. William was in Pope Co. in 1850. William apparently moved to AR from TN about 1848.

...William M. Nunnelly, 53 m Sarah Tidwell, 300 on 3 Mar 1851 / Pope Co

I just wonder if Joseph A. Nunneley and family were missed on the 1860 census of Franklin Co. We now know that he was definitely alive in 1860 and should be on a census somewhere. Seems we still have a lot of work to do with this family.

Thanks again and hope we finally find these people.

Dear Mary:

Just a short note to say hello and send a new piece of material. Virginia McPhail sent the enclosed article about Sam Nunnely. You may already have it but I didn't and it was interesting to find that our Joseph A. had served as sheriff of Carroll Co.

Virginia did not send this Norman Powell's address so maybe she gave him mine and he will contact us later. He may be able to give us some new info. or possibly we can help him.

I sure would like to go to the 150 year celebration in Ozark on the 6th. I love that little town. I've already asked LeRoy if he would like to go but he wasn't very enthusiastic. If not I might have a friend ride over with me.

Virginia didn't mention running into any of our lines in her cemetary research so I guess we are dealing with unmarked graves.

Have not worked on my gen. for several months and am anxious for some clues to get me started again.

Hope your summer is a good one.

Sincerely,

Glenda Sweedy

Dear Glenda,

Thanks so much for the Sam Nunneley biography sent to you by Virginia McPhail. I knew it was around, but had never seen it and did not know what book it was in, so could not search for it. Wally Waits of Richardson Texas had mentioned Sam and said he would send me some material, includthe biography. Wally is a Madison Co., AK research, but not a Nunneley. He never did send a thing.

The biography seems to prove that Joseph's middle name is definitely as I suspected- "Alexander" and therefore the "Alex" that has been listed as a son of Anderson and Martha. This all comes so slow, but we finally do find what we need.

As soon as I received the letter from you, I called some people in Caney, Kansas. They are descended from a Sam Nunneley of Arkansas. They came to one of our family reunions in Tulsa (invited by one of Dick's cousins), but we knew nothing about Sam, except that I had found him on the 1850 census. (I am the only and "official" family genealogist). The biography was exactly what was needed to confirm that they, indeed, are a part of this family. I had not talked to Joy Nunneley for years concerning the family, but when I called she was very excited. About 10 minutes later, another member of the family, a Mary Nunneley Carper, also of Kansas, called me long distance and wanted me to repeat all of the biography. The Kansas Nunneley's are having a family reunion on July 4 and wanted me to copy anything I had and send it so that they could have it at the reunion. I plan to go to Kansas within the next few weeks to see this Mary Carper and get everything she knows about the Sam bunch. When I told the Mary about all of the land and the bank, she said that is so true, my Daddy used to go to Arkansas in the summer to work for his dad, Sam, on his farms. You made them very happy for sharing.

I too, have not been too active with my genealogy of late. Dad had a bad stroke in December, another in February and is in a nursing home at Drumright. I spend most weekends there when I am not working at the library. We work every third Saturday (I do NOT like working on Saturday).

Wish I could go to Arkansas and just roam for a week. Dick is also, not that interested.

Will be interested to have the books of FranklineCounty cemeteries when Virginia publishes. Think we will find some of the Criner's in that county, also.

Best close and thanks for the biography. It will probably get me back to business. In fact, it made me do some thinking. If Eliza Jane Nunneley married Adam R. Wolf in Franklin County in Oct of 1860 "with the consent of her father" and she is the daughter of Joseph, then Joseph must have died between Oct, 1860 and the date of the 1860 census since he is not listed with Clarissa.

Write when you have time -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

I may have one or two clues to the children since re-digging through corres. and records.

Have you accounted for -
Nunley, John 21 & Rhoda Guest 18 Aug. 3, 1851 by Henry F. White, J.P. pg. 27 First Book of Mar. Rec. Franklin Co. If you do not know who he is then I'll bet he is another son. At age 21 in 1851 he would have been born in 31 between Elizabeth and Ecleo.

Also found in notes - Original Land Rec. of Franklin Co. - Nunnelee, Jeremiah F. 1858 4,5,7,8,9,18,7,27. This has to be the J.F. Virginia McPhail wrote you about. Do you know who this is? Do you think he could be James or Jackson or do you think he could be one of the older children!

The Eliza who lived with Ecleo or Chlora Whitley 1860 is listed with Jos. in 1850 between Sam and Polly-Mary.

Mortality Schedule of Arkansas 1850
Nunley, Nancy, age 44, sex F, birth place S.C., died April, cause- fever 3 weeks, county Franklin.

If you don't want to order the film right now, we have all of Ark. and Kan. 1850-1900 in the Sapulpa Lib. I'll be glad to look them up. I just looked through Newton 1860 two weeks ago but only found Clarissa. Is the Mary Moulten and her son that is listed with Clarissa a daughter by her first marriage? It looks like Mary was born in Tn. but her son, Sumner?, was born in Cali. I got sidetracked. Sapulpa also has 1850 and 1900 for the entire country. They just got 1860 Mo. and I understand they will be getting the other years for that state. Tulsa just received a grant from the Mabee foundation and purchased 1860 Tn., Ky, In, Il, Va, and N.C. As far as I know there isn't an index for 1860 Ark. 'County index' are more popular after 1850. I wish our library would invest in more of those instead of the huge books that my dirt farmer ancestors never seem to show up in. I guess that wasn't very nice and I know those books are priceless to a lot of lines.

Well I don't know if I've helped, hindered, or repeated what you already know so let me know.

Sincerely,

Glenda

P.S. Does anyone have Old Joseph's military records to see if Anderson and Obediah are listed as children?

After reading over this letter, I hope to goodness it makes sense to you.

9 Sep 1984

Dear Mary:

I can't thank you enough for the packet of info. Our mail must have crossed paths along the way. I can see that you already know Virginia McPhail. She is one super lady. In fact, she is responsible for Betty McFarland and I corresponding. I have copied everything for Betty and will mail tomorrow.

I have researched the courthouse at Ozark a couple of times but can see I should go back since I missed the land records and divorce action Joseph was involved in. Oh well, I'm still learning and at 40 my mind can go blank in just a second and leave me standing there looking stupid.

Please accept the $5 enclosed for copies and postage. And if that is not enough just let me know.

Easley is a familiar name to me since some settled in the Elkins area of Washington Co. Ar. This is where my Father's family is from (Watson).

Thank you again and if there is anything I can do, let me know.

Glenda

Dear Glenda,

Received your letters and the money – if I take the 5.00 then I will need to pay you for copies you might send. Lets not do that. I am returning it with a thanks for your kind thought, and also, Tulsa money probably cannot be spent in B'ville.

I have the Franklin Co. marriage book and the mortality schedule book and no had not tried to "fix" the other Nunneley marriages with Joseph's family. As I said, I felt sure that there must be other children, but without a will or any other proof just had not tried to fit them into his family. I do not have Eliza listed on the 1850 census with Joseph's family – wonder how I missed her?

I have already ordered the following film from AGLL:

Franklin	1850
Franklin	1860
Madison	1860	(have the 1850 by Wally Waits, Jr.)
Newton	1860

Should have ordered the 1850 of Newton because Dick's McColloughs were there, but just didn't think.

Jeremiah F. – who in the world?? Jeremiah is an old Nunneley name from Virginia, but wonder who he can be. He is not on the 1850 census of AK and hope the 1860 of one of the above counties I have ordered will produce some information. Maybe this is an additional son of Joseph.

I wouldn't be surprised if the Mary Moulten (Moltham) with Clarissa is a daughter listed with her son Sumner? (I couldn't read the child's name). I did not realize that Clarissa was in Franklin Co. in 1850 when I first read the census some years ago so do not have the listing for her and her children by her first marriage. Will get that when my film comes. Clarissa, I think ?, had a brother William Sumner Moore who lived in Madison Co. in 1850 next door to Clarissa's parents, George and Mary (Chapin) Moore. Buried at Liberty Cemetery in Madison Co. where Clarissa and some of her children are buried is Summers Moore, 1826-1865 and his wife, Peremelia C (Wife of W. S.)1827-1900. So Mary Moltham could be a daughter of Clarissa or a daughter of William Sumner and Peremelia Moore.

Back to Eliza – since you show her on the 1850 census with Joseph and she married Adam Wolf at age 16 with the consent of her father, we may be able to get close to Joseph's death date. She married 4 Oct 1860 and will check the date of the census when it arrives. Since Joseph was not on the 1860 census, he must have died (?) between Oct and Dec 1860. If so, he should be listed on the 1860 mortality schedule. The census takers were instructed to list deaths during the preceding 12 months to date of taking the census. Haven't seen the 1860, have you?

Joseph, old, has little in his RW records. Joseph's son, John, was apparently missing and presumed dead so Obediah was listed as his only heir. John reappeared and had a family, but Anderson is not listed.

Enclosing some family group sheets and would really appreciate it if you could fill out some for Elizabeth and William and their families.

Will close for now. Need to write to a Mr. Foster in San Diego, CA and send some info on the Bunch family of Ark. He is more mixed up than were are. He has his Delilah Bunch born in TN to a man who never lived in TN. The man who he thinks is his ancestor lived and died in Louisa Co. VA.

Dear Mary:

Hope this spring finds you well and ready for summer. If this humidity doesn't break, I'll croak.

Went to the Ft Smith library Saturday and copied the second page of Sam Nunneley's story from the Centennial History. Also found some info about his will. I looked up our last corres when I sent the first page of this story and it was June of 85. I had to laugh. You've probably forgotten me and Old Sam too. Anyway we are still around but we're slow.

I havn't done a lot of new research, just trying to make sense of the old. Benton Co. and Washington Co., AR are both doing a county history book if you have anyone from there or if the Caney, KS cousins would like to include Sam and thier own families.

If you've picked up this info in the 2 year lapse just scrap it. It's supper time so I must go to Arby's.

Dear Mary:

After receiving your letter I feel like celebrating. A possible father for Joseph and a whole new line, Easly.

Your mentioning Obediah rang a bell and sure enough I found him in the packet from Martha Cooke. Also before you send copies, she also sent the papers concerning the suit of Lavicy and the letter to Martha Baldwin Nunnely that you transcribed. But that is all the info. I have on Jos. other than cen. and his marriage to Clarissa. I will be glad to reimburse you for any copies.

I am enclosing the death record of Mary Hawkins Tweedy. As you will see her father is given as Wm. Hawkins and her mother as a Nunnely although Ala. is given as the birthplace. On the 1850 cen. Jos. is in house number 28 and next door in house 29 are listed; Wm. Hawkins 26 Tn., Elizabeth 20 Tn., Nancy (after her grmother?) 2 Ar., and Wm. 7/12 Ar.

According to Mr Wally Waits who writes so many articles in the 'Musings', Old Wm. Hawkins of Hawkins Mill fame left Madison Co. and moved to Carroll Co. about 1841. I have no proof but feel sure our Wm. is Old Wms. son. He would have been young enough to go with his father and since there doesn't seem to be a marriage record for he and Elizabeth in Franklin Co. they surely married in Carroll Co and no records are available. According to all the cen. Eliz. was born @1830 just ahead of Ecloe. I don't know of any other older Nun. children although Carroll Co. with no records may hold that answer.

The Tweedys, Hawkins, and Nun. all settled in the Ozark area. Many Hawkins still live there. One lives in the house or log cabin that Eli built (son of Wm. and Eliz.). The house is beautifully decorated but she and her husband have not changed the original lines of the house at all. She has closed off the fireplace inside but the chimney still stands outside. She has a tall glass jar that Wm and Eliz. supposedly buried sugar in during the Civil War. They lived in a cabin up the hill behind this house, the area was called Copper Springs but the cabin no longer stands. They are buried in Hixon Cem. a short distance away but have only field stones. No one is sure which graves as there is a whole row of stones, all Hawkins.

Virginia McPhail lives in Van Buren but is a Franklin Co. expert since her ancestors came from that Co. She helped me get straightened out on these lines when I first started about 2½ years ago and which is another story. She tells me there are many Nunnelys buried in the Huntsville Cem., probably children. She and a friend are recording the Franklin Co. Cems. and are finding many that have been long forgotten. They will compile the info. into a book but I feel sure that if she finds a stone for Nancy or Jos. she will let me know.

A friend and I have been planning a trip to Newton Co. and I could look for Jos. will there since Clarissa was there in 1860. However our husbands work together and after 28 years with the same company it looks like the doors will close Sep. 30. So that trip may be postponed for a while. But as long as I can get to the library and stamps don't go up too much, I've got it made. Seriously, we are much more fortunate than many but this is one of those things that always happens to the other person.

It sounds like you have a lovely family. LeRoy has a son and daughter by a previous marriage, Galen and Leann. Then we have Mike. They are all supposed to be grown! Like your husbands family my mothers parents (McLaughlin) came to Tulsa before statehood. I was born in Louisiana but only because Dad was on the pipe line. They had me back here by 3 weeks and I've been here ever since. LeRoy is from Sallisaw where his father, Will Robert 82, still lives. Will came to OK. from Ozark at about age 10.

I feel like I'm rambling so will close for now. Thanks again for the info. and I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Glenda

Dear Glenda,

Not being formal at all, just makes it easier to re-read letters and find addresses in a hurry when I wish to write to someone again.

Thanks for your letter and Mary Hawkins Tweedy's death certificate. Wish the part was filled in for the person giving the information. That helps too!

By now you have received my packet (the post office was closed so guessed at the postage and surely hope it arrived with "no postage due")

Now to Joseph A. - I really think there were several additional children that we do not know a thing about. The 1840 census of Carroll Co., AK as follows:

Males	under 5	James	13 in 1850
	5 - 10	?
	10 - 15	?
	30 - 40	J. A. Nunnelley
Females	5 - 10	Ecleo	18 in 1850
	5 - 10	Sarah	16 in 1850
	5 - 10	Huldah	15 in 1850
	5 - 10		one of these is Elizabeth
	10 - 15
	30 - 40	Nancy	deceased by 1850

As you see, we have at least three males and one female in Joseph's household in 1840 that are not accounted for in 1850. I have always suspected that there were several other children and feel that the male 20-30 in 1840 is probably their son and the first born. Joseph is 40 and the male is probably 20. This surely fits better than Joseph having his first, Ecleo, at 31 or such. This would give Joseph and Nancy 14 children - no surprise since her mother had 17. Now the big question - where in the world did all of the children of this marriage go?? They did not live with their step-mother Clarissa. In 1860 Newton Co. she had only the two sons of her marriage to Joseph. The four youngest children would have been, Sam. 17 Polly, 14, George, 12 and Nancy, 10 or 11. I have found Polly as follows:

1860 Franklin Co. - White Oak Twp. Ozark. AK (1 June 1860)

	Chlora	28			TN
	Wm. "	26			NC
	Eliza Nunnally	16			ARK
	Mary "	14			ARK

Do not know who the Eliza can be, but the following:

Franklin Co. ARK - Eliza Jane Nunelly, 16 married Adam R. Wolf. 25
consent of father. married 4 Oct 1860

I guess I really need to order the 1860 census for Carroll. Madison, Newton and Franklin Cos. I belong to AGLL and can get them for 9.00 per roll and think it would be worth owning them and having time to really read them. Sure wish I had the 1860 census for ARK. Has one been done?? (index that is). Better close for now - the typewriter is protesting my left margin badly.

Dear Mary,

Thank you so much for the stuff you sent! I am just fascinated with it. Could hardly put it down when it came. I can only begin to realize how much work you have put into all this. My daughter Sue was here this week and she enjoyed all of it too. Really, I appreciate it very much.

I have talked with a Lowrey cousin in California but he said he knew very little about our grandmother Mable Rogers. However, we believe she was married twice before she married L. H. By her first marriage she had two daughters - one I remember seeing one time. Her name was Lillian Eyre and she lived in Kan. City at one time. But that was a long time ago and both of them the girls are gone. Her second marriage was to a Lowrey, and at least one of the 3 Lowrey boys was born in Warsaw, Missouri. Also I noticed on one of the clippings it mentions a Rev. Lowrey. Also, I've found cards from my uncle W. E. Lowrey from Portland Oregon so I feel that he was visiting the Leggs. I was not sure just where they fit in. Mom heard from Ira Legg occasionally and he visited us at least once.

Glad to hear that you had visited with Irene. I am enclosing a couple copies of things you might send on to her, please. I don't have her address. And then when you're finished with the negatives she is welcome to use them if she wants pictures of L. H. and Clarissa. If she wants copies of the picture of Eliza I can get a negative for her. I copied the family record from the Bible for you and wrote the current status of our family on the back. The "Bill" whose death is listed as July 4 1968 is Lenelle's first husband W. E. Clift who died of cancer. Our bro. Loy also has an adopted son, Stephen - 20 yrs. old.

I am also sending a snapshot I took at Sennett Cemetary when I visited Uncle Elbert's grave. This is a "Herbert" Nunneley and I was just curious about him. Do you know? I took pictures of the other also. I decided to throw in the small shot of Dave & I. So you could put a face (unflattering as it is) with my voice. We haven't had a good picture made in several years. Maybe on our 40th. anniv.!!

Also found a couple other old pictures (at least one) of people I don't know.

Well, I've rested some today, but I'm still very tired. We had about 500 ears of sweet corn to put in the freezer, plus green beans to put up. And we've had company for the last six weeks, almost constantly. It's about to get me down. Maybe we can take the trailer to the lake for a few days. We are scheduled for a 3-wks trip to Yellowstone & other places in a couple weeks. I'm really looking forward to it.

Still dry as dust here. We had just enough sprinkles to make the cotton come up but it surely won't do much until it rains.

Well, I must close - say "hi" to Dick and the rest of the family.

Love,
Wilma

P.S. I'm having one more negative made of L.H. Perhaps I will get it soon. Would you want it, too. It is of the snapshot of him - just standing with his hands behind his back. I believe it was made in the late 1920's, and it looks very much the way I remember him.

When you finish with the negatives, I would like to have them back. I think all the younger kids (our kids) will probably want one.

Dear Mary

How's everything with the Nunnelys these days? We're okay.

Congratulations - on your new grandson!! Hope he's doing well. Wish you could have come by when you were through here - hope you can next time.

Bet June was a busy month for you!! Where is your new daughter-in-law from?

Do hope your father is doing much better by now.

We were gone on vacation during the last of May and the first of June. We went to Warrensburg, Mo. (near Kansas City) to my brother's (Rodi's) - then on to Evansville, And We stayed a week there - we stayed in Mel's brother's travel trailer and visited relatives. We came back by St Louis & visited the zoo there. Also came by Branson, Mo, & Silver Dollar City. We came home through a part of Ark. that we hadn't seen before. I really enjoyed that part of our trip - it was real pretty.

Hasn't this hot weather been tiresome! Do you have a garden? We only have a few tomato plants,* and some squash - also a couple of cucumber vines. Doubt they'll do well for very long, with this heat.

Cindy - our 14 yr old - is working at an ice cream parlor this summer. Keeps me busy running her back and forth. Kayla spent a week at my sister's - (Wilma's) at Ft Supply after we got back from Ind.

Tomorrow is Kayla's 13th birthday - both of our girls are teenagers now!

Do you enjoy swimming? We bought a pass to the Holiday Inn pool this summer and have really gotten our money's worth. We go swimming about every day. I haven't accomplished much this summer, though. Haven't even read any good books lately. Do you like to read? I do - I think working in a library would be interesting.

I have to close for now - it's time to take Cindy to work again. Write soon.

Sincerely

Linda

Dear Mary

Thank you very much for sending me the Nunneley genealogical sheets - and for your nice letter.

My sister Wilma didn't have much additional information about our grandparents. She did have birth & death dates on them - according to her, Lawson was born Apr 13, 1854 (but I believe it was 1855). Mabel Rogers Nunneley was born in Iowa on May 7, 1864 and died on Dec 15, 1931. Lawson died on Nov 27, 1938 - but we don't know for sure where he was at the time, perhaps en route to Mo?

Lula Barker must be an interesting lady! I had no idea Mother has a half-sister still living! Do you know in what town the nursing home she lives ~~x~~ is located?

Wish I could have met Elbert - Ellis & Coella came out to visit us several times during my growing up years. I imagine Coella still lives at Monett, Mo. & would get mail addressed to her there.

Bet you're anxious for the grandbaby (or babies!) to arrive. Hope we'll get to meet you when you're out this way. We are planning a trip to Indiana the last week of May & the first two in June - that's when Mel will be off work - I'm not sure when we'll leave - but I certainly am looking forward to meeting you & hope we're home when you're out.

Did Kathleen get out of school last week for Spring Break? Our girls did - think they got a little bored.

Oh - I have some Jones relatives at Mangum - I think your son Michael might know Mike Jones - he's an art teacher. I don't know if he teaches at Jr High or Sr High. His dad & I are first cousins. Mike's brother Chris also lives there & works at the Post Office.

That is interesting - about the lady in Texas - Someone must have done quite a lot of research - to go back as far as 1640 – to Richard Nunn. Wonder if our Nunnelleys are his descendents.

Well, I don't have any new information about the Nunnelleys so will close for now – do keep in touch! And thanks again – I'm enclosing a couple of dollars – I want to at least pay the postage on the information you sent & pay a little part toward the phone calls.

Sincerely,

Linda Kelley

P.S. There are two funeral homes at Elk City – Martin's and Savage's. When I'm over there again, I'll try to check and see if they have any records concerning Lawson.

Dear Mary

Was so glad to hear from you and I apologize for not answering your letter sooner.

I've filled out the group sheets - hope they're legible. Wish I had more information to send about my grandparents. I went to Ural Cemetary last Sunday to see what dates are written on their tombstone - the only inscription on Lawson's is 1854 - 1938 - no days or months. Mable's was 1864 - 1931. One of my sisters thinks Lawson died in Mo - but she doesn't know where.

Lawson & Mable had both been married before they were married to each other - as you know. Mable's first husband's name was Lowry - but I don't know what his given name was. They had four children, I think. Mildred was Lawson & Mable's only child. She was born in Okla - (I believe at Noble) - and lived in N.M. for a while as a child. I believe

Lawson was a farmer.

My parents were married at Elk City, I think - and had 8 children. One daughter died as an infant of pneumonia and a son died of heart disease at 34. My oldest brother Noel (Zod) lives in Warrensburg, Mo - and works at Whiteman AFB. Wilma lives at Ft Supply; her husband works for the Corp of Engineers. Gerald lives at Wheatland & works at a Post Office in Okla City. Genelle lives near Custer City - her husband is a wheat farmer. Wanelda lives at Bethany - her husband works for Borden's. Mel - my husband - was stationed at Clinton - Sherman AFB - near Burns Flat before we were married - I worked there after we got married as a Clerk - Steno until our daughters came. I am now a housewife. I enjoy reading - and oil painting when I have time. Mother had a stroke nearly 8 yrs ago & is paralyzed on one side and unable to talk. She was in a nursing home here in Clinton but was sick in Nov and after she was released from the hospital, we moved her to the Thomas Nursing Center - where we hoped she'd have better care. I try to go see her often - so that, my family & housework keeps me busy.

Sounds like Dick's family is one to be proud of - where did he grow up, - and what was his father's name?

Do you know if Carlla is still alive? Unless she has passed away recently, she is - Wilma usually has a Christmas card from her. In fact, I thought Wilma might have more information on the Nunnelys than I do & she's supposed to send me what she has - if she has anything else, I'll send it to you.

Write again - & come see us if you're out this way!

Dear Mary

Thought I'd drop you a note to let you know I haven't forgotten you and to tell you my family has enjoyed the Nunnelly information you sent.

Bet you'll be glad when the grandbaby(s) arrives! There are two little new relatives on our family tree - my niece and her husband had twin daughters Feb 29. They are the first twins to be born in our family as far back as we know. They were premature and were in Childrens Hospital at Okla City for 6 weeks. They are at home now and are doing fine. My niece & her husband are Connie & Gary John (my brother Gerald's daughter) and they live at Moore.

When is school out in Bartlesville? It's not out till May 29 here - later than usual. So we won't be leaving for Indiana until then. Really hope we'll be home when you're out this way!

Do you like to bake? I'm sending a recipe we like.

I don't have anything new about the Nunneleys so will close for now - write again and do come by when you're out this way!

Dear Mary + Dick -

Greetings from this part of the country! We are well, I guess - however, we've both had the flu "bug."

Hope this finds you and yours all well + happy.

I really don't know much more about the Nunnelleys now than I did when I talked with you on the phone, but I did get hold of the old photo album I told you about. I'm looking forward to seeing you and learning more about some of the people in it. There is a tintype of a Mary L. Moore, as well as pictures of "Aunt Polly Burch" + some "Reeves" and an old photo of someone unnamed. On the back it says it was taken by a J. B. Nunneley in Middletown Ohio. Also a picture of "Grandpa Forkner". I think you would find it very interesting. I also found the letter from Helen Marie, telling me about Aunt Coella's death Sept 25, 1981.

Well I have to close - we

Dear Mary,

I was happy to have received your letter of March 9th. I am sorry that I have been so tied up that I have been unable to reply until now. At least I was able to get the census in the mail and on its way to you. I hope that you found it satisfactory. I have decided that I did not like that particular copier very much. By the way, if you can tell me some of the maiden names of married women are that I don't have listed, I would appreciate it. I've had one man to correct me and I think that I will have to make another correction after some more research.

The February 13, 1924 issue of the Fayetteville Democrat has a very long obituary on Samuel, son of Samuel Huston and Elizabeth Nunneley" who was born Feb. 7, 1870 at Huntsville. His mother, who had since married a Graham, survived him. So too did his wife who was a Lowry/Lowery. I find Lawson and his mother Clarissa (MOORE) NUNNELEY in Kings River Township in 1880, but not Sam or Samuel Huston. Nor do I find any of them in Madison CJounty in 1870. Son Sam was Clerk of the 3rd Circuit Court from 1896 until 1900.

While I don't know much about this family, I'm wondering whether there was a connection with Ann MOORE, the wife of Gilbert HUDSON who was living in Marble Township in 1880, not too distant from the MAXWELL family where Clarissa was staying? Had you looked into this possible connection?

In 1970 I hitchhiked to Kentucky where I met some of my MAXEY relatives who lived in the Bowling Green area. I was told that my great-grandmother's [Elizabeth Ann MAXEY QUESENBURY] grandfather was William Chambers MAXEY. He was said to have been the son of William Henry MAXEY and Elizabeth CHAMBERS NUNNERLY. There was some uncertainty about the Chambers/Nunnerly part, but felt that there was enough to claim that such a relationship existed with those families. I undertook research on the Waits linage shortly thereafter and let this slide. In my research on the linages of Madison County families, there cropped up repeatedly ties between many of the families, though it sometimes was a marriage several generations back. Is it possible that my NUNNERLY and you NUNNELEY are the same families? Do you have any information on such a relationship?

Before I close, I'll ask you to let me know whether you want a copy of th4e obituary for Sam Nunneley. I'll be happy to send the copy to you without charge.

The Bunch Genealogy states that the parents of Eveline are Wm. A. and Martha Fancher Boatright. I doubt it!! I, along with other researchers, suspect that Martha Jane Fancher was a second wife to William Boatright. It is thought that James Knox Polk Boatright (1847-1939) may have been their first child. Martha Jane would have been six months short of 16 years when Eveline was born. Possible, but not likely that she is Evalina's mother.

Hope some of the above information helps the annotated census.

Sincerely,

PS - have spent "hours" with the annotated census and it is great. How about the 1860??

Dear Irene,

I really enjoyed talking to you last night. Bell Telephone might start looking for me stim (or is it AT&T). I don't know who does what with our telephones now. Anyway, it was such fun to talk for such a long time and find out so much about this Nunneley family. I replayed the tape after we talked and you sound great. I sound funny.

After we talked, and I started remembering, I had somewhere read the business about the JesseNunneley thing. No one in the family here had ever said a thing about it and probably do not even know – they seem to remember almost nothing about the family. When I got to work at the library this morning, I went in to the genealogy room and started looking in the Arkansas material. I was right. I had read it before and just had forgotten until you mentioned it. I had no idea who the Jesse was, so put it out of my mind until you told me. I am sending a copy of the write-up I had read a long time ago about it. It must have been a sad thing for both families and probably, no one will ever really know whether it was a fight between Jesse and the father or a bad thing between the boy and Jesse. With so many people down there related, it must have been hard for everyone who was involved.

Wish I had a lot of vacation, which I don't, and would love to come down there and have you show me around the areas in which I am so looking for this Nunneley and other families. It is so close, but for me, still a long way off. As I said, I must use all of my time to help with Dad. He is most important and so grateful for every thing we do. He is the nicest 84 year old "gent" I have ever known. He doesn't dust or sweep as often as Mom would probably like, but is doing a good job of living alone since she died in February, 1983. Don't know how long it will last, but we girls have kept our promise to Mom, not to move him out to a nursing home. He is a wonderful cook, gardener, flower raiser and does a good job with the laundry. His health is pretty good and his pacemaker helps a bunch. Before he had it, he was not good at all. He has had it for years and has made it fine. We talk from Drumright where he lives to here a couple of times a week (more if he needs to know how to make Jello or something silly) and I go down on weekends when I don't have to work on Saturday at the library.

Well, best get off – hope things there are fine. It was wonderful talking to you and thanks so much for the information. I know how busy you are, so don't worry with replies. When you have time and feel no pressures (ever ?) would surely like to copy the information.

Glad Cecil is doing some better. I think Irene might consider taking care of Irene a few days occasionally – You are a good lady, bless you.

Write when you have time,

Love,

Mary

I wrote Glenda last week — she called yesterday.

The date of 15, April 1915 was taken from her tombstone (information from an elderly Aunt)

The date of March 6 1916 is taken from her death certificate - which I would think would be correct.

Dear Mary,

I thank you for the enclosed check. However, I'm returning it — 1st place it is far, far too much for my actual expenses, and 2nd I've not yet accepted pay from anyone. People have been so good to send me information free of charge, I can do no less. But I do appreciate your thoughtfulness.

You mentioned that Martha Ann E. Nunnelley may be the daughter of John W. and Mary Ann Easley. Sounds very possible. She could get the Martha from John's mother, Martha Baldwin Nunnelley, and the Ann E. from her mother, Mary Ann Easley.

You mentioned that you are 53. I am 50, so we are about the same age.

Summer time is busy for me (gardening, yard work, etc.) so I usually do very little researching in the summer.

The book, The Formation of the State of Oklahoma 1803–1906 Vol. VI, by Roy Gittinger, 1917, Univ. of Calif. Press, Berkeley, pages 1, 2, 3, tells how in the very early 1800's Okla. was part of Arkansas Territory. So I assume Arkansas has some early records from this area if any records survived.

In a research article by R. P. Baker, 1979, regarding "Old" Miller Co., Ark., it states that "Old" Miller Co. was created in 1820 and took in "Beginning on the north bank of the great Red River at a point due south of the Cosselat Bayou .. thence due north to the mouth of the Cossatat.. then up said Bayou to the boundry line of the county of Clark, then due west with said line to the Canadian River, on the Indian boundry line, then with said line to the great Red River ... then southeasterly with the Indian or Spanish boundry line to a point due north to the Beginning.." This area included much of what is now Southeastern Oklahoma and northeastern Texas.

When "Old" Miller Co. held its first session in July 1821 its meeting place was in the house of Claiborne Wright, on the subsequent site of Shawnee Town, near the present city of Idabel. At this first session, the county was divided into three townships, "Pican" or Pecan, Jefferson and Washington.

Later the following townships were created: Sevier, Clay, Fulton Mill Creek and Clark.

In 1825 the U.S. Govt. concluded a treaty with the Choctaw Nation which ceded most of Miller Co. north of Red River. By 1828 the inhabitants of the area N. of the river had removed to its south bank. Most of the area remaining in Arkansas was incorporated into the newly formed County of Sevier. This occasioned the moving of the courthouse, and may have contributed to its destruction by fire on the night of Nov. 5, 1828. a fire which destroyed all the county records.

I think two or 3 records were saved - tax records for a year or two, etc. Those old records would have helped with my Davises, and possibly with some of your Nunnellys,

Will keep my eyes open for your Nunneley when I do go researching.

Sincerely,
Jane Nichols

Dear Mary:

You are the first person who has contacted me regarding the Nunnelly connection with my husband's family. I do not know what access you have to Sevier County, Arkansas records, but enclosed are a couple of sheets of information I thought might be of interest to you.

So far I have found no mention of any children between Thomas Nunnelly and Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Nunnelly Gray. Catherine Ann and her first husband, Levi Davis, had four children, named in the guardianship. My husband is descended from their son, Nathaniel. With her third husband, Samuel Gray, she had three or four children. By 1850 Catherine and Samuel Gray were living near Umpire, Arkansas in Howard County. Then it was Polk County.

In thinking back, it seems like I have seen the name of Nunnelly mentioned several times in Sevier County records. Sevier was formed in 1828 from parts of Miller and Hempstead Counties, and mention may be found in those county records.

If you should have opportunity to come to Little Rock (Mabelvale is a suburb), go to the State History Commission, located on the second floor of the first building on the north side of the mall just behind the state capitol. They have county records on film. Their hours are 8:00-4:30 Monday through Saturday. No charge, and I have always found them to be VERY helpful.

I don't take time to "research" very often, but the next time I do, I'll be glad to see what I can find - at no charge. People have been so good to help me, I just don't feel like charging anyone for my time. What information do you have, especially pre-1860, on your Nunnellys in Arkansas?

Sincerely,

Jane

P.S. I note you show Catherine and Samuel Gray being married 13 Aug 1843. My records show Aug. 30. I need to recheck to see if I miscopied the date.

Dear Jane:

Thank you for your letter of 23 Feb 1984 concerning Thomas Nunnelly and Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Nunnelly Gray. The material you so kindly sent leaves no doubt that Catherine was, indeed, the wife of Thomas and not a daughter of John Nunnelly of Sevier County.

I am enclosing the material I copied at the Tulsa Public Library which shows the marriage date of Samuel Gray and Cath. Ann Nunnelly as 13 Aug 1843. This could surely be an error on the part of those who transcribed the material. I have not written for the marriage record.

I am researching all of the children of Anderson Nunnelly and Martha Baldwin of Virginia to Hickman County, TN by 1810. They had ten children and at least four of them came to Arkansas. Those who are known residents are:

Joseph A. Nunneley is my husband's great-great grandfather and though we know the burial location of his second wife, Clarissa Moore Maxwell Nunneley, at Liberty Cemetery, Madison Co., AK, we do not know the location of his burial or that of his first wife, Nancy Easley Nunneley.

I really have quite a lot of information on this family and would love to share if anyone ever contacts you concerning the name because of your query.

Thanks again for the proof that Catherine was not a child of John Nunnelly. Such information, though it makes those of researching this name start over for additional female children, is most helpful. I am thrilled to see a proof that makes our records correct.

I do hope to get to Arkansas to do some research someday, but working at the library here in Bartlesville and making trips to Drumright to help care for my 84 year old father on weekends keeps me very busy at the time.

Again, thanks for all of the information.

Dear Mary:

Thank you for the copy of Red River Dust pages regarding the hanging tree. Someone had given me about half of what you sent, so I am very glad to have all of what you sent.

No, I do not have the murder records from Texas. Wish I did! My first information about the murder was in an old family letter, whose writer is now deceased, I'm fairly sure. I really need to go to Texas and look up records on Levi Davis. So many of the records in Arkansas that I need on Levi have been burned. I feel like I have reached a blank wall on him.

There were other Davises in what is now Little River County at the same time Levi was living there, but have not made a connection between him and them. It is frustrating.

I hope you are having a good summer. Thanks again for the zeroxed pages.

Jane

Dear Mary:

Have been away from home about two months taking care of sick relatives, so am trying to get caught up on correspondence.

The information on your Nunnellys is interesting, and I will take it with me the next time I go to the State History Commission researching. I don't go very often, so don't hold your breath! They have quite a bit of information on cemeteries, so I might find something. One always hopes.

You have taken on quite a job, researching all 10 of Anderson Nunnelly and Martha Baldwin's children. Good luck!

Are you interested in any information about Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Nunnelly Gray? Some of her family history is rather interesting. Her brother, Richard Mark Hopkins, was sheriff of old Miller County, Ark. (now the Texarkana area) for several years around the 1830's. Her sister, Isabella, m. second the Mr. Clark that Clarksville, Texas is named after. (Isabella m. 3 times). Her parents were from Kentucky. They moved their family, slaves, etc. to Indiana, I think it was, and through a technicality in the law, lost their slaves because they had moved them to a non-slave state. Shortly thereafter the family moved to northeastern Texas.

Catherine's first husband, Levi Davis, was murdered in Texas while he and a friend were trying to find some runaway slaves (presumably theirs). The murderers were caught, and hung on a large oak tree in what is now a large cemetery in Clarksville, Texas. Since then it has been called the hanging tree. If you are interested, I'll send you copies of the information I have on this family. I know it would have been of more interest to you if Catherine and Thomas had had children. And who knows, they may have had a baby that died. She had children by both first and third husbands.

Sincerely,

Jane

Dear Jane,

I am so pleased to have a copy of the marriage record for Joseph A. Nunneley and Clarissa Maxwell. Have the date from a published record, but have nevereordered the original. It is wonderful!

Think I mentioned in an earlier letter that those of us doing the Nunneley research had "assumed" that Catherine Ann was a daughter of John W. and Mary Ann Easley Nunneley, because we knew they had three daughters, per census records before 1840. The proven daughters were Huldah Elizabeth (her obit, d 16 Jan 1845) and Nancy L. (married Dr. Ulysses H. Ware, 13 Oct 1850). We could never find out the third daughter, so Catherine Ann became #3 - which was corrected by your good information.

You have sent the marriage record for what is probably the "real" daughter #3 - Martha Ann E. Nunneley who married Hausfon (?) L. Paxton on 17 March 1846 in Sevier Co., AK. A longtime mystery may be solved.

Nancy L. Nunneley who married Dr. Ulysses H. Ware moved to Red River Co., TX and then back to Tennessee after Dr. Ware died. The 1850 census of Texas has a listing in the index for an H. Paxton in Bowie Co. TX (a border county to AK by Little River). This may be Martha and Hausfon (?) Paxton. Have not seen the microfilm of the census. Red River Co. adjoins Bowie Co. in TX.

No proof that the Martha Ann E. Nunneley is really a daughter of John W., but - his mother's name was Martha Baldwin Nunnelly - looks promising. I had really always wondered about the name, Catherine Ann as a Nunneley daughter. I had found no Catherines in any Nunneley research.

In an earlier letter, you mentioned the big job I had undertaken on this family of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunnelly - trying to find all of their children, not just Joseph A. Nunneley. It is a big undertaking - but - in searching for Joseph, records have just accumulated to the point that it made sense to search all of their children. I will never publish, but it will always be available to any Nunneley researchers. Many people have helped me so much, that it seems fun to share.

My still searched for secret - where is Joseph (if living) and Clarissa Nunneley in 1860? I have decided to purchase the 1860 census microfilm for Arkansas and go through each county until I find them. I have joined the American Genealogical Lending Library and can purchase the film for $9 per roll. It will be of use on many lines of my husband's family and then I can donate the rolls to the Bartlesville Library for others to use. They were somewhere in AK in 1860??

Enclosing a little gift for the great copies you have shared - it is ever so much more fun to correspond with you than a county clerk. Wish Thomas W. Nunneley and Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Gray had had a child / we would be cousins or something.

Thanks much for your help. If I ever retire from the Bartlesville Public Library (and at 53, it is much in my thoughts), I hope to spend some researching time at the Arkansas History Commission. It holds, I am sure, much of the information I need for Dick's family.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

I went to the Arkansas History Commission a few days ago and had the enclosed photocopies made for you. I did not know if you had any of these copies.

I looked in the 1850 mortality schedule for Arkansas and found the following: Franklin County, Arkansas; Nunley, Nancy; 44; female; died in April of fever; b. South Carolina. This sounds like your Nancy Easley who was # 1 wife of Joseph A. Nunnelly.

As you will see, enclosed is the zeroxed copy of the marriage of Joseph A. Nunnelly aged 48 and Clarissa Maxwell aged 35 in Franklin Co., Ark. in May 1851, a year after the death of the above Nancy.

I sta rted going through some of the Franklin County Cemetery records, but did not have time to complete the ones available. Of the ones I looked at, there were few gravestones for people who died as far back as 1850. In many of the cemeteries, there were as many unmarked graves as there were marked ones.

Will be alert for further information.

Sincerely,

Jane

Dear Mrs. Nichols:

Have only recently noticed your query in the Ridge Runners, Vol. 13, 1981, pertaining to the Davis-Hopkins family.

I am very interested in the item, Catherine m/2 Thomas Nunnelly in Sevier Co Ark 1839.

I am researching the John W. Nunneley/Mary Ann Easley family of Hickman Co. TN to Sevier Co. Ark. Those of us who have been working on this family have always "assumed" that Catherine Ann Nunnelly who married Samuel Gray, 13 Aug 1843, in Sevier Co., was one of the three daughters of John and Mary Ann Nunnelly.

We do know that John and Mary Ann had three daughters per census records prior to 1850 and had always listed them as follows:

> Huldah Elizabeth - the oldest, born ca 1825, died 16 Jan 1845 - Sevier Co.
> Nancy L. - married, 13 Oct 1850, Sevier Co., to Ulysses H. Ware (to Texas)
> Catherine Ann - This apparently is incorrect

Since you show Catherine Ann as being Catherine Ann Hopkins Davis Nunnelly Gray, Do you know if there was any children of her marriage to Thomas Nunnelly? Also, what happened to Thomas between 1839 and Catherine's marriage to Samuel Gray in 1843?

This Nunnelly family has really been hard to follow. Many remained in TN, but four moved to ARK in the 1830's and have gotten very "lost". I would really appreciate hearing from you concerning Thomas and Catherine and any issue they might have had during their short marriage.

I am enclosing an SASE for your convenience to reply.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary:

My sister, Wilma Gathright from Dill City, Ok, gave me a copy of the family history that you gave her. I am interested now in the Indian ancestry in our family and wonder if it was ever documented. Mother told us that her Grandmother Clarissa was part Indian, Cherokee, I believe. If you have any idea how we could trace this out, please let me know. Mother always indicated that the family was not especially proud of this part of the family history, so there may not be any record. If we knew Clarissa's mother's parentage, it would probably clarify this.

Anyway, please tell me what you think.

I am the second eldest daughter of Mildred Nunneley Jones, and can vividly remember Grandad Nunneley but Grandmother died before my time. Someday, I'd like to meet you and others in the family. From family pictures I don't see that I have the slightest family resemblance, but people do tell me I look like Mother. Be nice if we could all meet sometime, wouldn't it?

My husband and I live on the farm Northwest of Custer City and still grow wheat and cattle. My first husband died very young and left me with two small adapted children. One of them, my precious son, Court, was killed in a car wreck on Oct 18, 1991. I'm still trying to adjust to this latest tragedy in my life. He was so dear to me. We are blessed with two sweet little grandkids—

Let me hear from you, please.

Love,

Genelle Jones Gerner

Dear Mary,

Thanks so much for the Ezekial Clifton Will Information you sent. After corresponding with some other researchers who have been working on Cliftons for several years, I have found no futher information on my Ezekial.

Although the Ezekial of the Rev War did have a son named Ezekial, he went to Georgia, and so far I have no indication my Ezekial was ever there.

I had wrote to Mrs. Koole in 1981 and wrote again this year in Jan, but she said she no longer works on Nunnallys. I really don't know where else to go with the little information I have on the Nunnallys, but perhaps something will come up later.

I must have given you the wrong date on William Clifton b ca 1815 not 1850. M. 22 Dec 1842 to hamanda Bethel in Benton Co MO.

I've enclosed the obituary of Mary Clifton Radford. You will notice

March 1988

Dear Mary

Thanks so much for the Ezekiel Clifton will information. Even after corresponding with some other researchers who have been working on Cliftons for several years, I have found no further information on why Ezekiel.

Although the Ezekiel of the Rev. Wm did have a son named Ezekiel, he went to Georgia and as far I know no indication my Ezekiel was ever there.

Ned wrote to Mrs. Cook in 1831 and wrote again the year before, but she said she's no longer working on Nunnallys. I really can't know where to go with the little information I have on the Nunnallys, but perhaps something will come up later.

I must have given you the wrong dates on William Clifton - b ca 1815 not 1850. M. 22 Dec 1842 to Harriet Bethel in Benton Co. MO.

I have enclosed the children of Henry Clifton [illegible] for you [illegible] in the obituary her wedding year + moving year have been reversed. I wrote inquiring the cost of a copy of a marriage record if one were to be found and couldn't believe it when the Lawrence Co Clerk sent this back. no charge.

Thanks for your help + keep me in mind if you hear of a Nunnally Indian.

Oh by the way, I think the sons of Ezekiel + Nancy are going to be James, Nathaniel, William + Thomas + there should be 2 more girls besides Mary. Hopefully a researcher in Lawrence Co Tenn will turn up more information.

Sincerely

Rita Goodwin

Dear Jo,

Received your letter, the list, and the money. Thanks so much for all, but please...do not send any more money. I did use it to copy the enclosed. Those of us who are doing research on the Nunneley's usually do away with the SASE and money for copies after we have corresponded for quite a while. It is nice when you first meet someone, but seems not necessary when you write often and each shares material.

I have sent your name and address to Betty McFarland of Fort Smith, Ark. She is the lady who wants the list of Joseph's children notarized. When you have it notarized, be sure to retain the original statement for your records and send out only copies.

Her address is:

Mrs. Roy E. McFarland (Betty)
4619 No. M Street
Fort Smith, AR 72904

She descends from Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph and Nancy. Elizabeth married William Hawkins.

I have copied all of the material I have on Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley. The Baldwin wills and settlement of estate records were sent to me by a lady from Texas. She is a Baldwin researcher, but not a member of our Baldwin families. She was doing research in VA and just copied everything on the Baldwins. I had answered a query she had and sent her some material. She responded with these neat records, but did not copy exact book locations in some cases, only Nottoway Co., VA.

The computer list you sent of Joseph's children still did not quite answer my question. I am sending a copy of the original you sent me and have marked in red pencil what I need from your list. It appears that on your list, some death dates or years are shown. It did not copy good on what you sent me. I am returning your computer print-out and if you will just write those dates at the side, it would help me try to locate deaths for some of the children.

Will close for today and get this in the mail. Hope you enjoy what little we have on Anderson and Martha. I have made notes on the back of some of the material.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

The salvation of Lautricia Hobbs. I became a Christion on Nov. 30, 1975 at Camp Hite Church at about 9:20 o'clock and I am still going on for Jesus. I will never turn back, without him I am nothing, the Lord is my personal savior and he can be yours if you will let him come into your heart.

I was baptised with my sister Ruchelle on Dec 7, 1975 at 2 o'clock at Sparta Tenn. at a place called Bonar. Written by Lautricia.

The above records have been for the most part, shared by Mrs. Fran Koole, 124 Cloverleaf, Schertz, Texas, 78154, who is also researching the Nunneley(and variants)name.

I am a little curious about the Henrico Co. marriage record of Daniel Nunnally and Susanna Womack(widow of William) and Mr. Shortal's genealogy which lists her as Susanna Puckett. You might write to him and ask who provided the information about Daniel and Susanna. I understand Mr. Shortal is planning an update of his publication, so you might provide the corrected information if proven by you.

Hope some of the enclosed will help your research. Sorry I could not make copies of the records in full, but do not have a copy machine available at the present time. I work at the Bartlesville Public Library and our maching copies are less than adequate at the present time.

I've Ohio research ahead of me - Pike and Fayette counties - have had no luck or very little in my research on my Mitchem and Conner families in your state.

Am enclosing an SASE - Would like to know if any of the enclosed helps your search.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard D. Nunneley

I am enclosing an SASE in the event their is an additional charge for the above query which is over 50 words. With such a large family, listing of the children and their spouses was impossible in 50 words.

I have subscribed for a number of years to Ansearchin News, but this is my first query, since I did not have enough information on this family to make a query worth publication.

Your publication certainly must be one of the best! Few publish the really needed records as you do. I thank you for helping we Tennessee researchers who cannot make the trip to your state.

Information is provided about the settlement of branches of the family in Upshur, Jackson and Braxton Cos., W.Va. An appendix lists the members who served in the Confederate and Federal armies and concludes with five charts outlining descendants through the nineteenth century.

John and Edward Tuck of Halifax County, Virginia, and Some of their Descendants. Compiled by Alethea Jane Macon. [Washington, Ga., 1978] 216 p. $13.00.

This is a second printing of Miss Macon's work, first published in 1964 and now reissued by her nieces in her memory. The ancestry of the two brothers, and of Thomas Tuck of Halifax County who was probably another brother, has not been traced but Miss Macon suggests their father was named Bennett Tuck, perhaps the man of that name who appears in records of King William County and the signer of a Halifax County petition in 1776. Descendants moved to Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and other states. Governor William Munford Tuck of Virginia was one of the family.

Brief biographical notes are given about many of those mentioned. The index contains over 3000 names.

The Historical Society of Washington County, Va. Publication, Series II, No. 14, October, 1977. [Abingdon, 1977] 38 p.

A verbatim transcription of the minutes of the County Court of Washington County during its first year, 1777, prepared by Miss Pollyanna Creekmore, is the principal article in this publication. It is interesting to note that on the first day, after the qualification of the justices and the sheriff to their offices, and the appointment of a clerk, the Court proceeded to routine business, hearing complains and granting administrations [illegible]. It was not until the end of the second day's session that constables, surveyors of highways and those to take the lists of tithables were named.

There are also brief articles on the Confederate monument in Abingdon and a World War I memorial window in the County Court House.

With so many names appearing in the court orders, it would have been most helpful had an index been prepared for this publication.

Copies can be ordered from the Historical Society of Washington County, Box 484, Abingdon, Va. 24210.

Martha Ann Mitchell being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 56 years of age and live in Valiant, Okla. I claim my Indian blood through my father; my mother was a white woman. My husband is a white man. My father was born in middle Tenn. and was raised there - in Grundy Co., Tenn. My father was about 75 years of age when he died. My father derived his Indian blood from his father, John Nunley. John Nunley was raised in Grundy County, Tenn. and died there. Don't know whether my father nor his father ever lived with the Indians as a member of the tribe. I never did. I nor they were never on any rolls that I know of. My father always talked of coming to Okla. and taking up his claim but always put it off until it was too late. He claimed 1/8 Cherokee. I am recognized as a mixed woman in the community. I did not make application to the Dawes Commission. I nor my father nor grandfather never received anything from the government by reason of our Indian blood. I have a brother by the name of Harrison Nunley (39249). He lived in Oklahoma at the time of making his application but now lives in Texas - Sumner.

County Clerk

Centerville, Tenn., 37033

Please send me a photostat or certified copy of the will of THOMAS EASLEY if such is available. He died in your county between the years of November 21, 1842 and 1844.

I have a copy of the settlement of his estate on the first Monday in December, 1844, executors, Thomas Easley (son) and James D. Easley (son), which I obtained from the Tennessee Archives, but would like a copy of the will.

Enclosed please find a check for the sum of $5.00. Should this not be sufficient, please let me know what the balance is and I will forward it to you immediately.

If you do not have time to search for the requested will, I would appreciate the name of someone who lives in your city, and is allowed to use county records, who could find it for me. I would be willing to pay them for their time.

Thank you kindly for your attention to my request and am enclosing a stamped envelope for your convenience to reply.

Very truly yours,

Enclosed is my check for annual dues to March 1981 - such a good publication - enjoy each issue and wish it arrived each month instead of four times times per year.

To those seeking family information, I might mention a book which I have found interesting and informative. It is "Reminiscent History of the Ozark Region" (reprint 1976-BNL Library Service). The Ozark region embraces 26 Missouri and 29 Arkansas counties and the book(862 pages) has brief descriptions of each county and biographies of their citizens. As always, such biographies may contain errors, but can assist those in locating an area to do family research. Many families listed in CCHQ are mentioned in the book. Those interested might try to obtain the book through inter-library loan from their local library.

I am researching the Joseph A. Nunneley family from Hickman Co., Tenn. to Carroll County, Ark(1840); Franklin County, Ark(1850)Madison,County, Ark. (1870, 1880). He had the following children(1850 census):Ecole married Simon Whitty; Sarah married Richard Steele; Huldah married Wm. Hamilton; James; Jackson; Sam; Polly; George; Nancy. Joseph A. Nunneley married again on 20 May 1851 (Franklin Co) to Clarrisa Moore Maxwell and had issue: Alexander and Lawson H. Nunneley. Will exchange and answer all correspondence concerning Nunneley, Carter, Bunch and McCollough in Carroll, Franklin, Madison and Newton Cos., Ark.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard D. Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Nunley,

I was informed that you are doing active research on certain portions of the Nunley family genealogy. I have not communicated with you before, but wanted to write and let you know of my interest.

While the majority of my Nunley interests are in Tennessee, in Coffee, Warren and Grundy Counties, I would welcome any information which would add to the database I have. If you can add anything to the data, allow me to add it to the report for publication.

I would also appreciate your sharing with me the names and addresses of any whom you know are working on or interested in this same family. In order for you to be able to identify the family, I am listing the line in summary form:

  Sarah J. Nunley was born ca. 1841
  Commodore Nunley was born ca. 1844

I published a book on the History of the Sissom Family in 1989 and now am trying to expand my collection of information. I plan to place copies of the information in our public library here in Kokomo and possibly others. They will most likely be in manuscript form, rather than a bound book. I have already supplied them with reports on our family. I could add later generations to some of the above.

If you have access to the information highway (Internet) you may address me via that method.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sissom,

I received your letter of 4 October concerning the Nunley family of Coffee, Warren and Grundy Counties, TN. I have done a great deal of Nunneley research over the past 25 years, but have done little on those living in those three counties.

One person that I corresponded with for many years did a great deal of research on these Nunley lines, since she was a family member. She discontinued her research about 1984 and I have had no further contact since that time. Her address in 1984 was:

Mrs. Fran Koole
124 Cloverleaf
Schertz TX 78154

Fran had mentioned another person who did research on the Warren and Grundy families:

Mr. Howard Nunley
P.O. Box 1289
San Marcos TX 78666

I have no idea if either are still living at the above listed addresses, or even still active in their research, but you might try to contact them.

I received from Fran, some listings of Grundy Co. TN tombstone inscriptions. I checked those and found the following from:

Mar. 11, 1919 - "Mother"

It seems possible that they are the LEVI (JR) (LEE) NUNLEY born ca. 1846, married HARRIOT FULTS, mentioned in your letter, as a son of Levi, Sr. and Rachel_________.

The census records for Warren County, TN in 1850 and 1860 are very confusing. Levi (b ca 1820) and wife, Rachel (b ca 1821) are listed with some of the children you named (1850). The 1860 census also seems to show some of the same children, but with differences in ages. Were errors made when the original census was recopied by a helper of the census taker? OR, was the information given by a near neighbor and not a family member? Either is possible. I have not read the census microfilm and have only copies from Fran Koole and printed records of Bryon Sistler & Associates TN census books for 1850/60. The census records for those years are:

1850 census - Warren Co. TN

Levi Nunley	30	TN
Rachel	29	TN
Sarah J.	9	TN
Camodore	6	TN
Levi	4	TN
Manuel	1

1860 census - Warren Co. TN

29-421

Robt. Nunly	45	TN
Commodore	17	TN
Sarah	16	TN
Levi	14	TN
Manuel	12	TN
Margaret	7	TN
Mary	6	TN

I did not find a Levi or Robt. as head of household in the 1870 census index. Fran Koole transcribed the 1860 census age for Robt. as 65. Sistler has his age listed as 45. I wonder if the film was difficult to read.

Sorry I have been unable to add any information to your Nunley database. I do hope either Fran or Howard are still available to share information. They have both visited the distant cousins in McMinnville, Warren Co. TN. Also, if you have an LDS Family History Center Library available in your area, you should order the microfilm records to view for Grundy, Warren and Coffee Counties. I have checked with our local Library and those counties all have extensive records available. I have made great strides in my genealogical research on my families through the use of the local LDS Library.

Another genealogist who is doing research on all Nunley/Nunnally/Nunneley names is:

Jean Nunley Dennison (Mrs. Marshall)
919 Waterswood Drive
Nashville TN 37220

Jean is an excellent genealogist and we have shared material over the years. You should contact her with your material.

Good luck on your search for these, sometimes, elusive Nunneleys.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

Dear Mary,

Will you please send me Jo Agee's address?

Every one tells me I should have the list certified. I want to send her a check if she will be able to have it done.

Hardly a day goes bye that I don't look at the "LIST", and thank goodness for your query and all the other information from you.

I only wish I had started when I was younger!!

Many Thanks,

Dear Betty,

Home from vacation and trying to catch up on correspondence. It builds up fast when you are away. When you stay at home, no one writes.

I have written to Glenna Jo Agee to inquire about certification of the list of children of Joseph Alexander Nunneley and his wives, Nancy Easley and Clarissa Moore Maxwell. I told her I had never been asked to certify any genealogy papers in 15 years of researching, so really did not know exactly what you needed. Jo is a beginning genealogist and I hope we don't scare her off by sounding too professional. She will learn with our help and is very excited with each small thing I have sent to her. I know so little about her James Nunneley that I am of little help right now.

I gather from Jo that her father (age 85) is not well and unable to help her research very much. This list was his father's (son of James Nunneley, son of Joseph Alexander and Nancy Easley). Jo's line is:

Glenna Jo Nunneley
Delbert Burness Nunneley
Joseph Alexander Nunneley
James Nunneley
Joseph Alexander Nunneley

As soon as I hear from Jo I will drop you a note. Now...I need help. I have a copy of your family group sheet sent to me by Glenda from Tulsa. Guess what...the writing is so pale I cannot read most of it. I would really like to have a copy that I can read all names and dates since I work on all of the kids.

Enclosing some marriage dates from a couple of new books I just received from Virginia McPhail.

Will look forward to a copy of your family group sheet.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Betty,

Received your letter yesterday...Congratulations on your DAR acceptance. I presume it was on Thomas Easley. I wish the records of Jo Agee had been available when you applied. I am Registrar for our Bartlesville Chapter, NSDAR, and I love it when applicants have such interesting old family records to include with their application.

Jo called me a few days ago and talked for 45 minutes. She is so excited about our help with her Nunneley family. I keep telling her WE are the ones excited by the neat list of Joseph's children. I am enclosing a copy of her letter to me after we talked. She is most receptive to correspondence from you, or so it seems. Her address is:

Mrs. Beryl Leroy "Bob" Agee (Glenna Jo)
3205 Louise
Kingman, AZ 86401

I have just copied all of the material I have on Anderson Nunneley and Martha Baldwin for Jo. She knows nothing about them, except their names. I know she will be excited when she receives the material. I told her she was eligible to join DAR on both Thomas Easley and Anderson Nunneley. She is interested, but knows she has a great deal of research to do before she considers that move.

Though I have not done much research on the Baldwin line, I rather wonder if they could have been Quaker. Some of Martha Baldwin Nunneley's brothers were certainly of the right age to serve in the Revolution, but I have not found any records indicating that they served. But...haven't found the Baldwins in the Virginia Quaker records...

Have a request - sometime when you are at your library, please see if you can find out for whom the town of Nunley, AR, was named. Jo and Bob Agee visited the area several years ago and we are both curious about the origin of the name. It is very near where Jo's father was born. About 20 years ago, I, also visited the area. Could not find a "town", but it is still on maps. Jo and Bob did find a cemetery with Nunley burials.

Will close for now and look forward to your family group sheet (that I can read!).

Do you have a copy of Joseph's DAR papers? When Elizabeth was accepted in 1988, she immediately sent me copies of her papers. She (Elizabeth Dannelley) is now sending papers to DAR on Joseph Nunneley, who we believe to be the father of Anderson. Joseph died in NJ in service during the Revolution.

Sincerely,

Dear Mary,

We returned home yesterday after 2 weeks in Texas (Football) Will leave Thur this week - be home Sun. After this game only 2 more. Thank goodness, I am worn out. There are 7 motor homes and so far we have made every game.

Now for the problem. When I sent my sheets into the D.A.R. a lady wrote back that I needed more information that Elizabeth was Joseph's daughter.

When Jo sent that "lovely" list, I went to our library to the D A R helpers. These ladies are the ones who said I should send a letter to Jo asking her to take it to a notary public and have it notarized

I thought the information they gave me was correct

When we got home Sunday I had your letter and several from the DAR. I was approved Oct 9, 1990!!!!

There was no mention of any more information on Elizabeth.

I think they were still looking for Thomas Easley's records.

you have sent us. We wouldn't have half of our information if it wasn't for you

I called Glenda last night. She was happy.

I would have called but I couldn't find a telephone no. for you.

Please forgive me for a dumb mistake, but I'm sure it won't be the last!

Dear Mary,

Sorry to be so long in answering. I am still in my busiest season. Shirts all over the place. Must have upwards of 400 ready by the 1st weekend of March. Have shows every weekend of that month.

In reference to the birth place of Anderson - I sent in to the "Root Cellar" this: NC/Va (?) and from that apparently the NC portion was chosen. I do have Anderson and Obadiah in Amelia County, Va in the 1787 Tax list, however, there is no proof beyond that that I have been able to uncover - not proving they were either brothers nor that they were born there. Since we are all subject to mistakes but wish to chase down any possible lead I try to examine every clue with an open mind yet skeptical. In the IGI there are several group sheets with persons showing Anderson, Anderson L., Anderson Lawson, Andersonn, etc. Just because they are a part of the record does not always indicate accuracy however so I am simply looking and examining. Thanks to you and so many people I have come in contact with since your initial 'boost' we just keep slugging away. I know Shortal thought Joseph and Frances were Anderson and Obadiah's parents and that both Anderson and Obadiah married sisters, however, until some establishable fact proves it, I am still looking. My reason and hope in sending to the 'Root Cellar' was that it would trigger other contacts. I have a Ralph Nunley in Athens, Tenn who is corresponding with a John H. Nunley of near London, England, age 72 with information on a hamlet of Nonely in the county of Stropshire (Salop). Ralph is from the Peter Nunneley line through Thomas. I am enclosing a copy of a map (which even with a magnifying glass, I cannot read) and a copy of the will of Richard Nunaley of 1727 that was passed on to Ralph by a descendant of William M. Nunley and wife Sarah who was in the Ark 1850 Census and natives of Tennessee. Do you have anything more on our William B. Nunneley and his wife Chloe (Ecleo)(Ecole) Easley?

I am sending you what I have in my computer so far. Everytime I send one out I have changes that I have found in the meantime to add or make adjustments or corrections. It makes me not want to send them because they are not yet PERFECT. ha! I just got my computer in May and am still learning all the ends and outs of my Family Tree Maker program. Just today I sent for their new edition, FTM for Windows.

The first of their programs only had 1200 capacity but I really like the format. The second one has 2400 but the Family Tree Maker for Windows has 1,000,000 capacity so I'm looking forward to the upgrade. I filled the 1200 one right away. Like you I am working on all related families - and I keep everything. My office is a jungle but an orderly one. I also encourage you to do our history. Want to borrow my computer?????

I have an original (a print made from the original) of the photo of Clarissa Moore Maxwell Nunneley. I also have the original ~~copies~~ of the Joseph Alexander Nunneley and wife Holly Clementine Walker family. A copy to you enclosed also. If I had lots of money I would do nothing else but this research. I always knew how I liked research but never had the time so this really fulfills from the inside out. I have to make lots of shirt sales to keep me financially able to "Go". Think the "Go" part may be from my Dad. We always thought he was part gypsy. What I hated as a youngster I now enjoy tremendously. I recently corresponded with Elizabeth Dannelly of Jefferson, Tx. She has the same wonderful feeling about your help as I do. Also, the Coates down in Florida. In filtering through everyones records and then trying to match that up with proof is something else. Seems even the wonderful old letters that some have are full of both facts and errors. Wish I knew what you have and what you don't so that I could send you what I have. I feel so inadequate by comparison of years of experience. I do know how very grateful I am to both you and Irene Johnson for 'starting' me down this world of pleasure. Every small bit of information regarding the Nunneley's and related families confirms what a hard working, knowledge thirsty, honest, fair and kind group. Sure, there are and have been the opposites but as a Scotch-English breed they have been pretty decent people. How I wish I had known them all.

Writing by Jesse!

It is interesting to me to see how many family names who were in and around the Nunneley's that ended up in the Tennessee and Arkansas area too. Even though our Easley's came from S.C., they are in the Halifax County, Va. 1810 Tax List along with Wades, Moores, Anderson's and Vaughns (Edward Nunnellee's 1st wife was a Vaughn). Lots of Vaughns Fosters and Andersons in Amelia County 1787 Tax List. In all the family lines I am working on it's true. Have you done any direct searching on Obadiah?

I will sure miss Aunt Elsie and Uncle Alex. I think of all the years I never saw nor talked to them. Now it is too late. They were such dear people. If you have family group sheets on their children would you share them with me? So many of the cousins I have nothing - not even on you and Richard.

Well, I think I have rambled on long enough. Am trrying to get caught up on correspondence and let my hands rest from squeezing bottles of fabric paint for one day.

Let me hear from you and wish all good things come your way.

Affectionately,

Donna L. Nunley/Nunneley Miller

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Nunneley:

I got your address from your nephew, Robert Nunneley. He is a friend of my nephew, Steve Eeds. Anyway, he told me he thought you had done some research on the Nunneley Family. I havea ~~grandmother whose name was Cornelia Caroline Nunnelee who was~~ gr-grandmother, Cornelia Caroline Nunnelee who was borned in Georgia 29 August 1837 - died 16 January 1892 in Crisp, Texas, Ellis Co. I have tried to find out something about the Nunnelee Family without any luck. I know the name was spelled many many ways. I was told by family members that she was born in Savannah (Chatham Co.) Ga. Years ago I did some research in Atlanta, Ga. and the lady in the library told me the Nunnally Family came form Elbert Co. Which I did find quite abit of information. The info gave all the name of the children of William Nunnellee (Nunnally) and his wife Susanna Hubbard but one child, Walter. I do not know if this is my name I am interested in or not. But I do know the name of Walter was used for the families of Carolina and her brother Eugene. Their father was a lawyer and they had a plantation outside of Savannah. So the family story goes, one brother was killed in the Civil War, Eugene came home to find his mother and sister and one old slave woman who stayed with them living under a tree and eating anything they could find. The ex-slaves told Eugene where some cotton was hid and he sold it and his mother, sister and him came to Texas. Where they want from there is anyones guess. If you do not have the infor on William and Susanna I will be glad to send it to you. I know this is a rambling letter but I did not know how to tell it. If you can help me I certainly will aggreciate it.

Sincerely,

Mona A.

Dear Ms. Anderson:

I have received your letter concerning the William Nunnellee family who apparently lived in Elbert Co., GA. This family is not to my knowledge, directly connected to our Nunneley family, though several generations to Virginia they were connected probably to the immigrant Richard.

I have searched my records and do not find a Cornelia Caroline or Edward Nunnelee, but I guess from what you have told me that they are connected in some manner to: issue:

James Franklin Nunneley	(1760-1838)	m 1. Keziah and 2. Jane Nash
Elizabeth Nunnelee		m. Col. Robert Middleton
Nancy Nunnelee	(1764-)	m. Thomas Burton, Jr.
Priscilla Nunnelee		m. William Hatcher
Walter Nunnelee		m. Susannah Hubbard

It has been stated by some that William Womack Nunnelee married Susannah Hubbard. I believe that he married Ann Franklin (this information is also given and verified by the Daughters of the American Revolution on one of their applications). My reasons for believing this are:

29 May 1776 - Will of James Franklin of Dale Parish, Chesterfield Co., VA to: wife: Agnes-tract they live on for her widowhood, plus negroes, then sons Joel & Josiah sons: John & James - tract called Sandy Ford, John to have part with house.
dau: Elizabeth Franklin - 1 bed
dau: Judith Franklin - 1 bed
Daus: ANN NUNNALLY, Mary Puckett, Phebe Allen & Agnes Stiles one shilling each.

1800 tax list - Chesterfield Co. VA
William Womack Nunnally - 1 white tithe, 1 horse + 1 slave +16

13 Feb 1804 William W. and Ann Nunnally sell to Charles Carter (I do not have the description of this land sale)

From the records that I have cited and others which have little information, it appears that William Womack Nunnally was a son of Walter Nunnally and his wife, Priscilla (probably Priscilla Farrar, dau of William Farrar, III and Priscilla Baugh, though I have no exact proof). It appears that he married Ann Franklin (dau of James and Agnes Franklin, per the will of James Franklin). Per DAR, he had the before named children, James Franklin; Elizabeth; Nancy; Priscilla; and Walter.

William W. and Ann Nunnally sold their land in Chesterfield County, VA in 1804. This seems to be the last legal transaction for them in that county. I do not have a copy of the will of William Womack Nunnally (Nunnelee), but I understand it is in Elbert Co., GA and was proven on 21 June 1806. It would appear that he may have followed his children to Georgia, hence the sale of the land in 1804 in VA.

This information has been of no help in locating the parents of Caroline and Eugene, but I feel certain they belong to the family of William Womack and Ann Nunnelee. If you could send me the information you obtained in your research in Georgia several years ago, it might help me to "guess" a bit more.

The only Nunnelee I find in Elbert Co. GA in 1850 is:

J. Nunarly, page 394, Elbert Dist.
This may be James Franklin Nunnelee who married Rachel D. McKinaley on 1 Dec 1835 in Elbert Co. He was the son of James Franklin Nunnelee, Sr., and the grandson of William Womack Nunnelee. James Franklin, Sr., is supposed 1 to have had five sons and eight daughters. Some of his family appears to have gone to Mississippi by 1850.

My suggestion is that you go to the Dallas Public Library (I believe they have a genealogy collection) and try to search the 1850 Georgia census for Caroline and Eugene. Caroline was only 13 and would be living with her parents. The 1850 cebsys is the first census that lists all members of each household. She is surely living with one of the Nunnelee families in Georgia since she did not come to Texas until after the Civil War.

I hope I have not confused you with this information. I have searched the Nunneley and variants name for many years and often think what I write is quite simple / IT IS NOT -

I would like to hear from you soon and would like to know more about Caroline, who she married, her children, etc. and please, do send me the material you have so that I may be of help to another researcher on this family.

It was wonderful to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Since Hickman County, Tennessee is one of the counties where I have done most of my husband's family research, I wondered if you are familiar with Spence's "History of Hickman County", and suggest that you might find the book helpful since you have several lines there.

One paragraph says, "Ned Nunnellee, who came from Virginia about 1806 to the Fifth District, came to Gray's Bend about 1810, and died there. He was the father of Washington, Mark, and Timothy Nunnellee. His daughter, Jane, was the first wife of Jesse R. Eason. Nunnellee was buried on the John V. Gray place. Anderson Nunnelly lived in Gray's Bend in 1818. These names are the same in pronunciation, but are spelled differently."

Others you named who are written about in the Spence book are the Easleys, Whites, Fosters, Griners and Hornbeaks. You did not give any first names of these so it is possible that the ones you want are not listed, but it is a book that I could not get along without.

We have an Easley in our family-- Millington, who married Cynthia, the daughter of James Barr who moved to Hickman County about 1808. There were a number of Easleys in the county and they were a very prominent, well-to-do family.

My husband and I are planning a trip next month to San Francisco and plan to spend about a week in Salt Lake City. I am very excited over it and hope to get some new leads and some gaps filled. We have a very fine genealogical library here but I am stymied on a couple of lines. This is a most interesting activity but also, a most frustrating one.

If you want a copy of this book you may order it from Mrs. Edward Dotson, Office of the County Clerk, Centerville, Tennessee 37033. We got ours about three years ago when we were there and I believe the price was $15.00, but I am not sure.

Happy hunting,

Dear Mrs. Barr:

Thank you for your letter. I do have a copy of Spence's "History of Hickman County", which I purchased from Olgia Dotson. I had used it on microfilm from the Tennessee Archives, but it is much nicer to have a copy since I refer to it often.

I also, have the following books pertaining to Hickman County:

Old marriage records - Vol. 1 (DAR, 1979)
Hickman Co. 1860 census (Thomas Stewart Easley Chapter, UDC, 1982)
Hickman Co. TN cemetery records - Part 1 (Jill Garrett/Iris McClain)
Hickman Co. TN court records 1814-1829 (Olgia Dotson)

As you are aware, Hickman is a burned bounty, so a great deal of "guessing" and other proofs are necessary for following these families. I had to find and use a power of attorney in Arkansas to prove that my husband's Joseph A. Nunneley was really the son of Anderson Nunnelly and Martha Baldwin. That certainly makes research tough.

The Easley connection is not direct. Joseph A. Nunneley married #1 Nancy Easley, dau of Thomas Easley and Ecleo Wade (three of their daughters married sons of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley). Nancy died in 1850 after the birth of her 10th child. Joseph married #2, Clarissa Moore Maxwell. My husband is descended from the second marriage. Since three of the sons married Easleys, and I am working on the entire family, it does enter into my research Thomas Easley was from Halifax Co. VA to NC, SC and TN

If you do not have any of the above mentioned books, will be happy to look up names you might be interested in and copy any information.

Hope your upcoming trip fills in the gaps -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Ms. McPhail:

Received today, my copy of "First Book of Marriage Records for Franklin County, Arkansas, 1850-1861. I am most pleased with your book and was thrilled to find four of the six listed Nunneley(and variants)names that I have been searching for and have little luck. The other listed will most likely "fit into the family" with further research.

I am most interested in cemetery research for the same area, and in particular, Boston Twp. (thanks f r the map). The Joseph A. Nunnelly listed in your book who married Clarissa Maxwell is my husband's G-G-Grandfather. He had a first marriage and nine children(per the 1850 Franklin County census) and I suppose his first wife died in Franklin County.

I, again, would like to say how much I like the book and thank you for your time spent helping those of us who cannot travel to Franklin County but have interests there.

I am enclosing an SASE and hope you know if anyone has inventoried the cemeteries of the Boston Twp. area.

Nov-Dec 1977

Dear Ms. Martin:

I have just recently started the Nunneley research, so have little to share at this point. Most information has been given to my by family members. Due to the apparent demand of the 1850 and 1860 census microfilm from Ft. Worth, I have not received those years, although I have had them on order for several weeks.

The enclosed history could place Clarissa and Joseph Nunneley in Overton County, Tenn., though I have not checked that county. Also, the following items may be of interest:

Butler Co. Missouri Cemeteries - $8.00
℅ Mrs. Betty R. Hanks
Box 416
Popular Bluff, MO 63901
(Genealogical Helper - Sept/Oct 1977 - page 546. Lists 23 cemeteries, including the Nunn or Nunnley)

Goodspeed Histories Index - Tennessee
Western Tenn. - Madison Co.
Meeks, Marcus H. - Atkins, Nunnelly

Middle Tenn. - Wayne Co.
Acklin, Thomas F. - McCreley, Nunnley
Nunnelly, Walter S. - Sandels, Meeks, Phillips
(Copies at $1.00 per page may be ordered from: Mrs. Leister Presley, Presley Research, 1708 W. Center, Searcy, Ark., 72143)

1810 Census - North Carolina
Alexander Nunely - Cumberland Co - Jackson Twp - page 248
Levy Nunnley - Burke Co - no twp - page 125
Elisha Nuhly - Rowan Co - no twp - page 052

From family information and the research work done at this point, it appears that the remainder of the Nunneleys stayed in Tennessee or North Carolina.

I, also, have the Jones and Hendersons of Tennessee, Polk and Washington counties in Arkansas and McCurtain Co., Okla ahead of me. This group, at first glance, appears impossible.

Hope you can use some of the enclosed information.

Dear Rowena:

Sorry for the delay in answering your letter of 1/28/81 - I have gone through the large amount of Nunneley(and variants)material I have and have not found anything as of now. I have often wondered if there was any connection between our Nunneley's and Leonard Nunnally since they all came from Virginia and Tennessee to Carroll County Arkansas, but have not found the connection as yet.

It appears that the Bible record which I am enclosing could possibly be the family of your Benjamin Nunneley(Nunnally). Benjamin Franklin was born in 1815 and would be 30 when Leonard was born. This is a bit late for a "first" child, unless others did not survive or he married twice.

According to Goodspeed's History of Carroll Co - (if you do n t have it, let me know and I will copy it for you)Benjamin moved from Franklin Co, Mo. to Carodl Co Ark in 1868 and died there in November 1879. Betsy Y. Garvin was born in Kentucky.

My husbands line is: Anderson Nunneley(?) - Joseph Alexander Nunneley-Lawson Harrison Nunneley- Elbert Alexander Nunneley-Virgil Windfield Nunneley. I could hardly believe it when you mentioned another Lawson Nunnally. So far, I have at least seven Lawson Nunneley(and variants) in Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky(plus now two in Ark).

Many people are now researching the name Nunneley from many states. Most of my material has come from a lady in San Antonio who is such a great person and shares everything. She has become almost the clearing house for we who are doing research on the Nunneleys. Although I probably have most of the material by now, if you would like to have her address, I think sheuldould welcome hearing from you, and could add to our her files any material you would send. She copies and sends to all of us the things she finds that might help.

Let me know if you would like the copy mentioned above. Also, let's dispense with SASE - not really necessary as far as I am concerned when we are sharing material.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard D. (Mary)Nunneley

Dear Martha,

Have finally read the 1810 census for Rutherford County, TN. Jill Garrett of Tennessee had told me some months ago that there was an Anderson Nunneley on the 1810 census, but just had not stopped long engugh to investigate. She was so right! You probably have the information already, but the following is what I have found for Anderson in TN:

Rutherford County, TN - 1810 (no pagination) census taker / Ezekiel Dickson

	MALES	FEMALES	SLAVES
Anderson Nunelly	Under 10.....3	Under 10.....4	[illegible] (?)
	10 - 16......2	26 - 45 1
	26 - 45 1

With Sarah (Sally) stating on the 1850 census that she was born in TN in 1809, I was certain that they must have been in TN. Jill also says that there is some court items in Wayne Co., TN for an Anderson:

Anderson Nunneley signed a petition in Wayne Co. in 1845

Anderson Nunley / estate settlement / Wayne Co. 2 July 1849

Do you suppose that this is an additional child of Anderson and Martha? I have always wondered where the rest of the enumerated children went that were on the various census years,could be this is one of them. More were listed than we have names for - so may be additional.

I have finally gotten together quite a number of the names of the children of the sons and daughters of Anderson and Martha from various records. Have ordered several Hickman Co. books which have helped so much. One day soon, I hope, will get it all typed and send you a copy. It is still in the process since I have slowed down so much for the summer.

Do let me know what your thoughts are concerning the Anderson Nunelly in Rutherford.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

I got your name from a page of Marriage records in Georgia on Nunneleys from Ruby Hendricks.

Would like to know if you have a James Nunnally perhaps from NC. He has a daughter Nancy b ca 1770-80 married to Ezekial Clifton.
I think they are in Jones Co NC 1790 and I know they are in Franklin Co NC 1800.

Do you have any Nunneleys - Nunnallys in this area?
This is all I know about them at this time I do have more Clifton information though. It is said, no proof, James Nunnally was a full blood Indian.

Thanks for your help

Sincerely

Dear Rita,

Received your letter of 7 Jan, requesting me to look at my Nunneley marriage records for one Nancy Nunnally who married Ezekial Clifton. I do not find anything concerning this marriage in my records. Marriages are only available in Franklin Co., NC, since 1869 and in Jones Co., NC since 1850. If they were married in either of those counties, it will be impossible to find a marriage certificate it seems.

I tried to briefly follow the elder Ezekiel Clifton to see if I could locate a Nunnally who resided within the same NC area. I find the, apparently Sr., Ezekiel in Jones Co., NC in 1790 and find his widow still in Jones Co., in 1810, but did not locate Ezekiel, JR.

Since Ezekiel, Sr., died in May, 1792 (his will) and named a wife, Sarah, and his sons, Ezekiel, Nathan and Daniel, one might presume that they were minors since they do not show up on the 1790 census.

The earliest I found Ezekiel was the patent of land by the Crown of Great Britain to Ezekiel Clifton, 100 acres on 27 Nov 1762 in Craven Co., NC. There was another and later patent, but I did not copy it. I, also, have seen that he served in the Revolution from NC. This from the DAR Patriot Index, Vol. II.

The only person I have found in a near location to Ezekiel was one Joseph Nunnery who was a tax payer in 1771 and is listed as from Franklin, Warren and Vance Cos., NC. I have found nothing else concerning this Joseph as yet. I have found about 13 spellings of the name Nunnally, including Nunn and Nunnery, so it would not surprise me if this Joseph is a Nunnally or variant.

Send me a family group sheet on Nancy and Ezekiel and any information that led you to know that Nancy was the daughter of James Nunnally. I do know that one branch of the Nunleys (Nunnallys) did marry into the Cherokee blood and that they were from NC. I used to correspond with a lady from Texas who was the greatest Nunnally researcher I have ever seen. She retired and have not heard from her in a long time. If you will send me a bit more, I will try to correspond with her again.

Where did your Nancy and Ezekiel live after they married? Many of the NC Nunnallys went to Tennessee and on to Arkansas (ours) and to Texas.

Wish I had found the marriage, but think it may not exist if they were married in either of y your mentioned counties.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Rita,

Yes, it does seem more likely that the James Nunnally family would be Cherokee since they appear to be from North Carolina, but I have read somewhere that there were some Choctaw Indians in VA and NC. Wish I could remember where I read it. Knowing some of the family of Nunnally had Indian connections, I should have saved it - but didn't.

I am enclosing the information on the will of Ezekiel Clifton. Also, noticed that an Alexander Blackwell who died in September, 1786, named a daughter, Sarah Clifton. Might not be a thing, but looked interesting.

I believe I mentioned before that Ezekiel Clifton served in the Revolutionary War. Someone had joined Daughters of the American Revolution on his service. If you have not used this source for information, it at times can be good. The application papers for that member can be ordered for $4,00 by any current member. If you are a member and have not ordered these papers, I would urge you to do so. If you do not know a DAR member or are not a member yourself, I would be happy to order them for you. The following information indicates this is your Ezekiel:

DAR Patriot Index - Volume II - Page 39
CLIFTON, Ezekiel: born before 1761 died before May 1792 married Sarah
Soldier / Patriotic Service / North Carolina

You show that Ezekiel Clifton who married Nancy Nunnally was born ca 1760-70. He could not be the father of William born ca 1850 who married Lamanda Bethel. He would be too old at 80/90 by your listed birthdate. The Ezekiel born 1760-70 is surely the grandfather and a generation is missing.

You did not send the obituary of Ezekiels and Nancy daughter - but would like to have a copy since she was a "Nunnally" so to speak.

Haven't found a thing that I think fits your Nunnally family in any of the papers I have. You might write to the following lady who is a top Nunnally researcher. I have not heard from her in a long time and do not know if she is still researching the name, but was very involved at one time. Tell her I gave you her name -

Mrs. Tom (Fran) Koole
124 Cloverleaf
Schertz, TX 78154

Fran's Nunley family came from North Carolina to Tennessee and also, married into the Indians per a statement of one of her ancestors. She, if she is still researching, may be able to give you some ideas.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

I wish I knew a bit more about James or Nancy, but the place I recieved my information was a testimony of Rachel Clifton Tinsley in 1901 when she applied to get on the Miss Choctaw Indian rolls. application #3524. She & the other family were rejected, but she told her grand parents were Ezekial & Nancy & her (Nancy's) father James Nunnally.

It seems to me this family would be more likely to be Cherokee since the Cherokee came from NC and the Choctaw came from Miss & Ala.

Do you know if there are Cherokee Indian rolls for around 1840 in Missouri? Thats where Ezekial & Nancy are.

Can you tell me where you got the information on the will of Ezekial Clifton died 1792? Another person wrote about this same Ezekial but only listed two sons Nathan & Daniel & 3 daughters.

Ezekial & Nancy left NC & went to Scott Co Va in 1820, Lawrence Co TN 1830 and Benton Co MO 1840. I believe one of his sons (Thomas) stayed in that area & my Ancestor William went to Jersy Co Ill. He married there in Benton CO MO & had his first 2 children there. He is in Jersy Co Ill until at least 1850 to 1880. Don't know where he died. His children, or at least several of them are in Hunt Co Texas by 1900.

Did I send a copy of Ezekials & Nancys daughters obituary? It didn't give Nancys madien name, so probly can't be considered proof, but I was happy to find it as it gives the places of residence Ezekial had been in. Its in MO. Pioneers Vol 30 pg 66 or I can send you a copy, since it doesn't mention Nunnallys, I didn't copy it.

I have really just begun on the Nunnaly search, do you know of many reseaching this name? I wonder if my James Nunnally perhaps married a full blood Indian, instead of him being the full blood!

Sincerely
Rita Goodwin

Dear Mona,

I received your papers and have spent quite a bit of time going over them with absolutely no luck so far. I do feel that you are right in thinking that Caroline comes from the family of William Womack, because she seems to have used the spelling Nunnelee as they did. The other family who settled in Georgia, that of John from Virginia, consistently have used the spelling Nunnally. William and John were cousins and did settle in Georgia not far from the same area with only a couple of counties between.

In checking the 1850 and 1860 census indexes for Georgia, I find no Nunnelee (or variant) living in Chatham county during the period Caroline said they lived on a plantation near Savannah.TThe nearest is a W. H. Nunnelly (Screven Co., 1850) and Wilkins Nunnally (Screven Co., 1860), probably the same man. Screven County is quite a long way from Savannah (two counties away).

I still feel that the only way to find the parents of Eugene and Caroline will be to read all of the 1850 census for these families. Since they were such small children, they would of course, be in the household of their parents (hopefully).

For several days, I have gone through my material on all Nunneleys and am making 3 x 5 cards on those of Georgia, and also, reading the Georgia Genealogical Society bulletins at the local library where I work. When I have finished gathering this material, I will type you a time line showing the notes on William Womack Nunnelee. He apparently lived in Georgia only a short time, though it seems his children moved there earlier. I find him selling his last property in Virginia in 1804, and his will was written in Georgia in 1804. I think his wife, Ann, died before 1795 and he probably went to live with his children, though he had acquired land in Georgia following the Revolutionary War.

I am enclosing two family group sheets which I hope you will fill out for Caroline and her brother, Eugene. Maybe some of the names of their children or husband or wife will give me a clue, also.

Do let me know if you come across anything else or remember another thing. I will still be working on this for a few weeks until I have finished the Georgia quarterlies at the library.

Hope we can find what we are looking for very soon!

Sincerely,

Mary

Now, we can use these names and check them all against those Cumberland, N.C. which I copied from the film, showing land deeded to almost every one of these family names. I just wish I could find out more about the Amos and Archelaus Nunnery which was listed in that Wms.burg Gazette. Also, I do not see the Henry Nunnery who married Nancy Rolfe among these on this page. I am now confused if this 'Wolfe' is wrong, or is it another marriage, as it is later than 1800.

I have wondered about Rolfe as it is "Indian"

Amos Nunnery named a son Henry - He died 1840

Gladys: These notes I took out of this one book. It is the most condensed list for the 'Nunnerys' that I have ever found in any one book. It was typed, and the brides indexed in the back, so then I turned back to the pages and listed all the women. All the time, I have wondered and wondered if there might not be some older women in the family (?). All my previous notes were just one or two from a book here and there. Some of these I have never seen before. I consider this record very GOOD so far as it goes- it does give us some names which we might be able to segregate into the family lines. Amos MUST have been the oldest NUNNERY, and MAYBE the oldest 'Henry' a brother, as we have suspected.

My comment: I had never looked in Texas for any of our lines- and did not ever know of any of the 'Nunnerys' (or variants) going there. All these names certainly indicate that they came out of VA. but perhaps too late to help us identify them- as this date is 1852. These may be about the 3rd or 4th generation out of VA.

My comment: I checked the spelling of the name 'NUNNALLY', and there were no variations here in Chesterfield Co. Va. of the spelling. It is notable that this list includes the names of Daniel-Edward-Henry-James-John & William- for the Cumberland Co.N.C. 'NUNNERYS' also carry these given names in their pedigrees. The other given names I do not recognize among the N.C.- S.C. or GA. annals on this family pedigree. This is not disturbing, for after 50 to 75 yrs. (in America) the families re-married and inter-married among all the families in the various states. This is a good list to have for reference, and that is my reason for taking the time to record them. This book was a typed transcription, and very easy to read. Such references are easy to use, and take little time in comparison to some of the original old books with very fine print, which is hard on the eyes (if you are doing extensive research). If there are any discrepancies in the data we have the source and verify same if necessary.

Gladys: What do you think of this Henry Nunnally m. Eliz. Clay- and look at the DATE-1785. Remember, Henry, or was it Amos, said he was b. in Edgecombe Co.N.C.1785 Could this be the Father of our 'Henry'/?

My comment: I picked this book at random from the 'LONDON' section (?) as there seems to be so many old books full of historical information- some of them very old, fine print, not indexed, and about all you can do is sit and stare, or read an amusing little (local) item denoting some of their very personal and stringent LAWS, and they are not all amusing- more of them are cruel in every sense of the word, compared to the code of ethics we are now enjoying (in America).

I think all of these records listed above will be of vital interest to all the 'NUNNERES/NUNNALLYS'. These records are all older than the first ones I found in Boyd's Marriages (in England). I had no clue at all to take me to this Parish- but, I have been pecking away now and then, back into England to see just who I could find, and where they lived, how they spelled the name, thinking it would be helpful to unify some of the records we find here in America. I did have one or two 'NUNNERY' marriages in the 1700's I think (out of Boyd's), and it was spelled " " " in that locality. There is no way of telling where it started. As you go back, the spelling of any and all names are worse than this, and of course the records are not too numerous the farther back you go.

However, we have this 'Richard Nunnally/Nunnery' in Henrico Co. VA. and I think the above names show that there lived a clan of them there in Westminster in the 1500's. There seems to be the two male lines, and it appears to me that there must have been an earlier ROGER and RICHARD, and it is hard to tell which is the father. This book was classified into three categories- 'Burials' - 'Christenings' and 'Marriages'. It was indexed by names- then under 'B' - 'C' - 'N' - and then under the years- and then the months in order, and then the dates ran consecutively. There were two large volumes. The marriages were limited (on the Nunnallys), so where they came from before this, I do not know. When I first began to look it up in England I decided there must (?) have been at least ONE living in the LONDON area, as it was a thickly settled part of England, and maybe this Richard could be traced to some Parish not far from some point of (EMBARKATION) to America- for this Richard in VA. appears in the Courts of Henrico Co. circa 1692-94. I spelled these eaxctly as they were spelled in the record, and it would not surprise me at all to find this VA. RICHARD is a descendant of this clan.

Dear Mr. Nunnally:

I am writing in regard to the John and Archelaus Nunnally names published in the Roots Cellar - Genealogical Helper, Jan/Feb 1984.

Though I am not working directly on this line, I am very interested in the descendants of Richard Nunnally, born ca 1640, of Charles City County and Henrico County, Virginia.

Joe Shortal's "Nunnally Genealogy" has been such a help to those of us who are working on this name. I believe you were a contributor to his work. I do hope that with sharing, someday someone will be able to publish a good and complete genealogy of this family.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter recently sent to Joe and some of the other researchers. Some of the material is earlier than Joe's "second generation", Richard 2.1 Nunnally, Jr.

As you see by the enclosed, John 3.5 Nunnally was surely born before ca 1702. The September Court 1739, will of William Jackson, wife Sarah (with a John Nunnally as witness) indicates an earlier birth date than ca 1702. If indeed, this is the daughter of John 3.5, he would have been only about 37 years old and quite young to have had a widowed daughter, Sarah 4.7 - not impossible, but unlikely.

Some additional notes to Joe's work:

3.3 Daniel Nunnally - married Susanna TRENT, widow of William Womack, not Susanna Puckett. Susanna Nunnary was named in her mother's will, Henrico Co., 2 Oct 1732. Her mother was Elizabeth ______ Trent Gee. (This correction was sent to Joe by a lady from Ohio who was a Womack descendant. I have recently fdfound the Gee will naming Susanna Nunnary).

2.1 Richard Nunnally, Jr. - married Sarah Akin (Joe also, has this info now)

* Will of James Akin, Sr., Henrico Co - Varina Parish, 21 Apr 1712. Names wife, Sarah; children, James; Mary Womek; Elizabeth Farlow; Sarah NUNNOLY.

* Will of Sarah Akin, widow, Henrico Co - 2 Feb 1713/14 (recorded 2 Aug 1714) names children, James; Elizabeth Farlow; Sarah Nunnoly; son-in-law John Womack; grandson, Daniel Nunnoly.

* Will of Richard Nunaley - Henrico Co - 3 July 1727, lists children and to my wife Sarah Nunaley.

* Inventory of estate of Richard Nunneley, Henrico Co - 28 Aug 1727 (recorded 4 Sept 1727) - presented in court by Sarah Nunneley

6.7 Archelaus Nunnally
7.7 Mary Catherine, b 1824 married ________ Ball.

A Mary C. Nunally married on 15 Feb 1857 in Person Co., NC to William C. Ball, bondsman was Charles L. Olive. May not be the right Mary, but enclosing NC marriages I have which do show Archelaus marriage dates.

I am searching for the parents of Anderson Nunnally of VA, NC and Hickman Co., TN. He married Martha Baldwin, daughter of William and Elizabeth Baldwin of Amelia and Nottoway Cos in VA. Another daughter of William and Elizabeth married Obediah 5.5 Nunnally who died in Caswell, NC. Both daughters, Martha Baldwin (wife of Anderson) and Elizabeth Baldwin (wife of Obediah 5.5) are named in their father's will and subsequent court actions after the death of their mother. They are listed as Elizabeth, wife of Obediah and Marthey Nunnally of Hickman Co., TN. Joe Shortal feels that they are brothers and sons of Joseph 4.4 - not proof! The sons of Joseph 4.4 were listed as tithables in Amelia Co. in 1787 - an Anderson was also listed. Since one of the sons of Joseph 4.4 named a son Adderson (this Anderson was born in 1788), I think Joe is probably right, so will work toward this end.

Now to the reason I have been working on your John 3.5 - I felt that any information I could gather from these Nunnally (and variants) might lead me to the line, Anderson, that I am searching. I do know he belongs somewhere in the group. A great amount of information on all of the Nunnally lines has been shared by the following people: Fran Koole, Schertz, TX; Martha Cooke, Brentwood, TN; Elizabeth Dannelly, Jefferson, TX. Fran Koole, in particular, is a great researcher and shares everything. She has probably done more to promote this Nunnally research over the years, than anyone I know.

Though I can't add much to your John and Archelaus families, I would be pleased to hear your thoughts on the early material included in the copy of the letter to the other researchers.

Sincerely,

Encl.

Dear Joan,

I received your letter with the questions pertaining to the name Nunnelee; Amma Elizabeth who married Levi Hughart, Ralph Rufus Alfred and Jessie/Jerrie. I have a large amount of Nunneley information, but you did not really send enough for me to get a good start. If you have family group sheets for these families it would help much.

Most of the information I have has been collected from various sources and from others who shared material. I will be happy to share anything I can find about the above when I can know a little more about them.

I have a friend in Texas who is a good researcher and has spent years on the name. She has sent me so much material. When I hear from you again with additional, I will write to her. Her family was from Tennessee to Texas.

The majority of Fran's family lived in Grundy and Warren Cos. in Tennessee and had many sons named Jessie and Jerrie (or Jeremiah), so she may well hold a clue.

It seems that all of the Nunneley's and various spellings originated from one Richard Nunnally who was born about 1640 and lived in Charles City Co., and Henrico Co. VA. He had probably, four sons, Walter, Daniel, Richard and Thomas. The majority of the descendents stayed pretty much to the southern areas of the US - VA, NC, TN - prior to 1850. Some went early into GA and AL.

Now, where in the world did you get my name as a Nunneley researcher? I was so surprised when I opened your letter to find you needed Nunnelee information and felt sure you would be requesting ROSE information. My Revolutionary ancestor, Charles Rose, is from New Jersey (Hunterdon County) to Monongalia Co. VA.

Do send additional information as soon as you can and we will get started on these lost Nunnelee names.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary -

I am hoping you can help me with the surname Nunnelee. Amma Elizabeth was Born 1901 in Ark - lived most of her life near Whitefield, Okla while married to Levi Hughart. She died in 1969 & is buried in Okla. Her father was Ralph Rufus Alfred Nunnelee B 1864/5 in Texas & he died in 1940. Ralph's father was Jessie/Jerrie Nunnelee who m a woman named Elizabeth Shaver/Shover. I've no info on Jessie/Jerrie. Are you familiar with these names?

Please do let me hear from you. Thanks

Dear Mr. Nunnelee:

I recently received the Revolutionary War papers for Edward Nunnelee and per our telephone conversation of several weeks ago, I am enclosing copies for your family records. Due to age, the papers are not in very good condition and make less than good copies, but thought you would like to receive them.

I have had no luck at this point in obtaining the names of the children of Edward Nunnelee, but still think he is probably the father of our Joseph A. Nunneley (see enclosed ancestor chart).

Recently received the current address for Mr. Howard Nunley of Texas, but am at work and find I left it at home with other papers. Will send it at a later time.

Enjoyed our telephone conversation and liked sharing family "Nunnelee-Nunneley" information.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Fran:

Finally talked to John Fred Nunnelee, Jr., of 1001 North Ranney, Sikeston, Missouri, concerning Edward Nunnelee of Nunnelee, Hickman County, Tennessee.

The following is his line:

Edward Marcus Nunnelee - RW
James L. Nunnelee, M.D.
John Hamilton Nunnelee
John Fred Nunnelee
John Fred Nunnelee, Jr.

He does not know the names of any of the other children of Edward Marcus Nunnelee.

Several years ago, he went to Nunnelee Tennessee and was directed to a farm where he was told information could be obtained concerning the Nunnelee family. As he related - the coffee was still steaming in the cups on the table, but no one would answer the door.

John Nunnelee, Jr. at the beginning of our conversation, ask if I was calling concerning the escrow account in Beaumont, Texas. I assured him I knew nothing about the account, do you? His story concerns the disappearance of the family bible, the escrow account supposedly worth several millions and the Nunn-Busch Shoe Company. Seems the money belonged to a "Will Nunnelee" who had Texas land and is still held in escrow. He believes the Will Nunnelee and Edward Nunnelee are the same family.

He is absolutely a delightful person to visit with and spent 25 minutes visiting even though I received little information. He suggested that I contact his cousin, Lucy Nunnelee Morris of Mounds, Oklahoma to see if she could help with any information. Also, mentioned a Frank Nunnelee (not sure of spelling of last name)who lives in Memphis, Tenn. He does not know his relationship, but thinks he may have some information.

He is interested in obtaining Howard Nunley's address and told him I would ask you to obtain it for me. He said that Howard left him "hanging" since 1962 and he wondered where he was and if he was still alive.

John, Jr., has some papers which he said he would have copied and send to me - will send on to you when received.

Under separate cover today, I am sending the Tennessee Census you wanted to borrow and copy. Thanks much for the latest wills, etc. Think we should write a book, a mystery, entitled "Nunneley, Nunley, Nunnelee and Variants", bet it would be a best seller!

As ever -

1/7/80

Mary, here is a copy of a letter I just wrote to my cousin Jack and his wife Joe who live in Elk City and where your Lawson H. is buried.

I stretched the truth a little in the letter concerning you, but no matter if it gets results.

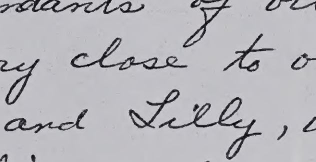
Your pal,

Fran Koole

Jan. 6, 1980

Dearest Cousins Joe & Jack:

Hope you both enjoyed the holidays as much as we did. We spent Christmas in Houston with our wonderful family and later drove to Bryan and Hearne to visit my Nunleys there before coming back home. We lost 2 of them this past year, so there were fewer to visit this time. Thankfully, their children are taking on where their parents left off, and the Nunley descendants of our G. G. F. Emory are still very close to one another. Both Ethel and Lilly, whom you met, are doing fine and are enjoying every minute of it. The two that we lost (Erwin and Pansy) were children of Adam and Fanny Nunley, so out of the original 8 children, there are only 2 left. Very heartbreaking. Last christmas, they were in good health and we had a fine visit with them.



Now that you solved the problem for one of my correspondents, concerning your Aunt Caroline who was not the Almira Caroline she is searching for, I have a new problem for you to work on.

Another of my very favorite pen pals is Mary Nunneley whose husband Richard is an executive with Phillips Petroleum in Bartlesville, Okla. She works at that city's library, now that her children are grown, and she sends me Xerox copies of everything she can find on the Nunley line in their history and genealogy dept. She wrote that I am the "clearing house" for all the people working on that line and so therefore can help other people with the things she sends me.

For this reason, I would like for you to help out in my behalf, so I can half-way repay Mary for all the good info she has sent to me.

I previously wrote Mary that you lived in Elk City which is where her grandfather Lawson H. Nunneley died on Dec. 11, 1938, and that maybe you two wonderful people might be able to help her get a copy of his death certificate which the County Clerk of Beckham County does not have of record. Please read the 2 paragraphs circled in red of her recent letter to me, and you will understand her problem. The rest of her letter does not concern this problem, so just ignore it.

Mary needs a copy of Lawson H. Nunneley's death certificate because it would tell who his mother was. She has no idea right now. All she knows is that his father was Joseph A.

Joe, I know you are good at this kind of thing, so I would appreciate it if you would either call or go to your funeral homes and ask them to heep you get a copy of this death certificate. Very probably they neglected to send it to the County Clerk for recording.

I will reimburse you for any amount of money you have to send or take to the funeral home for a copy of this death certificate, and of course my friend Mary will then reimburse me.

You will be doing a good deed for my friend Mary who is overdue for a little bit of help.

Drop me a line when you have time.

Love you,

Fran, your loving Texas cousin

Dear Mary:

I will have to ask for a "rain-check" and answer your last letter of July 11th later in detail. I am just too excited and have too much to do before I go on my trip in 2 more days.

It looks like my work on the Nunley research in my part of Tenn. is finally paying off. They are calling me LD and asking to take me to various functions and places when I get there. I have corresponded with them for 2 years and of course am their "acknowledged" Nunley researcher, having solved many of their genealogical problems, so now I will reap my rewards. I guess I never told you before how good I really am, so believe me when I tell you that I have solved a great many mysteries for quite a few seeking their Nunley line. I just hope they are not disappointed when they finally meet me in person. Of course, I'm not really worried, because we talked like homefolks on the phone, and as if we knew each other already.

I am so excited I can hardly sleep at night. Will write you when I return,

Love, Fran

P.S. I will look for your Nunleys at the Archives.

Dear Mrs Nunneley:

Mrs Leister E. Presley of Searcy, Ark. wrote me that you are working on the Nunneley genealogy and other lines. She thought an exchange of info might be helpful to both of us, so she wrote me your address. I order quite alot from Mrs Presley and she knows that I am working on the Nunleys/7 variants who finally settled in Warren Co. Tenn.

My Nunleys (their present spelling, but different before) originated in Virginia but migrated to Rutherford Co., N.C, and the Yadkin River area. Later, they pulled up stakes again, around 1805, and 5 Nunleys (all married by then) went to Warren Co. Tenn., McMinnville being the County Seat. They were named John, Thomas, Archibald, William and Jeremiah Nunley (variant spellings for sure). I do not know if they were brothers or cousins, but I do know that they never left there before they died (between around 1840 and 1860). At present, their descendants number 120 households in the McMinnville phone book, and of course the rest are spread out all over the world.

I am deeply involved in this Nunley research and have many records covering many years.

If you are connected to this branch of the Hunley clan, I would enjoy corresponding with you. I have many pen-pals who are also researching this family, and I have become very attached to them through our letters. So much so in fact, that I plan to make a trip this summer just to meet some of them in Tennessee.

As you probably know, like I do, that historical research is the most rewarding "hobby" of all.

Please let me hear from you.

Sincerely, Mrs Tom Koole (call me Fran)

P.S. An afterthought when addressing the envelope:

Are you or your husband by any chance connected to Phillips Oil Co.? I have been an "oil + gas" secretary since 1948 when I started with old Atlantic Refining Co. - so I know the oil business quite well by now, and of course am familiar with Phillips in Bartlesville.

I am an O+G secretary in San Antonio. ~~My~~ My little town of Schertz is one of its bedroom communities.

P.S. Mary, is that document found in Lula N. Barker's trunk as important as I think it is? Fantastic find. Is Lula a daughter of the Lawson buried near Elk City, Okla.?

Aug. 8, 1982

Dear Mary,

I have not answered your recent letter sooner because I could not find the words to tell you how sorry I am to hear that your sister Nancy Anne passed away. I know how close you two were, and so you have suffered deeply with her passing. I worry especially about how this is effecting your parents which you didn't mention, but I can well imagine their grief.

It is good that you are getting back to research at this time to keep your mind busy. I think you and Mrs James A. Donnally should get together, by correspondence, on your Nunneleys in Hickman Co. Perhaps her letter to you didn't sit right and so you wonder about her. Maybe that was my fault - I had forewarned her about your sister's terminal illness and told her that at the moment your mind wasn't on research. Frankly, I think the lady has alot on the ball. I'm enclosing copies of her recent letter and its enclosures.

I am not going to send her a copy of your copy of Lula Nunneley Barker's document, nor of your letter because your Lawson H. Nunneley is not important to her as far as I know. I am not even sure her enclosures will be of interest to you, but they might, sometime in the future. To say the least, both of you have some mighty old records in your possession. I am jealous!!!

You asked what was new with me beside Tagament. Well, I'm still on it, off and ~~[illegible]~~ on, just like Dick probably is. It's a lifesaver for ulcer victims. My upper GI series indicates I have many scars from previous ulcers which is bad, as per the doctor, but I don't worry about that when I feel good, like I do right now, thanks to Tagament.

Did I tell you I went back to Tenn. this summer? This time was even more meaningful than my last trip 3 years ago. I promised them I would come again in another 3 years but I doubt I will wait that long. I just might go back again next summer. I was there 9 days and stayed in a motel only 2 nights because I insisted (researching County records). The other days were spent in distant cousins homes. Every day we went digging for our roots in the Cumberland Mountains in a Jeep. We found all the old homesteads, including my great-grandfathers built in 1850. The forrest has taken over and there are only faint trails left to follow, but the massive chimney is still standing, covered with wild vines. I could see where his apple archids used to be from which he made brandy (which was legal) but by now the apple trees were gone. This was where my great-grandfather Emery Nunley was born, whom I remember well, and so that land is sacred to me. That knob of the Cumberland Mountains is officially named Nunley Mountain on the Tenn. maps because so many of the first Nunleys who migrated to Warren Co. Tenn. lived there. Now all of them are dead and their descendants live in the valleys and coves, near civilization. They were the ones I visited in Tenn. while there in May. In fact, one Sunday afternoon, we had a picnic and 35 people came just to meet their distant Nunley cousin from Texas. This touched me deeply.

Take care and write me.

Love you,
Fran Koole

P.S. So glad to know that the NSDAR passed on your papers for Charles Rose. You did a great job. I am happy for you about this.

October 10, 1982

Dearest Mary,

I received your letter with the shocking news about your mother's inoperable cancer. I can hardly believe it. This is just too much heartbreak for anyone to bear. First your sister, and now your mother. My heart goes out to you and your father who is getting old and has health problems himself. I just hope you have other relatives in Drumright who can help out now. You never told me much about your brothers and sisters, except for Nancy, and so I don't know if there are others to help you during this crisis in life. My heart goes out to you Mary. I just wish I could help ease your pain and grief.

I immediately sent a xerox copy of your last short letter about your mother to Elizabeth, and I am now sending you a copy of her letter to me, written before she got the xerox copy of your letter to me.

As you wrote, now is not the time, physically or mentally, for you to give thought to genealogy (the Nunnley bunch) but when you are ready, we will all be waiting for you to join the search.

Love,

Dearest Mary,

Your last two letters were just great. You continue to amaze me. Looks like you are the main one now activily working diligently on the Nunneleys. You have certainly come up with some important info that Shortal never found at the time he wrote his book. Has he made any comments since receiving your January 24th letter to all of us? And who is this friend of yours who found so much of this new Nunneley info in her private library? It certainly makes sense that the first Richard had more than 2 sons and so I will add Daniel and Walter as also being sons of Richard 1.1. So now we have Richard, Jr., Daniel, Walter and Thomas as sons of Richard 1.1 which certainly puts a hole in Shortal's book. I just wonder where Shortal found anything to prove that Thomas was in fact Richard's son. The book has nothing to say in that regard.

Thanks for telling me about Charles Sherrill's new book on Grundy County marriages. I sent your order blank on to another friend since I had already ordered his book. We have been corresponding for a couple of years. He found some old marriages in the attic at the Courthouse that had never been recorded and so his book is very helpful. He had 2 of my Nunleys who married in 1846 that had never been found before. The official records for that County begin in 1852 so you see he did sometHnig that had needed doing for a long time. His parents still live in Grundy County and he was raised there.

I haven't been working on the Nunleys lately since nobody up there in Tenn. seems to care if I do or not, so I have no incentive to try anymore. It's a shame since I have a file full of Nunley info just sitting there now gathering dust. But in the meantime I am having more fun than I ever had before by working on my Godbolds. I get stacks of mail from the most interesting distant cousins on that side of the family. In fact, we are all going to meet in early May in Marshall (Harrison Co.), Texas and go searching for the old homestead that ceased to exist 100 years ago. Some of us have never met before. One is even coming from Calif. for the occasion. We are all 4th cousins. And would you believe it when I tell you that I found them by helping one of them who was working on her Nunneleys and her pedigree chart mentioned her Godbolds. Since that surname is so unsuaual, I asked her about them and it ended up that she and I were 4th cousins. Before that I had never found my Grandmohter Godbold's family since I had always heard she was an orphan. Small world isn't it? And it just so happened that I was able to help this new found cousin with her Nunneleys back to the original immigrant. Her line is Walter (3.6), Walter Womack (4.17), etc. etc. She didn't know that until I sent her a copy of Shortal's book to prove her line.

I don't think the enclosed info is of any importance but a nutty friend sent it to me who is working on her Washington A. Nunneley. She didn't type this - somebody else sent it to her. She doesn't know who the Benny Nunnellee at NASA is and couldn't find out. But I thought the last page was interesting where is says that the Memphis, Tenn. Nunneleys obtained "old country" data that Richard was the first departure from Kettering England. I had always thought they came from Shropshire, England, near the Wales border.

You can't imagine how excited I am about the 1806 Petition which you sent to me showing William and Archaulus Nunnley listed on it. This is the best break I have had in at least a year. I will send copies of it to my buddies in Tenn. They will be shocked. No, I had never found my Nunleys in Tenn. that early before and nobody else has either. This is fantastic news. I will also send it to the Warren County Historian who writes great stories of the old days in their local paper once a month. I know him and he will be impressed. So will my friend Dr. Joe Nunley who is a direct descendent of William.

Did I tell you about my cataract and lens implant surgery in December? I am sorry that I ever had that implant put in. So far I have had to have 2 corrective surgeries on that eye and it is still not good. Am off from work now and will go back to work Monday. This time I was off from work for 2 whole weeks. The other times one week each time. The eyesight in that eye is only 20/200 and I only have a 50-50 chance of it ever getting any better. If you ever need to have a cataract removed, talk to me about it first. By now I am quite an "authority" on the subject. They say there is only a 5% chance of failure when you go the implant route, but now I have heard it's about 15% and I am one of the failures.

Surely hope all is well with you and your family, and that includes your Dad. How is your daughter these days? I remember the pictures of her wedding and how pretty everyone looked at the wedding, you included.

Thanks for the petition especially. And write me when you have time.

Lovingly,

Fran

P. S. Excuse the type errors. I'm not used to this typewriter. Have had it 2 years but never used it until this week while at home from work.

June 27, 1979

Dearest Mary:

So glad to have received your latest letter. Sure glad you are a "digger" like I am, and we sure need one another. This time, I have a few things to send you but probably next time I write there will be nothing to send you.

I was surprised to know that you tried to order the book "Grundy County Cemetery Inscriptions". It is a good thing the book was sold out because I have all the info it contains in regard to the Nunleys buried in that county, and a copy of the list is enclosed. There is no book that covers Warren County because that county has too many cemeteries for anyone to work and compile. The Grundy Co. list was compiled by my genealogist, Bonita Mangrum*

I never bothered to send you any of my records of the Nunleys in Warren and Grundy Counties, because I didn't think you would be interested, but now that you tried to order that book, I believe you are interested, so I am now enclosing copies of the work I have done on the 1850 & 1860 censuses. I took all of the info from the census microfilms and then typed all the Nunley info.

I am also enclosing a copy of something my 4th cousin (Kay Hibbard in OK City)sent me. It is about one of the John Nunnallys and is very good. He is listed in Shortel's book. By the way, Shortal still hasn't written me lately.

There is more I want to write but will mail this now so maybe you will get it by Saturday, rather than next Monday.

I have an idea that may help find out who Edward Nunnelley's 13 or 14 children were. Did you ever think about ordering a copy of his will and/or probate procedings from Hickman County? He was still living in 1834 according to the letters written by the Nunnelley who owned the funeral home in 1962 when he went to Nashville to see Lafayette. Since he was between 70 and 80 then, he probably died in the period between say 1834 and 1840. That would be close enough for the County Clerk or the Probate Clerk to know, since there were not too many people living in those days. Since Edward was a doctor, he was of course a man of means and so would have left an estate to his heirs.

Let me know what you think about this brainstorm.

As ever,

Fran

*who lives in McMinnville. She has helped me many times and is excellent for records in Warren and Grundy Counties. I will write more about her sometime.

July 8, 1979

Dear Mary:

Our last letters crossed in the mail, so I will now write and tell you how much I appreciate getting your last letter and all of Edward Nunnelee's War Records. By the way, did you ever wonder about the fact that Edward and you spell your surnames almost alike? That is a dead giveaway. All of the Nunleys in Warren + Grundy Counties started out in No. Carolina on the 1790 + 1800 censuses as being either Nunerly or Nunnery, but little by little, around 1810, they all switched to spelling it Nunley and that is the way it still is. One deed (in 1812) lists the man as Nunerly, but when his heirs sold the land in 1850, they all signed "Nunley". So for this reason, I don't think your Joseph A.

ever knew my line of Nunleys.
Edward did live in NC, before going to Hickman County, TN, but he was a long way off from my bunch in eastern Rutherford County, NC. His stomping grounds were in the eastern portion of that State. (Newborn County, I believe the funeral parlor man wrote).

I will be so happy if you order Edward's probate, and find out who his many children were. If you don't find out anything to your liking, I will pursue it further when I make my first trip to Tennessee on Aug. 3rd. I am that anxious to help you find your Nunley ancestor because we are buddies (in my book).

This will be my "dream trip". I have never been to TN, but will go by plane to Nashville all by myself. My husband will stay home so I will be on my own. After researching the Nashville archives, I will go by bus to McMinnville (70 miles) where I will rent a car and stay at a motel or hotel. I will then drive and meet about 10 people who I have become very close to after corresponding for over 2 years. They are all very anxious to have me come, and one dear lady has insisted in 3 letters that I stay in her home and go and come as I like, because she doesn't want me to get lonesome alone. Her offer touched me deeply, since I am almost a stranger to her, not having meet in person yet - but I turned her down for various good reasons (gas shortage, etc.). I chose to go the week of 8/3 - 8/11/79 because an annual homecoming of the year occurs during that week, and there will be Dunleys (among others) from all over the nation there for the event. They say about 3,000 people are the norm and that alot of other Nunley "amateur" genealogists will be there that I can talk to, because they come for the event from all over the country.

I will also see my G. G. G. F's home (still lived in and in good repair - I have recent pictures) and will visit the family graves. My of my 4th cousins are still living in the area, and I will of course met them. Some of them knew my G G F who came to Texas (that being the reason I am a Texan).

By now, you can understand why I look forward to this little trip as my "great adventure".

Your records on Edward's war record are a treasure and are the first I ever saw on a Revolutionary War soldier. The records make it seem like only "yesterday" that those things happened. I have many records on Civil War veterans, and Edward's records are very similar. One could hardly tell the difference if the 2 wars' veterans were put side by side, and compared.

Don't give up on Edward. If I had a $1,000 to bet, I would bet he was the father of your Joseph A. and the first Lawson H. Too much of a coincidence not to have been since your own Lawson H. was maybe named for his uncle. (Hope this is correct, without checking my records at the moment).

Bye for now,
Fran Poole

May 8, 1979

Dear Mary:

Your letter of April 28th was just great. I enjoyed your joke due to my mistake in regard to the $15.00 you sent. I sure can pull some boo-boos at times.

What I meant to do was to tell you how much I appreciated your $15.00 because I really do, very much.

Thanks very much for the Georgia early marrige listings. They will be used by me for sure, many times in the future. They will sure be of great help and convenience. I will send copies to Joe Shortal the next time I write him. He wrote me once more, and I answered, so now I am waiting to hear from him again.

He says he hopes to rewrite his book and enlarge upon it when he has more info to put into it, so he wants to know anything that will help.

Mary, don't mention to Joe Shortal (if you write him soon) that I sent you a copy of his booklet until he answers my last letter and gives his approval to my sending it to my fellow researchers. Since he is thinking about republishing it, and since he has turned down 8 requests for copies already, I hesitate to make copies without his O.K.

I told him that you are working on Edward Nunnelee right now and that you are going to contact John F., Jr, who owns the Nunnelee Funeral Home. He was very interested in those copies of the 2 letters written by J.F.N. in 1962. I assured him that you are very knowledgable in this kind of thing and was sure you would get the answers to our questions about him. I told him I would let him know your findings immediately.

Joe is our shining light, now that Major P. Nunnally is gone, and of course Joe corresponded with Major, so now we must more or less rely on Joe as the "appointed" one. I notice in his book that he was born in 1908 and is well educated.

I am enclosing a copy of his last letter. He is a very fine person, as you will notice in his first paragraph. (Returned my $10.00).

So feel free to write to Joe at any time and don't depend on me to be the go-between. That is not necessary. Of course he won't be able to help you with your Joseph A. until you at least find his father, but what you know right now might be of use to him in his future book, after more info is obtained.

Yes, you did send me page 139 re Edward and how the Nunnelee Funeral Home fits together. I can hardly wait to hear your report on your contact with ~~James~~ John F., Jr. Since Edward had 13 (or 14?) children, I would bet that your Joseph came from that family, some way or somehow. So if Edward is your ancestor, then I would think that he was one of the 5th generation who lived during the Revolutionary War period that Joe S. does not yet know about.

The Bible record which I sent you of Leonard Nunnally who had a son Lawson H. was from the Virginia State Archive. I wrote them and asked for all copies of Nunley/variant Bible records they had. They wrote back and said there were none on our family, but that this one was in the Walthall (?) records and was cross-indexed, so that is how I got the copy.

As to Howard's tie, which you asked about, this is the story. He has been on and off researching my Tenn. Nunleys for at least 25 years. He retired from the service around 1965 and since then he, his wife and one remaining son at home (age 37 and retarded) live at Reed Hall in San Marcos which he is in charge of. Howard is No. 1 on my list and we have become quite close due to genealogy. We visit quite often, talk on the phone (L.D.) and write. I am obligated to him because he found my Tenn. ancestors and he feels the same way about me because I found his which he had been searching for, for many years. It was a very exciting experience one Sunday afternoon here at my house. He had been hoping that my John was his, and I had been hoping that his Thomas was mine, and consequently we both had extensive records concerning "our" man. But when we put the info on the table we were dumbfounded when we realized our mistakes. Now you can understand why Howard and I are real buddies and share our findings with one another.

~~Q~~ Quite often I get a "wild" idea as to who our ancestors are and Howard has to get me back on the right track again. I am prone to jump to conclusions, or wishful thinking. (See my P.S.)

I wrote to the Postmaster at Nunnelly Tenn (Hickman Co.) over a year ago. I asked him to please pass my letter (and stamped self-addressed envelope) on to any person who could tell me anything about how the town came to be named Nunnelly, or who it was named for. I did not receive an answer.

(This was before I had the 1962 letters to Howard from John F re Edward Nunnelly).

Guess this about covers my news this week. Let me hear your new news soon.

As ever,

Fran

P.S. Howard comes from the Warren Co. Tenn. Nunleys that I stem from and we correspond with the same people still there. We both claim it as our "home-town"!

P.S. Enclosed are copies of NC info obtained from the NC Archives at Raleigh. My Nunleys came from Rutherford Co., so is a long way from Craven County.

Dearest Pal Mary:

Received your recent fine letter and will answer it in detail very soon. In the meantime, I want to explain what I meant to say in my last letter in regard to "Newborn County" and the "funeral man".

The "funeral parlor man" is my way of identifying James F. Nunnelle, Jr. who owned the Nunnelle Funeral Home and with whom you talked to on the phone.

Newborn County is not a county as I thought it was, but a city called New Bern, and is the county seat of Craven County, N.C. I took the name of Newborn out of James F. Nunnelle's letters, written on the Nunnelle Funeral Home letterhead, to Howard Nunley in 1962. And now further research shows me that "Newborn, NC" was not a county, but a city or town. So now you might have a new lead. If your Joseph A. was a son of Edward, was he born in Craven County, NC?

According to James F. Nunnelee, Jr.'s letters, his father Edward, Jr. was born there, and of course the other 9 children had to be born somewhere, so maybe some were born there and some in VA when Edward, Sr. went back to VA for awhile, as per our various records.

If by chance your Jos. A. was Edward's son, then it might be understandable why he nor his father is not mentioned in Shortal's booklet, because as per James F. Nunnelee's letters, his Edward came from Scotland, and the Richard (CA 1620) which Shortal was working on came from England. Therefore, there would be a complete new line of Nunnelees, represented by Edward and his unknown parents in VA.

Don't get discouraged. This "detective work" is what makes our search so exiting.

Will write more soon, and in the meantime, I hope you write and ask me another question or two. I love them.

Must get ready for a good night's rest, so until next time,

Aug. 14, 1979

Dear Mary:

My glorious trip to Tenn. is now over and I am back to routine. It was 10 times more fun and meaningful than I ever anticipated. I was more or less treated like a queen from a foreign land. You just wouldn't believe that so much could happen to one person in a week's time as happened to me.

My "pen-pals" are now my friends for the rest of my life because we were together so much that we learned to truly love one another very deeply. Of course we are all very distant cousins and we do have a common cause, that being our Nunley link. Two Nunley preachers mentioned the research I am doing in their Sunday sermons, even though I was at neither service. The phone at the motel never stopped ringing after that. I guess I visited every cem. in the County where the Nunleys are buried, plus all the old homesteads, including my G.G.G.F's home.

It is still lived in and is beautiful and charming. I took many pictures in the inside as well as the outside. It is exactly 100 years old. I also took pictures of all the graves. In all, I took 72 pictures.

I then drove 70 miles to Nashville (rented car) stayed at a hotel and for 2 days researched their archives before flying back home from there. I didn't find the answers to my problems so you might say I came back empty-handed. However, it was a great experience since the archives has so much to offer.

I looked for your Nunnalley/variants in Hickman County in every book and did find some interesting tidbits. Here is what I found:

This is all I found in Hickman County in the books. I did not run any microfilm on that county.

If this Lawson H. does fit into your family, I would imagine your Lawson H. was named for him and the first one was his uncle (as I wrote before).

You recall the story about Nunnelly, TN that you wrote to me about? Well, that town is mentioned in my recent letter from Joe Shortal, and a copy of it is enclosed. By the way, as you can see from his letter, you can make copies of his Nunley history booklet, with his blessings. And, by coincidence, I found a recent death notice in the Tenn. newspaper while up there for a man who died recently but lived in that | town. I thought you would like to know about this, just for fun.

Please do write me soon.

Sincerely,

Fran Koole

P.S.
Thanks for the Marriage Licence of your Nunley. This is good info to have - might tie in with my Nunleys in some way in our research.

Dearest Mary:

When I received your last letter of 9/18/79, I planned to call you and talk on the phone in order to tell you how glad I was to know that you are once again your old sweet self, after your terrible illness — but a funeral happened (my beloved and only uncle) so I forgot everything else for awhile. He was more like the brother I never had (rather than an uncle) since he was only 6 years older than me and we were very, very close. He died of cancer, and we had many long talks about life and death before he left, because we knew we were saying good-bye to one another in this world. I still can't get it off my mind for even an hour (when awake) and probably never will. He was so precious to so many of us Dunleys here in Texas.

Mary darling, I don't know what to think about you. How could a nice person like you get a virus like Bell's palsy? Of course it was scary to think that you at your young age had had a stroke. I can well imagine the excitement you caused when "Mom who is never sick" — got sick. I'll bet from here on out they will stop taking "Mom" for granted.

So glad that you are much better now and back in the old groove.

I have been corresponding with a sharp CPA in Dallas named Jack Spring who is working on a Rebecca Nunnery who was married to —? Nunnery. She was the mother of Nathaniel and Kinchen Nunnery whose families are listed on the 1850 Benton Co, TN census. There was also a son named James (1822-1911). Nathaniel and James were buried in the Shiloh Cem., Benton Co., TN. His (Jack's) ancestor is Nathaniel who had about 25 children by 3 wives. He was born in 1813 and died in 1878. Rebecca was born in 1782 in S.C. and died in 1902 in Benton County at the age of 120 years.

The only reason I am writing this is because this Rebecca who later lived and died in Benton County was the same Rebecca who appeared on the Hickman County Census in 1820 and on the Humphrey County Census in 1830. This might indicate that this Rebecca was related to the (R.W.) Edward Marcus Nunnelley (perhaps a daughter-in-law??) and might in some way tie in with your line. Without looking up your records, I believe you said that Edward's 2nd wife (Mary Reeves) finally settled in Benton + Humphry Counties before she died.

At any rate, I am enclosing a copy of the Benton County, Tenn. Cemetery Records which Jack Spring just sent me. It is amazing to me that there are no Nunnelly or variant spellings of the name listed. This really doesn't surprise me, for I have in my possession 8 letters written by my great uncle when he was 87 in 1935 and in them he states that the original name was Nunnery, no matter how it is spelled. He said his Uncle Emanuel (born 1770) told him that many times. He said they are all the same family and that the spelling of the name had no importance. As an example, all of my Nunleys who appear on the 1800 NC census are listed as Nunnerys. Then when they bought land in Warren Co. TN, starting in 1812, they called themselves "Nunnerly", and after that came "Nunley" which is by now the only name they use or even know about. There are 120 Nunley families in the McMinnville, TN phone book (my roots) but there are no Nunnerys or Nunnalleys. Just proves my great uncles point when he said it is all the same family line.

Take good care of your sweet self and write me when you are up to it and feel like it but don't push it. Your pal, Fran Koole

P.S.

Mary, when you study the Hickman Co. newspapers on microfilm, please look for any clues you find that might tell who Rebecca's husband was. I want to help Jack Spring in his search.

One more thing - our Nunnelee genealogist (Joe Shortal) who wrote the Nunnally Genealogy in the booklet which you have, says to "spread the word" and to send copies of it to everyone interested. Therefore, feel free to do that if you so wish. He also welcomes letters from anyone who cares to write. He wants copies of pedigree lines, so write to him if you wish. I have sent him our info on Edward, but he doesn't "know" him, so that was a disappointment to me.

Dear Fran:

Thank you for the wealth of information you sent. I am certainly interested in the data you have on the early Nunnery's. Of course, I will be happy to reimburse you for any copy costs.

I had already obtained a copy of the Benton County cemeteries. I am enclosing copies of all the Nunnery's listed. I have also checked the index for variants and found none.

If it is not too much trouble, please send me copies of your family group sheets for this line. I think this may help me keep them catalogued.

Dear Fran:

Received the large amount of "Nunley" material and was really thrilled. Have not had time to absorb the lot, but have glanced over the material and am amazed at the work of all.

You asked in your letter of 3/19/79 about the biography of Leonard Nunnally - I believe I sent it with the last mail - if not - please let me know and I will send it, so don't order it from Mrs. Presley.

I have not ordered the Nunneley's listed on the 1840 and 1850 censuses of Arkansas, but have checked only individual counties. I know our Joseph Nunneley(and variants)was in Arkansas as early as 1840(Carroll County, Upper Osage Twp.). The 1850 census lists his son James(the 4th child)as being born in Arkansas. James age is 13, which places his birth as about 1837 in Arkansas. Makes me wonder about the Cherokee move to that state????

Much of Dick's family appears to have come from Mass., to North Carolina, to Tennessee, to Arkansas or Missouri and then Arkansas. The Nunneley's are still the mystery - only from NC to Arkansas - can't find them anywhere else, as yet.

Have spent my lunch hours in the genealogy room at work and discovered that the Georgia Genealogical Magazine(we have bound copies,(1961-1972), has 24 Nunley and variants and 31 Nun-Nunn listed for those years. I haven't even started looking up the names listed, but will do so, even thoughtI hadn't thought much about searching Georgia records.

The S.A. Library does exactly as, apparently every library concerning micro-film and inter-library loans. If you know the title of the book or micro-film it is sent over a teletype arrangement which produces the library holding the material. It is then sent to the requesting library, unless it is considered "rare". Most micro-film(government)comes from Fort Worth for our library.

I noticed on your pedigree chart the mention of a Manley who married a Cherekee(Cherokee). We have the Cherokee(Western)census and old Settlers Payroll in the History Room at the Library - will delve into those during my lunch hour tomorrow. Seems that the Curator mentioned having seen a Mary Nunnally listed on those rolls.

Thanks again for the great "bunch" of material. Am sending along a "recent" biography(1929)which lists a Nunnelley. Will keep looking and copying -

Sincerely,

Mrs. Dick Nunneley

P.S. I bought the 1850 Tenn. Mortality Schedule (book) just published for $22.00. Branch Nunley was the only one listed for the Nunleys.

Dear Mary;

Your last letter just overwhelmed me. I am as excited as you are, because for sure your Nunneley mystery is solved. Your comparison sheet showing the same family names over and over is enough proof. Of course your Joseph A. was the first Alec, and all the later ones were his descendants. And the name Lawson Harrison is too unusual not to have been handed down without a reason. Why don't you personally ask Dick's uncle (age 80) if he knows where he got his name (Alexander Harrison Nunneley, but called Alec)? His wife told you it was a family name - but he might remember something to tell you that his wife doesn't know. Don't ever give up on the older ones just because they are senile. They can remember things that happened 75 years ago but can't remember what happened 5 minutes ago!

The fact that John who went to Texas (as per Mrs Cook) and later went to Washington, Arkansas, might be a clue for you to follow up. Perhaps your Alec (Joseph A.) and a brother of John lived near one another in Arkansas, and just perhaps your Joseph A. got married there. If so, perhaps a marriage license could be obtained that would give his middle name.

And don't forget, the census record indicates your J. A. was the right age to be a son of Anderson. This is very important to prove your line. Frankly, I believe you have already proved your line, and I will go from that point in my thinking to the generation preceding Anderson.

No matter what Mrs Cooke wrote, I think Anderson ties in with Obediah Nunnally. Shortal's Nunnally Genealogy booklet says that Joseph had 3 sons: John, Obediah + William, and that John had 2 sons - John Morris + Anderson.

Obediah married Elizabeth Baldwin and Anderson married Martha Baldwin. Obediah was born in Amelia Co. VA and died in Caswell Co. N.C. Obediah wasn't Anderson's father or son, but too many similiar names appear over and over for them not to have been close kin.

Be sure to study the "Nunnally-Morris" report prepared by Ann Waller Reddy for M.P. Nunnally. You have a copy of it. She has records on page 2 of that story concerning Joseph and his sons John and Obediah.

I just wonder if perhaps old Joseph (Shortal's #3.4) had more sons than just Joseph, Jr. (#4.4) that we don't know about, since your Anderson was not the son of either of Joseph, Jr.'s children (as per Shortal). Maybe your Anderson was a nephew (born CA 1775) of Joseph, Jr. - or a brother???

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could tie your husband Richard back to the very first original immigrant Nunneley of all, who was also named Richard, a very lovable rascal who was fined for not paying his tithes, cussing in public, but at the same time, extremely well to do and highly educated. I have a copy of his will. It would make our typed wills look small in comparison. It is the size of a newspaper on big sheets of paper (3 pages). What a great ancestor for us to be proud of - and for sure, he was the one we all stem from!

If you want a copy of Richard's will, I will send you a copy, but it will be all taped together (4 pages make 1 large page), or you can order a full size copy on heavy paper from the VA Archives for about $3.50. The will is in Richard's own handwriting and beautiful, but it takes time to read it since it is so lengthy.

Sunday Night (2/24): Mary, I will write more later. I never did find time this weekend to finish this letter, so consider this Part I. I will write Part II later.

Love, Fran

Dear Mary,

Here are some more Warren County records that I didn't send to you in my letter mailed yesterday. Of course I have many, many more records but you wouldn't need any of them.

Tell yourfriend Mrs. Jordan I am sorry that I am unable to help her find her Nunleys in Bell Co., Texas. I did type a list of all the Nunleys who said they were born in Tenn. that appeared on the 1880 Texas Soundex, but there were many, many more Nunleys listed on that Soundex which were not born in Tenn. so I didn't list them, since I am only working on the Tenn. line.

The list of the Warren County Deeds were compiled by my friend and genealogist Bonita Mangrum of McMinnville.

The 1840 Nunley census was my work of art. Ha.

Bye for now,

Fran

6/21/79

Dear Mary,

I finally convinced my 80+ year old pen pal (Gladys Grant in Jacksonville, Florida) that it would be O.K. for her to send me a copy of Miss Reddy's genealogy on the Nunleys. Gladys was hesitant to send it, even though she wrote me that she had it, because Major P. Nunnally had paid Miss Reddy to do the work and he then sent a copy to Hazel's sister (Hazel Heppler)who had helped Mr. Nunnally, and then Hazel sent a copy of it to Gladys. I told Gladys that since all three of the original people involved are now dead, there was no logical reason for not sending copies to her friends.

You will notice that Shortal mentions Miss Reddy's genealogy in his book as being one of his sources of info ~~through~~ and having obtained it from Major P. Nunnally, and after reading his book, I was anxious to obtain copies of her work also. I was lucky that Gladys had a copy.

This is sure good info to have for our future reference work.

As ever,

Fran

Dear Mrs. Koole,

I don't know exactly which states the Southern District included in the early 1800s, but I'm reasonably sure that it did include all of the Cherokee nation (Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, North Carolina). I checked the book Cherokee Emigration Rolls 1817-1835 and found no Nunley or variant or any Alex, Andrew, or Robert Miller. No Nunley or variant in the 1835 Cherokee Census either. In both of these records, sometimes two or more families were listed together under one name and many families used Indian names.

Checked other records for specific Millers and any Nunley, etc. Results of that enclosed.

I suggest you might use the applications to Eastern Cherokee Court of Claims (see explanation on enclosed ditto sheet). These will be particularly useful if you are trying to prove Cherokee ancestry. I doubt they will get you back much farther than you are now unless children of those you mention in your letter were alive in 1910 or thereabouts. If grandchildren of those mentioned were alive, you could get more info on the Nunley, etc. listed in your Indian agency records but not on their parents.

Sincerely,
Marilyn Gardner

Dear Mary:

Received your last 2 letters and the $5.00. Thanks a million. I just received Joe Shortal's Nunley booklet and it is so good, I am sending him another $10.00 bill. The info in his book is worth thousands of dollars to me. He is a professional I think, and no doubt spent many years gathering the records that back up his book. I will make a copy of it for you tomorrow at work.

I have drawn a crude family tree listing the first 6 generations, and I will send you a copy. The chart helps to put the "picture" together.

I didn't find your Joseph A. or Lawson H. in his book, nor did I find Edward of Hickman Co. TN. I am sending Joe copies of the letters written by the owner of Nunnelly Funeral Home. They might help Joe trace another lost branch of the tree.

Before I forget, I must tell you that the inquiry in the "Ridge Runners" which you sent me was placed in that publication by my 4th cousin named Kay (Mrs Wm. E.) Hibbard. We are working on the same Nunleys since we are both descendants of my Adam. The info she mentioned in her query was taken from what I had given her. She had our Thomas' date of birth incorrect. He wasn't born CA 1790 in N.C., because he was head of a household on the 1800 NC census. But I sure do thank you Mary for sending me the copy. Sure appreciate your good intention by trying to help me.

Now to get back to Edward. If you will study Sistler's list of Nunleys (all spellings) you will notice that there are several listed who said they were born in Hickman Co. Now read the Funeral Home letter again that states that Edward had 10 children. I suggest you get a copy of his children's names. Just maybe Joseph A. was one of his sons.

I called info on the phone to see if they had a listing for Nunnelee Funeral Chapel and also for John F. Nunnelee, Jr. They do have both listings, but the address for them is not Charleston, Missouri anymore, even though they are in the Charleston phone book. I guess where live is now a suburb of Charleston, because the operator said both listings show their address as being Sikeston, Missouri.

I strongly suggest that you write to John F., c/o his funeral chapel and see if you can get a list of Edward's 10 children. I think this is your best route to take. What do you think about this?

When you get my "family tree" of the first 6 Nunley generations I wish you would notice the 2 men who Joe Shartal has nothing on, named John, Jr. (4.5) and Thomas (4.13). I feel sure they are 2 of my 5 Nunleys I am working on. Jeremiah (4.16) may also be one of mine.

I have written Joe to this effect and am very anxious to hear from him in this regard. I really hit the jack-pot when I found Joe.

Please let me hear from you soon. Good luck and happy hunting.

As ever,

Fran

P.S. You said you were confused by the ever rising name Elis (Ellis) Nunley. What do you mean? Where did it arise? That is the name of my Adam's own father. Tell me quickly what you know about that name.

Dearest Mary:

Christmas time is great but I'm sure glad it only comes once a year. I hope you enjoyed your holidays as much as we did. You asked in one of your recent letters about my family so this is a good excuse to tell you.

Tom (my 2nd husband for 20 years and a wonderful man who never had children of his own) and I spent Christmas with my only child, age 40, who married at age 17, had 4 children in a row (she's Catholic converted but not much) and who went to college and got her law degree while her children were in school. It took her 7 years. Her one and only husband was behind her all the way, and finally just 3 years ago she graduated and then was employed by one of the best law firms in Houston where they live. She started at $900 per month, and they told her she would be making $15,000 per year in 3 years if she did well. Would you believe it if I told you she is making $30,000 per yr starting Jan. '80, and will be a partner (not an associate anymore) in her law firm, Sullins + Johnston. They deal mostly in taxes, accounting and settling estates, but they handle all the rest too, so she has been in Court many times. Gail Magers (her name since she married Larry Magers) is beautiful, brainy and brilliant, but she is just about the (or lousiest) lousyest housekeeper anyone ever met. It's a standing joke in the whole family. She needs a maid real bad, but when they come, they can't stand her mess + leave. Two of their dtrs. are in UT at Austin; one is happily married + the son is in H.S. Larry is a wheel at NASA near Houston, and is a sweety-pie. He and my Tom are both golf nuts so they always have something going.

My first marriage lasted 18 years and was very bad, however giving birth to Gail was worth every day and year, until it ended in divorce.

When I meet you when you come to San Antonio this summer, I will show you some pictures of my wonderful family.

Now it is your turn to tell me about your family. Please do.

Mary, I just couldn't write you sooner. I was snowed with christmas cards and letters from correspondents concerning our Nunley / Nunneley, etc. line. Of course, I had to answer all of them. Would you believe, I got 43 of them? Came from people I had forgotten about, as well as my close buddies. Even Joe Shartal who wrote the "Nunelly Genealogy" wrote a letter with a lovely card. I was surprised, since he is not actively working on our line now.

In regard to your letter dated 11/26/79, I am going to send a Xerox copy of it to my cousin Jack Nunley in Elk City. He is in his 80's but very sharp, and his wife is probably 65-70, but both are very genealogical-minded. Hopefully, they will be able to help you re: your Lawson M. Nunneley who was buried in Elk City, OK in Dec., 1938. The challenge will be good for them. They are retired, affluent and have no family. That is why Jack looks forward to my letters and Tenn. newspaper clippings so much, plus our LD calls, yet we have never met. He has helped me solve other people's problems before that I wrote about, so I feel sure he will find out something in regard to your Lawson M.

I must tell you this: the Lawson Nunley you found on the 1850 Grundy County, TN census was an uncle of Jack in Elk City. His GF was Comodore. His mother named Susan was born in 1859 and appears on the 1860 census. Jack was born during Susan's second marriage to my G. G. Uncle who was also a Nunley, so therefore Jack is a "double Nunley".

I am so glad to know that you have got your corrected names pertaining to Joseph A. Nunneley's children, thanks to the marriage records for Franklin Co. Ark. You are making progress. You didn't do too bad when you read the census the best you could. Now you have the true facts.

Sorry to know that the records you sent to Mrs Cooke in Brentwood, TN didn't help in regard to her Anderson and Lawson.

As for the Morman Archives papers that I loaned you (and got back), my understanding is that the still living Mormans go to the trouble of proving their ancestor's line so those ancestors who are already in Heaven now can decide up there if they want to be Mormans ~~or~~ or not, up there. Their decendants on earth have to "prove" their genealogical line down here and are therefore / then "bonded and certified" by the LDS Church and before they can make their choice up there in Heaven. This is how I interpreted the literature I picked up at the San Antonio LDS branch archives.

By all means, your local society should do anything and everything necessary to change your monthly meetings to another night other than Monday which is their Family Night. The Mormans are the best friends we have who are researchers of genealogy and local history. Their records are invaluable. You will find that out when you visit our Tulsa branch.

Mary, let us hope that the 1980's will be good to all of us.

Your pal, Fran Koole

Did you write your friend in Brentwood, TN about this Anderson Nunelly?

1810 Pulaski Co., Kentucky Census:
Anderson Nunnelly - page 17 24
1 (M) 16 to 26
1 " 26 to 45
3 (F) under 10
1 " 16 - 26

Also in same county:
Elizabeth Nunnely M Wm. Graves
April 27, 1825. Anderson Nunnely
bondsman

Margaret Nunnely M Isaac Snodgrass
Aug. 30, 1838.

This is all I have on Kentucky that relates to Anderson Nunelly.

Enclosing some bits and pieces that I don't believe I sent you before. These were notes typed by a lady now dead who lived in SLC and worked the archives nearly every day looking for her Nunnery history. She was named Hazel Hepler and helped Major P. Nunnally put his Nunnally book together, and M.P.N. then in turn helped Joe Shortel put his book together (all by mail, they never met). I now write to Hazel's 81 year old sister, Gladys Grant, and got this from her. Forgive my short memory if I sent this before.

ALSO SENDING YOU THE N.C. MARRIAGES. DID I SEND THIS BEFORE???????

Dear Mary:

Your letter was just full of good and interesting news. So glad you talked with John Fred Nunnellee, Jr. all of 25 minutes, although that LD call will be anything but cheap when you get your phone bill. It is disappointing that he didn't know the names of Edward's children. Sure hope the lady in Mounds, OK or the man in Memphis will know who they were, when you write to them. Did you ever write to any of the people who do genealogy in SLC, using the Morman Archives for research? Quite alot of the ads in the Genealogical Helper refer to that group of researchers. Since Edward was a RW soldier, there should be something of record as to his children. For instance, when his widow applied for his pension, she would have given quite alot of family info in her application. At least this was the case in one widow's application that I am familiar with. I believe there were 2 Edwards in that war, and yours is the one whose XXX wife was named Mary A. Reeves Sutherland Nunnelee, a former widow at the age of 22 (as per the 1962 letters). You might want to order Edward's papers from Nellie Mae Sparks for $10.00. Her address is enclosed in case you don't have it. This is just a thought of mine that I wanted to pass along. I feel so sure that your Joseph A. was one of Edward's 13 children, and especially since the Edward lived in North Carolina (as per the 1962 letters) and since your Joseph was born there.

I sent a copy of your letter to Howard. His sins of omission are finally catching up with him in regard to his poor letter writing. He is a terrible correspondent. When you write to John Fred Nunnellee, Jr., give him Howard's address. Hopefully, they will begin corresponding again after all these years. Here it is: HOWARD NUNLEY, P. O. BOX 1289, SAM MARCOS, TEXAS 78666.

The story about the money in escrow in the Beaumont bank is interesting. Did your friend say how he thought his Edward was kin to the NUNN family? Does he think the Nunn family is the same as the Nunnelee family? This has been discussed by other people many times, and I for one don't buy the story.

Mary, I received your census of 1820 and it is much too thick to copy. You mentioned one time that you was going to donate it to your library. If you still plan to get rid of it, I would love to buy it from you for $10.00. Otherwise, I will have to return it to you uncopied. It sure is a good reference book to have on hand for future use. Let me know your thoughts on this.

If you and I live long enough, maybe we will write that best seller, "Nunneley, Nunley, Nunnellee and Variants". At least we have the title for it already picked out.

Your pal,

Fran

P. S. Thanks so much for sending the census and I am enclosing some stamps to cover the cost of postage. I will return it after I hear from you if you don't want to sell it to me.

3/19/79

Dear Mary,

I was excited and delighted to get your letter of March 14th. I haven't had time to absorb all the material you sent me but will do so tonight when I get home from work.

I did find in my records received from Mrs. Presley that the Lawson H. Nunley of Hickman County was father of Walter S. Nunley, also of Hickman County, so this Lawson is not your man. At least, we now know that there were 2 men with the same name.

I called your sister-in-law Mary in regard to the good "professor" who supposedly has your records. Well, here is the story: Mary said he actually isn't a professor, but a director of Reed Hall in San Marcos at the college. I then told Mary that I knew the director of that hall real well - that he is Howard Nunley and is my best buddy in regard to the research we are all in. Howard and I exchange every bit of info either one of us has because we are both working on the same Nunley clan in Warren & Grundy Counties. We visit one another in our homes quite often and write sometimes 2 or 3 times a week to one another. He has a nice wife and son and they are genealogical buffs also.

Mary then told me that her son had not yet given the records you loaned him to Howard, but that he would now that she had gotten after him. Of course what Howard has, I already have, so it turns out now that you and I didn't find a new source of Nunley info after all. Just to show you how long Howard has been researching the Nunleys, I am enclosing a very interesting letter he received from a Nunley who owned a funeral parlor in 1962. He was still in the service then and retired from it in 1962 when he started his job at the college in San Marcos. You will notice in the copy of the enclosed letters that Nunnelly, Tennessee was named after this Mr. Nunnellee's ancestor.*

I am very interested in the fact that you discovered there is a Nunley, Ark. located in Polk County. Howard has had his eye on both Polk and Yell Counties for a long time. He believes that quite a few of our Nunleys migrated to Missouri in the 1870-80's, and he has good reason to believe it. His great-grandparents got married in Missouri after they left Warren Co.

Did you ever order Mrs. Presley's Arkansas lists of all Nunnellys listed on the 1840 and 1850 censuses? I think I will order them, since they are only $1.00 and $2.50. (See enclosed for her offer). By the way, do you have a copy of her biography of Leonard Nunnally born in Carrol Co. Arkansas in 1845? I don't have it. I am enclosing copies of all of her Nunley biographies that I have.

*Re: your copy of "A reminiscent History of the Ozark Region" on page 739, the John Hamilton Nunnellee was the G.F. of the man named John F. Nunnellee, Jr. who wrote to my friend Howard in 1962. Very interesting how they tie in together.

I have a feeling that we are going to be able to help one another in the Nunley research very much, because we are both dedicated and thorough in anything we get involved in. I feel sure some of my "lost" Nunleys did go to Arkansas because too many of them disappeared from the 1870 & 1880 censuses of Tenn. and quite a few of my pen-pals have told me that they had heard that story somewhere down the line.

I am sending you the complete work of M.P. Nunnally that I just received from my pen-pal in Florida. She is I believe 81 years old and still types long letters. She has finally sent me copies of everything she had that Major Nunnally ever sent her before he died. I consider this the greatest treasure that I have in regard to the Nunley story. Someday perhaps you and I can both identify some of the people he wrote about as our own ancestors. I did send Gladys Grant $10.00 for her trouble, but the story of the original Nunleys in this country is worth 10 times that price. I am just so glad I finally found someone who had a copy of Mr. Nunnally's work.

You have a problem just like I do. You can't find out who were the parents of your Joseph A. and I can't find out which of my 5 Nunleys who came from N.C. was the father of my Ellis (or Elias as he was christened maybe). Just last week I finally broke down and wrote a senior archivist in Salt Lake City to do the necessary research for me at the Morman Temple of which I am not a member of course. Perhaps in about a month or so, he will come up with some answers. To say the least, my hobby is not too cheap, because I spend quite alot of money on obtaining records, books, etc. However, I enjoy it and will never stop since genealogy and early American history are my "cup of tea".

I think both of us should concentrate on the early records of North Carolina since your Joseph A. was born there, just as my 5 men might have been since they did live there for quite awhile. Are there any inter-library loan microfilms available in your Bartlesville library that might be of help in our search? I would like to see a list of what is available to order but the library in S.A. doesn't seem to have a list. They just put your request in and try to find what you are looking for that is available from other sources.

No, none of your husband's list of various ancestors ring a bell with me, so I doubt any of them came from Warren or Grundy Cos., Tenn.

I doubt I will find anything more to send you since it looks like I have scraped the bottom of the barrel this time, but you never know about me. I am always coming up with something new and to me exciting while playing detective.

Drop me a line when you have had time to wade through the material I am enclosing.

Sincerely,

Fran

Dearest Mary:

I have all your letters and records spread out all over the table and have been studying them for an hour. I was planning to answer your last 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ letters tonight but I can see right now I'm not ready. I've got to study your latest news and records in more detail before I make a comment. I will be doing this in every spare moment I have and will then answer your letters immediately. Thanks to Martha Cooke's new info, you have made a major leap forward, because you now have absolute proof that Anderson was connected to your Jos. A. You will be finding the answers to your questions much easier from now on since you have the facts and proof as per the settlement of the Will of Thomas Easley, deceased. That document was the clincher, for now you know that your

J. A. and Anderson were tied together somehow.

Next day on my lunch hour:

I sure did enjoy talking with you last weekend, even though I was too exhausted to think straight. My company came on Thursday and left on Sunday which really wore me out. Including Tom and me, there were 8 people in the house and that is more than I can cope with successfully.

I heard from Flora Brantley, the genealogist in N.C. She sent me quite a few copies of Rutherford Co. deeds which pertain to my Nunley line, however she didn't come up with anything that really helped. You and Martha Cooke might want to try her or someone like her if and when you begin to work in Halifax County looking for Anderson. Flora has a "package deal" for $20.00, which is what I ordered for Rutherford Co.

I will be thinking and working on your line all the time and will write you again this weekend. And I promise it will be a nice, long letter.

The NC cemetery records and the DAR list came from Flora. I was disappointed in the cemetery list.

Love you,

Fran

P.S. What was the year that Anderson married Martha Baldwin? This would determine if some of his children were born to a previous or later wife. Right now, I would bet that he had 2 wives.

6/19/79

Dearest Pal Mary:

I have now made copies of the pages in the 1820 TN census that I need (4 families), so am now sending the book back to you in another envelope. Let me know if you get it, because it is going by 4th class (books) mail.

I had no idea that you had paid $27.00 for that book, so that is why I offered to buy it for only $10.00. Also, I thought you planned to donate it to your city's library as you mentioned.

I would like to caution you in regard to the publisher and/or author of that book. The president, Ronald Vern Jackson of Accelerated Indexing Systems, and I don't like one another very much to put it mildly. He does fine on his computerized census indexes, but beware of his other services. He takes your money and you get very little back in return.

For instance, my pal Howard Nunley of San Marcos, TX ordered his Nunley computer print-out last year and Howard got a print-out from Jackson with about 50 or 60 Nunleys. Then the following year, I ordered Jackson's Nunley print out and got only 12 names. Both were for $10.00 each. Now how do you figure this out? Did his computer "lose" those other Nunleys? Where did they go? I don't know a thing about computers but in my book it "stinks".

Just on the principal of his shoddy work, I wrote to Jackson and told him that if he did this kind of work for all his customers, knowing all the time that his computers had more info, that he should be reported to the Postal Authorities. He finally replied after many months, and in January of this year, he wrote that he would send me more.

I haven't heard a word from him since January, so I have marked him off my list.

I just mentioned this so you won't trust him like I did.

Did you see my "ad" in the latest "Genealogical Helper"? I asked for info re the Dunlaps in Warren + Grundy Cos. TN. It only cost $5.75. I got a letter today from a Lt. Col. in Aurora, CO wanting info. Of course he had no goodies to offer in return. Just wants info — the "story of my life". HA. HA. So now I will answer and tell him who his Rachel Dunley belonged to in 1815. I hope God puts a star in my crown for all the good deeds I have done in the name of genealogy, even though I enjoy it.

Let me know what you hear from the Archives in regard to your Edward. I can hardly wait to know. As ever, Fran

P. S. I am enclosing a copy of the Nunley info that Howard received from Jackson for $10.00, in 1977. Then in 1978, before I had met Howard, I ordered the same thing from Jackson. Then after Howard and I met, we compared our lists and could see that I was short-changed - having gotten only 12 Nunley/variant names. I then sent the 12 name list back and asked for my $10.00 back. Of course I never got it back, so that is why I am upset about my experience with Mr. Jackson.

I am also enclosing a copy of our Nunleys as listed on another 1820 census for Tenn. I believe Howard gave this to me also. Without double checking, there might be or might not be some names on one list that is not on the other.

Thanks very, very much for sending me the census and I sure do appreciate you going to so much trouble to send it to me. It sure will help me when I am working on my 4 early families in Tenn.

As ever,

Fran

4/23/79

Mary, I believe I made an error in my letter to you written yesterday. If I thanked you for only $5.00, I apologize. I meant to thank you for $15.00. When I pull a boo-boo, I always pull a big one. Someone else had sent me a $5.00 check for something else, and I had them confused when I wrote you.

Your pal,

Fran

P.S. If and when you come to San Antonio to see your relatives, plan to come to see me too. Am sure anxious to meet you.

3/24/80

Dearest Mary,

Received your letter Saturday, along with the Sevier Co. Ark. census records and other goodies. Thanks so much. I would surely be lost without your help, and your flattering praise which I love to hear. Ha.

Your card (re John a son of Anderson) attached to the xerox info states that you are beginning to think along the line of the late M. P. Nunnally - that is, Anderson could have been a son of Joseph, Jr. as well as a brother of John, William and Obediah. I don't believe MPN did say that - correct me if I am wrong. I thought that was just my own idea. Be sure to re-read Miss Reddy's page 7 of the report she prepared for MPN. It explains why there were so many Anderson Nunleys.

According to Gladys Grant (Hazel Heppler's sister), the records of MPN just "folded up and died", after MPN and his wife died, since they had no children. Perhaps Joe Shortel knows what happened to those records, since Shortal was trading info with MPN all of the time. In fact, Shortal gives credit to MPN for much of the info he put in his book. I will write and ask Joe, for it will be a good excuse for me to write, after such a long while.

Mary, I sure do appreciate your spending your lunch hour going over the Cherekee records for me in your History Room. But don't do that anymore, because your Okla. records wouldn't cover the Tenn. records. You see, Thomas Nennerly and son never went as far west as OK. According to the article you sent me out of Ansearching News, they received passes to go into Cherekee country in western Tenn. Kingston, TN is mentioned, and that is not too far from the NC border. You see, at that time (1800-10), my Thomas still lived in Rutherford Co., NC. Perhaps he went into the Cherekee territory in TN looking for "greener pastures", and when TN became a State and was opened up, the whole Nunley clan migrated west. Thomas is listed on Warren County TN 1812 tax list twice. I wonder if it wasn't perhaps Thomas and his son listed on that tax list, and the same 2 men listed in the Cherekee passbook record. I wrote to Mr. Burns (author of the Cherekee article) (see my letter to him). If he doesn't answer, I will attempt to borrow the film through interloan library service from the Nashville archives. I am very excited about this Cherekee info - thanks only to you, and your sharp eye.

Apparently Martha Cooke has some new DAR info that she hasn't sent to you. Otherwise, how did she know that Joseph A. married Nancy Easley of Halifax, VA? Since she says 3 of the Easley women married Nunneleys, that would account for one of them being Ecloe Nunley, a sister of Nancy Nunley, and would also explain why Nancy named her first daughter Ecloe (after the child's aunt named Ecloe). Now, all you need to do is get Martha to come through and send the records to you. Looks to me like you have found your tree in the forest (quotation of Mrs. Leister Presley). See Mrs. Presley's latest sales sheet - maybe you don't have this one.

So glad you had your pesky moles removed with no problems. Too bad about you having to go to the OLA convention, but by now you are back home since today is the 24rd. Did you find a library to sneak off to, like you did when you went to Tulsa for the mole removals? You know, between the 2 of us, we add up to a pretty good genealogist.HA. We both have the disease in advanced stages.

Bye for now,

Fran

P.S. Don't forget, Nancy wasn't the mother of your Lawson H. & Alexander, so I wouldn't worry about the Easleys too much.

Dear Joe,

I have been meaning to write to you for quite a long while, just to say hello and how are you. I am still working on the Nunnally genealogy but getting nowhere fast. Right now I am "stuck" in North Carolina since the records there on my line are few and far between. The fact that my people intermarried with the Cherekees while there makes my research doubly hard although at the same time, very exciting. The Yadkin River area plays a big part in my work since at least one was born on that river to a Cherekee mother. The others lived in Rutherford County (old Tryon County) although I recently found out that one of the districts the Rutherford County congressman represented in Congress was called "the Yadkin District". Very probably my Nunleys on that river lived in Rowan County which the river flows through, and is just slightly NE of Rutherford County. Although no Nunleys were listed on the early Rowan County censuses, I must employ a genealogist in North Carolina to check the land records for me.

Although you can't help me with my North Carolina problem, you may be able to help a friend of mine who is working on an entirely different Nunnelly (variant) problem. My friend Mary (Mrs. Richard) Nunneley of Bartlesville, OK is looking for her Anderson Nunneley, and of course she is having problems since there were so many Anderson Nunneleys way back then. She has reason to think that the Anderson she is looking for might have been a son of Joseph, Sr. (your #3.4), and a brother of your Joseph, Jr. (#4.4) and whose name was Anderson. It stands to reason that Joseph, Sr. probably had more than one son. One reason she thinks her theory is possible is because her Anderson named one of his own sons Joseph and she wonders if that son was named for his grandfather and thus carrying on the family name.

Mary asked me if I knew what happened to Major P. Nunnaly's records after he died. Mary knows about those records, since I have sent her copies of my records, as well as a copy of your book on the Nunneley genealogy. I wrote and told Mary that I would write and ask you if you know whether M.P.'s records were donated to a library or an archive, or whether they were passed on to someone else who is still working on this family line. It would be wonderful to know where his records are now located. Mary is a very capable genealogist, and I want to help her all I can, so if you can tell us anything about the missing records, we will both be very grateful. Please let me hear from you when you find time.

Sincerely,

Fran Koole

Fran Koole

Mary, I hope this letter sounds O.K.
Will let you know when I hear from Joe.

Fran

P. S. Mary, you will recall that you and I had discussed the Mormans in your town who want to come to your genealogical society meetings on Monday night and they can't come that night. Well, I found this history in a library book about their origin and made a copy for you and me. I am interested in this church because my mother's people belong to the RLDS Church (Reorganized Church of the Latter Day Saints) and which is an offshoot of the original Morman Church. My branch parted ways with Brigham Young when he went to Salt Lake City and they stayed in Missouri with their own chosen leader.

Feb. 8, 1980

Dear Mary,

Received your latest letter yesterday and will answer today, since my "boss" is out of town and I have some free time on my hands. So sorry to learn that you have been "confined" with the flu and hope you get well soon.

About my John Nunnery who (according to Hazel Heppler) was supposedly in the Rev. War: You are correct when you state that no census of those veterans were taken until the mid 1800's. By that time, my John was living in Tenn. and he is not listed. I have a list of all the Nunleys who served in that war, according to the enclosed list, and also a list furnished to me in more detail from someone who belongs to the DAR. There were 2 John Nunleys in that war, and I have checked them out pretty thoroughly. Neither of them belong to me as far as I can tell. Therefore, I think Hazel Heppler had a bad dream (or her sister Gladys Grant got it all mixed up). So forget about working on this anymore and I will also.

You wrote that you had written to Martha Cooke and asked her to send you any of the names of Anderson's children, other than her Lawson H. I believe the list she sent you dated Nov. 8, 1979, WAS a list of those children, and a copy of her letter to you is enclosed. If I am reading her letter right, and this is Anderson's children (and not her Lawson H.'s) then I think there is a clue for you to work on.

Look at the 4th son named ALEC. That could be your Joseph A. His name could have been JOSEPH ALEXANDER and his nickname could have been Alec. Let me know what you think about this possibility. Do you know what your Joseph's middle name was? You never mentioned it in your letters.

Why don't you ask Martha about that son William who went to Texas. If she knew that much about him, maybe she knows what county and what year he went south. As you can see, your problem is getting more interesting all of the time.

I sure feel sorry for you in regard to finding Dick's Jones family with no first names to go on. Do you know what county and state and what year to start looking? The Hendersons might be a little easier to trace, but I wouldn't count on it. Maybe your Jones ancestor was named Marvin Blake Jones and both of the old ladies were right about his name. Surely you can locate a marriage license for him with one name or the other if you know the approximate date of that marriage and where it happened. Let me know for I am curious how it turns out.

Thanks for your offer to order my John's Rev. War record, but it isn't necessary. I have already checked it out with the Archives in Washington and am satisfied that neither of the 2 Johns that they have of record are mine.

I sent a $20.00 check to Flora Brantley and a copy of my letter is enclosed. I will let you know how it all turns out. I sent her a copy of all the deeds and marriage bonds I already have so she wouldn't send me the stuff I already have.

Bye for now,

Fran

Dear Mrs. Brantley:

I was very impressed with the research you did for me in May of 1979 in regard to the Nunley/variants marriage bonds in early North Carolina, and am therefore asking you for your help again.

In your transmittal letter to me dated 25 May 1979, you wrote that you offered a North Carolina Research Package for one county and one surname for $20.00. I would like to take advantage of your offer and my check for that amount is enclosed.

I am enclosing a computer printout of the deeds and 2 marriage bonds that I already have, so do not send these records to me. However, if you find records of any other deeds or marriage bonds concerning my Nunleys in RUTHERFORD COUNTY, N.C. between 1750-1810, I would like to have copies, if possible. It is possible that my Nunley line was in North Carolina when Rutherford County was called old Tyron County. At the present time, the first indication I have found that they were N.C. dates back only to 1790; that being the 1790 Rutherford County census, and John Nunnery was the only one of my line listed. I do not believe the other 3 Nunnerys listed who lived in other counties belong to me (see Nunnery census records enclosed). It should be noted that the 1790 census index lists all of the 4 Nunleys as Nunnerys, but that is incorrect, since they are listed as Nunley on the 1810 census.

I am trying to find out what kin these 5 men were to one another: John, Thomas, Archibald Nunley (or one of several variant spellings) and two younger men who were about a generation younger, named Jeremiah and William Nunley. All five of these men migrated to Warren County, Tenn. around 1808, so they were either brothers, nephews or sons. All of them belong to my line, so I am working on all of them.

The Nunleys originated in Virginia and very probably all of my 5 Nunleys were born there and migrated to N.C. in the 1700's. We already know from oral history that William (born 1774) was born to a Cherekee mother on the Yadkin River in N.C. However, the survey line between VA and NC had not yet been drawn, so that territory was still a part of Virginia when he was born. Both William and Jeremiah (also born in 1774) stated on the Warren Co. TN 1850 census that they were born in VA. The 3 older Nunleys were by then dead, so we don't know where they were born.

Please check the cemetery records, deeds, church records, etc. pertaining to Rutherford (or old Tyron) County and see if you can find anything on my family that I don't already have. Do not bother to look for the NC Land Grants in Tenn. 1778-1791, for they are not listed, thus indicating that they may not have played a part in the Revolutionary War. Even so, I wish you would check the/other records to be sure, since I have reason to believe that John and perhaps Thomas were involved in it in some way. Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mrs Tom Koole

Dear Mary:

I really don't know what to say at this point who Ecole Nunnely was married to. Perhaps Thomas Easley's will holds the secret, if it can be obtained. Just maybe it will say something like - "Ecole Nunnely, the wife of etc.", but it probably won't.

And I don't agree with you when you said on the phone to me, that you wondered if she could have been Anderson's first or second wife, since her heirs as listed in Thos. Easley were not children of Anderson. Since she was already dead in 1844 (date of settlement) she was probably born CA 1775. She would have been the right age to have been Anderson's first wife, but her heirs (Anderson, Wm. C, Mill P. and grandson James A. plus maybe Joseph A. + John W.) were not Anderson's children.

No doubt your Joseph A. was kin to her and he named his first daughter for her.

I notice the Thos. Easley settlement lists payments to only 4 heirs; however Spence's History of Hickman Co. which Martha Cooke quoted to you mentioned the heirs as being James D., Warham, Thomas, Jr, Robin, Stephen, Edward + William. It didn't bother to list the daughters. I guess all the sons had gotten their share of the estate, before the final settlement was made with the remaining heirs, creditors + debtors that had to be done to close the estate.

You were wondering if perhaps Martha Nunnelly on the 1830 Hickman Co. census (plus the 1840 census) indicated that Anderson and wife were separated since he didn't die until 1848 in Hickman County. I would imagine that the Martha on the census was another woman named Martha also (remember old Edward there had about 13 children). Just maybe Anderson + wife were in another state when the 1830 + 1840 censuses were taken, and he came to Hickman County when he was old and getting ready to die. It would help to get cemetary records. Did those I sent you last August that I copied at the archives mention him? Don't recall.

Thanks for the 1850 Mortality Schedule for Arkansas. It is as bare of Nunleys as the Tenn. schedule was which also had only one name - Branch Nunnely. And thanks also for the NC Archive info re the Revolutionary War records, which you sent me Feb. 16th. I already had it and several others, but I sure do appreciate your thoughtfulness and concern.

I sure hope you get to go to the birthday party for Lula Amo Nunneley Barker on May 10th. It would be a good time to talk to her about her father. Is there a family Bible in the family somewhere that might have some info? Maybe Lula Amo will know.

Mary, you have made tremendous progress on your Nunneley research since we first started corresponding, thanks to your dedication and research. You are an expert and understand the ends and outs of genealogy well. I doubt that any professional genealogist could do as well as we "amateurs" do. We ~~deserve~~ deserve a "pat on the back". I sleep well every night, knowing that I have helped so many people with their genealogical problems. You wouldn't believe the number of people I have made happy who have roots in Warren + Grundy Cos. They all think I am some kind of angel sent from Heaven. As an example, one branch of my Nunley line came to No. Texas 100 years ago and over the years they lost touch. Now their grandchildren are hitting 70 and they wondered about their Tenn. relatives. Some of them had even made a trip up there but they didn't know who to look for. They studied the records at the Courthouse and visited the cemetaries and then came home with nothing. They did run a little ad in the local Tenn. newspaper (which I take) and I answered. Thanks to me, they now know their complete Nunley family history, and are now corresponding with their distant cousins up there. They plan to go back to Tenn. this summer and get the "Red Carpet Treatment" like I got this past August. This is an example of my good deeds and thus why

I am so excited about genealogy. Perhaps my talent is to help our people to find their roots, because my greatest happiness comes those who so badly need help and are fumbling in the dark looking for their people.

I am proud to say that I have never asked for reimbursement for expenses but like I think I told you before, I am always getting money in letters from these grateful correspondents. That touches me deeply. The point is, I do it as a labor of love but it is not a "labor" at all, since it makes my life meaningful. I am just telling you this because you are my bosom buddy and I have to brag on myself to somebody. I can't say anything like that to my friends in Tenn. who have already put me on a pedestal and with "stars in my crown" when I go to Heaven. Hope so, because I sure will need them up there. HA. Write soon. Love, Fran

My dearest Mary,

YOU DID IT. You have made a major breakthrough for me and my Tennessee "cousins". You just can't realize how major it really is, because you don't know the whole story.

Yes, Thomas and Thomas, Jr. Nennerly (Nunnerly) are my Nunley people. Many of us have been looking for them for a very long time, because could not find them on any censuses. Thomas, Sr. didn't die until the 1840 period since his 100 acres in Tenn. weresold by his surviving heirs in 1850. However, he disappeared from the censuses soon after he was granted the 100 acres in 1812 by the State of Tenn. When his heirs sold that land and signed the deed, Thomas, Jr. was there and made his "X" mark along with the rest of the children and in-laws. They sold it to William Nunley who lived in the Nunley Cove also. William was the one who told his children that he was born to a Cherekee mother on the Yadkin River in North Carolina. Perhaps William was Thomas' nephew and maybe his father was John (William named his first son John). This John might have been the father of both William and Jeremiah (who I claim as my ancestor), and Thomas and John may have been brothers.

Perhaps John was the one who married a Cherekee on the Yadkin River, however with this new info about Thomas in the Cherekee Country, I believe that Thomas also married a Cherekee maiden.

I just learned from one of my "cousins" in Tenn. that my Ellis (perhaps the son of Jeremiah) also went to live with the Indians from time to time. We know that he disappeared from the Tenn. censuses after the 1840 census and is probably the same Ellis who came back and got married again in Grundy County in 1872 when he was probably an old man. I think Ellis might have been 1/4th Cherekee if I am correct about his forefathers.

The family story handed down from one generation to another is that when the Nunleys left NC to go to Tenn., that the Cherekees came with them because they were friends, and that they helped each other on the long trip. After the Nunleys settled in what is called "Nunley's Cove" in Tenn., their Indian friends stayed close by and lived up in the mountains and in its caves. The friendship continued to some degree, until around 1885 when William's son (Jesse) died.

Mary, I am going to make copies of your Cherekee records and will send it to my friends and cousins in Tenn. Can you imagine how much excitement this new info is going to cause? It will open up a whole new world for us to explore.

Thank you again Mary, from the bottom of my heart, for your valuable lead.

As ever, Fran

P.S. Mary, I just looked in the Phoenix phone book, and would you believe that William A. Burns/author of the article about the Cherekees for Ansearchin News over 20 years ago, still lives at the same address in Phoenix.....I will write to him this week. Maybe he can help me, if he is still active, faster than me trying to do the research from scratch.

Thanks so much for the Nunn genealogy. It will sure help somewhere along the line. An awful lot of my Nunleys in Tenn. changed their name slightly when they got into trouble like moonlighting or shooting scrapes. Grundy County is famous for such happenings.

Thanks for the Easley stuff from the DAR. Your Ecole is certainly a mystery woman right now.

Mary, I will be indebted to you forever for this priceless lead on my Nunleys and the Cherekees.

Love you,

Fran

He used the name of Nunnerly in 1812.

Partial copies of Thomas' 1812 + 1850 deeds enclosed.

Cherekee Indian Agency in Tenn.

Dear Mr. Burns:

I have just obtained a copy of pages 121-123 of "Ansearchin News", Volume I-VI, Third Edition, 1954-1959, which pages are entitled "Abstracts from the Records of the Cherekee Indian Agency in Tenn., 1801-1804", which you so generously contributed to that publication more than 20 years ago.

Your article was about the microfilm entitled, "Records of the Cherekee Indian Agency in Tenn.", divided in 4 parts. You listed the names of the men who obtained passes issued by the Indian Agent, which list contains two of my ancestors: Thomas Nennerly, Sr. and Thomas Nennerly, Jr. The spelling, however, is incorrect, since their name is Nunnerly, plus other variants such as Nunnery, Nunnely, Nunley, etc., but never as Nennerly as far as I know. Since my ancestor Thomas did marry a Cherekee in North Carolina, I therefore have reason to believe the 2 men on your list are my people. Naturally, I am very excited about this new find.

I wonder if I may impose on you and ask for your help, since you have already researched the microfilm pertaining to this matter, rather than me trying to buy or locate the film to study.

I will very gladly reimburse you by return mail in payment for any information you are able to send me on my Nunnerly line which might be on this microfilm which you own. Hopefully, you jotted the information down when you did this research in the 1950 period of time and still have your notes.

I purchased a book entitled " Guide to the Microfilm Holdings of the Manuscripts Section, Tennessee State Library & Archives" while visiting the Archives in Nashville last summer. The microfilm listed in this book can be borrowed from their archives through inter-loan library service, and I will attempt to borrow this film from them in the event you cannot help me although I would prefer not to go that route.

Any help you can give me will be very greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Mrs Tom Koole

Dear Fran:

Received the "Nunley goodies" and was thrilled - even though I am, at this point unable to tie in anything. The problem is that I know so little at this point concerning these Nunneleys.

I am sending some additional things I copied at work and found what I think is one tie to your bible records. The Leonard Nunnally(Carroll Co. History) certainly could be the son of Benjamin Franklin Nunnally on the photo copy of the bible. Seems almost a sure thing.

Just ordered "Sources for Arkansas Cemetery Inscriptions" and hope to obtain some of the inscriptions for the most likely areas that this group lived in, and believe it will aid our research.

So far, it appears that Dick's father's family came from:

Nunneley(Okla-Ark-Tenn-NC)
Carter(Ark-Tenn)
Moore(Ark-Tenn-NC-Mass)
Chapin(Ark-Tenn-NC-Mass)
Stillman(Ark-Tenn-NC-Mass)
McCollough(Ark-Ind-Tenn-NC)
Boyes(Ark-Ind-Tenn-VA)
Freed(half Indian ??) (Ark-Ind-Tenn-VA)
Bunch(Ark-MO-Tenn-VA,1765)
Coffman(Ark-Tenn)
Ray(Ark-Tenn-VA)
Bellamy (?) only know Mary Bellamy lived in VA when married to Charles Bunch and had son, Nathaniel born in VA

I have listed as the first state, the known or probable place of burial and the last state as research has shown(census, etc)that they resided or were born.

If any of the above names mean anything, let me know. As I have said, I really have very little, but will send any copies of any or all.

If you hear from the good professor - do let me know! Don't know why he wanted the information and had hoped to hear from him, but have heard nothing.

Your Lawson H. Nunnelly from Hickman Co. Tenn (David Sistler's publication, 1850 Census)amazes me - wonder who this can be? Since Dick's great-grandfather has exactly the same name, must be something. Overton County Tennessee seems to be the place for many of the above listed Nunneley ancestors and is not near Hickman.

Thanks much for the information and would like to exchange current information about families - Mary and the Royal are worn out after a full day's work. Please keep in touch and know these Nunley's and variants will fit together.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard D. Nunneley

Dear Mary:

Received your fine letter yesterday, and called your sister-in-law last night. She had gotten your card, so she expected my call. She said her son had taken the Nunley info to one of his professors who teaches at the university in San Marcos - that he isn't a Nunley himself, but is doing research on the family. She will get the professor's name from her son this weekend and will then call me with the info. I am anxious to talk with him. Perhaps he is researching way back to the first Nunleys who came to America and lived in Virginia. I am researching them also, because I know my Nunleys came from VA prior to migrating to N.C. and then to Warren Co. Tenn. The names I am researching who settled in Tenn. are the same names that appear on some of the wills, etc. written by Virginians (such names as John, Thomas, Archibald or Archileus, Jeremiah and William). However, there is a span of years in between the date of the will of John in Chesterfield Co. VA and the men I am researching, and that makes it impossible to say that they are the same men. I would guess perhaps they are grandsons.

I am sending you copies of some of my "goodies" that I have collected over the years pertaining to the original Nunleys in America. I cannot find your Joseph A. on any of my records, nor his marriage to Claresa. But I did find a Lawson H. Nunnelly listed on the 1850 Tenn. census for Hickman County. No other Nunleys were in Hickman Co. on that census. I doubt this Lawson H. ties in with your ancestor, but the name is exact, so just maybe Joseph A. named his son Lawson H. after maybe his own brother?(that being the Lawson H. (born 1801 in N.C.). Your Joseph was born in 1801 also, and he was born in N.C. also (as per your record). I did find a Lawson Nunnally born Sept. 16, 1803 (see copy of family Bible enclosed). Possibly, this is the same Lawson that I found in Hickman Co. Tenn. Since the Bible also lists a Leonard Nunley who married Frances Beasley in Chesterfield Co. VA, I would keep an eye peeled for the Lawson Nunnally who lived in that county. I feel sure all of the Nunleys/variants originated in VA, so we should study those records for clues.

Here is what I found in David Sistler's publication in regard to the Lawson H. Nunnelly in Hickman Co. Tenn. on the 1850 census:

Lawson H. Nunnelly, age 49, born in N.C.
Elizabeth, age 26, born in Ireland
John, age 21, no birthplace listed for anyone except the first 2 people.
Samuel, age 19
Mary, age 16
Minerva, age 12
On #451 - 63 in Hickman Co. TN 1850 census.

Please do write me again soon, and I will write you after I make contact with your nephew and his professor.

Sincerely, Fran

Dear Mary:

Thanks for your recent letter and the copies of info which you sent. Yes, you did send me Leonard Nunleys biography previously. By now, we have quite alot of them, don't we? As to the Cherekees listed on the Western census, yes there is a Mary Nunnally, and that is the only one listed according to the record I have compiled by somebody I believe was named Starr.

Now I must tell you the exciting news. I feel almost positive I have your family just about traced, maybe to Edward Nunnellee who was in the Revolutionary War. Just yesterday, I received in the mail the 1830 Tenn. Census concerning all the Nunleys/variants, and the 1840 Arkansas census also covering them both from Mrs. L. Presley. Also a copy of the Nunleys on the 1840 Tenn. census, but from another company. Copies of everything is enclosed.

If you look on the 1830 Tenn. list, you will see that your Joseph A. was living in Hickman Co. that year. He was between 20-30. Then in 1840, he was in Carroll Co. Ark. and was between 30-40. Now the person named Lawson H. was in Hickman Co. also but he was older than Joseph A. so maybe he was an older brother or his father. It is reasonable to assume that Joseph A. named your later Lawson H. after his own brother or his own father. That would certainly explain the mystery wouldn't it? Now ~~also~~ notice that Edward Nunnelley is also on that 1830 Tenn. census, and he was between 70-80 years old. That means he was born in 1770 or 1780. Do you think he was the Revolutionary soldier or was he a son with the same name? I feel sure he was the soldier, because when his widow named Mary applied for a pension, she listed her name as Mary, and that is probably the same Mary who is listed as the head of the household in 1840 (after her husband died no doubt and she being a widow of Edward). See the 1840 Hickman Co. census for that info.

Please read the 2 letters that the Mr. Nunnelee who owned the funeral parlor in Missouri wrote in 1962 to Howard Nunley. Remember, his grandfather Edward surveyed the town of Nunnelly in Hickman Co., Tenn.

I feel so positive that your Nunley mystery is almost solved, that I would be willing to bet money on it. Let me know quickly what you think of this new and startling info. I am very excited about it because I know you will be when you match the records.

As ever,

Fran Koole

P. S. I suggest you forget about researching the Nunleys in Georgia. That clan stemmed from Moses (also in the Revolutionary War) and his brother named John (of course there are many, many Johns). I correspond with those descendants and have copies of Moses' lineage. He is not our ancestor.

I am also enclosing a copy of a letter from Joe Shortal which has very important info. I sent him $5.00 and asked him to xerox his 31 page Nunley booket for me. Am very excited about having found this gentleman.

Dear Fran:

Am enclosing copies of something I found during my lunch hour today. If you have not had contact with this person, looks like you two are talking about the same Nunley family, but definitely! Hope it is a new lead and that she is still living at the same address -

I have gone over much of the material you have sent and find myself very confused at this point. Edward of Hickman Co., Tenn looks good and will try this lead. The most confusing things are the first Lawson N. and the ever rising name Elis (Ellis) Nunley. Wish I knew the history of Nunnelly, Tenn. and would love to have cemetery inscriptions of the local cemetery - may try Hickman Co., for a genealogical society.

Our Lawson Nunneley still has one daughter, Lula Amo Nunneley Barker (born 1895) living in Arkansas, but do not think she can give much information. She recently entered a nursing home(lived on a farm in the hill country and slept with her shotgun). She had no telephone and notified the neighbors -if she needed help- by ringing a bell outside her home. We have not visited her, but Dick's Aunt Mary and Uncle Herb Nunneley of Tulsa, say it is a treat and most unbelieveable to realize that people still live in such a primitive manner in 1979. They say she is a most gracious hostess and bakes the best biscuits on her wood burning stove -

I have gathered the mass of material you have sent concerning this Nunley (and variants) family and really appreciate your sharing - I know some of it will fit into place and will continue to send whatever I find.

I ordered the Revolutionary War records of Edward Nunnelee(widow-Mary) and will copy those and send them on as soon as they are received from GSA.

Must get this in the mail and hope the enclosed will help and is the first time you have seen it -

Anxious to hear if you received the copies of the booklet from Joe Shortal.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard D. Nunneley

(Sunday Night)

Dear Mary:

I had a delightful visit with Howard Nunley and his wife at their home in San Marcos this afternoon. They are going to make a trip back to Warren + Grundy Cos. in early June to do genealogical research on our Nunleys, and they needed to pick my brain as to my trip there last summer before going. They are as excited as 2 kids about their trip, but wonder how well they will be received by their distant kin when they meet them. They had so many questions to ask me that I ended up being there for 5 hours. We had a regular "workshop" meeting at the kitchen table, trading info and records. Howard had been forced to put genealogy on the back burner for about a year (which is a long story that I won't bother to tell you) but he is now free to get back with it, as he is now doing. I will be indebted to Howard forever, for without his help on my line, I never would have known who my early ancestors were. Howard had the proof. It is quite a dramatic story but too long to explain in a letter.

Howard has been in this genealogy, off and one, for over 30 years, so by now he knows about lots of them (the early Nunleys). He will be on the lookout for your Joseph A. and Anderson since I told him about your problem today.

Your last letter of April 17th was so full of exciting news, I hardly know where to start to answer it. You are by far the most gifted letter writer I ever knew. Maybe you should think about writing a novel after Dick, Jr.'s wedding is over next weekend, and you settle down again to normal routine. Thanks for telling me the good news. I hope Dick and Judy will be very, very happy.

Re - Garrett's book, "Obituaries from Tenn. Newspapers" which you ordered from Lucas at too high a price. Yes, I sure do want to borrow it from you at a later date after you have studied it.

When the time comes that you are ready to part with that book for a little while, I wish you would send it to me by Certified Mail and I will later return it to you that route. For your trouble and the expense (Certified Mail + postage) I am enclosing $5.00. As soon as I have finished with the book I will return it by Certified Mail at my expense. This is a cheap bargain for me, if you will go to this trouble for me. Naturally, I am just "dying" to read it.

Re - Cherokee news - haven't heard a word from the genealogist that specializes in those records and rolls, so I hope that is a good sign. If she is no longer available, I believe she would have written by now. Howard told me today that he would pay half of any charges I incur while researching the Cherokee connection. Thomas Nunnerly is his direct line, but not mine as far as I can prove, although we both think Thomas was the father of my Ellis.

As you can see, I am very glad that Howard is active again in our Tenn. research. I need his help badly.

I can never repay you for your efforts as to my Cherokee link. No other friend of mine would spend their lunch hours reading "Starrs Cherokees" just for me. I don't know what the book even looks like, but I have heard about it. I always thought it pertained to the Okla. Indians only. Am I wrong? I am anxious to see the geographical info at the front of his book that you mentioned. Does it go back to Tenn. and NC.?

Re: Tyron Co. NC. You forgot about my connection to Rutherford Co. That is where my John, Thomas and Archibald Nunley/variants lived before migrating to Tenn. Thomas "Nennerly" was still living there in 1801 when he received the pass to go to the Cherokee lands. Maybe he was scouting Tenn. before moving.

I still wonder where Thomas and the Millers went to with that pass, since the article in "Arsearchin News" didn't say. I assume it was Tenn., although I have reason to believe it could have been Alabama.

Your description of Spence's History of Hickman Co (microfilm) was great. I wonder who has the nerve to charge $66.00 for the book itself. Sounds like Emmett Lucas to me. If he sells his books at his price, he should be a millionaire.

The Alexander Nunnelee that lived on - Bend and a tenant on the Davis place in 1815 is a good mystery.

Without looking at the records, I just wonder if Edward (Ned) and Anderson (both RW soldiers) were close kin. Shortal never heard of Edward, as you know.

Your letter of 4/17 was so outstanding and unusual that I want to share it, so tomorrow I am going to send a copy of it to Howard.

He knows Dick's nephew at college, so he of course knows about you through me. He will no doubt find something in your valuable informative letter that will help him put the Nunley pieces together. Howard's not much in the way of looks, but he is a great guy in my book, since he so down to earth and likeable (sincere and trustworthy, etc.).

Write after the wedding is but a beautiful memory, and tell me all about it for I am anxious to hear about it.

Love you,

Fran

Dear Mary:

This will be a short and sloppy letter but better than none at all.

Flora Brantley, the genealogist in Raleigh, NC wrote that no Nunleys or variants appear in old Tyron County and that included the counties that later became part of SC. For the $15 I sent her (3 hours of research) she said I had a credit of $10, so today I wrote and asked her to check Rowan County, Surry County + Orange County back in the 1770's before other counties were carved out of them. I told her about "my" William who was born to a Cherokee mother on the Yadkin River near the Virginia border. I want her to check the early deeds for the counties that the river flowed through near the Virginia + NC boundary. If I can find William's Nunley father on a deed up there, I will have something to go on since he had to be a son or nephew of my Rutherford County Nunleys who all went to Tenn. together.

I had to laugh when I looked through my file labeled "Mary Nunneley" today because it is the fattest file of all. In a year's time, we sure have written up a storm. I usually make copies of my letters to you so I won't repeat myself, but by now the file is too thick to bother with, so I just go ahead and repeat myself without knowing it. Therefore, I am enclosing a Benton Co. cemetary record which I might have sent before. It may help later.

I am so glad you are holdingout on getting your children in the DAR or SAR on the Nunneley line. This will mean so much more to them since they carry that name, rather than going the route of the Hendricks or the Mitchem line. As you wrote, the records required to join will be on file forever. I am with you on this project all the way and will do anything to help you.

Thanks for telling me about

Spence's History. I will see if he also covered Warren + Grundy Counties. It sounds just great from your description of his oral history of Hickman County. I wonder if the free negro named Brister Nunneley on the Hickman County census that I sent you was the one hanged who killed a white Nunneley. Please tell me more.

Your pal,
Fran

P.S. Did I send the enclosed Nunery story by Josie Coon to you before? I think I did, but can't be sure.

Thanks again for your last long letter. It was great.

P.S. Thanks for the goodies on Anderson Nursery.
They will sure help.

My Dear Mary:

I surely did enjoy your latest letter. I felt just as you did when we talked on the phone (as if we did it all the time). No doubt when we meet, we will hug and kiss like long lost relatives. That is the way it happened when I made my "pilgrimage" to Tenn. this past August. There was a deep bond of love and friendship between us already established, before we ever met, due to our many letters and LD phone calls. We naturally loved one another (before we had even met in person) when we kissed and hugged on my arrival.

I am going to send a copy of your last letter to Jack. He will love it. As his wife Joe says, I have opened up a whole new world for him, due to genealogy. He needs this at his age to keep his mind active, so I am always happy to present him with a new challenge.

You are the 2nd person he could keep when I asked for it. That is good.

The first lady's problem was even more urgent than yours. That lady had convinced herself that Jack's G. F. Comodore was "her" Comodore, and had done extensive research on the Warren Co. Nunleys, trying to prove it. I can hardly blame her, since she was working on an "Almyra Caroline Nunley" from Tenn. who ran away from home and married a captain on a steamship in the Miss. River.

Jack had an aunt with the same first name, but she never left Tenn. Jack knew her, and played with her children when he was a boy, and knows for sure she never left the community where all of them, as well as himself, were born.

Who would ever believe that there were 2 Almyra Caroline Nunley's in Tenn. at the same time ??? No wonder you have 2 Lawson Harrison Nunneleys to contend with, even though it is an unusual name. But I still think there is a missing link.

P.S. These were probably the goodies I sent you before and you thanked me for in your last letter, but I can't be sure since I didn't make a note of what I sent, and I am sending them again just in case, and to be sure you have them. Send them to someone else if this is the 2nd set you now have.

Sunday, 1/20/80

Dear Mary:

I certainly did enjoy talking with you on the phone last Sunday. I felt as I had known you for years and anyone listening to us talk would have thought so too. It was very exciting and made the day very special for me.

Let me know when you get the D.C. for your Lawson H. I am anxious to know what the "H" stands for. Perhaps you already know but forgot to tell me. If it stands for Harrison (like Mrs. Martha Cooke's Lawson does) then I would bet money that there is a connection between her Lawson H. and yours. She said in her letter she thought your Joseph A. and her Lawson H. were first cousins, and I do also. And I will even more so believe it if your Lawson's middle name is Harrison. And don't forget, they both came from N.C. Without getting up and looking at my census records to be sure, I believe there was an Anderson on on of the first NC censuses.

If this is true, then perhaps that was Mrs Cooke's ancestor and if so, she would know what County he came from. If by chance your Jos. A.'s father was a brother of her Anderson, then you could start working on the NC records, which I am going to do shortly in regard to my Nunley line.

I am more fortunate than you, for I have already traced my 5 Nunley men who migrated to Warren County (Grundy Co. was carved out of it in 1844) from Rutherford Co., NC CA 1802-09. I have copies of about 10 deeds and 2 marriage bonds concerning them, obtained from the Archives (by mail) in Raleigh, NC. They are very nice and helpful there, more so than the Archive in Nashville.

Now I feel ready to hire a genealogist in Raleigh to do about 5 hours of research for me at the Archives to see what she can find out, other than the deeds + marriage bonds. It won't cost much, and I realize now I should have done this long ago. Surely, she will be able to find something in the cemetary records + church records, etc.

I'm going to use Flora Brantley in Raleigh who sent me the long list of NC marriages, which you have a copy of. I was impressed with her work, and also by the fact that she only charges $5.00 an hour. I'll let you know how it all turns out. I still don't know which of those 5 Nunleys in Rutherford Co. was the father of my G.G.G.G.F Ellis (or Elias) who was probably born there since I know that one of his brothers (Emanuel or Manuel) was, because he said so on the 1850 census. The other brothers, including Ellis, ~~was~~ were dead.

I surely did enjoy your wonderful letter in which you told a beautiful story of the OK Nunneleys, namely Dick + Mary and their outstanding offspring. I hope you made a copy of that long letter to keep for yourself, for it was the kind of letter your future descendants would find invaluable - say 50 or a 100 years from now. If you didn't, let me know, and I will make a copy of it for myself and send the original back to you to keep. You have much to be proud of. Write soon. Love, Fran

I think when one of us finds that missing link, we are going to see that those 2 Lawson Harrison Nunneleys were close relatives of some kind. It just makes sense to me that Joseph A. named his son for one of his own relatives that he admired very much, that being the Lawson H. that your Mrs. Cooke is claiming. And for this reason, I am going to keep looking for all the Anderson Nunleys I can find and just completely forget about trying to tie your Joseph A. in with Edward.

I have a problem that you may be able to help me with since you have daily access to your library. Here is my problem: that little old lady (Gladys Grant of Florida) who writes 8-10 page letters to me saying the same things over and over again in every one of them, once wrote the enclosed page. On that page she rambles and mentions her dead sister Hazel who did research on the Nunleys in the Morman Archives on a daily basis for several years. Gladys wrote on this page that John Nunnery - Morgan Dist - Rutherford Co., N.C. was on the pension roll in back of book Census of 1790. I looked in that book at my library and it was not there. I wrote and asked Gladys to look in Hazel's files and try to find out more about this John, but Gladys forgot to look. I am sure she doesn't have anything anyway. So would you snoop around and see what you can come up with somewhere, someway. This John is MY NUNNERY. My whole clan used the name of Nunnery in N.C. before they migrated to Tenn. When they first got to Warren Co. TN, they used "Nunerly" and then over the years they left the "R" out entirely. I have never been able to find any of my Nunleys on the Rev. War rolls, but apparently Gladys' sister did find it. There were several John Nunleys/variants from VA in that war, but none of them are my John. This is another John altogether as far as I can tell.

Must go now. Thanks again for your lovely letter. Let me know how you and Linda are doing on your Lawson H.

Bye for now,

Fran

Dearest Mary:

Your wonderful letters and the records enclosed, all hit the mailbox the same day. I was beyond myself with exitement and happiness. I truly love you, even though we have not yet met. I already know we are on the same wave length and are more or less like "2 peas in a pod". I would describe us both as a credit to the human race. We both have children who represent the best and whom we are so very proud of; we have loving husbands who keep us on a pedestal, and then we have a good position in the working world and are thus "out of the kitchen"; and have an ~~identity~~ identity of our own. That is where our fun hobby of genealogical hunting fits in. (the icing on our cake).

I was flattered beyond words when I read your 2 last letters. I wish I was the "clearing house" for the Nunleys. I do write to too many people for a working "girl" to adequately handle but I do the best I can to help all of them in due time.

I have never asked, or even hinted, that I expected anything from any of my correspondents as payment for the help I give them in their Nunley/variants search, but you wouldn't believe the number of times I open a letter from them and there is money in them. Sometime it is only 2 $1.00 bills; sometimes $5 or $10, and then a few times it is $20, $50 and one time, a $100 bill. Never checks - always cold cash. It touches me deeply, and so I of course work harder to help them solve their genealogical problem.

Most of this stems from my knowledge of the Nunley, etc. lines in Warren and Grundy Counties, Tenn., so it is understandable. Even so, I appreciate it and am touched by their generosity.

For the reasons stated above, your copies of pages which you sent me from Sherrill's book covering Grundy County's cemetaries are invaluable. I have studied it and it is good. In fact, so good that I now know I just must have the whole book before I am happy.

I am going to write to Sherrill at his winter home address that you gave me and order one. Hopefully, he will have one left to sell. Since I went to Grundy County and am now familiar with the area and its cemetaries, I need his book badly. If he needs any help in writing his history of that county, I can tell him who to contact there, and will write him to that effect. I was there for only 5 days in August, but I sure covered alot of ground while there. An awful lot of my people are buried in Grundy County, and he has most of them listed (but not all). I visited their graves and so I know.

Now, to get to your problem, that being who was the father of your Joseph A.? You have almost convinced me that Edward was not the "guilty" party, and that Anderson may have been the one. I would almost buy that if your ~~Joseph's~~ Lawson's brother had been named Anderson rather than Alexander (1870 census).

After studying your pedigree charts which you just sent, I wondered if you had obtained a copy of your Lawson H. Nunneley's Death Certificate. I am sure you have and was probably the first thing you did. If so, did it state who was his mother? Since he died in 1938, the certificate should plainly state who she was and where she was born.

Please remember to tell me this when you write next time.

I notice that your Lawson was buried in Elk City, OK. This so happens to be the town where my 4th cousin Jack Nunley lives and who I correspond with all the time. Jack is age 87 but acts and writes like he is only 50. He is not kin to your Lawson, but he is the kind of person who would be glad to help you in any way he can since he lives there. His wife is much younger and they are both "nuts" on genealogy, so they would help.

Do you need a picture of your Lawson's tombstone, or any local records? They could sure be of help, so let me know what you need.

Thanks so much for your ancestor chart and your Family Group. I am enclosing my chart which I finally worked up after Joe Shortal asked for it. I had a file full of records but nothing worked up on myself.

I scrounged around to find something new to send you, and the enclosed is all I could come up with. I ordered the English record because I have a cousin who is going to England and Wales on a vacation this fall and wants to look for our Nunley (variants) over there, while there, among other activities.

I will probably think of more to write you soon, but not tonight. Too tired to think right now.

So glad the storm didn't do any more havoc than it did to your home.

Bye for now, Fran

P.S. (11/13/79) next night.

Don't forget you must include the variant spellings of your Nunneley name, (and especially since your E. A. Nunley's marriage license indicates you might be related to my own branch in TN who settled on that spelling) when you start on your new search for Rebecca and Anderson. Perhaps I wrote this before, but it is worthwhile to repeat: My Uncle Wesley Nunley at age 87 ~~in~~ CA 1940, wrote that his Uncle Emanuel (born CA 1800 in NC) always said our real name was Nunnery no matter how they spelled it after they settled in Warren County. I have the original 8 letters that Wesley wrote to a distant Nunley relative seeking family info between 1937-41 and the info in his 8 letters is my most valued treasure of genealogical info pertaining to my Nunleys in Tenn. (nothing that would help you).

I feel sure I am repeating myself in the above paragraph, but I am sure you will forgive me for my short memory.

Have you ever checked on any of your Nunleys at the Morman church branch archive at Tulsa? I'm sure you know how great they are. I have used them here in S. A. and was amazed at the number of contacts I was able to make by writing to people who had sent in their proven pedigree charts in order to have their ancestors bonded (whatever that means). That is how I found my best pen-pals in Warren and Grundy Counties and whom I met and "fell in love" with on my "pilgrimage" this past August.

I am enclosing the original copies of some Nunley info I bought and paid for from the Morman Archives. It took months to get it, and to save you the trouble and expense, I am loaning them to you. After you have studied them, you can send them back to me. I am sure you, or a friend, will know how to use them or to understand them. If not, let me know and I will explain as best I can, since I'm not a Morman. (over)

You can obtain the info from the archives as to who the people were who "bonded" them and then you can correspond with those people working on the line you are working on.

Thanks much for the info you sent me re: Capt. Thomas Lee of Hawkins Co, I had wanted to see that info for a long time since I knew about it. It doesn't help me, but it does pertain to Moses Nunley, and he lived in Warren Co TN from 1812-1814 before moving south.

Dear Mary:

Thanks so very much for sending me a copy of the Colonial Wills of Henrico County, Virginia, and also for the copy of your letter to Joe Shortal. I surely hope he answers your letter. I feel sure he will since he recently answered a letter from another friend of mine to him in regard to her ancestor Walter, one of the sons of old Richard. She will be very interested in the colonial wills which you sent me and so I will now send her a copy of my copy.

I am almost certain that Sara Akin Nunnoly (daughter of James and Sarah Akin) was Richard's wife. I had heard that before somewhere along the line. Hope someday we can prove that she was his wife.

You asked in your letter to Shortal if he thought the will recorded in Henrico County was the same will that Shortal said was proven in Chesterfield County. I am sure that it was since Henrico and Chesterfiled were the same Counties - first called Henrico and later called Chesterfield. I'm positive you knew that and had just forgotten it at the moment.

I am enclosing a copy of an indenture written 20 years after old Richard's will was written, by Richard, Jr. I may have sent this to you several years ago - can't remember. I was looking through my files last night and found this.

We haven't written to one another in such a long while that frankly my conscious has been bothering me. My file with all of your letters and records is still the thickest one in my file cabinet. One good reason that I haven't been working on my Nunley line this past year is because I am all wrapped up in my father's family line and have made miraculous progress, thanks to two of my 3rd and 4th cousins that I accidentally found while doing Nunley research.

Let me hear from you again, soon I hope.

Love you,

Fran

Dearest Mary,

I will mail this today and hope you get it by Saturday, so you will at least have a letter from me this week. I have been meaning to write you every day this week, but got sidetracked.

Thanks for typing the page that couldn't be read that you copied from the book, "War of the Rebellion" (Union & Confederate Armies). I wonder who this Lawson was that lived in Vernon County, Tenn. There are so many of them, I can't figure this out without asking you who is an authority on the Lawson Nunleys by now.

And thanks for a copy of an application to membership in the Daughters of the American Revoluation. No, I never saw one before either. I was amazed to see how many Easleys married Nunleys, and I now understand why you are looking at that family of Easleys so hard. It could very well lead to more Nunleys.

I'm glad you know who Joseph's #2 wife belonged to or at least that you know she came from the Mass. Chapin. Also R.W. Now tell me what in the world the Mass. Chapin is. I have lost your train of thoughts on this.

You said that somebody is going to hit the jackpot one day when they write to me and I will be able to "hand" them a finished Nunley genealogy. Well, that's happened quite a few times already. I just wish somebody would hand me a copy of my finished Nunley line. You and I both "deserve" a break.

I will finish this letter at home and will call this Part I of my letter and my handwritten (scratching) tablet pages will be Part II, just as I did once before. My lunch hour is over, and I am anxious to get these new records in the mail to you today. The Nunley who did this research for me at my request lives in Portsmouth, VA. He went to his library and researched two books on Dinwiddie County, VA that my library can't borrow (restricted books). I had hoped the Nunleys who lived in old Dinwiddie might be my John, Thomas, Jeremiah & William, but my friend's records prove they are not mine, although the do have the same first names as mine do. Mine no doubt came from Chesterfield County, VA and my men are #4.5, $.13 & 4.16 (Shortal's numbers). I drew a small chart for my friend so he wouldn't have to refer to Shortal's book when he read my letter telling him the bad news. He was hoping he had made a great discovery.

I will answer your questions as to M.P. Nunneley's records when I write you at home.

Thanks a million for the records you sent me and for your last wonderful and interesting letter.

Your pal,

Fran

P.S. So you can see how serious I am on my Cherekee-Nunley research, I am enclosing a copy of a letter I wrote to my genealogist in N.C. As to the microfilm mentioned in the article you sent me out of Ansearchin News, I have ordered it from the interloan library service and am waiting for it to get here. The man who wrote that article (Mr. Burns) died in 1974, as per his wife's letter. What a shame his records are gone down the drain and I have to start from scratch.

Sunday, 7/27/80

Dearest Mary:

I understood why you hadn't written lately since I knew you and Dick were going through one of the most hectic summers in your life and had no time for letter writing. Becoming a grandmother for the first time and a mother-in-law for the second time, along with the wedding activities involved, was too much all at one time. And now that your Dad is doing great and you hoped to catch your breath again, your little sister Nancy, only 43, has lung cancer. I surely hope it was caught in time and after the cobalt treatments are finished that she will be like Arthur Godfrey and recover completely. It is good that she works for 3 pathologists, thus getting the best care and treatments possible. I didn't know there is such a body as the Cancer Board in Tulsa (50 doctors). This is splendid. That way, one's life is not in the hands of just one's own doctor.

Mary, I will answer your 3 letters, all sent at once, very soon. You sent so many

I will return the book by Certified Mail in about a week. It takes awhile to read and absorb it and like you, I don't have much time to read books. I can hardly wait for the day when I will retire (I'll be 62 in 16 months) so I can "play" genealogists full time. Only thing bad about retiring is that I will lose my free Xeroxing privileges and will have to pay through the nose for copies of things I want to mail to someone.

I will make Xerox copies of your pictures at work tomorrow, and will then enclose them in this letter to you. Thanks very much for sending them. You have a beautiful family. The beautiful bride is smashing. Tell me about her. Is she a movie star or a model? She is gorgeous. You and Dick look like the perfect couple with three perfect, healthy, and beautiful children. You do the Nunneley name proud.

Turn about is fair play, so here is a picture of me. Keep it, for I have others just like it. Will write more later. Bye for now, Fran (over)

P.S. I wrote to Freda Nunnelley in answer to her June 7th letter to Dick's Uncle Alexander. I think I can help her indirectly on both her Nunnelley and Dotson family search. You see, my GF Adam Nunley (here in Texas) married a Dodson (Dotson - same family). My GM had an aunt who was a professional genealogist and who worked up the Dodson (Dotson) genealogy over a 30 year period of time, that goes back to their original immigrant in the 1600'S. It has never been published and never will be since her only son who inherited her boxes of records doesn't believe in genealogy, although he is an educated man. It work is however in the Tulsa Library's Gen. Dept. and they sent me a copy of it (her typed "booklet") several years ago. She was a resident of Tulsa when she died and had given them a copy. Her name is Inez Biggerstaff - in case you ever need a copy for someone researching the Dodson (Dotson) line.

wonderful articles on the Cherokee problem concerning my "Nennerley" ancestor, that I want to study them more thoroughly before commenting.

Please remember to tell Mrs Ruby Cranor that I thank her deeply for asking you to send the material that she received from the Federal Archives in Ft. Worth, hoping that might be of a help to me.

And, also, thank you dear Mary for the article entitled "American Indian Genealogical Research" published in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly. You don't miss a thing, bless you heart. I think that article will help me lots when I follow thru.

Right now, I'm enjoying your Garrett book immensely. So is husband Tom. Yes, the book is overpriced I believe, but it is a treasure. There are some articles in it that are almost unbelieveable and shocking. And did you notice that Andrew Jackson & Gen. Stonewall Jackson are written about? It is a great piece of history, told as it was happening and printed in the daily (?) newspapers.

Dear Mary:

Congratulations! You didn't lose a son, you just gained a new daughter the easy way. By now, I am sure the wedding and all the excitement are but a very beautiful memory. Now you will soon have another addition to your family when the new grandchild comes into this world in about one more week of time. Be sure to tell me if it is a boy named Bradley or a girl named ?. You didn't say what her name would be. I like double initials (named my dtr. Gail Goodwin), so in this instance, I would name the boy Nathan Nunneley and the boy Nancy Nunneley. By the time the girl gets married in 25 or so years, no doubt the women will all be carrying their maiden names with them and not use the husband's last name entirely. This will be good, since by that time, all of the women will be professionals with their own careers. The old fashion "housewife" will be gone. At least, this is my opinion. Do you agree?

I have had two disappointments lately. See copies of the letter I received from Marilyn Gardner (the genealogist that specializes in Indian rolls and records). She lists the records and film she has and works with, and all of her material cover periods of time much later than the 1802-10 period I am researching, in regard to Thomas Nennerly and son. I had previously ordered the film from the inter-loan library service, and now they tell me that the Nashville Archives wrote and told them to order the film from the National Archives which the library did do. But even after I get it, I am not sure that film will be the one that the gentleman had who wrote the article in the 1950+ Ansearchin News.

The other disappointment I had was the report from Flora Brantley, the genealogist in Raleigh, NC. I had sent her $15.00 for 3 hours work and asked her to research the deed records of all the old counties then in existence in 1774 (when Wm. Nunley was born to a Cherekee mother) that the Yadkin River flowed through near the Virginia boundary line. She came up with a big fat zero, except for the fact that she did find Edward Nunneley in Surry County in the 1786-1789 Court Minutes. Too bad you aren't working on him anymore. It might have helped to know about him.

Thanks a million for the Georgia Nunn-Nunley records. I had already counted the pages you sent me before you wrote last time and sent my filthy Texas $5.00 bill back. It was so old and worn, I hesitated to send it in the first place. Honest, we do have clean money down here so don't get the impression of Texas from the looks of that bill. Ha. Well, as I just said, I had counted the pages and there were 61 of them. I was going to send you $6.00 for cost of the zeroxing that you paid, but after you sent the $5 back, I knew better than to send you $6 more as I want to do. You are just too generous and you must stop being that way. I am a great one to talk, but at least, my zeroxing is free all of the time. But I sure do thank you for everything you have sent me and I have racked my brain as to what I could send you this time. Since you just wrote that if you ever did try to write a book, it would be non-fiction and would about the Civil War, I decided to send you a chapter about my Warren Co. TN men in that war. It is from a book now out of print, but the book is the history "Bible" of that County and I own a copy of it that I wouldn't sell for any amount of money. The other partial chapter is from the same book and page 119 tells about MY Nunleys migrating to Warren County.

I separated the Georgia Nunn-Nunneley genealogical pages you sent me so I could refer to the Nunleys in a hurry when necessary. I don't believe there is any connection between those two family lines, at least not since the two lines migrated to America. Perhaps several hundred years ago there was a connection but I'm not going to look for it. Chasing our line down in the various States here in this country is a full time job without worrying about what happened in England before they left there. The thing I really enjoyed the most was your sketch of the Nunneleys in Spence's History of Hickman County. Those 2 pages listing what you found in the book was very good. I sure would like to know who the father was of those two negro men who were brothers and who both killed white women plus a white man named Jackson B. Nunnely. Apparently they were not brothers to Brister (negro) who seemed to be an honorable person. If that is true, then more than one white Nunneley had a negro woman on the side. I wonder if Edward Nunneley, the RW soldier, physician and father of 10 children was one of the guilty ones.

Enclosed are a few pages from Starr's book. Gladys Grant of Jacksonville, Fla. sent them to me. Her sister Hazel Heppler sent them to her before she died and the notes on the pages were Hazel's notes - not mine. Since it looks like Starr's records pertain to the Cherekees in OK only, I am not going to order the book. I just want that film that I just wrote about on the other page.

You wondered if Edward and Anderson were cousins. I would say yes if I took a guess. You notice that after Anderson was JP in 1813, Edward followed him and was JP in 1817. I'm sure they were not brothers since you know that Anderson's son married Edward's daughter, as per Mrs. Cooke - although she might be wrong, since there was apparently more than one Edward (maybe an Edward, Jr.???). I wonder if Ned Nunnellee who was the father of Washington, Mark and Timothy (your Spence's page 61) is the same man as Edward (Ned) Nunnelee? I don't believe any of those sons were mentioned in the letters written in 1962 to Howard by the man who owned the Nunley Funeral Home in MO, and you know his GGF was the Edward who was in the RW and had 10 children. And to make matters more confusing, there were probably 2 Andersons also.

Let me know if and when you ever get Lucas' book which you paid for in March. I am going to order a book from him soon, but it only costs $10.00 which is unusual. It is the deed records of old Bladen County, NC. Since Flora Brantley couldn't find my Nunleys, I will do it my way, by myself. Bladen used to cover just about all of the NC area I am working on (Yadkin River area).

Lunch hour is long over, so much get back to work. Let me hear about the wedding and the baby that is due just any day.

Your pal,

Fran

P.S. The only Andrewson I know about is the one listed in the Military Land Warrants, Continental Line, #1997. The Heirs of Andrewson Nunnery, Private. 640 acres - 84 months in service. Given Oct. 10, 1785. This was listed in a NC library book, but I'm not sure what State XXXXXX his 640 acres were in. Do you know if there was another man named Anderson, or is it the same man who spelled his name two different ways?

Sat. night - 4/12/80

Dear Pal Mary:

We are having bad weather today so I feel sure you are also. Yesterday was hot but today is cold, rainy and winter again. Tom is watching TV with his ear plugs so I don't have to listen, and I am drinking a Saturday night beer and writing letters like mad. Just when I get caught up, somebody new pops up with a fascinating letter, and off I go again in orbit, trying to help them. I had better not retire soon, because I wouldn't be able to afford the free xeroxing I do off records at work for my new found friends who need help.

I will wait until Monday to mail this, because I want to send you a copy of Shortal's recent answer to my last letter. He has a good lead for you to write to in regard to your Anderson and Joseph on page 32 of his booklet. Hopefully, she can help.

Shortal doesn't know that Major P. Nunneley's wife is also dead. I will write and tell him.

I was surprised to learn that he only heard from Major P. one time. Now I realize that Shortal got everything he had pertaining to ~~Shorts~~ Major P.'s research through Lazelle Long. I have written to Mrs Long in the past a few times. All she will say is that she employed Major P. long time ago to research her Nunley line and he had no trouble doing it because the records regarding her line were easily found at the various County Courthouses. She said she didn't know anything about any of the other Nunleys in Virginia, and that she no longer is interested in the Nunley search. You and I have copies of at least some of her typed notes that I got from Howard Nunley in San Marcos. Enclosed is a copy of Lazell Long's last letter to me. She and Shortal had the same common ancestor: Moses Nunley who is kin to my Nunleys in some way, since he was on the 1812 Warren Co. TN tax list also and before he finally settled in Shelby Co., Ala. Zell and Shortal didn't know that until I sent them the list and proved it.

Your 1830 Ala. census of the Nunleys (page 261) might be a lead on my John Nunley I need. I have had several reasons, just recently popping up, that indicates some of my Nunleys were in Jackson Co., Ala in the 1850-1900 period. You see, Jackson Co. adjoins Marion Co. TN on the Ala.-TN border, and my Nunleys spilled over into Marion Co. Marion Co. adjoins Grundy Co. to the north, and then Grundy shares its northern border with Warren Co.

I never thought I would be jumping into Ala. records, since I ~~a~~ am so hot and heavy on the N C records right now. I sure am learning my geography and history lessons all over again, like a kid in school again.

Don't bother to tell me which Lawson lived in Vernon, Tenn, I re-read your typed page taken from the book "War of Rebellion: Union + Confederate Armies" - so now I know.

Your guess is as good as mine as to Major P. Nunnalley's intentions when he drew that chart (which you sent me). I can't imagine what he was thinking when he stuck in Anderson's name before the generation of John Morris Nunnally (Shortal's #6.1). And I don't find much in Mrs Reddy's notes (who he employed) to help you either.

You asked Mrs Cooke in one of your letters to her, if she knew of a genealogical society in Hickman Co., and if so, you wanted to employ a genealogist there to check records for you. If you look on page 56 of the Genealogical Helper dated July-August 1979, you will notice what that part of Tenn. has to offer in that regard. I happened to notice, because I found out that where "Valley Leaves" was published by looking in that particular magazine, and remembered your request for help. You see, "Valley Leaves" (periodical published by the Tenn. Valley Genealogical Society at Huntsville, Ala.) covers Jackson Co. Ala. If by chance there are any back issues of that booklet in your library, I sure wish you would see if there is anything in them in regard to the Nunleys and also the Cherokees or their lands. I have indications that my Thomas Nennerly and the others who received passes from the Indian (Cherokee) Agent named Jonathan Meigs were for lands in the south (not western Tenn). A book I just read referred to him as the agent for the Southern District, but nothing else. It is the history of old Tyron Co. NC before that county was chopped up into many counties in 1779 and is no longer in ~~ex~~ existence. I belong to the Old Tyron Genealogical Society. There are good stories in their periodical - and only $5.00 per year.

So keep your eye open for anything you notice on Jackson Co. AL, and old Tyron Co. NC. It sure helps to have a buddy who works at a library. HA.

I haven't heard from the inter-library loan service yet, re the Cherokee microfilm, but I did notice on page 22 of the same above mentioned Gen. Helper, under "Special Areas", there is a genealogist named Marilyn Gardner who works on Indian "stuff", such as Cherokee Rolls + Records. I will write her immediately. As ever, Fran

Dear Fran~~k~~:

It's just as well that my letter in April stayed covered. There has been little time to write in the past three months. Mother (thank you for asking) is fine. She spent the month of June with us after her sickness in April. My stay with here at that time was 17 days.

Not let me explain that my Nunnally research was FAR from lasting many years. Except for Moses and his brother, John, the families in Joe's book are foreign to me as Africa. Both left easy to find records in Alabama and Georgia. After those records were acquired, my family was given to Major (for a fee of course) to complete the lineage. Consequently, I have no Virginia deeds, court records, estate settlements, etc., to probe for unknown relationship from one family to another.

Yesterday an effort was made to piece together information you have sent me - that being your chart, letters, 1790 N. C., 1820 & 1830 Warren County census records. Through process of elimination, I had hoped to offer my opinion the most likely man to be your Tennessee ancestor.

A further review revealed conflicting census dates and possibly incomplete census records. I have 1830 Eastern Tennessee census book, but not the 1830 western section; no tax list and no 1820 census except the bits from you. The effort was given up, because there is nothing concrete to base an opinion; and nothing in my files to alter that situation.

Good "hunting" on the trip, and I hope you find heaps of helpful goodies ... wish I WAS GOING TOO!

Sincerely,

Zell

Dear Grandma Mary Metzinger/~~Nunley~~ Nunneley:

Your bubbling, happy letter sounded like a new Mary. It's amazing what a spell our grandchildren casts on us from the minute they are born and we are never the same again, for they are our flesh and blood and almost as dear to us as our own children that we gave birth to. I was so glad when Gail had 4 children, for then I felt as if I had 5 children rather than one. They are all grown now (17 to 24) but they sure do love their "Grammaw".

Bradley Michael Nunneley is a fine name and just perfect for that little fellow, since the name Bradley has played such an important part in your family line since 1818. That's a long time. Maybe your next grandson will be named Nathaniel Nunneley, which is your choice and mine. I just wish we all spelled our last name the same way, so it wouldn't be so confusing. After all, we all came from the same original ancestor and are "kinfolks".

The wedding (your description) sounds like it was really great and wonderful. Please send me a little picture of Dick and Judith Ann, and I will then return it immediately. I just want to see their glowing faces. Also, send (loan) me on of you and Dick (Sr.) and I will return it also. I have no idea what you look like and that is not good. And of course I will then send you a snapshot of me. I'm not young or cute anymore, but at least I'm not one of those colored Nunleys that lived in Hickman County. HA.

Mary, I am very sorry to know about your Dad's heart condition. He must be almost a living saint (not like lots of fathers who aren't so great). My heart goes out to you during this time of worry, and I truly hope he regains his health in full. Let me know how he feels. Let's hope he will soon be able to climb ladders again and cut dead limbs out of the "widow lady's pecan trees," and at 81 years of age.

Sure sorry to hear that Lucas' book holds no secrets as to our Nunleys. So we have another disappointment on our hands. When you are through with it, I sure do want to read it but don't be in a hurry about that.

Now I have something to tell you. I've had another "brainstorm"; and here is what I did:

On page 23 of the Genealogical Helper for July-August 1979, there is an ad listed under "Vital Records" by Gaye Ann Martinez of San Antonio, Texas. She specializes in LDS Branch Library + Morman Archive records. She is a Morman and works (free of charge) every Friday at the local LDS branch here in S.A., so she is an expert in her profession. I went to see her and "employed" her to research my Hunley line in those records. She isn't Spanish - her husband looks like he might be 1/4th at the most. They live in Castle Hills - one of the better suburbs, in a lovely home. She is very sharp and is certainly a genealogist, but not certified yet. I gave her copies of my records and told her my problems. She will order the correct microfilms from SL City and go as far as she can. Then, when she goes to SLC this summer, as she does every summer, she will go further on my line, by researching it in SLC from the original records. She has 3 teenage dtrs and they are now trained to help her, so they know exactly what to look for when they go ~~thru~~ thru row upon row of books looking for a family.

They immediately Xerox anything they see that might help and when they get back home they have boxes of records. She says one hasn't lived until they go out there and see what that Archive has in it.

I really don't care what this costs me, because I would rather find the info I am looking for than to spend the money on a vacation like I did last summer (Tenn. - $500.00 for 8 days). Of course she may not find much, but I'm willing to gamble on her since I trust her. Howard Hunley says he will pay half - maybe he will and maybe he won't. You know how that goes.

Howard and family drove to Tenn. and got there today. Tonight my ears are burning, for I know they are all talking about how wonderful Fran is. Howard will be seeing the same people I visited with last summer, so thanks to me I have paved the way for him to be accepted on his trip. He will for sure have a very wonderful trip and he deserves it. He has been researching our Warren Co. - Grundy Co. Nunley lines for 30 years, and this is his first trip there. Now he will get to see the places he only ~~read~~ read about before in history books and their weekly newspapers. He will get to see Nunley's Cove, the second Garden of Eden. This cove on the Collins River is where all of our Nunleys settled when they migrated to that valley from No. Carolina, around 1809. It is still Nunley land to this day, and every living Nunley calls it home.

Take care and write soon.

Love you, Fran

P.S. Howard said to tell you that he saw another (?) Anderson Nunley on the Land Records roll of film when he was at the branch archives here in Texas. It said:

Oct 5, 1810
Anderson Nunley (spelling ???)
Berg Creek, Territory of Louisiana.

He told me this on the phone, so he didn't spell out the last name.

8/10/80 (Sunday

Dearest Mary:

Here we sit, cozy and happy, knowing that "Big Al" got tired and played out just before hitting South Texas. The storm of the century did its big thing, thankfully before it hit land. So now the 200,000 people who left there, fearing the worst, go back home, perhaps feeling a little silly but also exhausted from their flight. Tom and I sat through Beulah in '67 while living in Corpus, so we understand their fears and flight for safety.

Today we are having a gentle, soaking rainfall. Music to the ears. I'm cooking and writing letters. Tom has his sports to watch on TV, so things are normal here.

Mary, I'm afraid the Cherokee info that you and your friend at the library sent me will not be of help. Another blank wall! Everything mentioned in those Cherokee records are of much later dates than I need. As you know, the article you sent me from "Ansearchin News" pertained to the 1800-05 (?) period of time. Thomas Nennerly was living in Rutherford Co. NC when he got his pass to go to or through Cherokee country which was very probably Tenn. or northern Alabama. The microfilm concerning that period of time is the one I need, but the National Archives will not loan it. And I feel quite sure that the Archive in Ft. Worth does not have it either, since according to the Notes + References at the end of your "Am. Indian Gen. Research", Ft. Worth only carries Cherokee records concerning Arkansas, La., N. M. and Texas. The branch archive that does carry records on Ala., Fla., Ga., Ky., Miss., NC, SC and Tenn. is Region 4 in East Point, Ga. (Read page 21 of those pages you sent me taken from the National Gen. Society Quarterly). I'll bet Mrs Cranor doesn't even know that. I wonder if I should write to the Ga. archive concerning my problem.

Last week, I wrote a good letter to the deceased author's son in regard to his father's microfilms which I would pay to borrow. As you will recall, the widow wrote me that since her husband (author of the "Ansearchin News" article) died, the film is unavailable. Maybe the son (Jr.) will feel differently.

My Morman genealogist here in S.A. is now in SLC on her annual trip to do research for her "clients". She didn't go a thing on my "problems" all summer since she had an operation that sat her back on her heels real hard since she is terribly overweight, but she is over that by now. I'm not expecting a miracle or any "new" news of consequence from her SLC research, but it is worth the gamble. The only thing I haven't covered so far, are church records, because I can't find them. Maybe she can. She is also going to look for my cherokees. I'll let you know how it all turns out when she returns.

Sorry to hear about the carpenter who is using up the money you should be "spending on genealogy", fixing up your home. How old is your charming home anyway? Surely not near old enough to get on the National Historical Register. Tell me all about your home - sounds great.

Don't forget to write me about your beautiful new daughter-in-law who is Cherokee. Her pictures at her wedding were very impressive to say the least. Why isn't she in Hollywood? Also tell me all about the rest of your family. How is your dear sister Nancy feeling? Surely hope the cobalt treatments are not too hard on her. Even so, with her positive outlook on life, they won't get her down. She is a born fighter. I could tell that from your last letter.

Bye for now. Take care, for I love you from afar.

As ever, Fran

P.S. Am sending your book (Obituaries from Tenn. Newspapers) under separate cover by Cert. Mail. It was GREAT. Thanks millions.

Dear Mary:

Your letter of April 11 came today and I will answer it in full soon. Thanks to the "bug" that kept you from work that day, you had time to write a very great letter full of new and good info. I will answer your letter soon. This note is written for the sole purpose of sending you a copy of something I received in the mail from a friend of mine (Larry Boyd who put the current Warren Co. Historical Society's journal together this year, but doesn't pertain to your Nunleys). Larry sends me all kinds of "stuff" such as this quite often since he knows about my Nunley "problem".

The only reason I am sending this to you is because I immediately noticed that the publisher is located at: Easley, So. Carolina. I was shocked. The map shows Easley to be in Pickens County in the extreme NW and touching the NC border. This might open up a whole new can of worms for you and Mrs Cook to look at, and its not too far from Hickman County either.

The only reason I became concerned with So. Carolina as to my own Hurley line is because of the disputed boundary line between the States of NC + SC that wasn't settled for many years. As a result, lots of NC early deeds are kept in the SC records and that is where they are to this day. For that reason, I wanted Flora Brantley to take that into consideration when she went into the records prior to the establishment of Rutherford Co. NC. Old Tryon County covered counties in both states, before the boundary line dispute was finally settled.

Goodnight for now - getting late. Will write again very soon and you do too. (over) Your pal, Fran

P.S. I was surprised when your letter today said the Easleys were from S.C., and on the same day I received the pamphlet from my friend that stated the publishing company was located in Easley, S.C. What a lucky break!!!

You are a dear friend for using your lunch hour to look for my Thomas Nennerly and son. Thanks 10 million times for your help. Maybe the lady I just wrote to for help (Marilyn Gardner) and who specializes in American Indian (Cherokee) records will be able to find my lost men. Copy of that letter enclosed.

Yes, there are 3 other men on that Cherokee list that you sent me out of "Ansearchin News" who do belong to my line. The 3 Millers named Alexander, Anderson & Robert belong to the Miller families who came to Tenn. about the time my Nunleys came. Old Wm. Nunley (1776-1859) marrie Jean Miller, so I guess she was part Cherokee, just like he was (his mother was the Cherokee on the Yadkin River).
Lots of millers on the 1812 Warren Co. Tax List.

Dear Mary,

I haven't heard a word from you since I mailed your book by Lucas back to you in August. Did you get the book? It was sent by Insured Mail, so let me know.

I have a feeling that your sister may not be doing well and that is why you haven't written. Please let me know how she is.

I'm still working on my genealogy as usual. I think I am on a new discovery. I just found out that for sure, at least one of my Nunleys came from Ireland. They may have spelled their name Nunnery over there. It looks like the one I'm looking for named William came over here to America when he was 12 years old. He came with his Uncle Billy Nunley (spelling???) around 1750. This is a family story handed down by my Nunleys in Tenn. but the story never got to me until about a week ago. Someone up there found a letter written 40 years ago that tells this story. The person to whom the letter was written is still living and remembers her great aunt who wrote it when she was very old. Needless to say, I am very excited about this new lead. At the moment, I wonder if my Nunleys are even kin to the first ones who settled in Virginia at least a century before and who came from England and Wales. Maybe I have been spinning my wheels looking for them in Virginia for these past several years, all for nothing. I will let you know how my Irish lead turns out.

As ever,

Re: Cherekee Rolls and Records
Nunley-Nennerly-Nunnary, etc. men who married Cherekee wives,
Tenn. and No. Carolina area

Dear Ms. Gardner:

I just recently learned about a microfilm record concerning the Cherekee Indian Agency in Tennessee, 1801-1804, and I wonder if you are still doing genealogical work in this regard. In looking through my old issue of the Genealogical Helper for July-August 1979, I noticed your name on page 22 which stated that you specialized in Cherekee Rolls and Records. If you can help me at this time, I will gladly reimburse you for your professional services.

I am enclosing a copy of the pages from a very old issue of "Ansearchin News" (1954-59) so that you can understand how I found out about the microfilms on the Indian Agency. The two Nennerly men on page 123 are my Nunerly-Nunley line. They were never known as Nennerly, so I believe this is a misprint. My Nunleys did marry into the Cherekee tribe in North Carolina, and at least one was born to a Cherekee mother on the Yadkin River in that State. Another family listed on this list also are connected to my Nunleys. They are the 3 Millers listed at the bottom of page 122. All of the Millers and 5 Nunley men (some married) migrated to Warren County, Tenn. at about the same time around 1807-09.

Can you find anything on the films or in your records in regard to any of the Nunleys/variants who lived in Rutherford Co., NC; the Yadkin River area; or in the middle part of Tennessee (around Warren County). I do not know any of the wives names nor do I know how many married Cherekee wives.

Also, can you tell me where these men went to or where they were from by looking at this list, or any other list you might have. I have read elsewhere that the Indian Agent Jonathan Meigs was the agent for the Southern District. I wonder what States were in that southern district, or if it would be of help to me to even know that. As you can see, I really do need assistance at this point, and hopefully you will be able to help me.

Sincerely,

Mrs Tom Koole

Mrs. Tom Koole

P.S. To make up for my "short" letter, I am enclosing copies of some interesting items. Thought you and Dick would enjoy them.

Dearest Mary:

For sure, you missed your calling. Anyone who can write a fantastic 6 page letter with the ease that you did last time, should have been an author. Since I don't have your talent, I hope you will overlook my short, scrawny letter to you. You must be a very vivacious person, while I am more or less an introvert (by preference). I'm an extrovert only when I want to be. Real "mixed up kid." I overdo it when I go to see my kiddies in Houston and also when I go on a pilgrimage to Tenn. I really shine when I go to either of those places.

My twins in Houston are getting fat and healthy fast. They were supposed to have been born March 21, but were born Jan 22. Right now, they weigh about 8 lbs. each (3½ lbs at birth). I can hardly wait to see them soon. Sure hope you are as lucky and are blessed with twins also. Sounds like it could easily happen since it runs in your family.

It has already healed my ulcer and I was only 2 weeks along on my month's prescription. That means I have the rest of the pills to hoard and keep for the next bout which is sure to come. I wonder why a person can have only a 30-45 day supply. Frankly, I would go to any extremes to get it, when my ulcer keeps me awake nearly all night long, before going to work the next day. I would rather just go ahead and die than to suffer 24 hours a day. My husband Tom unloaded his gun, just in case I got carried away from my pain. HA

I sure hope Kathleen's Mike, at age 21, is not doomed to a lifetime fighting ulcers for there is nothing worse. Let's just hope he has the jitters about their coming marriage and it is a temporary condition.

I know the kids will be happy in their marriage, so you just quit fretting about their young age. Give them a beautiful wedding and let them go.

Your Judy will be glad if she has twins, if she is anything like my Judy who had our babies. Our Judy was very beautiful but very immature before hers were born, and now just the opposite. Before, it was all fun at U T in Austin (bad grades, sororities, dates, etc.), but now that is all in the past and she has finally grown up and is a joy to be with. All that time she was in college, her childhood sweetheart was patiently waiting for her to grow up, although he is only 23 (she's 21). In the meantime, he stayed in Houston, bought a 3 bedroom all brick home at age 21, and became a machinest specializing in oil field equipment and is now making $30,000 a year. Then last summer, while she was home from college, things got serious and she became pregnant by him. He is a fine person, so hopefully they will have a great future together.

Thanks a million for telling me about your knowledge concerning the "wonder" medicine called Tagemet.

Glad you received a letter from the lady who is a descendant of Benjamin Franklin Nunnally. From your description of her and her letters, she sounds great. Go ahead and give her my name and address. I would like to help her if I can, since she sounds like a nice person.

I have read reviews about Gale's books on the immigration from Europe. Terribly expensive, so they had better be good. I can hardly wait for your library to get its volumes.

No, don't send me the book entitled "Soldiers and Patriates of the Am. Rev. buried in Tenn." No need to read it since Edward is the only Nunley in it.

Let me know how you are doing on Kathleen and Mike's wedding plans, and good luck.

Did I tell you I am going to Tenn. again on my vacation this June? It will be better than the last time since I know everyone up there now.

OVER Write when you have time. Love, Fran

P.S. Sure glad to know that your Dad and sister are doing well. Great news!

Dear Mary:

For the first time in months, I actually feel like writing, without actually forcing myself to write. My health problem will never kill me, but lots of times I wouldn't much care if it did, since the constant pain turns life into a continual drag.

I have had an ulcer for 3 years and it gets worse as I grow older. Sleepless nights was the story of my life until I finally demanded my doctor to give me Tagamont that I had read about in the newspapers. It seems doctors don't want to prescribe that drug, since it is so powerful that it will even mask the pain of cancer, as well as being an ulcer pain killer. I told the doctor if I was suffering from cancer, rather than an ulcer, I would be dead by now, after 3 years of Hell. To make a long story short, I got Tagamont and for 2 days now I feel "alive" again. Slept like a baby last night. Just like other people sleep. Just great while it lasts - that being 30 days only.

At the end of 30 days (or 45 at the very most) my doctor says I will either be cured of my ulcer, or if not - I will have to go to a specialist. They won't let a person stay on it indefinitely. Perhaps it is a habit forming drug - I forgot to ask. It probably is, since I feel like I am on Cloud "9" since I took the first pill. You should see how much work I put out on my job these last 2 days. I seemed to have super-energy - for a change.

Let me know if you know anything about Tagamont. None of my friends ever heard of it, so I am on my own.

While I was "busy" with my ulcer, one of my granddaughters made me a great-grandmother of identical twin girls. A picture of Gramma and her babies are enclosed. Now if I live 20 more years, I will probably be a GGGM at age 81. Won't that be wonderful? I think so.

Judy (my granddaughter) was a junior in college, living it up but making rather poor grades, when she and her childhood sweetheart (they were engaged to be married later) got too "loving". We had a big wedding last summer and the twins were born 2 months prematurely in January. They weighed 4 lbs each when I held them in the picture. They were supposed to have been born in March, rather than January. Everyone is glad they it all turned out this way. In fact, we are thrilled to death. Judy and her Donnie are the perfect couple. He was a "great" catch.

I sure hope Kathleen's love story turns out just as beautiful as did my Judy's. I know you think your baby is too young, but if she has found her one true mate, she shouldn't delay the marriage like my Judy did for 3 years. Donnie wanted to marry her then, but Judy had big ideas about going to college, etc., etc. So he waited for her patiently, until she was ready.

I sure hope your sister Nancy is doing well. You didn't say in your letter of January 6th. Let me know, please.

And I hope your Dad is doing well with his pacemaker. I feel sure he is.

I have given up on the Nunleys (including variants) coming from Ireland. The Morman Archives branch library here in S.A. shows no Nunnerys, Nunleys, etc. in Ireland on their microfish. After much research at the library, etc. I feel sure (as you do) that they all began in England, Ireland or Scotland, but they are all the same lineage.

Did your library get the 3 volumes of Gale Research on immigration that you said was ordered? Was there a Nunley, Nunnery, etc. in it? Your library is really on the ball, thanks to alot of devoted people who understand the importance of genealogy.

I am still working on my Nunley genealogy but getting nowhere fast. I plan to go back to Tenn. for a week's vacation this June to cement friendships that began on my last trip, and to do a lot of "digging" at the Courthouses and the cemetaries, plus lots of visiting.

They say oral history is the best, and in my particular Nunley history line, it will probably be the only way I will ever get it straightened out.

This time, I will stay in the home of 2 sisters (my age). The 3 of us will go in a 4-wheel Jeep way up in the Cumberland Mountains where the very first Nunleys settled when they migrated to Tenn. from N.C. in 1809(?). Later they went down into the coves where the land was fertile. They still call it Nunley's Cove, for it covers about 15 miles along the sides of Collins River and its creeks. Their descendants, now numbering about 120 families as per their phone book, still live in or near that cove. All of this started with only 5 Nunley men in the beginning, around 1809.

It is very exciting for me to be the one most active (acknowledged leader) – genealogist working on our Nunley history, even though I live down here in Texas and they are right up there in the middle of Tenn.

Let me know how you and your 3M copy machine are coming along. Hope it works for you.

I'm sure glad you are keeping your eye open for our Nunleys on the Virginia microfilms that people order thru inter-library loan. If you run into an old man named Jeremiah Nunley, he may be the one I am looking for. Also Sorrell Nunley (Nunnery, etc).

Let me hear from you when you have time to visit with your Texas friend.

Love,
Fran

Dear Mrs. Koole:

Answering your ad in the Genealogical Helper, I have two Nunneley/Nunnelee lines as shown in numbers 30 and 31 of the enclosed chart.

Edward Nunnelee, the father of No. 31 was my first DAR ancestor, born in NC and died in Hickman County, TN. Several years ago I placed a government marker at the cemetery near where he lived and died in Tennessee, in cooperation with the DAR chapter there. He married Mary Ann (Reeves) Sunderland. I can furnish you specific dates and places on this generation if it will be helpful.

No. 30 on the chart was the son of Anderson Nunneley and Martha ?. My AJB was the youngest child, born in 1818 in Hickman County, but the oldest child was born in NC in 1801. I have a statement from an elderly member of the family a number of years ago saying that Anderson married Martha Baldwin in Amelia Courthouse, Virginia. Anderson was listed in the Hickman County census of 1820, but by 1830 he had died and Martha was the administratrix. However, as is the case is so many places, the courthouse burned so the records are far from complete.

I have had much correspondence through the years with descendants of this Anderson Nunneley but we have not been able to determine his father, nor the maiden name of Martha. I was not aware that they had Cherokee connections, but it is entirely possible. My mother told me that a cousin once told her that he saw the grave of his grandfather who was 7 feet tall. Both of these Nunnelee/Nunneley men were his grandfathers, but I don't know which one it was.

If any of the above seems to tie in with your research, I would be more than happy to follow up on it in any way I can. And I would like very much to have whatever information you may have.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth L Dannelly

Dear Lynn:

I received your letter yesterday in regard to the Nunally family. I wish I could help you find your Thomas born about 1806, and married 9/7/1834 in Chesterfield Co. VA to Mary A. Farmer, but I don't believe that I can. I looked in all of my Nunally files for that particular Thomas but had no luck finding one who would have been born about 1806. I am sending you a copy of 2 pages written by a friend of mine (Howard Nunley of Brownwood, TX) several years ago. He was researching HIS Thomas Nunley who was born around 1765 and who settled in Tennessee. You will notice that one Thomas Nunnally was listed in the will of John Nunnally but this Thomas on that will would have had to have been grown when his father wrote the will in 1765 and left his son land and a negro, so this Thomas was not either YOUR Thomas nor Howard's. It is interesting however, that one of John's daughters married a man named Farmer, just as your Thomas did.

I have a very good friend who lives in Bartlesville who is seriously researching her Nunnally line and she has copies of just about every record that I have. I suggest that you contact her in this regard. Her name is Mrs. Richard D. Nunneley (Mary is her given name). Her address is 1550 So. Dewey. I will send her a copy of this letter, along with a copy of your letter, so she won't be surprised when she hears from you.

I would enjoy hearing from you again sometime.

Sincerely, Fran Koole

Dear Mrs. Toole,

I got you name from Jim Tilley. He said that you are also working on the Nunally family. My earliest known ancestor is Thomas b. about 1806. He m. 7 Sept 1834 in Chesterfield Co. VA. Mary A. Farmer. He was a cooper. This is all the information which I have. If you can be of any help please let me know. I have other information that I'll be glad to share.

Sincerely,

Lynn Collis

P.S. most of the information which I have is on very early Chesterfield Co. Nunnallys. So far I haven't been able to tie in.

Dear Mary,

Elizabeth Dannelly has written a joint letter to the two of us and has asked me to zerox it and send it on to you since the nearest zerox to her is 18 miles away in Marshall. So here is your copy, along with copies of her "goodies", plus a postcard for each of us of her home in Jefferson. Jefferson is north of Longview and near the LA border. I have heard that it is a very historical and old town. I would surely like to visit there sometime and meet Elizabeth. I was impressed that she has invited both of us to come and bring our husbands. My husband says he would love to go. If it was closer we would for sure go.

Bye for now.

Love,

Fran

I have now found my direct ancestors ELIAS and MARGARET NUNLEY on the 1860 Jackson Co. Ala. census. They were the parents of my GGGF ADAM NUNLEY who was born in 1825 in Tenn. Since Adam said on the 1880 census that his mother was born in Virginia, I feel sure Margaret was his mother. She might have been a Fultz before her marriage.

JOHN NUNLEY, also listed on this census, was Adam's younger brother. There was another brother in between John and Adam who was named Williford.

I think perhaps Elias, along with his brothers Emanuel, Jeremiah and Jesse, were sons of old Jermemiah (age 76 on the Grundy Co. Tenn. census in 1850), by a first marriage if in fact there was a first marriage. Jeremiah married Janey Davis in 1809 at age 35 in Rutherford Co. No. Carolina, which would be quite old to have been his first marriage.

John wanted his letter shown to brother, Lawson, and to Jackson, Hornbeak, Foster and Grinder and all of their families as she makes the rounds among them. He said he had just returned from New Orleans and did not buy any negroes "as the season was well advanced and they were worth $550 which I think high. They must still sell lower in Arkansas in the course of this year. I carried home 50 eagles of Benton's gold drops and one box of silver containing $1000 which is ready for good bargains." Dear Mrs. Koole:

I have before me your letter of 10 October 1978, which I find most interesting.

In checking our files, I find no copy of a response to you, although all letters are answered.

May I say, the research of the Nunnally family connected to the Jackson Purchase Clan was of North Carolina - Virginia origin. I do know others were in South Carolina at an early date. As far as the Chickasaws are concerned the reference in our book to this great tribe was of the purchase by the United States from them in 1818, and of the location into which the four families reviewed settled soon afterward.

We sell no "part" of a book. However, if you are still interested, our book is available at $35.00 post and tax paid.

The earliest Nunnally we record is Obediah who was a Revolutionary War Veteran, b ca 1756 in Virginia, d 1822 Caswell County, North Carolina, buried in family cemetery between Ruffin and Pelham, North Carolina, near Rockingham County line but in CasWell County.

Sincerely,

Mary M. Beadles

Mary M. Beadles, C.G.

Mary, I received this letter in Jan. 1980 in answer to a letter I wrote in 1978. The book called something like "Jackson Purchase Clan, was advertised in a Gen. Helper. I wrote to the author and asked which Nunleys were mentioned in the book and offered to pay for copies of pages about them. Said I was interested in the Indian connection to my Nunleys. Now the author writes no, I will have to buy the whole book, which I won't do. I wonder if it tells anything about your Obediah that might be kin to your Anderson. Maybe you can get the book through inter-lib. service, if you think it would help.

Dear Mary:

It was so good of to write me about our Nunnally families. When I put my book together I was trying to tie in all my own family and a few more lines I had run across. Consequently, I did not have all the Nunnallys connected. Since I believe that all of this name (however spelled) are all descended from Richard Nunnally of Henrico Co., Va. there must be some way that all can be connected and I hope that some day someone will do it. I hear from lots of Nunnallys since I put the book together and I am sorry to say that I can't connect some of them. I have tied a few in rather easily, however.

There are at least four descendants of Anderson Nunnally that I have heard from. And you are one of them. One of the Anderson descendants is Mrs. Louise F. Wilcox 1301 South Reno St. El Reno, OK 73036. Perhaps you know her even though she seems to be descended from a different Anderson Nunnally. Her Anderson was born in Prince Edward Co., Va. in 1782 and died in Pulaski Co., KY in 1859. I have a Peter Nunnally No. 4.19 who moved to Prince Edward Co. in 1782 and is probably the progenitor of all the Prince Edward Co. Nunnallys.

The other three people descended from the other Anderson are, besides yourself, Elizabeth Dannelly of Jefferson, Texas and Martha Cooke of Brentwood, TN. Martha Cooke sent me a list of children of Anderson Nunnally who married Martha Baldwin and while the list includes her ancestor Lawson Harrison Nunnally and Elizabeth Dannelly's ancestor Andrew J. B. Nunnally, her list does not include your Joseph A. Nunneley. Have you seen her list? Is this an oversight or what? Your Joseph looks promising in the search for Anderson Nunnally's father. The best bet appears to be Joseph Nunnally, Jr No. 4.4 in my book who was also father of Obediah Nunnally. Since Obediah and Anderson married sisters and both moved to NC after marriage this gives us two reasons for their being brothers!

It is strange that we have Lawson Harrison Nunnally in two generations, one born 1801 and the other in 1855. It is possible that your Joseph could have named a son after his brother. Now, where did the name Lawson come from? I have a bible record that gives a Lawson Nunnally born 1803 as son of Leonard Nunnally b 1769, both in Chesterfield Co., VA. This makes Leonard the same generation as your Anderson. Perhaps there was a Lawson Harrison living near the family or perhaps one of the females in the line was a daughter of such a man.

As far as Richard Nunnally is concerned you are correct in your thoughts that Sarah Akin was the wife of Richard. When I received your letter I thought you had something I hadn't seen before but when I looked through my records I had the same person. The Nunnallys lived in the area of Henrico Co. that later became Chesterfield. Chesterfield became a separate county in 1746 after Richard's will was probated. I don't think there were any Nunnallys in the present Henrico Co. until after 1850.

Nunnallys were in Dinwiddie and Prince George Counties early and these counties adjoined present day Chesterfield Co. Later the Nunnallys moved into Amelia, and Prince Edward. My ancestor moved to Cumberland and Powhatan Cos. My ancestor Moses Nunnally received a land grant in Oglethorpe Co., Ga. in 1805 and his son Aaron was born there in 1809 but by 18i4 he was in Warren Co., Tenn. where he witnessed a deed for another Nunnally. He must have been related to these Nunnallys or he would not have known they were there. Later he moved down to Shelby Co., Ala. where my grandmother was born. After the Civil War most of my Nunnallys moved to Fannin Co., Texas where my mother married my father. There are other Nunnally descendants in that area now, some in Dallas and some in Oklahoma.

I should have said above that I made a mistake when I wrote in my book that Richard Nunnally's will was in Chesterfield Co. when it was actually in Henrico. I was thinking about the area and not about the actual County at the time.

I have not updated my genealogy. I have lots of corrections and additions as well as lots of unanswered lines. Maybe someone will write another book when all the connections are made. I will be glad to turn over all I have to anyone who wants to do it over.

I can't help but spell Nunnally like this since that is the way my grandmother spelled it. However, in the records I find my Moses spelled Nunly and Nunely. It is all phonetically spelling by the Clerks of Court. Some names have but one sound. Unfortunately, Nunnally can be spelled many ways, even Nunnerly.

As far as my book is concerned I have an error on page 5 about Daniel. I have learned from correpondents that he married Susanna Trent and not Susanna Puckett. Susanna Trent was the wife of William Womack. Daniel Nunnally was administrator of estate of Abraham Puckett and that is why I thought Susanna' name was Puckett. Another thing about Daniel. I found a notice about his death in April 1788 stating he was age 105 when he died. I had also seen an inventory of his estate dated 14 May 1777. I can't explain the discrepancy but so far no one has claimed to be a descandant.

Enough for now. Let me know if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Joe

Dear Mary:

Thanks for the letter of 24 Jan with all the information. I will give you my thoughts on your questions.

3.5 John Nunnally--I, too, have a copy of this will and knew that John was left one shilling presumably because he had been given land in 1758. I don't know why I left this out of my book. This John was 4.5.

4.6 Daughter-I didn't give this daughter's husband here since I continued her story later as indicated by the + mark.

4.14 Mary. The same comment holds here. I waited until I described the family before I named any spouses, etc.

Regarding your data from Charles City Co. I neglected to look into this county. Prior to 1703 all records from Prince George Co. would have been in Charles City Co. Richard Nunnally's son Richard, Jr. was in Chesterfield Co. while his brother Thomas (2.2) was in Prince George Co., which before 1703 was in Charles City Co. It seems quite likely that you are right in assigning Daniel and Walter as brothers of Richard, Jr. making them Nos. 2.3 and 2.4. I will have to look into this some more.

Regarding Sarah Jackson who produced a will of William Jackson in court in 1739 in Henrico Co., it is true that my book shows a daughter of John Nunnally named Sarah marrying William Jackson. I now see in my basic records that I have changed this. I now show the widow of Richard Nunnally, Jr. Sarah Akin as marrying William Jackson as her second husband. This fits the dates better as you point out but at the moment I can't find the reference that caused me to make William Jackson the husband of Richard, Jr.'s widow.

As you point out the wife of Richard Nunnally, Jr. seems to be Sarah Akin, daughter of James Akin and wife Sarah. Rather I should say "surely is" as you do!

5.5 Obediah Nunnally. I have someone's typewritten copy of Obediah's will and on the margin someone had written the marriage date of 10 Feb 1785. The Amelia Co. marriage record showing 26 Feb 1784 could be correct, instead.

Before I go any farther with Obediah I see a note from "English Duplicates of Lost Virginia Deeds" that a Walter Nunnaley owned 299 acres in Prince George Co. in 1704. I don't know why it wasn't shown on the Quit Rent Roll. I saw only Richard there in 1704 with 70 acres in Henrico Co. This Walter must be No. 2.4 above.

Now back to Obediah. I will add James S. as son of Obediah. I now see I have a James added in my basic records. So, we are in agreement there.

I can't find my original records on William H. Nunnally but I do see where he married Nancy Price 6 May 1823. If this is true then Nancy is the mother of William H.'s children since Martha was born in 1825 and Dandridge in 1824. Perhaps Ann Smith was his first wife with no children.

Elizabeth Nunnally seems to have married Henry Betts first then Henry Howard. I didn't have this when I compiled the book.

Now for the father of your Anderson Nunnally. I feel syre that he is a brother of Obediah. They married sisters. Further I have an idea that their mother was Frances Anderson wife of Joseph Nunnally, Jr. It would be a good idea to look up Andersons in Amelia Co. and possibly in Prince George and Chesterfield. Sometimes a daughter is named in a will by her married name and this name may not be indexed and overlooked.

The John Nunnally who married Mary Morris named his son Anderson and the name showed up in his descendants also.

I see some notes made for Major P. Nunnally by Ann Waller Reddy regarding Anderson Nunnally of Amelia. First,Anderson Nunnally was on the tax rolls in 1787. Also shown was John in 1786 and Obediah in 1782-1785. Then in an analysis Miss Reddy stated:"I attempted to find a connection with the Anderson family of Amelia Co. but at this time have not found anything other than their being neighbors. It is significant that the Anderson name was carried out." So there is still hope.

Ephraim Nunnally of Prince Edward Co. named a son Anderson. This Anderson was born around 1812. Louise Wilcox has an ancestor named Anderson Nunnally who was born in 1782 in Prince Edward Co. We can't find his father but he must be related, possibly a brother of Ephraim whose father was Peter Nunnally, my No. 5.26.

Thanks again for the information and best of luck in your searches.

Sincerely,

Joe

Dear Mr. Shortal:

I have recently found an item of interest in the Colonial wills of Henrico County, Virginia, by Benjamin Weisiger. One James Akin, Sr., in his will of 1713 named a daughter, Sarah Nunnoly as heir. His wife, Sarah Akin, in 1714, also named her daughter, Sarah Nunnoly as heir, along with a grandson, Daniel Nunnoly.

Mr. Weisiger, in his book, also, lists the will of Richard Nunaley (1722, recorded 1727) which lists a wife named Sarah and a son Daniel.

In your Nunnally genealogy of 1978, you mention a Richard Nunnally, Jr. (2.1, page 5) with the same named children as the will recorded in Henrico County, but your genealogy shows the will proven in Chesterfield County, VA. Do you think this could be the same Richard Nunnally? The Richard Nunnally of Henrico had a wife Sarah and a son Daniel. Coincidence, or the same family?

I am working on my husband's line, which is the elusive Anderson Nunneley (and variants) who married Martha Baldwin, daughter of William and Elizabeth Baldwin of Amelia (later Nottoway) County, Virginia. Another daughter of William and Elizabeth Baldwin married Obediah Nunnally (5.5, page 8 in your Nunnally genealogy). Both of the above daughters of William and Elizabeth Baldwin are mentioned in various settlement of estate papers recently found by Mrs. Martha Cooke of Brentwood, TN, in her research. One lists Marthey Nunnely, of Hickman Co., Tennessee. Mrs. Cooke kindly sent me copies of her recent research this summer in Nottoway County.

My husband line is:

Anderson Nunneley (ca 1765-ca 1830) m Martha Baldwin (d after 1843)
Joseph A. Nunneley (ca 1801 -after 1855) m #2, Clarissa Moore Maxwell
Lawson Harrison Nunneley (1855-1938) m #1 Malinda Caroline Carter
Elbert Alexander Nunneley (1873-1958) m Senie Jane McCollough
Virgil Windfield Nunneley (1911-1958) m Ola Grace Henderson
Richard Dean Nunneley (1931-) m Mary Ruth Metzinger

I am enclosing copies of the pages of Mr. Weisiger's Henrico County wills and would, if time permits, appreciate comments on the above speculation that Sarah Akin was the wife of Richard Nunnaly. I would, also, wonder if you might hazard a guess as to the parentage of Anderson Nunneley of Hickman County, TN, who married Martha Baldwin, the sister-in-law of Obediah Nunnally. Your thoughts might help those of us who are earnestly working on this line.

I would like to know if you have updated the Nunnally genealogy and would very much like to purchase a later publication if you have one. I am enclosing an SASE for you to correspond.

Have enjoyed the Nunnally genealogy which was shared by Fran Koole of Schertz, TX. Fran has been wonderful to share all Nunneley material for those of us doing research on this name.

Thank you for your interest and assistance.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Fran:

Before I answer your letter of 28 March I noticed several things that tie my Nunnally to Nunley and Nunnery. While our line mostly used the spelling Nunnally and that was what my grandmother used, I used it in my book in all cases, even though in the records other spellings were used. I now notice that my Moses spelled his name Nunley in 1820 census in Shelby Co., Ala. It was Nunnely in 1816 in Monroe Co., Ala. Nunely in 1830 in Shelby and also Nunely in 1840. Moses' daughter-in-law was spelled Nunley in Shelby in 1850. (I'm sorry, that was Moses' widow) His son Aaron was also Nunley in 1850 but Nunnally in 1860. In letters written by Aaron in 1859 or so he spelled it Nunnally.(So, maybe Aaron was the first to use Nunnally.) No, back in Va. in Court Records Archelaus and his sons used Nunnally although a brother of Archelaus, Thomas used Nunnerly in one deed. Anyway Nunley has to be from the family I call Nunnally in my book.

About Major P. Nunnally of Pine Bluff, Ark. My only letter from him was 21 Aug 1973. Mrs. Long was in touch with him in 1968. In fact he did some research for her. His address was 3612 Poplar St. Pine Bluff, Ark. 71601 and I assume that his widow is still there although I have seen nothing in the Helper to indicate that she was active in genealogy. Mrs. Long sent me lots of material on Nunnally and Nunley, some of which came from Major Nunnally. I assume that you have most of this. You could write to her (Mrs. Major P. Nunnally) about any specific question and see what she says.

As far as records of North Carolina go, why don't you try the Mormon library near you?

I recently received a letter from Mrs. Joe T. Cooke of Brentwood, Tenn. who asked me also about Anderson Nunnally. She said she had heard from Mrs. Dick Nunneley who had responded to a query she had put in Virginia Genealogist.(Maybe I should keep up with this publication.) About your question as to whether Joseph Nunnally No. 3.4 could have a son named Anderson, it is certainly possible. You will note that Joseph Jr. 4.4 had a grandson 6.2 named Anderson by his father John 5.4. I picked up this scant data from Mrs. Willhoite 10.1 whose address is on page 32. I didn't pursue any court records on Joseph or Joseph, Jr. Anything you find in this regard would be appreciated to add to my records, however.

Don't give up on connecting with our Virginia Nunnallys. It will be found some day.

Sincerely,

Joe

Dear Fran:

Your letter of May 2nd with all the new material came while I was on a trip to Texas. I left May 7th and didn't get back home until Jume 4th. I visited my sisters in Houston, 9.80 and 9.78, also Ida Pearle Oberg 9.99. I also saw James Nunnally 9.13 while there. The other reason I went to Texas was to attend my 50th Reunion of my Class at Texas A & M. After I got home I had many things to do and never got around to answering your letter. There was so much in it that I knew it would take time. Then you wrote again July 13th and my daughter was here with her family for a week. Finally I sat down to look over what you had sent.

First, I want to say that you can copy any or all of my Nunnally Genealogy. I would like it to have as wide distribution as possible. I sent copies to Library of Congress, Virginia State Library, Georgia Archives, Alabama Archives, Clayton Library in Houston and the local library here in Hampton.

In trying to help you I find that you haven't sent me your line as you know it now. You sent a ancestor chart starting with Adam Nunnally 1825-1885 and his father Ellis Nunnally b ca 1802. You satted that Adam was your great grandfather. These dates indicate that Adam was a 7 by my book and Ellis was a 6. My Aaron 6.18 was born in 1809 in Oglethorpe Co., Ga. and apparently was with his father Moses when he was in Warren Co., Tenn. in 1812. These dates also make you an 11 born ca 1930. I wish you would send me the dates on yourself and all direct line to Adam.

Now, as to your problem, which is, who was the father of Ellis Nunley? With Ellis born ca 1802 his father would have been born ca 1770, the same generation as my Moses and, as you state, probably a first cousin. Lets assume that Ellis' father was named Jeremiah. Your chart atates that Ellis had a brother named Jeremiah so he could have been Jr. Jeremiah, Sr., Ellis' father, would be a 5. Now, his father would be a 4. The 4 generation was born ca 1740 and these include my Archelaus 4.12, his brother John 4.5, brother Thomas 4.13 and brother Jeremiah 4.16. You say you can account for the children of Thomas and Jeremiah and I can account for Archelaus so John is the only one left. (Before I forget it I wish you would send me the names and dates on the children of Thomas and Jeremiah.) I have a census of Warren Co., Tenn. for 1830 that shows a John Nunley age 70-80. This makes him born between 1750 and 1760, probably nearer 1750. In their father's will of 1765, John Nunnally 3.5 named his son John first and left him one shilling as he did to three daughters or their husbands or heirs. He left Thomas and Jeremiah land yet he called his son Jeremiah his younger son. One would think that John was his oldest son, being a Jr. and named first in the will. He gave Archelaus 150 acres that he now lives upon. Also Archelaus' son Moses was born in 1763 so Archelaus had to be at least 25 in 1765 and born ca 1740. If John, Jr. was the oldest he would have been born ~~ca~~ before Archelaus and would have been around 90 in 1830 instead of 70-80. Maybe he forgot. Do you have any other census records that might show the birth date of John, Jr.?

Back to lour letter. You state that your Jeremiah was born 1774 in Va. This agrees with my above supposition that the father of Ellis was Jeremiah born ca 1770. Since John, 4.5 was born ca 1740 he could be the father of Jeremiah, named for his brother 4.16. As to your statement that John 4.5, Thomas 4.13 and Jeremiah 4.16 were not sons of John 3.5, what you mean is that your John, Thomas and Jeremiah were not the ones in my book. The so-called missing generation appears to be John 4.5 as you said earlier and his sons are the ones you think of as "yours". Where do your John, Thomas and Jeremiah fit in? Have you established any relationship there? Or are you still looking for their relationship? All you mention who were born ca 1770 would be in generation 5, not the 4 of the children of John 3.5. The Jeremiah Nunly who married Jane Davis in N. C. in 1809 could be the son of John 4.5 and father of your Ellis.

Now, about lour letter to Helen Davis. Obviously the Moses Nunley mentioned with an Indian ancestor is not my Moses 5.10. The fact that there was another Moses in Tenn. just indicates further that there was a relationship between your Nunleys and my Moses line. My second Moses was the son of Moses' brother John 5.9. This Moses is 6.10. I haven't written to Herbert Nunnally. Since he is in Tenn. perhaps you should write. You are more apt to find his line than I. Perhaps you can look him up when you are there in August!

After I got hom from Texas I noticed that one of the menn there (at A&M reunion) was from Nunnelly, Tenn. His name is E. H. Wilder. I don't suppose that he was a Nunnally but you never know.

Thats all for now. Not quite. Thanks for the material on Obediah Nunnally and the DAR lineage from William Womack Nunnally. There were certainly a lot of Nunnallys in the revolution. Don't forget to send me your ancestry as you have it and the children of Thomas and Jeremiah as requested above. Good luck!

Sincerely,

Joe

Dear Fran:

I am glad that you liked my Nunnally book. I enjoyed putting it together and I am glad of the response to it. Don't feel that you owe me anything else on it, however, and I am returning your $10 although I appreciate your thought. I hope you will use it to tie your Nunleys into the Nunnally line. I am confident that they are from the same Richard Nunnally. Nunnally just happened to be the way the Virginia people chose to spell their name. In England it was spelled many ways but not exactly Nunnally.

You said I should have the book printed. I did have 50 copies printed but I got rid of them before all the requests came in. I have turned down requests for 8 copies. I had in mind that after the first publication I would receive many corrections and additions and that I would make them and then have more copies printed. I haven't received many corrections but I have made all I have. The copy I sent you has all the corrections. They weren't serious enough to warrant sending out an errata sheet to all people. Maybe after you tie your line in we will have enough additional material to warrant a new publication. I have sent copies to the Archives in Atlanta and Montgomery. Also to Library of Congress, Virginia State Library and Houston Clayton Library. So far I haven't received any requests from "strangers" yet. I assume that I will eventually.

I looked over your chart. It is essentially correct although I find a few errors. You show James Franklin 5.21 and Walter 5.25 as sons of Walter 3.6. There was another generation between. Walter had a son William Womack 4.17 who had the sons James Franklin and Walter. James Franklin also is number 5.22. You also left out Aaron Ferguson 6.15 as a son of John 5.9.

(He went to N.C. first)

The men numbered 5 (fifth generation) were the ones mostly in the Revolution. The migration out of Virginia seemed to take place after the Revolution and involved mostly these men. One exception was William Womack Nunnally 4.17 who ended up in Elbert Co., Ga. Among the 5th generation men who moved out were: Obediah 5.5 who ↓ probably moved to Ohio; John 5.9 who moved to Georgia; Moses 5.10 who moved to Alabama via Ga. and Tenn.; Also in sixth generation Archelaus 6.7 moved to N. C. Most of the descendants of Thomas 2.2 appeared to have stayed in Dinwiddie Co., Va. or nearby. I think your line could very well have come from Thomas 4.13 or Jeremiah 4.16. I hope you find it.

You mentioned Moses Nunnally in Warren Co., Tenn. in 1812 for a short while. We think this is our Moses 5.10 since he mentioned that he moved from Ga. where Aaron was born in 1809 to Tenn. and then to Ala. He was in Monroe Co. Ala. 1816 We didn't know why he moved to Tenn. from Ga. We figure he moved to Ga. in the first place because his brother John 5.9 had gone there. Perhaps, as you stated, he had cousins in Warren Co., Tenn. when he went there. They would be sons of Thomas or Jeremiah, above.

Is John F. Nunnelee, Jr. still active? Have you written to him? Also how about Mrs. Josie Nunnary Coon, whose letter you also sent me? Have you been in touch with her? I would like to have other Nunnally Ancestor Charts. Good luck.

Sincerely, Joe

Hello to all -

Making this a joint letter to those of us who use and enjoy Joe Shortal's Nunnally genealogy. I am enclosing some items to add and/or correct and some puzzlers.

3.5 John Nunnally

4.5 John, Jr. not named in his fathers will...yes he is. He is the first named heir and received one shilling (Fran, we have a copy of this will and codicil)

4.6 Daughter - married Elam Farmer. John's will names Elam, Elam, Jr. AND Martha Farmer, a granddaughter. ADD Martha on page 6

4.14 Mary (page 6) add married John Ellis on this page. Page 7 corrects the omission and lists the entire family

Now to the puzzlers:

From, Charles City County, Virginia - Court Orders, 1687-1695 by Benjamin Weisiger, III

Court of 4 Feb 1688

Joint administration granted WALTER and RICHARD NUNNELLY and JON. BOWMAN who marryed the widow of DAN. NUNNELLY, dec'd on said dec'd's estate

(this can't be Daniel 3.3 - who died almost 100 years later in Apr 1788)

Court of 5 Jan 1690

Order for attachment on return of non est inventus granted Capt. CHA. GOODRICH agst estate of WALTER NUNNELLY for 533 lbs tobo.

At a Court Holden at Westopher 3rd Day Feb 1690

Order for attachment continued to Capt. CHAS GOODRICH agst estate of WATT. NUNNELLY for 533 lbs tobo.

Court of 3 March 1690

Order of attachment confirmed to Capt. CHA. GOODRICH against WALTER NUNNELLY for 533 lbs tobacco

(this can't be Walter 3.6 - will pro May 1784/Chesterfield Co.)

It appears that the above DANIEL and WALTER NUNNELLY were both deceased before 2.1 Richard Nunnally, Jr. had a will proven in 1727, so they must not have been sons, but brothers?? to Richard Nunnally, Jr. This, with a bit more work, might add two additional sons to Richard 1.1 (Richard, Jr. may well have named his proven sons, Daniel and Walter after his brothers).

Puzzlers, continued -

September Court 1739

Sarah Jackson produced the will of William Jackson, proved by oath of John Blankenship and William Turner, two witnesses; JOHN NUNNALLY and John Blankenship, sec.

(John 3.5 Nunnally (Shortal, page 5) had a daughter Sarah who married William Jackson. If John 3.5 was born ca 1702 could he have had a widowed dau at about age 37 in 1739? He must have been born earlier than 1702. Also, a John Blankenship was a witness to the will of Richard Nunnally in 1727.

From, Henrico Co., VA - Wills Addenda by Benjamin Weisiger II

Court 6 March 1720

Will of John Harwood presented by Catherine Harwood, his executrix, and proved by John Russell and James Aken; JOHN NUNNALLY, security.

(John 3.5 Nunnally born ca 1702, again a pretty early date for this John - the James Aken may be son of James Akin, Sr. and Sarah Akin whose wills are recorded in Henrico in 1713 and 1714. They named among their children, James, Jr. and Sarah Nunnoly (Sarah Akin in 1714 also listed a grandson, Daniel Nunnoly). Sarah Akin Nunnoly is surely the wife of Richard 2.1

Married #2 - Mabel Rogers (one child)

All of the children of Lawson Harrison Nunneley (son of Joseph A. Nunneley) are deceased but one daughter, Lula Amo Nunneley Barker, born 10 May 1895. She resides in a nursing home in Arkansas. Lula was the ninth child of Lawson's first marriage to Malinda Caroline Carter which ended in divorce.

I have some additional tax lists on Joseph A. Nunneley in Hickman Co. TN (1836) and many years in ARK. On the 1850 census of Franklin Co. ARK, Joseph A. Nunley was age 49 and born in North Carolina.

Fran - Am enclosing an ad and order blank for a new book by Charles Sherrill that I received in the mail yesterday on Grundy County. I have decided not to buy it since I have some Hickman County books on order now from Mrs. Lynn in Centerville. You may already have heard from him or your Tennessee cousins about the book. Hope you are well and finding interesting items in your research on the other side of your family. Don't stray too far from this Nunley (and variants) work!

Martha and Elizabeth - Have purchased three new books on Hickman County and as above, a couple more on order. Have found some pretty good items on what appears to be the children of Anderson and Martha which will send later. As usual with my genealogy, I find myself straying and becoming interested in the history of an area. The Grinder's Stand death of Meriwether Lewis (Lewis and Clark) in Hickman Co. in 1809 has given me some hours of "extra" reading since I suspect the Nunneley's girls married some of these Grinder (Criner) men. I still can't decide if poor Meriwether did commit suicide or Mrs. Robert Criner did him in or a bad companion killed him for his money. No one else seems able to find an answer to such an old question.

Now to all - forgive me for taking a lazy way to get the puzzler questions to everyone, but with working at the library, trips to help with Dad on weekends and fighting a very bad winter this year, know you will understand.

Please do look over the very early Nunneley material and when time is available, tell me who these people might be. They are much earlier than I have seen before was very excited the day a friend came dashing in the library with the Xerox copies from her private library. She just happened to notice a Nunneley in one of the books and decided to spend her time looking up in all of the early ones she has.

Let me hear when you have time and my best wishes for a good 1984.

Mary

Dear Joe,

Thank you much for your informative letter concerning the Nunnally, and variants, families.

I correspond with Elizabeth Dannelly and Martha Cooke and find them most kind to share any information they find on Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunnally. I do not know Mrs. Louise F. Wilcox of El Reno, OK. I feel that her Anderson Nunnally is a different branch and may be the Nunnallys who settled in Missouri in the 1840s. One Anderson Nunnally married in that state in the 1840s.

I, too, have leaned toward the idea that Joseph Nunnally, Jr., 4.4, could be the father of the Anderson Nunnally that I am researching. The problem with the search is that the given name Anderson was apparently one of the most popular names for all Virginia families during the 18th century. So many Anderson surnames were prominent during the early Virginia years that sons were probably named for neighbors without even a family connection. Since my own family research centers in Virginia on several lines, the given name Anderson is found in all areas.

I have a copy of the bible record of Leonard Nunnally who also, had a son Lawson - any connection? No one knows. Other Nunnally families have Lawsons and Harrisons. The 1850 TN census of Warren and Grundy counties have Nunley and variants with sons with those names. These families connect to Fran Koole of Schertz, TX and we have been unable to tie to any of the family of Anderson of Hickman Co., TN.

Since Martha Cooke sent you her information concerning the children of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunnally, I have found additional information which ties my husband's Joseph A. Nunneley to this family and the Alec mentioned by Martha as one of their sons, surely is our Joseph A. A document filed in Crawford Co., ARK in October, 1849, gives power of attorney to Joseph A. Nunley by the grandchildren of Anderson and Martha Nunley, namely, Mary Ann Turnbough and Martha E. Mosley, children of the daughter of Anderson and Martha, Livicy Nunley Criner to obtain their share of the estate of their grandparents. In 1852, Joseph A. Nunly received from the estate of Anderson and Martha Nunnly, $67.85 as an heir for the Criner children. See enclosed chronology. I feel that he was acting in this capacity for his deceased sister, Livicy Nunley Criner.

Another of the sons of Anderson and Martha went to ARK. John W. Nunneley went to Sevier Co. I have a copy of a letter he wrote in 1843 to his mother, Martha Nunneley in Hickman Co. in which he states he was glad his brother Alexander had been to see her and also glad that he had received some part of the estate from the executors. I presume this means that Alexander (Joseph A) had received his share from the estate of Anderson.

I am enclosing what information I have concerning the children of Anderson and Martha Nunnally in the event someone else contacts you. Much is unproven as far as I know and is a collection from many people.

Dear Mary,

We just returned from our vacation to Va. We went to my Mother's cottage on the Potomac river in Westmoreland Co. While I was there I took a day and went to Amelia Court house to try to find out if the James Clarke who died in 1840 (and fought in Rev) was the father of my Lewis. I had found reference to a case Clarke v Clarke in the Amelia deed book, but had not had success in finding the case. Also a will was mentioned in the deed, but I had never found it. The ladies at the court house were very helpful. I asked if they still had the original papers of court cases and was told that they did. After some searching in their index we found a Clarke v Clarke which was settled about 1920. I didn't think that this could be my case because mine began in 1858! Imagine my surprise when I opened a ribbon tied packet of papers about 3 inches thick and found my case! Not only that but there was a copy of James Clarke's will and my Lewis is named as a son! The reason, that I couldn't find the will, was because it was recorded in Richmond City 30 June 1840. He was in Richmond when he died! I copied $18 worth of papers while I was there. My Asa Clarke is even listed as a grand child along with all the other grandchildren. Now I can apply to the DAR on this James.

Do you remember that you ordered the papers on this James for me? The person who was accepted on this James does not appear to be a descendent. The children don't match - of course she didn't have the will.

This new information really has me in the mood to get started again. I can't wait to get all my materials unpacked!

I haven't gotten any farther on the Nunnallys. There could very well be original papers in Amelia which could answer some questions. I plan to go again the next time we are close.

I haven't ordered any VA film since we moved, but I will order some soon.

I'll write as I find new information.

Sincerely -

Lynn

P.S. I've filed the material on Andrews - Thank You. - Hope you are a new Grandmother by now.

5 Sept 1988

Dear Lynn,

Still not a new grandmother...Kathleen is five days over and I am getting nervous. Her doctor told her if it is not here by the 14th, he will put her in the hospital and give it a bit of help. I am ready to fly to Grand Junction, CO at a moments notice.

I am so excited about your find in Virginia concerning James Clark. I do not know how we missed the Chesterfield Order Book, #27, page 608. which lists his pension application deposition in a local court. I have checked the Chesterfield timeline and did not find it listed. Did I just miss it?

I wish you were still here. It would be wonderful for me to be able to sponsor you as an applicant for membership in Bartlesville Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. I would still like to sponsor you for our Chapter, if you are interested in non-resident member status. We have 27 non-resident members from CA to NJ and in between. We currently have an applicant in progress in Okla. City...so living in Bartlesville is not necessary. If you are interested, let me know.

Have you ordered the service and pension records for James Clarke from the National Archives? Note that there is a star by the name of James Clarke married Barbara Rock listed in the DAR Patriot Index. This indicates existence of pension papers. They might prove interesting if you do not have them. It might be more fun to order the rolls from AGLL and look at all of the James Clark/Clarkes to see if some material was filed in error. I know of one War of 1812 file that was in error. The file for Hopkins Rose of VA was filed under UMPKINS Rose. Someone abstracting all of the Rose files, War of 1812, found the error and could identify him as Hopkins from the material contained in the file. Hopkins was a son of my Charles Rose who served in the Revolution from NJ.
